THE NATION'S CHIEF WELCOMED IN MANNER THAT MADE ALL FEEL JUBILANT.

The Reference to the Civil Conflict, and the Friendly Feeling Brought About by the War With Spain Greeted With Cheers by the South Carolina Statesmen—A Notable Function.

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 8.—A banquet, tendered to President Roosevelt, was affording close to a day full of incidents, and served to gather together men prominent in the affairs of State, having solely in mind the greeting of the President, which should prove the sincerity and warmth of the feeling existing for him as Chief Executive of the Nation.

"I should be indeed but a poor American myself, if I were not deeply touched and gratified by the way you have greeted me today. Around this table I see many men who took part in the great war. The war in which the younger among us here took part was a very little one, because it did not have to be any bigger. But it had one thoroughly good effect; it put a cap on the structure that has been building while we were almost unconscious of it, and it taught us how thoroughly one we were. When we got through that war it did not make a bit of difference whether it was the Admiral from Vermont or a Lieutenant from Alabama, if the man had done his duty in such shape as to make us each feel a thrill of pride in our common Nationality."

Mrs. Roosevelt was the guest of honor tonight, at the most notable reception given in this city in forty years. Mrs. Roosevelt is the first President's wife for whom a reception has ever been held here.

RESPECT AND ESTEEM SHOWN

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 9.—Greeted and honored by the manifestations of respect and esteem of enthusiastic thousands, President Roosevelt was the guest of the South Carolina Interstate and West Indian Exposition today. The weather was ideal. The events of the day began with a grand procession through the streets of Charleston, and afterwards there were speeches in the auditorium, the presentation of a sword by the President to Major Michah Jenkins, with a luncheon at the Woman's Building, and an inspection of the grounds and buildings. The enthusiasm of the people was unbounded. In handing the sword to Major Jenkins, the President said:

"Major Jenkins: Nothing could give me greater pleasure than to hand to you, my old friend and comrade, whose courage I saw tried time and again—whose courage was of the temper that made it indifferent what the trial was, to hand you this sword. I am glad to do it, as the guest of South Carolina, as President of the United States, but gladder to do it as your old friend and comrade."

More Consolidation.

Chicago, April 9.—The Record-Herald tomorrow will say: "Upon the authority of a large stockholder in the Plant system it is stated that the Pennsylvania interests will soon acquire possession of the allied Plant and Atlantic Coast Line systems. Heavy Fines.

Devries, of the Tramp Steamship Wihelmina, entered a plea of nolle prosequere to the charge of having smuggled three Chinamen into this country at Port Townsend. It is understood that no attempt will be made to confiscate the ship and the case is now considered ended.

White Man Turned Yellow.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. Only 50c. Sold by DR. STONE, druggist.

COULD NOT HEAR.

EUGENE, April 8.—Coroner G. W. Griffin today summoned a jury and held an inquest over the remains of James H. Nunn, who was killed Monday night by being struck by the north-bound local freight train of the Southern Pacific Company. The jury found no person to blame for the accident. It is still a debated question whether Nunn was walking to meet the moving train or whether he had his back to the train. The engineer declares the man was coming toward him, while the bruises on the body would indicate that he was struck from behind. Nunn was almost stone deaf, and evidently could not hear the train, even though the whistle was blown several times for him. He was carrying a lantern, and if he was walking toward the train he must have been looking at the ties or he would have seen the headlights.

In the old days the trip up and down the great Lakes was the favorite trip of travelers—there were no tourists then. The boats then used did not compare with those on the lakes; and the trip remains the finest one in the world of its sort.
