A NOVEL CONTEST.

Torpedoboat Farragut Technically Sank a Big Battleship.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Mar. 28 .- The torpedo-boat Farragut shipped out of harbor tonight, with the design of technically torpedoeing the big battleship Wisconsin, lying at anchor off Coronado Beach. The Wisconsin had been notified that she might expect a visit from the destroyer. On board kept and the same precautions were taken as in actual war. The conditions were that the Farragut must get within 1500 yards of the battleship before the latter got the searchlights on her. The torpedoboat sneaked along toward the Wisconsin, narrowly mising a picket boat. When from 1000 to and a rocket proclaimed the fact. Those on the Farragut claim that they won, and theoretically sent the battleship to the bottom of the Pacific Ocean.

CECIL RHODES' WILL.

His Fortune Goes to Promote His Vast Imperial Plan of Education.

LONDON, Mar. 28. -The Daily Mail says, that the late Cecil Rhodesdeft the bulk of his fortune, except some persenal and family bequests, to the promotion of his vast Imperial plan of edneation. The project embraces every land where the Unfor. Jack flies. Its purpose is the intellectual betterment of the British race throughout the world, and the fostering of the Imperial sentiment.

NEW YORK, March 28 .- Minglishmen accustomed to tirades from the continent on the subject of the Jameson raid, are amazed, says the London correspondent to the Tribune, by the world-wide tributes to the unique greatness of Cccil Rhodes. Even the leading writers here were constrained by memories of the parliamentary inquiry, to admit his complicity in the raid against the Dutch republics, and estimate his blunders' as commensurate with his services to the jempire; but now that the world's press ranks him with Clive and Hastings as an empire builder, they are suggesting the substitution of Westminster Abbey for his place of burial instead of the Matoppo Hills-

Those intimate with Mr. Hawksley, who drew Mr. Rhodes' will, are confi dent that the mining and other investments have been pooled and left en bloc as a trust for the benefit of South Africa. Those closely associated with Mr. Rhodes do not expect special requests. They assert that it was one of Mr. Rhodes' cardinal principles that personal service should be well recompensed during his life and that the bulk of his fortune should be reserved for public purposes in South Africa.
