PORTLAND CAMP MEETING

THE STATESMAN'S CORRESPONDENT TELLS OF HIS VISIT TO THE METROPOLIS.

(From Wednesday's Statesman.)

On board the steamer Ruth, Monday morning, June 2d, Editor Statesman: My first report closed with the beginning of conference work and with the meetings well under way. This brings the work of this great convention to a close which ended with the 7:45 service last evening. Prof. E. L. Stewart, of Walla Walla College, preached the concluding discourse dwelling upon the social and moral conditions of the present time. The speaker while he cannot be called eloquent is an attractive preacher and all his sermons were sought after and fully attended. The Salem church was well represented. Some are returning on this boat, others will come Wednesday, and some will return by team. The "Northern Pacific Conference" of this people no longer exists, two new conferences being organized during the six or eight meetings of the executive powers of the great anniversary. The "Western Oregon Conference of Seventh Day Adventists" embraces all the territory of Oregon from the summit of the Cascades to the Pacific. Eld. F. M. Berg, of Portland, is the new president and brings to his work new enthusiasm and strong, youthful courage and efficiency. The officers and headquarters of this conference are at Portland, at 508 East Everett street. The "Western Washington Conference of Seventh Day Adventists" embraces all the state of Washington from the summit of the Cascades west. This is the other new conference. Elder S. W. Neils is president of it. He is also a young man of ability and energy and will no doubt direct the work under his charge successfully. The headquarters of this conference are at Seattle, Wash. Thus the territory of the old North Pacific Conference is divided as indicated.

though that part of it east of the Cascades remains to be disposed of at some future time. The growing work of this people on the Pacific Coast rendered these new moves necessary. Elder H. W. Decker thought a strong man has laid down the burden of work he has carried on this coast so long solely for so many years, and has been assigned work as I understand in California. His labors with us have been an eminent success, and his ministry has been one of courage and upbuilding. We bid our old president, who has been to us all a father in Christ, Godspeed in his future labors. The attendance was probably 800 and harmony attended all the meetings, both religious and official. I understand that Alaska and the Hawaiian Islands are to be outposts of missionary effort under the direction of the newly created conferences. Mr. H. H. Hall and Mr. S. C. Osborne both of Oakland, Calif., labored in behalf of the bookwork. Mr. Hall is manager of the book department of the Pacific Press Publishing Company, located at Oakland, the headquarters of the publishing work for this coast. Mr. Osborne is traveling agent and missionary embracing the states of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Utah, Montana and others. Prof. M. E. Cady, president of the Healdsburg, Calif., College, and Prof. C. C. Lewis, of Walla Walla, Wash. College, were present to give instruction along educational lines. Both are earnest workers and authors of educational books. I must not forget in closing, the musical work of Prof. J. W. Beardsley, of Walla Walla College. He had charge of the singing and has a voice of great compass and expression, and his work is everywhere appreciated.

Daily children's meetings including Kindergarten work were features of the meetings. The next annual gathering will probably be held at Eugene, though this has not been decided. The Sabbath School work received attention, the contributions of the two sabbaths being $63.40. Thus closed the conference year. The future holds out encouraging prospects. The workers go forth full of faith and hope in the Master's service.

I attended Memorial services at Lone Hill cemetery which were no doubt what they ought to be, though I could not get very near the speaker for the immense crowds. Saturday, the 31st, H. C. J. Wollaker, of Seattle, and C. J. Cole, of Portland, were set apart to the work of Gospel ministry by appropriate services, the former is of Swedish descent and will continue his labors among the Scandinavians, the latter will labor among those of English nationality. PLEASANT POINT.

IS AGAIN ARRESTED

A MAN CONVICTED OF STEALING A BICYCLE—IS SERVING HIS SECOND TERM.

(From Wednesday's Statesman.)

H. P. Friar, who was released from the county jail on Sunday, June 1st, having completed a two months' sentence for the larceny of a bicycle, was re-arrested upon a warrant from Justice of the Peace O'Donald's court, on April 23d, was arraigned in that court at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, plead guilty to the charge of larceny of Dr. D. P. Lane's bicycle, on April 1st, and was fined $40 by the court, upon default of which he was committed to jail for 30 days.

When Friar completes this sentence he will have to answer to the charge of the theft of O. J. Hull's bicycle which was committed about the same time as the others.

THE REBELLION CHECKED

LATE ADVICES FROM THE ORIENT SHOW LESS DANGER FROM CHINESE REBELS.

VICTORIA, B. C., June 3.—Late advices brought by the steamer Japan are to the effect that the capture of the rebel leader Nung Yung Sung has given a check to the Kwangsi rebellion and the troops sent to the relief of Nanning met with very little opposition. Steamers are now running to Nanning and the forts that town are being strengthened under the supervision of an American sergeant and the missionaries.

THE WEATHER AND CROPS

Weekly Bulletin Issued by the Weather Bureau Station

CONDITION OF GRAIN CROP CONTINUES THE SAME AND THE YIELD PROMISES TO BE LARGE—ENCOURAGING FRUIT REPORTS RECEIVED.

(From Wednesday's Statesman.)

The weekly crop bulletin issued by the United States Department of Agriculture, Weather Bureau, Oregon station, for the week ending Monday evening, June 2d, is given herewith. The general summary shows a very satisfactory condition of crops, and fruit reports are encouraging. The bulletin is as follows:

The past week has been one of great extremes in temperature. The first two days were bright and warm, after which it turned cool and cloudy. Frequent small showers have fallen during the latter portion of the week, and on several mornings during temporary clearing spells, light frosts occurred in the eastern portion of the state.

The maximum, or day temperature in Western Oregon ranged between 54 and 59 degrees, and the minimum, or night temperatures between 42 and 46 degrees. In Eastern Oregon the maximum temperatures ranged between 50 and 56 degrees and the minimum temperatures between 34 and 36 degrees.

The condition of grain continues good especially in the eastern portion of the state. There has been plenty of moisture for spring-sown wheat, and as the plant has stood nicely the yield promises to be larger than usual. Fall wheat is heading, but owing to the cool weather, it is making slow advancement, and steady, mild temperatures are now needed to mature a plump and hard kernel.

Some alfalfa has been cut in Southern Oregon, and clover and alfalfa is generally ready for harvesting, which is retarded by the unsettled condition of the weather. Pastures continue in excellent condition and stock is now fat and sleek. Sheep shearing is progressing slowly and the clip will probably be an average one.

Sugar beets in Union county are being thinned and the crop is doing nicely. Gardens, corn, potatoes and hops, all need warmer weather, but the crops are promising, although very backward.

The warm weather during the first of the week brought in a number of encouraging fruit reports to the effect that the damage to prunes, cherries and pears was not as great as expected, but the weather later became unfavorable, and the damage in the Willamette valley to Italian prunes, royal Ann cherries and Bartlett pears is considerable. In Southern and Eastern Oregon the fruit outlook is very promising, but the crops are very backward.

The general health of the institution is reported as excellent—work in all departments is progressing—cost of operation.

(From Wednesday's Statesman.)

The Board of Trustees for the State Insane Asylum held the regular monthly business meeting at the Capitol yesterday afternoon, and received the report of Supt. J. F. Calbreath for the month of May. Supt. Calbreath, in his letter of transmittal said in part:

VERY LITTLE CEREMONY

WHEN THE BOERS AND BRITISH SIGNED THE AGREEMENT FOR AFRICAN PEACE.

PRETORIA, Monday, June 2.—The signing of the peace agreement on Saturday night last was carried out with the least possible ceremony, by Lord Kitchener and Lord Milner and General Dewet and others representing the Orange Free State, and General Schalk-burger and others of the Transvaal Government, quietly in the dining-room of the residence occupied by the burgher delegates, adjoining Lord Kitchener's house. The document lay on a table ready. Amid profound silence the Boer leaders took a pen in order of precedence and affixed their signatures, thus surrendering the independence for which they had so gallantly struggled.

The document was then entrusted to Colonel Hamilton, Lord Kitchener's military secretary, and Captain Marker, an aide-de-camp, who left Pretoria tonight to deliver it to King Edward.

There was great rejoicing at all the concentration camps upon the news that peace had been concluded. The occupants assembled in the open spaces and chanted psalms, the women weeping with joy.

Arrangements are now being made to send representatives of each unit of the British Army in South Africa to participate in the coronation festivities in London.
