SHERIFF CUDIHEE'S STOOL-PIG-EON TURNS OUT TO BE A DIME NOVEL FIEND FROM WHATCOM THE BLOODY RAGS IN THE SAWYER LAKE CABINA

SEATTLE, Wash., July 18 .- A spectal to the Post-Intelligencer, from Auburn, Wash., says:

Tracy has completely disappeared from this vicinity. The excitement of Commission of Cardinals, the Pope has the past week has dled down, and unless the resourceful desperado again starts in a pilgrimage through some reasonable and signifying a readiness section of King county, his name will soon be forgotton. Since the last failure near Covington, the people are beminning to believe Tracy has bid farewell to the Green river valley, and decided to give the Pierce county officials an opportunity to chase him.

Cudihee Was Jobbed.

Whatcom, Wash., July 18 .- The man who supposedly acted as stool-pigeon for Sheriff Cudihee, and piloted him to the lonely cable on the banks of Saw-Tracy's hiding place, went from this when his relatives here learned of what he had done, they telegraphed Sheriff Cudihee not to pay any attention to the man as he is thoroughly unreliable. They say he has gained ideas of man-hunting from reading five-cent novels. He formed the plan of capturing the convict by ingratiating himself into his confidence, and then betraying him. The relatives here say that he wounded arm, and that the bloody rags found in the lonely cabin were taken from it, and placed there by Ward.
