TO IMPROVE SALEM'S PARK

Unused Fourth of July Celebration Money is Needed

FOR THE ERECTION OF A NEAT BAND STAND IN MARION SQUARE—LADIES READY TO UNDERTAKE THE WORK AND BEAUTIFY THE PLACE.

The Fourth of July committee has some of its funds left, and when all bills are paid will have a tidy little balance. This condition of affairs—a very satisfactory condition, by the way—suggests the need of taking steps to beautify Salem, and the unexpended balance in the hands of the Fourth of July committee would, properly applied, be an excellent beginning in this direction.

Miss Kitty Harbord and several other ladies early this spring began a movement with a view to securing the improvement of Marion Square, by the erection therein of a neat, cosy, comfortable band stand, suitable for concerts by the bands, and at the same time sufficiently roomy to make an excellent speaker's stand for Fourth of July celebrations and other public gatherings. Miss Harbord and her associates had the matter under way when the Capital City Improvement League was organized several months ago, and the matter of improvements was transferred to that organization. But nothing was done, although the erection of a new band and speaker's stand was earnestly desired for this, Salem's popular place of meeting.

Miss Harbord and her associates have again taken up the matter, and are urging the erection of neat structure in Marion Square, suitable for the purposes of meetings, one that will be a credit to the community and an ornament to the park. The building could be erected at a comparatively small cost, and would be a vast improvement over the unsightly shed now disgracing Salem's beautiful forest park, and which, at the celebration on Friday, caused many Salem people to feel heartily ashamed of the short-sightedness that allowed such a thing to be used as a speaker's stand in Oregon's Capital City.

The money in the hands of the celebration committee should, if it is possible to do so, be turned over to Miss Harbord and her associates, to be expended in beautifying Marion Square as outlined above—by the building of a neat structure for a band stand and speaker's rostrum; it could be sufficiently high to leave room underneath for the storing of a number of benches, that could also be constructed for very little money. The ladies have an offer from an architect to design a neat building free of charge; there is nearly enough money to construct the proposed building the move would be an immensely popular one; the ladies are anxious to do the work and it would be the first important step toward beautifying Greater Salem. In view of this condition, why should these ladies not have charge of the work, and be given the unused celebration money? There is no good reason for refusing their request, and the majority of the committee being favorable to the project, it is to be earnestly hoped that the plans of the ladies will be carried through to success, and every loyal citizen of Salem will bless them for it.

NEW COUNTY OFFICERS

Were Installed in Their Several Positions Yesterday

SHERIFF B. B. COLBATH APPOINTED HIS DEPUTIES, NAMING JOHN O. ESTES AND JAMES L. SKIPTON—EX-SHERIFF WILL REMAIN IN THE OFFICE FOR A TIME.

The new county officers were sworn into office yesterday forenoon, and at once took possession and began their duties.

Sheriff B. B. Colbath, on assuming the office, named John O. Estes and James L. Skipton as deputies. Ex-Sheriff F. W. Durbin was also sworn in as a deputy, and will assist Mr. Colbath for a time. Mr. Estes was deputy under Sheriff Durbin for the past three years, and is a good officer. Mr. Skipton served as deputy sheriff in Benton county for three years before coming to Salem six years ago, and has a good record as an officer. Sheriff Colbath's appointments give excellent satisfaction, and show the good judgment of the new sheriff in a favorable light.

County Clerk J. W. Roland also assumed his duties and installed the deputies named in Sunday's Statesman. County Recorder J. C. Siegmund has temporarily appointed his predecessor, J. H. Roland, as deputy. Treasurer W. Y. Richardson, for the present, needs no deputy.

The County Court. The Marion county commissioners' court continued in regular session yesterday morning all members being present and a considerable amount of business was transacted. The first thing the court did was to take up the official bonds of the newly elected county officers, which were carried over from Saturday's session, all of which were approved and accepted and the appointments of clerks and deputies were also ratified. The list of new county officials and the corresponding amount of their bonds, follows: John W. Roland (county clerk), $10,000; John C. Siegmund (recorder), $1,000.

W. Y. Richardson (Treasurer)	50,000
B. B. Colbath (sheriff)	40,000
All of the road supervisors for the several districts in the county have filed their bonds in the sum of $400 each, but the court had not acted upon them up to adjournment last evening. The names of the supervisors who have filed bonds and the districts in which they have been elected to serve follow:

RATES AGAIN REDUCED

From all points. Before you make definite arrangements for that trip East let us quote you rates via the Illinois Central Railroad. Our rates are the lowest to be had, and it will pay you to write us. If you haven't time to communicate with us tell the agent from whom you purchase your ticket that you want to travel by way of the Illinois Central, and you will never regret the trip. If any of your relatives or friends in the East are coming West while the low rates are in effect, write us about them, and we will see that they get the lowest rates with the best service. Through tourist cars, free personal conducted excursion cars, free reclining chair cars, in fact all the latest conveniences known to modern railroading. For particulars regarding rates, time, service, stop-overs, different connections and routes, etc., call on or address B. H. Trumbull, Commercial Agent, 143 Third street, Portland, Or.

PRISON GUARD RESIGNS

W. M. Fine, first guard at the Penitentiary, has resigned and is going to his home at Oregon City, where he has accepted a more lucrative position. Mr. Fine has been one of the most reliable and attentive officials at the prison and quits on his own motion, to the regret of the management, for the reason that he can do better at his business. He speaks in high terms of the management of the prison, Messrs. Lee and Jones, and regrets leaving so many friends among the officials there.

Agriculture.

Columbus, O., July 1.—Secretary Wilson delivered the address at the inaugural exercises of the Graduate School of Agriculture tonight. Speaking of the agricultural possibilities in Alaska, he predicted that the day is not far distant when the value of its agricultural products will exceed that of its mines.

The maximum temperature for the 24 hours previous to 2 o'clock p. m. yesterday was 66 degrees Fahrenheit, and the minimum 48 degrees. The stage of the river was 5.5 feet above low water mark and gradually falling.

CHANGES AT THE CAPITOL

Hon. F. A. Moore is Chief Justice; Hon. R. S. Bean Associate

OPINIONS HANDED DOWN BY COURT — FISH COMMISSIONER REED OUT OF OFFICE — THE BARBER SUNDAY CLOSING LAW IS UPHOLD.

In the Supreme Court, yesterday, Chief Justice Bean retired from that position, and became Junior Associate Justice, while the Senior Associate Justice, Hon. F. A. Moore became Chief Justice for the next two years. Justices Bean and Moore exchanged office rooms, the apartment adjoining the Supreme Court room being retained as the office for the Chief Justice.

The court yesterday handed down opinions in a number of cases recently heard on appeal. Among them were the following:

E. C. Reed appellant vs. F. I. Dunbar, Secretary of State, respondent; appeal from Marion county. Opinion by Chief Justice R. S. Bean.

This was a mandamus proceeding to compel the defendant, as Secretary of State to draw a warrant in favor of the plaintiff, for salary alleged to be due him as Fish Commissioner for March 1901, and for expenses for the same time. The alternative writ alleges that in April, 1898, plaintiff was appointed Fish Commissioner in pursuance of a Legislative act, approved October 18, 1898, the term ending October, 1901. Plaintiff alleges that in April, 1901, he presented his bill for salary and expenses for three months and that the Secretary of State refused to pay any more than an amount sufficient to cover the salary and expenses for January and February; plaintiff alleges that he is the duly appointed and acting Fish Commissioner. A demurrer to the alternative writ was sustained on the ground that the office of Fish Commissioner was abolished by the Legislature in 1901 and ceased to exist on March 1st of that year. The plaintiff insisted that the question of the repeal of the act under which the plaintiff was appointed could not be considered by the court because the case comes on a demurrer to the alternative writ but the appellate court holds that, if the act has been repealed and the office abolished, the court will take judicial knowledge of the fact. The court in its opinion recounts in detail the fisheries legislation of 1898, and the creation of the office of Fish Commissioner. It further details the legislation on the same subject had in 1901. The court says that this last act contains no repealing clause, and repeals by implication are never favored; and that when two acts upon the same subject exist, effect will be given to both, if possible. But where they are repugnant or when the new act revises the whole subject-matter and is plainly intended as a substitution therefor, it will operate as a repeal of the old law, even though it contains no express provision to that effect. A glance at the provisions of the new law, the court says, will show that it was intended as a repeal of the act of 1898. The court, therefore, holds that the office of Fish Commissioner was abolished, and that the law of 1901 is valid; that it operated to repeal the act of 1898, under which the plaintiff was appointed. The judgment of the court below is, therefore, affirmed.

In the matter of the application W. M. Northrup, for a Writ of Habeas Corpus; vs. W. M. Northrup, appellant vs. the State of Oregon, respondent; appeal from Multnomah county. Hons. John S. Cleland, Jr., Judge, and Alfred F. Sears, Associate Justice, C. E. Wolverson, I. The plaintiff was convicted of carrying on the business of barbering on Sunday, in violation of the act, passed by the Legislature of 1901, making such action a misdemeanor. While in custody of an officer, charged with this offense he instituted a proceeding in the Circuit Court by habeas corpus, to secure his release, and being unsuccessful, he prosecuted this appeal. The legislative act complained of was challenged on the ground that it was in derogation of the Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States, and to section 1, article 1, and section 23, article 4 of the Constitution of the State of Oregon. The petition holds that there is no Sunday law, and, therefore, the closing act was invalid in that it was class legislation. The court holds that it is not class legislation, and that, as the law is valid, and not contrary to the Constitution, the petition is dismissed and the judgment of the lower court affirmed.

Other cases decided by the court were: M. A. Lawry, respondent vs. H. V. Sterling, Thomas Wade and A. Ferguson, appellants; appeal from Union county. Hon. Robert Eakin, judge, affirmed. Opinion by Associate Justice F. A. Moore.

School district No. 116, appellant vs. H. M. Palmer, et al., county commissioners for Linn county, and W. L. Jackson, county superintendent, constituting the District Boundary Board for Linn county, respondents; an appeal from Linn county. Hon. R. P. Boise, judge, reversed. Opinion by Associate Justice C. E. Wolverson.

Upon the affidavit of John Parsons, yesterday, County Clerk John W. Roland issued his first marriage license to Mr. Roy L. Ballinger and Miss Grace Edith Long. A license to wed was also issued to E. L. Coffey and Miss Ethel L. Connett, W. C. Johnson witness.
