THE COURSE OF STUDY.

Prof. W. A. Wann, the Democratic normnee for superintendent of Public Instruction, is flooding the state with a deluge of letters calling the attention of the people to the awful. system of education under which we have states that are progressive in educational matters have worked for many years. The following from his letter shows the burden of his complaint:

RIn my opinion the principal cause of the unsatisfactory results from our if family quarrels can be laid aside for schools is that so much is given our even the essential branches, can be ted and hearty support of the whole pected to obey orders, and must at tempt to cram the mind of the pupil of victory. with all that is in the course of study, afthough a large part of it is of absolutely no use to the children, either now or in the future."

He devotes one page with Spelling and Arithmetic, and leaves the glaring headlines to the subject, conidea that he would throw out Cram- taining such phrases as the following: mar, History, Geography, Civil Government and Physiology. It requires no orgament to show how unsatisfactory our schools would be with these Germany has the best public school system in the world, and it is said the pupils in the school there are required to do much more than in America. At fifteen years of age the child is expected to be able to take up Latin, Algebra and other studies our children prices are due to scarcity, and if that would not think of taking up so early. They are at least two years ahead of our pupils in advancement.

Mr. Wann has undertaken a big job to overturn the work of Horace Mann and a hundred other master minds who have brought into existence our through an appeal to the courts. It ple of that state will have every reason present school system.

I ONE INSTANCE.

The anti- imperialists would have you believe that the "water cure" employed by the American soldiers as a measure of entertainment and to gratify a desire to punish innocent Filipinos out of a spirit of cruelty. This is not so, and one instance of the use of the "water cure" may serve to indicate the motives that prompt Americans to resort to it.

Private O'Herne of Co. I, 25th Infantry, was on duty with his regiment in the island of Panav. In June, 1900 he was returning from Iloilo with a detachment when they were ambuscaded, and all captured but O'Herne He made his way to a settlement of amigos, joining the party of natives which had professed friendliness. These "amigos" devoted all the following day to his torture and death, beginning at daylight by cutting him with bolos and then roasting him until sunset on a slow fire.

The application of the "water cure" in this instance revealed the identity crat to occupy a seat in the Upper of six of the murderers of O'Herne and led to their capture and execution, The order to apply the "water cure" did not come from President McKinley in Washington, nor from General Otis, nor even from a brigade or regimental commander. The responsibility for it was upon a few soldiers who assumed the authority to administer the treat ment without the knowledge of their superiors. Whether the end justifies the means employed is a question. But so long as we countenance the burning means his injury. of negroes at the stake in the South for all kinds of offenses we should not worry so much about the gentle victims of the "water cure" in the Philippines. When the antis from the ne gro-burning states have looked after lawlessness and cruel punishment at home they may expend some of their sympathy for the Filipino who deliberately makes himself a patient for the water cure."

WORK TO DO.

Republicans must get down to business. They must put aside their family quarrels for a few-weeks and devote all their energies and fighting strength against the common enemy. They have much to do. There is a Unfted States Senator to elect. He must be a Republican and in sympathy with the policies of the party. A Republican Legisature must be elected that Oregon may send a man to the National Senate who stands for expansion of American trade and the revote for C. E. S. Wood for United took the examinations did States Senator, a vote against retention of the Philippines. It would be suicidal to the interests of the state, and no Republican can at this time afford to vote for a Democrat for the Legislature. There is too much politics in positions of this kind to let personal or factional differences interfere.

The Republicans have two Congressmen also to elect. There is little doubt but they will be able to accomplish this, yet their election should not be taken for granted. They must have the united and active support of the party. Their vote more than any other will be taken as an expression of the people on the Philippine quesbeen working and under which all tion and should be made as large as possible. Republicans have a full state and county ticket to elect to employ their spare moments and give to their energies. In fact, there is a lot to do, and well learned. Most teachers realize ticket should be the watchword for calmly await the fray with assurance

OREGON IS INTERESTED.

The Oregon farmer is deeply interested in the agitation going on in the He also says that he believes that East over the high prices of meat. All tariff on live stock. The New York M7. Wann does not state just what Journal, published by Hearst, who is

Congress if it so wills can at once repeal the Dingley duties, and let in free the mutton, beef and branches excluded from the course of pork of Canada and Mexico, That would bring prices down on the run." 'Off with the tariff on beef, veal, mutton and pork!" "Let that be the cry of post of duty he displayed exceptional every victim of the local trust."

The Detroit Fress Press, a Democratic journal, in a recent Issue quotes the duty upon cattle, sheep and dressed meats, and adds:

is the case, the removal of the duty would afford a remedy. The markets of the United States should be thrown open to Canadian cattle and sheep, as ing a nomination to the Oregon Legwell as to refrigerated beef of Argentine and Australia. The demand for cheaper meats is immediate; and imrational method of proceedings against cheaper meats must be had by removal Standard, Albert Lee, Minn. of the tariff duties. As the larger packers would still control the slaughtering and distribution in the East, it raiser who would be injured by the repeal of the tariff. This is the Democratic remedy. This is the new depart-ure called for by the Mississippi Democracy in urging the Democrats to turn from the West and ally themselves with the East. It means to strike at food products produced in the West and probably return to the old theory of free raw material. The tariff reform now demanded by the Democracy is against the farmer more than against manufacturers. HOW DO THE ORE-GON FARMERS LIKE THIS DEMO-CRATIC PROGRAMME? Our farmers are now engaged in the work of improving their live stock and raising and securing more of it. Do they intend to vote for the Democratic candidates for Congress or Democratic candidates for the Legislature, who may choose a Democratic Senator, or the Democratic candidate for Governor, who may appoint a Demo-House of the National law making body to work with the Democracy of the East to repeal the duties on products that will compete with their producs? THE BEEF STEER, OR THE MUT-TON SHEEP, OR THE FAT HOG, IS THE FINISHED PRODUCT OF THE OREGON FARMER. HIS RAW MA-TERIALS ARE HIS PASTURES AND FIELDS. The Oregon farmer would better look to his interests. "The "free raw materials" cry of the Democracy

PORTO RICO'S EXAMPLE

The people of the Philippines can see, by the example of Porto Rico, what to themselves. The Porto Ricans accepted American rule gladly in 1898. The teriffic hurricane which devastated the island a little later, wrought immense damage to the plantations, and caused much suffering to the rural laborers, but the effects were all repaired within a year. Porto Rico now exports five times as much as she did prior to 1898, and imports three times as much-a condition only possible through prosperity.

There has never been any discontent concerning American rule, nor has there ever been a single charge of cruelty, dishonesty or other wrong-doing on the part of any American citizen. The young people have been eager to learn our language, our history, and our ways of doing things. The civil service officials who conducted examtention of the Philippines. A vote for inations in Porto Rico for appointive well as did the American applicants. Most of them knew English perfectly, and their knowledge of American geography was excellent. There is nothing in Porto Rico to demonstrate the horrors of "imperialism," as defined by the Boston school of anti-expansion-

Now that armed rebellion in the Philippines is so small as to be a negfigible quantity-if we except the spot of war among the savage Moro tribe of Mindanao-we may expect the same results to follow stable conditions there Porto Rico. The same prosperity and content will prevail. Peace is the first condition necessary to inaugurate this desirable condition.

The above from the Toledo Blade indicates the solution of the Philippine question. Peace will solve it. The nations living under American authority in the Philippines are satisfied. But these do not represent the people nor a small part of them. The great majority of the inhabitants are happy and contented. They see the advantage of schools, good roads and sanitary measures, and if the people had a chance to express themselves, fourfifths would stand for the present government by this country.

GOOD RECOMMENDATION.

A score or more of years ago Hon. Frank Davey, now of Salem, Oregon, was a prominent resident of one of the northwestern Iowa counties and one of the most influential men in that part of he state. For several terms was county, superintendent of schools, and was called to serve in other important stations, and in every ability, and every trust confided to him was executed with fidelity and honor. Recalling all this and his manliness and his loyal and inestimable friend-"The meat trust insists that the high ship, it is a source of special gratification to learn that his useful career since he has been in the far west has been made more notable by his receivislature. The vote for Tongue and Williamson will be the expression of the people on the Philippine ouestion, and it should be strong and decisive. They are good men with good records in official life. They represent the policies of the Republican party in this campaign and are entitled to the vote of all who believe in Republican principles.

It took a jury only eight minutes to decide a $50,000 damage suit against the Oregonian Thursday, Mr. Mack, onof the Multnomah county commissionrs, saw in a news item in that publition something that he thought injured him. He at once brought suit for $50,000, which sum he thought would partially cover the injury done him at least. But after eight minutes delibation the jury concluded that the Oregonian was not liable for any injury that may have resulted from a news peaceful conditions will speedily bring item which it printed. Of course a newspaper that pretends to give news often prints articles that are not always agreeable to the likes and interests of a few individuals. The courts are not in the habit of giving these individuals much encouragement, yet they are contnually bobbing up and demanding damages for their supposed injuries. People expect to get the news in real newspapers, and it is the duty of such journals to furnish it. If courts and juries listened more intently and patiently to the pleas of the bats, vultures and scavengers of the legal profession and their clients, or if the law leaned more to the support of their champerty and lust for vengeance, the publication of newspapers of value to the community and character in would be impossible.

The Republicans of Marion county a Democrat for the Legislature is a positions report that the natives who should stand together, and fight shoulder to shoulder in the coming contest. Every Republican on the ticket from United States Senator to constable has a claim upon the united support of the party and should have it. If Republicans start in to oppose any part of it, others who would naturally support the whole ticket will retaliate, and knifing will be carried on to such an extent as to materially effect the majorities. There is no occasion for anything of this kind. The nominees have all been officially and legally placed on the ticket. The Australian ballot law provides different ways for placing that have been the result of peace in names on the ballot. One way is by petition. Governor Geer's name has ized labor has no occasion to oppose been placed there by 3000 Republicans and no one will deny but his nomination was as fairly secured as that of any name on the ticket, since the State Republican convention did not fill this place for Senator. All aspirants for Senatorial honors had an opportunity to have their names come before the people with Governor Geer. By their refusal to do so they virtually concede the nomination to Geer, and he in entitled to the united support of Republicans, the same as any other candidate of that party on the ticket, islands to this country

> The destruction of St. Pierre and the leath of its 25,000 inhabitants by voland calls forth the deepest sympathy of all. But this is nothing new in the world's history for it is estimated that more than 13,000,000 people have perished from this cause. Nor is the great number destroyed by one eruption without a parallel in modern times: In 1626, 70,000 people were killed by a volcanic eruption near Naples, and in 1693 an eruption of Mt. Aetna, accompanied by a fearful earthquake, partially or totally destroyed forty towns and caused the loss of 100,000 lives. In 1763 a volcane caused the death of 190,000 on the Island of Yeddo, Japan. them gives entire satisfaction. More than 50,000 people were destroyed August 27, 1883, on the Island of Java. It is hoped that the latest horror from seismic disturbance may prove less terrible than reported, but it seems scarcely possible that many could escape when the city was so quickly and completely destroyed,

W. H. Hobson will poll a heavy vote in the east end of the county, where he has many personal friends. He has resided at Stayton for years and is favorably known all over that section of the country. The Democratic party believes in the scuttle policy in education also. nominee for Superintendent is advocating the abandonment of the present system of education and wants to go back to the methods of fifty years ago when Reading, Arithmetic, Spelling and Writing were the only branches taught. This might be all right for the rich, who can afford to send their children to a private school to get an education, but it would be hard on the children of the poor, who would be sent out into the world with only a knowledge of these branches.

The feeble opposition that Democrats are putting up against the Republican them. county ticket dees not make the campaign in this county very lively. The quietness is remarkable. The Republicans are united, and without a weak place in their ticket, they calmly await election day with assurance of victory, Republicans, however, should not forget that there is an election ahead and should labor from now until June 2d that the full vote may be cast and the majorities very much increased.

Frank Davey, the Irishman on the Republican ticket, candidate for Repesentative, fully deserves the recognition given him by the county nominating convention. He is a whole-souled gentleman, orator of ability, and will prove a representative of the whole people. There is no doubt of his election, which is conceded by both Republicans and Democrats .- Aurora Borelis Here is a case of the Germans supporting the Irish.

If Mr. Wann is elected Superintendnt of Public Instruction he proposes to turn the school system upside down. He says that half of the studies may be excluded from the course of study. He is a reformer from away back and expects to everthrow the work of Horace Mann and the wisdom of the hundreds of teachers who have given their best thought to the formation of a course of study.

The doctor owes his great wh ress partly to the mysterious power of electricity, in which he has become so well versed. Electricity is the wender of the age, and the mode of treatment is the acme of perfection. It penetrates the secret ambush of disease and externing ates its roots and branch, forever.
