

PLEASANT AND PROFITABLE

Social Gatherings and Musical Entertainments of the Week

AN OLD-FASHIONED SPELLING SCHOOL AT A CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR MEETING—A MERRY BIRTHDAY PARTY IN ENGLEWOOD—LODGES ENTERTAIN.

Friday evening, at the Northwest Normal College rooms in the Murphy block, one of the most entertaining musicals of the season was enjoyed by a large audience, many of the visitors being compelled to stand throughout the recital. There were several enthusiastic recalls, all the participants doing well in their exercises. Those numbers of especial notice and merit were given by little Gertrude Cunningham, Gertrude Byars, Mr. Batt, Miss Nina Johnson, Miss Bella Ackerman and Miss Short. The art rooms were visited by a large number after the close of the exercises. The faculty and all taking part are gratified with the success of the evening's recital.

About forty of the young people of the First Christian church were very pleasantly entertained by Mrs. C. H. Walker on Friday evening it being the time for the regular business meeting and social of the Christian Endeavor society. A new "old-fashioned" surprise had been announced and it turned out to be a "spelling match." Several new ways of spelling words were learned for instance the pastor went down on his first word insisting that it was spelled "f-r-e-r-k-i-n," but under the strict rule of the teacher, Mrs. C. L. Watt, he had to submit. George Karpain and Mrs. Watt gave some comic readings during the evening, which were much enjoyed. Light refreshments were served by the pleasant hostess and at 11 o'clock the young people dispersed, hoping they might always remain as young in heart as Mrs. Walker.

A merry party of young folks gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Rullison, in Englewood, on the evening of April 28th, to join in celebrating the eighteenth anniversary of the birth of the daughter of the house, Miss Ruth Rullison. The evening passed very pleasantly in conversation and games and later lunch was served, consisting of cake, ice cream and fruit. Miss Ruth received several beautiful gifts, together with the good wishes of all present. Those in attendance were: Misses Ida Towne, Frances Brown, Annie Piegler, Mary Egler, Mabel Tolman, Lucille Chase, Abigail Chase, Edith Cleaver, Grace Lansing, Marguerite Ostrander, Ruth Rullison, and Messrs. William Towne, Le Roy Brown, W. D. Buscham, Clyde Shew, Orin Watkins, Alvin Finlay, Harold Mosher, Earl Cleaver, Lester Mosher, Eugene Rullison, and Le Roy C. Rullison.

The ladies of Sedgwick Post No. 11, Woman's Relief Corps, entertained the members of Sedgwick Post No. 10, G. A. R., in their hall in the Turner building last evening. The lodge rooms were beautifully decorated in appropriate floral designs and a brief literary and musical program was rendered, to the delight of all present, but the chief feature of the event was the wholesome refreshments which were served by the ladies and duly appreciated by their guests.

Prof. and Mrs. W. L. Cummings, of the Reform School yesterday celebrated the completion of thirty years of wedded life. The worthy couple left the school for their farm home, near Shaw, where their farm home is located and to their great surprise they found the house filled with neighbors and friends, and the table loaded with the good things for the inner man. A most enjoyable afternoon was spent at the hospitable Cummings home by all present.

The lodge rooms of Valley Lodge No. 18, A. O. U. W., and Viola Lodge No. 88, Degree of Honor, were the scenes of great festivity and beauty on last Monday evening in honor of the visit to those lodges of Grand Master C. C. Hogan, A. O. U. W., of Albany, and Grand Chief of Honor, Mrs. Wilma Belknap, of Prineville. Each lodge held a separate session during the fore part of the evening and entertained their individual guests but, later, the doors separating the two rooms were thrown open and a joint session was held. The rooms were gorgeously arrayed in all the beauty and splendor of an endless variety of spring blossoms and bright, green foliage which was arranged in a highly artistic manner. A splendid program, of a musical and literary nature, had been arranged and was rendered in a manner throughout which was very complimentary to the orders and greatly appreciated by the visitors, before the close of the evening, each of whom expressed their delight in the entertainment and spoke in glowing terms of praise of the respective lodges and the manner in which the work is conducted. At the conclusion of the program both bodies adjourned to the banquet room where a sumptuous repast had been spread and was flatteringly partaken of.

Last evening Miss Leda Van Buren entertained a number of friends at her home, corner of High and Court streets, celebrating her eighteenth birthday. The parlors were beautifully decorated in lilies, and apple blossoms were in great profusion in the dining room. Several guessing games were played and prizes were awarded to those guessing most of the numbers. A delicious luncheon was served, after which several vocal and instrumental selections were rendered, and conversation indulged in to a late hour, when the party disbanded, all expressing themselves highly entertained during the evening and wishing Miss Buren many happy returns of the day. Those fortunate enough to be present were: Misses Leda Van Buren, Nettie Beckner, Winifred Byard, Cora Talkington, Ruth Gabrielson, Mabel Whitney, Gertrude Gray, Mabel Robertson, Ethel De Parcy, and Margaret Messick, and Prof. W. H. McGill, Prof. L. A. Kerr,

THE SUPREME COURT'S WORK

Takes the Justices to Pendleton for Two Weeks

WHERE THE EASTERN OREGON TERM WILL BE HELD, BEGINNING TOMORROW—SEVERAL DECISIONS HANDED DOWN BEFORE THE COURT ADJOURNED.

The Oregon Supreme Court adjourned at noon yesterday, and last evening the Justices left for Pendleton, where, at 10 o'clock Monday morning, they will open court for the Eastern Oregon term. About forty cases are on the docket at Pendleton to be heard during the next two weeks, when the court will return here and the decisions will be written and handed down here.

CURED FRUIT ASSOCIATION

Of State of California Is in a Condition of Uncertainty

THE FUTURE OF THE COMBINE TO BE DETERMINED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING—DATE FIXED FOR JUNE 4TH—OF INTEREST TO OREGONIANS.

The prune growers of the Willamette valley in particular and Oregon in general will be interested in the news contained in the San Jose, Calif., Mercury of April 29th, concerning the California Cured-Fruit Association. It will be remembered that this was the association that attempted to control the whole prune crop of California—that early last year they undertook an advertising scheme to dispose of the crop of the season before on hand, and, on account of legal difficulties and other troubles encountered fell somewhat short of the mark. Some of these prunes of the season of 1920 are still on hand down there, though the crop of the 1921 season is about all sold.

Following are excerpts from the news item referred to: "The future of the California Cured-Fruit Association is in the air," so to speak. No one knows or ventures to say what the outcome will be. "The annual meeting of the combine will be held June 4th. This is the all-important gathering. It must then be determined what the association will do. If it is to be wound up and its assets converted into money and distributed among the members the convention must say so. The law then provides the method of dissolution and settlement. If it be determined by a majority vote to continue officers must be elected. Even if it be determined to wind up the association it is said that men must be chosen to do this.

"It is the belief now that there will arise some warm discussion at the annual meeting. There are some members who are anxious that the association continue and several prominent advocates of such a course from other counties are expected to be here. "In case it should be determined to continue some sort of an organization the present or the other, the question of growers' contracts will come up. These have been held by the courts to be of no effect, and it is conceded that it must be upon the loyalty and integrity of the members that a co-operative association must depend. At the same time it is said that without some sort of contract or pledge that is enforceable in the courts, any organization would be in an uncertain position and in a position to do business to the best advantage. The subject is expected to attract some attention."

Big Crop Assured.

TWO DAMAGE SUITS

SETTLED IN JUSTICE OF THE PEACE O'DONNELL'S COURT YESTERDAY.

The two damage suits in Justice of the Peace O'Donnell's court, which the plaintiff, F. A. Schubinger, brought against the defendant, John Misterek, recently were called for hearing yesterday. In the one the plaintiff asked for judgment for $250, the amount alleged to be due to the plaintiff on account of the mental and physical injury which he is alleged to have suffered by reason of an assault made upon him by the defendant about one month ago, and in the other the same plaintiff asked damages in the sum of $1250, the amount of damages which the plaintiff's hack is alleged to have received as a result of the same encounter.

CASTORIA

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

THE SUPREME COURT'S WORK

Takes the Justices to Pendleton for Two Weeks

WHERE THE EASTERN OREGON TERM WILL BE HELD, BEGINNING TOMORROW—SEVERAL DECISIONS HANDED DOWN BEFORE THE COURT ADJOURNED.

The Oregon Supreme Court adjourned at noon yesterday, and last evening the Justices left for Pendleton, where, at 10 o'clock Monday morning, they will open court for the Eastern Oregon term. About forty cases are on the docket at Pendleton to be heard during the next two weeks, when the court will return here and the decisions will be written and handed down here.

CURED FRUIT ASSOCIATION

Of State of California Is in a Condition of Uncertainty

THE FUTURE OF THE COMBINE TO BE DETERMINED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING—DATE FIXED FOR JUNE 4TH—OF INTEREST TO OREGONIANS.

The prune growers of the Willamette valley in particular and Oregon in general will be interested in the news contained in the San Jose, Calif., Mercury of April 29th, concerning the California Cured-Fruit Association. It will be remembered that this was the association that attempted to control the whole prune crop of California—that early last year they undertook an advertising scheme to dispose of the crop of the season before on hand, and, on account of legal difficulties and other troubles encountered fell somewhat short of the mark. Some of these prunes of the season of 1920 are still on hand down there, though the crop of the 1921 season is about all sold.

Following are excerpts from the news item referred to: "The future of the California Cured-Fruit Association is in the air," so to speak. No one knows or ventures to say what the outcome will be. "The annual meeting of the combine will be held June 4th. This is the all-important gathering. It must then be determined what the association will do. If it is to be wound up and its assets converted into money and distributed among the members the convention must say so. The law then provides the method of dissolution and settlement. If it be determined by a majority vote to continue officers must be elected. Even if it be determined to wind up the association it is said that men must be chosen to do this.

"It is the belief now that there will arise some warm discussion at the annual meeting. There are some members who are anxious that the association continue and several prominent advocates of such a course from other counties are expected to be here. "In case it should be determined to continue some sort of an organization the present or the other, the question of growers' contracts will come up. These have been held by the courts to be of no effect, and it is conceded that it must be upon the loyalty and integrity of the members that a co-operative association must depend. At the same time it is said that without some sort of contract or pledge that is enforceable in the courts, any organization would be in an uncertain position and in a position to do business to the best advantage. The subject is expected to attract some attention."

Big Crop Assured.

TWO DAMAGE SUITS

SETTLED IN JUSTICE OF THE PEACE O'DONNELL'S COURT YESTERDAY.

The two damage suits in Justice of the Peace O'Donnell's court, which the plaintiff, F. A. Schubinger, brought against the defendant, John Misterek, recently were called for hearing yesterday. In the one the plaintiff asked for judgment for $250, the amount alleged to be due to the plaintiff on account of the mental and physical injury which he is alleged to have suffered by reason of an assault made upon him by the defendant about one month ago, and in the other the same plaintiff asked damages in the sum of $1250, the amount of damages which the plaintiff's hack is alleged to have received as a result of the same encounter.

CASTORIA

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

THE SUPREME COURT'S WORK

Takes the Justices to Pendleton for Two Weeks

WHERE THE EASTERN OREGON TERM WILL BE HELD, BEGINNING TOMORROW—SEVERAL DECISIONS HANDED DOWN BEFORE THE COURT ADJOURNED.

The Oregon Supreme Court adjourned at noon yesterday, and last evening the Justices left for Pendleton, where, at 10 o'clock Monday morning, they will open court for the Eastern Oregon term. About forty cases are on the docket at Pendleton to be heard during the next two weeks, when the court will return here and the decisions will be written and handed down here.

CURED FRUIT ASSOCIATION

Of State of California Is in a Condition of Uncertainty

THE FUTURE OF THE COMBINE TO BE DETERMINED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING—DATE FIXED FOR JUNE 4TH—OF INTEREST TO OREGONIANS.

The prune growers of the Willamette valley in particular and Oregon in general will be interested in the news contained in the San Jose, Calif., Mercury of April 29th, concerning the California Cured-Fruit Association. It will be remembered that this was the association that attempted to control the whole prune crop of California—that early last year they undertook an advertising scheme to dispose of the crop of the season before on hand, and, on account of legal difficulties and other troubles encountered fell somewhat short of the mark. Some of these prunes of the season of 1920 are still on hand down there, though the crop of the 1921 season is about all sold.

Following are excerpts from the news item referred to: "The future of the California Cured-Fruit Association is in the air," so to speak. No one knows or ventures to say what the outcome will be. "The annual meeting of the combine will be held June 4th. This is the all-important gathering. It must then be determined what the association will do. If it is to be wound up and its assets converted into money and distributed among the members the convention must say so. The law then provides the method of dissolution and settlement. If it be determined by a majority vote to continue officers must be elected. Even if it be determined to wind up the association it is said that men must be chosen to do this.

"It is the belief now that there will arise some warm discussion at the annual meeting. There are some members who are anxious that the association continue and several prominent advocates of such a course from other counties are expected to be here. "In case it should be determined to continue some sort of an organization the present or the other, the question of growers' contracts will come up. These have been held by the courts to be of no effect, and it is conceded that it must be upon the loyalty and integrity of the members that a co-operative association must depend. At the same time it is said that without some sort of contract or pledge that is enforceable in the courts, any organization would be in an uncertain position and in a position to do business to the best advantage. The subject is expected to attract some attention."

Big Crop Assured.

TWO DAMAGE SUITS

SETTLED IN JUSTICE OF THE PEACE O'DONNELL'S COURT YESTERDAY.

The two damage suits in Justice of the Peace O'Donnell's court, which the plaintiff, F. A. Schubinger, brought against the defendant, John Misterek, recently were called for hearing yesterday. In the one the plaintiff asked for judgment for $250, the amount alleged to be due to the plaintiff on account of the mental and physical injury which he is alleged to have suffered by reason of an assault made upon him by the defendant about one month ago, and in the other the same plaintiff asked damages in the sum of $1250, the amount of damages which the plaintiff's hack is alleged to have received as a result of the same encounter.

CASTORIA

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, and has been made under his personal supervision for over 30 years. Allow no one to deceive you in this. Counterfeits, imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments, and endanger the health of Children—Experience against Experiment.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher
In Use For Over 30 Years.

Greenbaum's

Dry Goods
...Store...

New Goods in Large Quantities Received this Week.

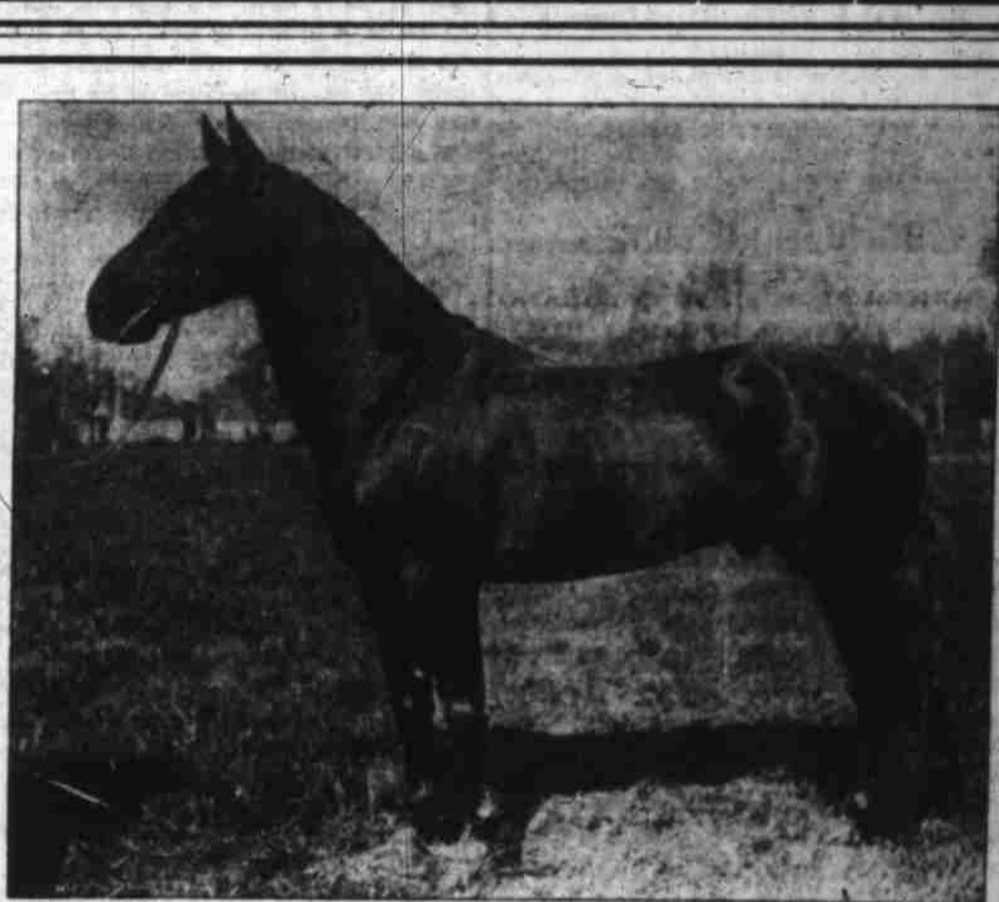

Muslin Underwear: Nightgowns, Chemise, Drawers, Corset Covers, Skirts in great variety. There never was such fine goods at such low prices.

Infant's Wear: Short and long Dresses, Skirts, Slips, Caps and Bibs. Good qualities, little prices.

Silk Mitts and Gloves 15c a pair

Millinery Department: Receiving new goods every day.

Greenbaum's Dry Goods Store
Next Door to the Postoffice

BROADHEART

Reg. No. 35668. BLACK STALLION. 13 3/4 Hands High. Weight 1150 pounds. Six years old.

Sired by McLANAHAN 2347, on of Roy Wilkes 2:06 1/2.

First dam, MIRA GOLDDUST, by Pedro 3904 2:25, son of Idol 44, sire Pidot 2:04 1/2, etc. Second dam FANNY GOLDDUST, by Guide 1197, sire of 15 dams of 17 in the list. Third dam KIT, by Goldust 150, sire of Lucille Goldust 2:16 1/4, Fleety Goldust 2:20, etc.

BROADHEART is one of the finest stallions in the state, and with but little handling shows himself to be a very promising trotter. He will be allowed to serve a few mares at $25 BY THE SEASON, WITH USUAL RETURN PRIVILEGE.

I invite breeders to come and see this horse before breeding their mares elsewhere.

W. O. TRINE, FAIR GROUNDS, OR.

Holmdel 5290

Seal Brown Stallion; star, near hind foot white, and a very few white hairs on right front foot; 15 3/4 hands high. Bred by C. F. Emery, Forest City Stock Farm, Cleveland, Ohio. Foaled June 1, 1921. Will make the season, 1922, at the Red Front Barn, corner Trade and Commercial Streets, Salem, Oregon.

His colts may be seen at the State Fair Grounds.

Claggett & Hatch, Props

SENATORIAL CANVASS IN ILLINOIS.

The Republicans of Illinois have a choice between a man of Mr. Hitt's eminence and standing, who is fairly representative of the party, and the other candidates who have presented themselves.

Mr. Hitt never has depended on the arts of the politician for advancement. The diplomatic appointment he has held came to him unasked. He has not solicited the successive nominations as representative he has received. The wishes of his constituents, who were proud of the record he was making, kept him in the house, where, as the head of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, he has long been a potent factor in both parliamentary and diplomatic affairs.

Mr. Hitt is qualified in all respects to be a Senator from Illinois. Many able men have represented the state in the Senate. They will not have an unworthy successor in Mr. Hitt. He has ability and experience. He has the confidence of all elements in his own state and in the nation. In electing Mr. Hitt Illinois will honor itself almost more than it will honor him.

There are other good candidates, but there is not one of them who cannot afford to wait a few years and make an opportunity for their senator to round out a career which Lincoln thought was to be a famous one. A general agreement that Mr. Hitt shall be the candidate for the senate will be a recognition of the obligations of the state to him. Such an agreement will pacify all discordant elements in the party for the time being and make it possible to go into the coming campaign with a united front.—Chicago Tribune.

SMITH RENOMINATED.

CARBONDALE, Ill., May 3.—The Republicans of the 22d District have renominated Congressman W. G. Smith.

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher