the same as the modified bill submitted by the Pacific Coast committee, only a few verbal corrections having been made.

The point which occasioned much consideration by the committee was whether or not the Chinese should be excluded from the Philippines, or whether the whole proposition should be left to the Philippine Commission.

The committee agreed to retain the proposition of absolute exclusion, taking the ground that the United States wanted to retain the Philippines for the Filipinos, and that the latter were as much opposed to the admission of Chinese as were the Americans.

The committee debated at length as to excluding Chinese sailors from the ships of American register. This provision was also retained in the bill, but with a proviso to the effect that in the case of accident, stress of weather, or serious illness, the captain of a vessel may ship a Chinese crew for the voyage, upon which he may have entered.

Aiding in the escape of Chinese held in detention is made a felony, punishable both by a fine and imprisonment. A new provision applies the exclusion provisions of the bill to Chinese who enter as merchants, students and the like, and become laborers.

GERMANS ARE PLEASED. They Think Prince Henry's Visit Has Had Good Influence.

BERLIN, March 12.—The semi-official North German Gazette, commenting upon the departure of Prince Henry of Prussia from the United States, referred in the warmest terms to the generous hospitality and unvarying courtesy and good will extended to the Emperor's representative, and continued:

"In the strengthening of the traditional friendly relation between the great, powerful and progressive nations, in the renewal of the new confidence, we couple in our thoughts with gratitude the countless thousands of American men and women who everywhere gave Prince Henry a joyful and sincere welcome.

"It is these perfectly spontaneous demonstrations of friendship, coming from all classes of a proud people, that give us confidence that the good feeling which has been engendered both here and there by the visit to the land of Washington, will continue its influence in the relations between Germany and the United States, politically untroubled as they are in a way to the advantage of both peoples."

Revised the semi-official declaration in the North German Gazette, which undoubtedly originated in the Foreign Office, other papers refer to Prince Henry's departure and express their appreciation of the regard of the United States for Germany as evidenced in the honors showered upon Prince Henry.
