Mrs. Frank M. Corini and daughter, of Oakland, California, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Brown.

Supreme Lodge Reports. The thirtieth stated meeting of the Supreme Lodge, Ancient Order of United Workmen, convened last Tuesday in Portland.

Supreme Master Workman A. C. Harwick, of Buffalo, submitted a lengthy report on his work and official acts.

Following the serving of refreshments, Frank Davey mounted a platform among the tables and calling for order introduced Governor T. T. Geer.

Growth of the Order. Supreme Recorder M. W. Sackett, of Meadville, Pa., submitted one of his exhaustive statistical reports.

Reception Notes. When the visitors left, a number of young ladies in the crowd showered rice upon all coming in their way.

FAT NERVES. A whirl of excitement was recently caused in the scientific world by the news that the mystery of nerve action has been solved.

It is announced that healthy nerves are fat nerves - and that it is the fat in the core of the nerve which is sensitive and by hardening and softening creates nerve action.

Maybe this explains why Scott's Emulsion has always been such a remarkable remedy for nervousness.

Scott's Emulsion feeds thin nerves with the best of all fats, the pure cod-liver oil and strengthens them with the best of nerve tonics, the hypophosphites.

For all forms of nervousness and neuralgia take Scott's Emulsion.

Death Claims Paid. Since the order was established in this state the lodges have paid to June 1, 1902, death claims, amounting in all to about $2,900,000.

Of the protection in force $2,530,000 is represented by $1,000 policies, and $689,784.990 by the $25,000 certificates. Taking the statistics of the entire order the cost during 1901 for each $1,000 of insurance, exclusive of lodge dues, which average $4 per year, was $12.

The average membership per lodge was forty-one in 1880. In 1901 it was seventy-five. Each year has shown an increase in this average.

Let's this evening a majority of the officers and the other members came to Vancouver for rest, and to await the arrival of the hounds, when the search will be resumed in earnest tomorrow morning.
