JESSE MORRISON GUILTY

WOMAN KILLS HER RIVAL IN LOVE CONVICTED ON THIRD TRIAL IN KANSAS.

ELDORADO, Kan., June 29.—Jesse Morrison, in her third trial for murder of Mrs. Olin Castle at her home in this city in June, 1900, was today found guilty of murder in the second degree. The jury was out 12 hours. The case may be appealed again.
Jesse Morrison killed Clara Wiley Castle with a razor in a quarrel eight days after Mrs. Castle had been married to Olin Castle, with whom both women had been in love. Miss Morrison is the daughter of H. M. Morrison, formerly a Circuit Court judge. The first trial resulted in a disagreement. At the second trial Miss Morrison was found guilty of manslaughter and given a five-year sentence. She spent but two months in the Penitentiary, being granted a new trial last February.
As the foreman finished reading the verdict this morning Miss Morrison turned pale, threw her arms around her aged father's neck, hid her head on his shoulder and both wept bitterly. Later in her cell Miss Morrison refused to talk other than to say that she had not expected a conviction, adding:
"The judge was against me from the first to the last."

JUDGE MASON'S OPINION

He was Deaf, and His Hearing Was Restored by Dr. Darrin's New Mode of Treatment

The truly wonderful cures Dr. Darrin, at the Willamette Hotel, has accomplished are being testified to by a host of afflicted sufferers who can be seen and consulted on the miraculous cures on their behalf. It is safe to say that no specialist has attained the prominence of Dr. Darrin in this country, and he cannot help but meet with grand success.

Those who are disposed to doubt Dr. Darrin's cures will have their doubts shaken on reading the following card from Judge O. P. Mason, of Portland, now residing in Seattle, a man well and favorably known to all our readers. His case will go far to establish the skill of Dr. Darrin, who cured him eight years ago:

Dr. Darrin, Dear Sir: Your electrical treatment is most undoubtedly a wonderful success. I have been for a number of years gradually becoming deaf, particularly in my left ear. For the last few years I have feared that I would be compelled to give up my law practice entirely, as at times I could not hear well enough to understand what witnesses testified to unless they spoke in a high tone of voice. A short time ago I commenced treating with you, and now can hear as well as I could 20 years ago. In fact I find no difficulty at all in hearing any one speak in an ordinary tone of voice. I am frank to say that in my case your treatment has been a success. I am sorry that I did not apply to you sooner. Refer anyone to me.

O. P. MASON.
Dr. Darrin will be located at the Willamette Hotel until September 1st, having extended his time owing to his extensive practice.

IN SECOND DEPARTMENT

JUDGE BOISE YESTERDAY RENDERED A DECISION IN AN IMPORTANT CASE.

Judge R. P. Boise yesterday convened the second department of the State Circuit Court in the regular June term, remained in session all day, and will continue through the week. The most important feature of the day's proceedings was the rendering of a decree in the case of D. B. Steves, et al., plaintiffs, vs. Willis Bros. & Co., defendants.

This is a suit in equity for an accounting between the corporation and the stockholders, which was commenced last fall and tried during the February term of court. The court held that Eugene Willis had collected moneys belonging to the corporation of 40 per cent of the capital stock ($18,000) amounting to $7,200 for which he had rendered no account to the stockholders except the sum of 8 per cent, or $1,440, and decreed that he was a trustee of the balance, or 32 per cent, and decreed that he pay the sum over to the stockholders of the corporation. Eugene Willis was president of the corporation and collected all moneys due. J. H. McNary and R. P. Bonham were the attorneys for the plaintiff in the case and Brown & Wrigman and R. J. Fleming were the defendants' attorneys.

Other cases on the docket came up and were disposed of as follows:
F. J. Beatty, plaintiff, vs. Branch No. 1 Labor Exchange, defendant; receivership; continued.
Edward Fry, plaintiff, vs. Sarah Wood, et al., defendants; to quiet title; demurrer to complaint.
Edward A. Jory, plaintiff, vs. Josie Jory, defendant; divorce; demurrer to complaint argued.
L. W. Durant, plaintiff, vs. E. H. Wright, defendant; receivership; report filed; decree accepting report and receiver discharged.
J. G. Wright, plaintiff, vs. R. C. Halley, et al., defendants; foreclosure; demurrer to answer overruled.
Joanna Pugh, plaintiff, vs. John Hamilton, et al., defendants; injunction; trial for July 9th, at 10 a. m.
C. A. Whale, plaintiff, vs. Claud

Washington, June 28.—It is announced by the War Department that the case of General J. B. Smith will not be acted upon finally before the end of next week, at the earliest. Judge Advocate General Davis has completed his review of the proceedings of the court-martial, and the papers are now in the hands of Secretary Root. It has been generally understood that General Smith was acquitted by the court, but it transpired that such was not the
