JOSEPHINE COUNTY MINERS SAY MUCH MINERAL LAND IS BEING TAKEN UP ILLEGALLY.
GRANTS PASS, June 21.—Indignation still continues here on the part of the miners, regarding the wholesale manner in which timber lands, so called, are being taken up by Eastern locators.
The miners say that timber claims are being filed on daily in Josephine county that are valuable mineral lands. In some cases it is stated there is scarcely enough timber on the claim to fence it, the evident purpose being to get the mineral land. The miners have no objection to timber being taken up, but they believe that the Easterners are taking up much more land and calling it timber, merely for the value it will have from a mineral standpoint in the future.
The idea the miners have in view is to solicit subscriptions and procure funds to employ a competent judge whose duty it will be to examine all lands located in the county, and if he deems it more valuable for its mineral than its timber, to enter a protest against the issuing of patents for such lands.
Some interesting results may yet be expected from the controversy before it is settled.

cession through London's streets next Friday, says a World dispatch from London. The official list originally placed Mr. Reid in a carriage with Turkish Pasha, special representative of the Sultan of Turkey, and Admiral Georvais, representing the French Republic, and according to court usages they would occupy the rear seat, while Mr. Reid sat with his back to the horses. King Edward is said to have heard of the arrangement and to have immediately directed that the representative of the United States be provided with an exclusive carriage.
WASHINGTON, June 21.—Senator Morgan and Representative Hepburn, representing the Senate and House conferees on the Isthmian Canal bill, were together today to arrange the preliminaries for the meeting of the conferees. They are first of all for a canal, and while favorable to the Nicaragua route they will not insist upon that route to the extent of defeating all legislation. As soon as it becomes evident that the Senate will not yield the Spooner amendment will be accepted as the best solution possible.

THE TURNER CAMPMEETING

Large Crowds in Attendance on the Sunday Services

THE OREGON CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY CONVENTION HELD ITS BUSINESS SESSION YESTERDAY, AND DISPOSED OF SOME IMPORTANT MATTERS

TURNER, Or., June 23.—Yesterday, the first Sunday at the Turner campmeeting, was bright and warm, and a large crowd—estimated at 3500 people—was in attendance, many coming from distant points in Oregon, while Washington and Idaho are also represented among the visitors.
At 10 a. m. a Sunday school was conducted with about 1000 pupils in attendance. Rev. Flora G. Esson, acting as superintendent, conducted the school.
At 11 a. m. a large chorus, led by Prof. G. A. Wirtz, of Albany, rendered several selections, as the opening numbers for the forenoon service, one of the most important of the meeting. Rev. Charles R. Scoville, of Chicago, the evangelist, preached the discourse at this hour, on the theme, "The Alpha and Omega of the Christ's Earth Life." Rev. Scoville after taking for his text Matthew 4: 1-11, said in part: "These notable things had just happened and the Master is led away into the wilderness. He had been baptized in the Jordan, being buried as the child of Mary and arising as the Savior of the world. A voice had just been heard, God himself speaking to the earth, and the spirit in dove form appears again as it appeared once when the earth was emerging from the mighty deluge in the days of Noah. So again the dove appears, for the earth is once more arising from the deluge of sin—not of 40 days, but of 40 centuries.
The minister discussed the joy and grief, the sunshine and shadow, in the lives of all, as it was in the life of the Master, and said:
"The place was a wilderness, a striking emblem of the conditions of the world he came to save. We must all in leaving Egyptian bondage of sin pass through the wilderness of temptation to our promised land. Adam and Eve, tempted, gained the victory and opened the gates of paradise again to a lost world. 'My will, not thine, be done' turned paradise into a desert. They will, not mine, be done, turned that desert into a paradise and opened the gates of Heaven."
The preacher drew numerous and well applied lessons from the temptations, and concluded:
"The last temptation was bold, unmasked, undisguised, overpowering appeal to the higher motives, noblest feelings and master passions of human nature. 'All the kingdoms and all their glory,' the price of self-surrender. It was Satan's masterpiece, but the captor was led captive, for Jesus was the death of death.
"The Omega was the scene in Gethsemane. Satan had dodged and harassed every step of the Christ from his baptism in Jordan, and coming to his last evening on earth, denied, betrayed, rejected, bruised and displeased, with the sin of the world upon him; the man of sorrows was about to be overcome. The Lord laid upon him the iniquity of us all, and the crucial moment of his inestimable sorrows and suffering, he cried to the Father to let the cup pass, meaning not that he was afraid to die; for he was no coward—but rather meaning, let me not die here, and the cup appeared. An angel appeared, strengthening him. In the moment of victory, he cried from the cross: 'I have finished the work thou gavest me to do.' A world was redeemed, and all Heaven broke forth with psalms and hallelujahs."
At 3 p. m., the large bell in the tower of the Tabernacle again called the worshippers together when Evangelist B. E. Burton preached a sermon on "The Divinity of Christ;" this was followed at 4 p. m., by the communion service. At 8 p. m., Dr. Scoville preached to a large audience and an excellent musical program was rendered.

Monday's Services.
At 9 o'clock this morning E. C. Sanderson gave a lecture on the versions of the Bible, history of present arrangement of books, etc. He recommended the Revised Version for use and especially the American Standard Revised Version. Some reasons for the Bible study he gave are worthy of mention:
First, It gives a true conception of God. Second, Historic relation of the Bible to human progress. Third, It is incomparable as a book of ethics. Fourth, It shows the gradual development of the divine plan of salvation. Fifth, It contains the fundamental principles of government. Moses is worthy of first place as a law-giver. Sixth, It prescribes a rule for individual life. Seventh, It furnishes strength to resist evil. Eighth, It is a telescope of faith to look beyond.
At 10 o'clock, Merton L. Rose, the president, called the Oregon Christian Missionary Convention (properly to order for business. The following committees were appointed:
Pres.—J. P. Gormley, A. E. Gardner.
Program.—G. S. O. Humbert, W. T. Matlock, L. D. Green.
Nominations.—W. A. Wood, J. B. Holmes, Harry Benton, J. F. Gormley, W. T. West, J. E. Todd, Dr. J. S. Dale.
Future Work.—J. S. McCallum, Wm. F. Cowden, J. B. Lister, P. P. Underwood, Albyn Esson.
Auditing.—J. F. Tout, A. L. Platt, B. L. Murphy.
Resolutions.—Geo. C. Ritchey, E. C. Sanderson, Mrs. Clara G. Esson, Mrs. J. B. Holmes, Geo. A. Webb, Mrs. J. L. Berry.
Obituary.—Mrs. Ella Humbert, Mrs. W. H. Osborn, Mrs. C. A. Schibred.
Enrollment.—V. E. Hoven, Mrs. H. A. Nelson.
The program committee adopted the provisional program, substituting for absentees, and the report was unanimously adopted.
Corresponding Secretary J. B. Lister then made his report. The receipts for the year past are: On the grounds, $409.91; life members of O. C. M. C., $485; churches, $466.33; Sunday schools, $55.72; C. E. Societies, $49.50; song books sold, $83.88; for year books, $19.40; miscellaneous, $2.75; total receipts, $1648.04.

The treasurer W. A. Wood made his report. Both reports were referred to the auditing committee.
At 11 o'clock Charles R. Scoville gave a very interesting address on "Organized Evangelism." This subject is to be continued.
The afternoon session was begun by a devotional service led by J. F. Tout, of Eugene. Then followed the report of J. B. Lister state evangelist. It is full of encouragement. He reported having materially aided several congregations revive and provide for regular work; also holding a number of meetings which resulted in a goodly number of additions to the respective congregations.
At this time several new preachers in the state—having come into Oregon in the last year—were introduced to the convention.
Rev. W. F. Cowden spoke on "Development of Mission Points to a Condition of Self Support." He is well qualified to speak on such a topic, having been for a number of years missionary secretary in the Northwest. His address was well received. He warned against withdrawing support from a mission point before it can support its own work.
"The Bible and Missions" was the subject of an excellent address by J. S. McCallum. The Bible does not favor home missions or foreign missions, as such, singly or particularly, but it favors and supports missions. Its application is world-wide. The man who is not fully imbued with the spirit of missions is not filled with the spirit of Christ. What we need is to be more fully imbued with the spirit of missions. There isn't anything connected with a church of Christ but that is missionary.
Convention Notes.
Some late arrivals are: Revs. V. E. Hoven, Leon Green and E. C. Sanderson, of Eugene; Rev. A. L. Platt, of McMinnville; J. H. Shupe, of Roseburg; Mrs. L. M. Perkins and daughters, of Drain; Dr. J. S. Dale, of Eugene; W. F. Cowden, of Tacoma, Wash.; E. C. Wignore, of Monmouth, and W. D. Swain, from Iowa.
The Portland ministers returned today for the remainder of the convention.
The usual rain has come, but Oregonians are not outdone by it. The sessions are well attended.
Saturday Evening.
Saturday evening Charles R. Scoville delivered a sermon on the subject "Miraculous Creation," which was a masterpiece of evidence and profound reasoning, making the theories of infidels and material-evolutionists fallacies and their defense of them farces. He reasoned largely from things found in the great book of nature but not neglecting the positive declarations of Holy Writ. These latter explain and reveal where man falls and would give up in despair or simply utter the agnostic's wall: "I don't know." He showed that the greatest minds of modern times have rendered allegiance to Jesus Christ as the divine Savior.
The committee on nominations in the Ministerial Association named for officers for the next year the following, who were elected: J. P. Gormley, president; Geo. C. Ritchey, vice-president; G. S. O. Humbert, secretary.

THE RECRUITING OFFICE
SECURES MORE APPLICANTS FOR PLACES ON BOARD SHIP THAN EXPECTED.
Lieut. J. P. Morton, U. S. N., and his staff of recruiting officers are well pleased with the results of their efforts in this city. So far their success far exceeds their expectations. Up to last evening fourteen applicants for apprenticeship in the United States Navy had been accepted and mustered in and four others, who had passed a satisfactory physical examination and were otherwise eligible for enlistment, had departed to obtain their parents' consent. Several more applications have been filed and the applicants will be examined today and the recruiting officers feel confident that no less than thirty will be enlisted in this city.
The names of those already accepted and mustered in, their residences and particular service to which they have been assigned and salaries received, follow:
Landmen for training at $16 per month: Thomas Edgar Osborne, Portland; Fred Earl Lightner, Bakersfield, Cal.; John Luther Landreth, Salem; Howard Elkins Heath, McMinnville; Fred Mark Pearce, Salem; Geo. Rodney Gale, Salem.
Hospital apprentice at $30 per month: Charles Raymond Miller, Elgin.
Apprentice (3d class) at $9 per month: Walter Edward Dabney, Salem; Guy Clifford Jones, Portland; Robert Lawry Boyle, Portland; John Robert Scones, Woodburn.
Landman for Yeoman at $30 per month: James Pemberton Aitken, Salem.
Fireman (2d class) at $30 per month: Arthur John Glasou, Salem.
Coal passer at $22 per month: Augustus Duffy, Salem.
All those already accepted will be shipped tonight, the apprentices for landmen and training to go to the San Francisco training station where they will receive six months training, be sent on a sea cruise of six months' duration at the expiration of which they will be assigned to duty on the U. S. man-of-war. The others will go to the Mare Island Navy Yard and be placed on a training ship. The recruiting office will be open all day today and if the officers receive encouragement sufficient to warrant them in staying over a day or two they will do so.
