SOUTH CAROLINA QUARREL AND FIERCE BLOWS.

When Tillman, Who Had Provoked the Insult, Closed on His Colleague, and Columbia Hides Her Face in Shame-Both Are Held to Be in Contempt of the Senate-Have in excellent condition. Lost Their Rights.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.-Washington's Birthday was signalized in the United States Senate by a fist fight. The two Senators from South Carolina were the active participants in the af-

Tillman, in the course of a speech upon the Philippine tariff bill, made serious reflections upon the honor of his colleague, McLaurin. In brief, he charged that McLaurin's vote in support of the ratification of the treaty of Paris had been cast through the exercise of improper influences.

McLaurin was not in the Chamber at the time, but he was sent for and appeared just as Tillman concluded his speech. Pale as ashes, McLaurin arose to address the Simile, speaking to a question of personal privilege. He reviewed Tillman's charges bridly, and then denounced the statement made by his colleague is a "wilful, maticious, McLaurin received a heavy blow on the forehead, while Tillman got punches on the nose which brought blood.

Assistant Sergeant at-Arms Laton sprang over the desks to reach and separate the combatants, and himself recolved several blows. He got between them finally, and by main strength waynched them apart. Senators Warnon of Wyoming, and Scott, of West Virginia, leaped to his assistance, and caught the arms of the belligerents, for ing them to their seats.

Intense excitement prevailed. Every Not a word, heely was on his feet. however, was spoken. The Senators stood about the Thamber, for a moment quite helpless, and pale to the lips. Finally order was restored partially, and in the midst of intense excitement the Senate went into secret executive For two hours it discussed broken wires. the event behind closed doors.

When the doors were opened it was made known that both of the South Carolina Senators, by unanimous vote, had been-declared to be in contempt of the Senate. They were permitted by a vote of the Senate to make apologies to the Senate. Their statements were listened to by both the Semitors and the people in the galleries, with breathless

Senator Tillman left the Capitol when adjournment was taken for recess and did not return for the night session. McLaurin was in the Chamber about 8 o'clock, but left carly. Neither Senator would make a statement.

To Assist Cuba.

Washington, Feb. 22. The Republican m mbers of the Ways and Means Computter, who have been considering the question of concessions to Cuba, finally reached an agreement this afternoon, which is considered a victory for those who have favored tariff concessions to that island. The action is practically the proposition submitted a few days ago by Representative Long, of Kansas, except that the amount of the conceasion is cut in half, and the conditionprecedent, that Cuba enact our immigration laws, is added.

PHILADELPHIA IS SHUT OFF FROM THE OUTSIDE WORLD

As Though Telegraph or Telephone Wires Did Not Exist-People Are Killed by Live Wires in the Streets, and Many Horses Lost Their Lives.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22 .- Mail advices from Philadelphia say that city is as completely shut off from all electrical communication with the outside world as though such a thing as a telegraph or a telephone wire never existed.

The storm is the most disastrous sleet storm, as far as wires are concerned, that ever visited that section. Within the city limits scarcely a single overhead wire is in working order. The poles are down in all directions, and wires are dangling from the housetops in nearly every street.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.

Daring Gang Made an Effort to Get at Treasure of a New York Bank.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.-What Is regarded as a daring attempt to get at the vaults of the Varick Bank, with Royal visitor by official Washington the intention of looting them, has just been made. The would-be robbers severely wounded a night watchman, who the White House. was the single protector of the vaults. Springing on Jam in the dark in the basement of the Wool Exchange Building, at Beach street and West Broadway, they knocked him senseless by a blow on the forehead that made a wide States, accompanying . It with an exgash in the skin. Trained for just such an emergency, he cried out as the blow fell. His cry, the noise which resuited from his fall, or perhaps the belief that they had killed him, frightened the men off and they escaped.

The treasure-room was perfectly guarded by electrical devices, and if the cracksmen had succeeded in entering, the police undoubtedly would have swooped down upon them.

After greetings had been extended, the President introduced the Prince to Mrs. Roosevelt and his daughter, Alice. After a few words with them the royal visitor was conducted into the Green Room and introduced to the members of the Cabinet and their ladies.

HIS ARRIVAL.

New York, Feb. 24.—Prince Henry of Prussia arrived at New York soon after noon yesterday. The Kronprinz Wilhelm, having the Prince on board, came within sight of the quarantine station at 9:47 a. m., and 10 minutes, later was steaming past worth, where she was boarded by the health officers. He was escorted to the Chamber of the Vice President, and Senator Frye greeted him and the members of his suite, after which Prince Henry and Ambassador von Holleben were ushered directly into the Senate Chamber. The Prince's first view of the Senate of the United States could hardly have been more dramatic and thrilling. The youthful Senator from Texas, Bailey, was hotly engaged with several of the older leaders on the Republican side over the right of the two Senators from South Carolina to vote on the Philippine bill. For fully twenty minutes the Prince sat completely engrossed by the scene before him, and then left the Chamber, the Senators rising as he departed.

THE PHILIPPINE TARIFF BILL

Tumultuous Debate

TILLMAN AND McLAURIN WERE NOT ALLOWED TO VOTE ON THIS MEASURE.

The Question as To Their Right to Participate in the Proceedings Precipitated a Sharp Fight - An Amendment Adopted Restricting the Operation of Sedition Laws in the Islands-Cuban Sugar Lands.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24. - After eight hours of tumultous debate, today, the Senate passed the Philippine Tariff bill, by a vote of 46 to 26 strictly a party vote. Tillman and McLaurin. who on Saturday were declared by the Senate to be in contempt because of their fight in the Chamber, were not permitted, by voice or by vote, to participate in the proceedings. The question as to their right to vote precipitated a sharp debate, lasting nearly two hours. President pro tem., Frye held that the two Senators could not vote, and he was sustained by a majority of the Senate.

During the debate on the Philippine bill, McComas and Wellington, of Muryland, became involved in a controversy.

Many amendments were the Philippine bill, but except those offered by the committee, only one, the amendment restricting the operation of sedition laws enacted by the Taft Commission, was passed.

As passed the measure provides that articles imported into the Philippine Archipelago from the United States shall be required to pay the levied against them by the Philippine Commission, and paid upon like articles imported into the Archipelago from foreign countries; that articles imported into the United States from the tured by the brigands in the District of Philippines, shall pay a duty of 75 per cent-of the rates fixed by the Dingley released, and arrived at Strumnitza,
