

ROOSEVELT IS DISPLEASED

His Acceptances of Invitations to Make Speeches

HAVE BEEN MISCONSTRUED

He Will Not Make a Political Campaign Anywhere

PAYMENT TO BE MADE OF ALL CLAIMS ON ACCOUNT OF PRESIDENT MCKINLEY'S LAST ILLNESS AS SOON AS ALL BILLS ARE PRESENTED.

OYSTER BAY, L. I., July 23.—President Roosevelt is displeased somewhat by the misinterpretation of his motives in accepting invitations to meet and speak to the people of the several sections of the country this fall. It has been announced in some places that Mr. Roosevelt is to make a campaign, particularly in New York, with the idea of offsetting any aggressive opposition to his political views. It can be said that he has no such intention. Such invitations to speak, as he has accepted, have come from people representing all shades of political opinion. While his addresses will be along Republican lines, so far as they may relate to politics, they will not be political speeches.

Washington, July 23.—Secretary Shaw and Secretary Cortelyou had a final conference today, regarding the payment of accounts resulting from the illness, death and interment of President McKinley. The Treasury Department has sent notice to every person who is to receive any of the appropriation made by Congress for the purpose, to forward the claim and voucher when the money will be transmitted shortly thereafter.

Boston, Mass., July 23.—Everything is in readiness for the great banquet of the New England Democratic League, which is to be held at Nantucket Beach tomorrow, and at which at least four men of National reputation are to give their views on questions of political importance. The presiding officer will be Major Patrick A. Collins, of Boston, and the speakers will be William J. Bryan, Edward M. Shepard and Senator E. M. Carmack.

Not a Candidate. Boise, Idaho, July 23.—Ex-Governor Frank Steunenberg, in a letter to Attorney General Martin, made public today, sets at rest all talk of his being a candidate for the Senate before the Democratic-legislative caucus.

A PRETTY WEDDING

MR. CHESTER A. PARVIN AND MISS GRACE M. DRAPER UNITED FOR LIFE.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at high noon yesterday at the residence of J. G. Burggraf, on North Commercial street, when Miss Grace Mae Draper, the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Draper, was united in holy wedlock to Mr. Chester Allan Parvin. The interior of the house was very neatly and beautifully decorated for the occasion, and the ceremony, which was attended only by the relatives and immediate friends of the contracting parties, was very impressively performed by Rev. H. A. Ketchum, D. D., of the First Presbyterian church. The bride and groom were the proud recipients of many valuable and serviceable presents.

The bride is a young, beautiful highly respected and accomplished lady well known in this city, and the groom is the youngest son of Prof. and Mrs. Z. M. Parvin, a young man of excellent qualifications and sterling abilities, and both have a host of friends and acquaintances in this city who wish them joy and prosperity in their happy alliance. After the ceremony the guests were served with delightful refreshments and the couple departed on the afternoon overland yesterday, amid a shower of rice, old shoes, and good wishes, for Portland, where they will sojourn for a few days expecting to spend a brief season at the seaside before returning to take up their residence in this city.

THE PAPAL ALEGATE

FOR THE PHILIPPINES IS APPOINTED — BISHOP MONTGOMERY, OF LOS ANGELES.

DENVER, Colo., July 23.—A telegram from Washington, D. C., today says, Bishop George W. Montgomery, of Los Angeles, has been appointed Papal Alegate to the Philippines, at the request of President Roosevelt.

Denver, Colo., July 23.—Resolutions have been unanimously adopted by the Catholic clergy of the Denver diocese assembled in annual retreat, which take views of the school question and the friar question in the Philippines, differing from those recently expressed by Archbishop Ireland. They protest against the forcible removal of the friars as a violation of the Constitution.

THE PICKING OF HOPS

PRICE TO BE PAID FOR HARVESTING THE CROP — TALK OF FORTY CENTS.

The price to be paid hop pickers is beginning to be talked about, and growers are anxious as to the result. All growers are anxious to have their hops picked this year, as the market price will be better than for years, and the picking of the crop will engage the thought of the growers from now until the hops are safely housed. The Portland Telegram of last evening, in discussing the hop picking, says: "Hop growers of the Willamette valley expect to pay 40 cents a box for picking this year, though some of them fear they will have to pay 45. Henry Miller, a prominent grower of Aurora, who is in the city today, thinks 40 cents will be satisfactory to both grower and picker, as the market bids fail to justify the cost, while the pickers can make wages at 40 cents.

Last year an attempt was made to have the hops picked for 25 cents, Mr. Miller said, but the move was a disastrous one, as many families refused to go to the fields, and the growers had to pay 40 at last. The delay in getting their crop picked resulted from the move to cut the price down.

"The hops look fine this season, and I have no fears of lice, as this weather is not favorable to the growth of the pest. Much spraying is being done, however, as the prospect of good prices stimulates the growers to do all they can to save the crops."

"Hop picking will not begin until September, and it is rather early at this time to predict as to the quality or quantity saved. The weather thus far has been very favorable and if we have good luck the crop of 1922 will be above the average in bulk and condition when baled."

"The hop picking season is looked upon by many families as a picnic, and those who cannot go to seaside or mountain combine pleasure with business in helping to save the hops. All ages and both sexes find recreation in the September outing, although when people go to the fields just for fun alone, they are soon given to understand that work and not play is what the growers invited them from the city for. Hop picking scatters more money in trade channels than any other industry according to the amount invested, and the retailers of the state all get the benefit of it, both before and after the hops are picked."

ROBBERY IN OLD MEXICO

Express Car on Mexican Central Looted by Bandits

AMERICANS DID THE JOB

Two Trains in Collision on the Northern Pacific

TWO VESSELS COLLIDE OFF THE PORT OF EUREKA, CALIFORNIA, AND BOTH BADLY DAMAGED — CASUALTIES IN SEVERAL DIFFERENT LOCALITIES.

EL PASO, Tex., July 23.—A daring hold-up took place on the Mexican Central, about 12:30 o'clock yesterday morning. At Bernillo, three Americans boarded the train, two secreting themselves on the blind baggage, and the other entering a third class coach. As soon as the train pulled out, the two riding on the blind baggage entered the express car, and covering the messenger with their guns ordered him to throw up his hands. The messenger offered no resistance. The robbers then went leisurely through the safe, securing $50,000 in currency consigned to the Banco Minero at Chihuahua. They also took what other money packages were in the safe, and dropped off the train as it was slowing down.

Two Trains Collided. TACOMA, Wash., July 23.—A collision occurred tonight on the Northern Pacific at Sumner, between the North Coast Limited and a freight train backing onto a switch. Both engines were dented and the mail and baggage cars thrown from their trucks. No one was hurt. The wreck will be cleared within a few hours.

JAPANESE PULL FLAX

Eugene Bosse Secures a Number of Oriental Laborers

TO ASSIST HIM IN SAVING HIS FIRST CROP IN OREGON—CALIFORNIA FRUIT GROWERS HAVE ALSO BEEN COMPELLED TO EMPLOY JAPANESE.

Eugene Bosse, the local representative of the Eastern syndicate in promoting the flax fibre industry in this city, is feeling more encouraged over the prospect of getting his initial crop harvested than he was at the close of last week when he could procure no help except a host of children who would go out and fuss and fret around for an hour or two and then quit and leave him in the lurch. The situation began to look so gloomy to him, having 100 acres of flax ready for harvest and no harvesters, that on Sunday morning last, he went to Portland and made an effort to employ a number of Japanese, but he came back equally discouraged, if not more so, with the knowledge that it was almost as difficult to secure laborers in Portland as in Salem. He left the matter in the hands of an employment agency, however, and yesterday morning six Japanese arrived and were put to work in the field, and he also received the intelligence that more would follow until he had a sufficient number.

Last evening Mr. Bosse felt very jubilant over the change in the situation, and looked pretty serious for a time, and he stated that he now had twenty-seven hands employed upon the R. L. Swartz farm, and fifty-one on the Mrs. Ellen Savage and John Garber farms, alternately, and that now he felt that his force was adequate to harvest his flax in the regular order of the sowings and save it all. The flax is in splendid condition, has developed a fine growth of stock, and he predicts that the quality of the fibre and result of the experiment will be quite equal, if not beyond, his expectations and earlier predictions.

Japanese in California. Japanese laborers are now made use of a great deal where white labor can not be secured. The San Jose (Cal.) Mercury, of July 21st, in speaking of the fruit industry in that section and the labor required to care for the fruit, says of the employment of Japanese: "It is estimated that the Japanese population of Santa Clara county has been increased many times during the past week. According to those who are familiar with the situation, there has been an influx of over 1500 of the little brown men since the opening of the fruit season."

"They have been arriving in scores daily from San Francisco at the broad-gauge depot to pick fruit. In almost every case they are brought here under the supervision of an employment agent and at once sent to the orchards. Thus while their number has not been visibly increased about the streets there are scores of them to be seen on many of the big fruit ranches to the west of Santa Clara."

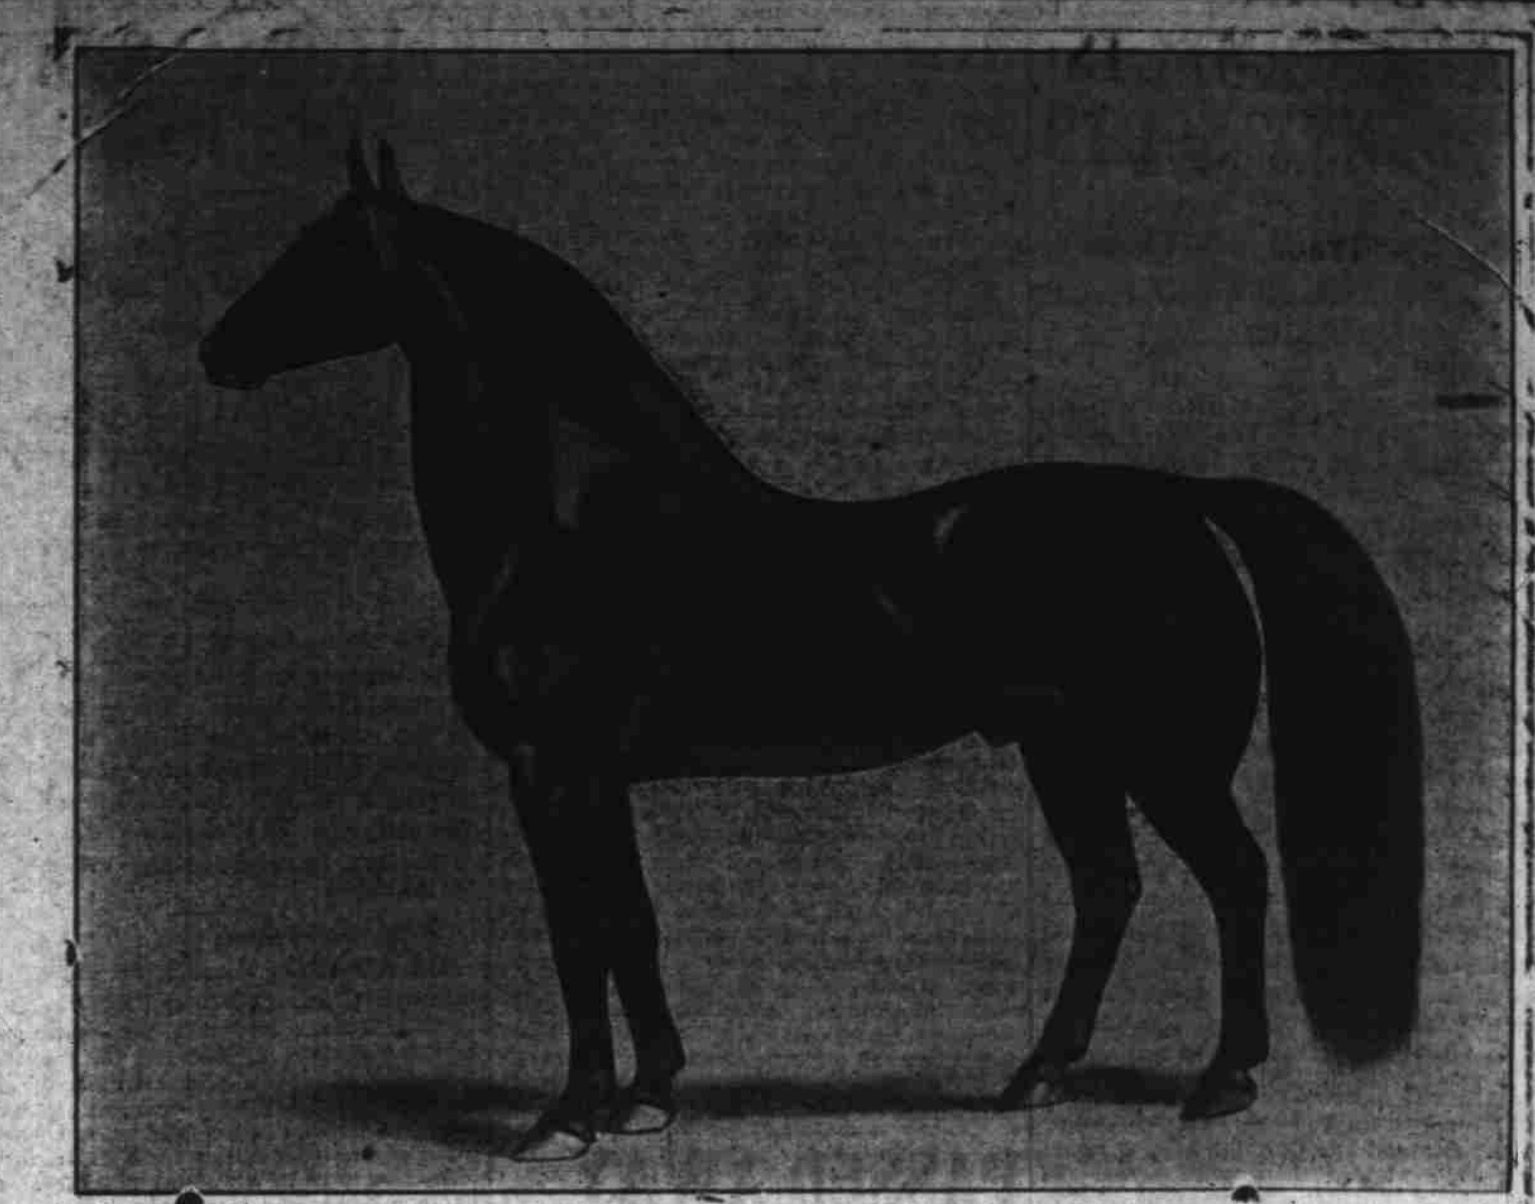

"To tell the truth, the Japanese have supplanted the Chinese to a large extent the present season in this part of the state. Various reasons are assigned for the change. "The Chinese have difficulty in recollecting their numbers, owing to the rigid enforcement of the exclusion act. The Mongolian population is practically at a standstill all over the state. On the other hand the Japanese are coming in large numbers on every steamer from Honolulu. Thousands of them were imported into the islands by the sugar planters previous to annexation and have since been helping their way to the mainland. There are those who declare that a census today would show almost as many Japanese in the state as Chinamen."

"At any rate the conditions locally would well bear out this statement. Fruit growers have found that the Japanese are valuable assistance in the orchards, where competent white help cannot be secured. Moreover, it is declared that they are willing to work for less wages than the Chinamen."

"A grower put the situation in this manner yesterday: The truth of the matter is that the Chinamen are now asking as much money a day as the white help and in plenty of cases much more. They are becoming very independent, owing to the demand for their labor in certain lines of business, and are only willing to go to work at the very highest price. The Japanese, on the contrary, or at least many of them, are newcomers, unacquainted with the country, and in order to get a foothold are willing to accept almost the same wages they received in Honolulu. Many fruit growers have been obliged to avail themselves of the service of this element because of the pressing demand for help in the apricot and peach orchards."

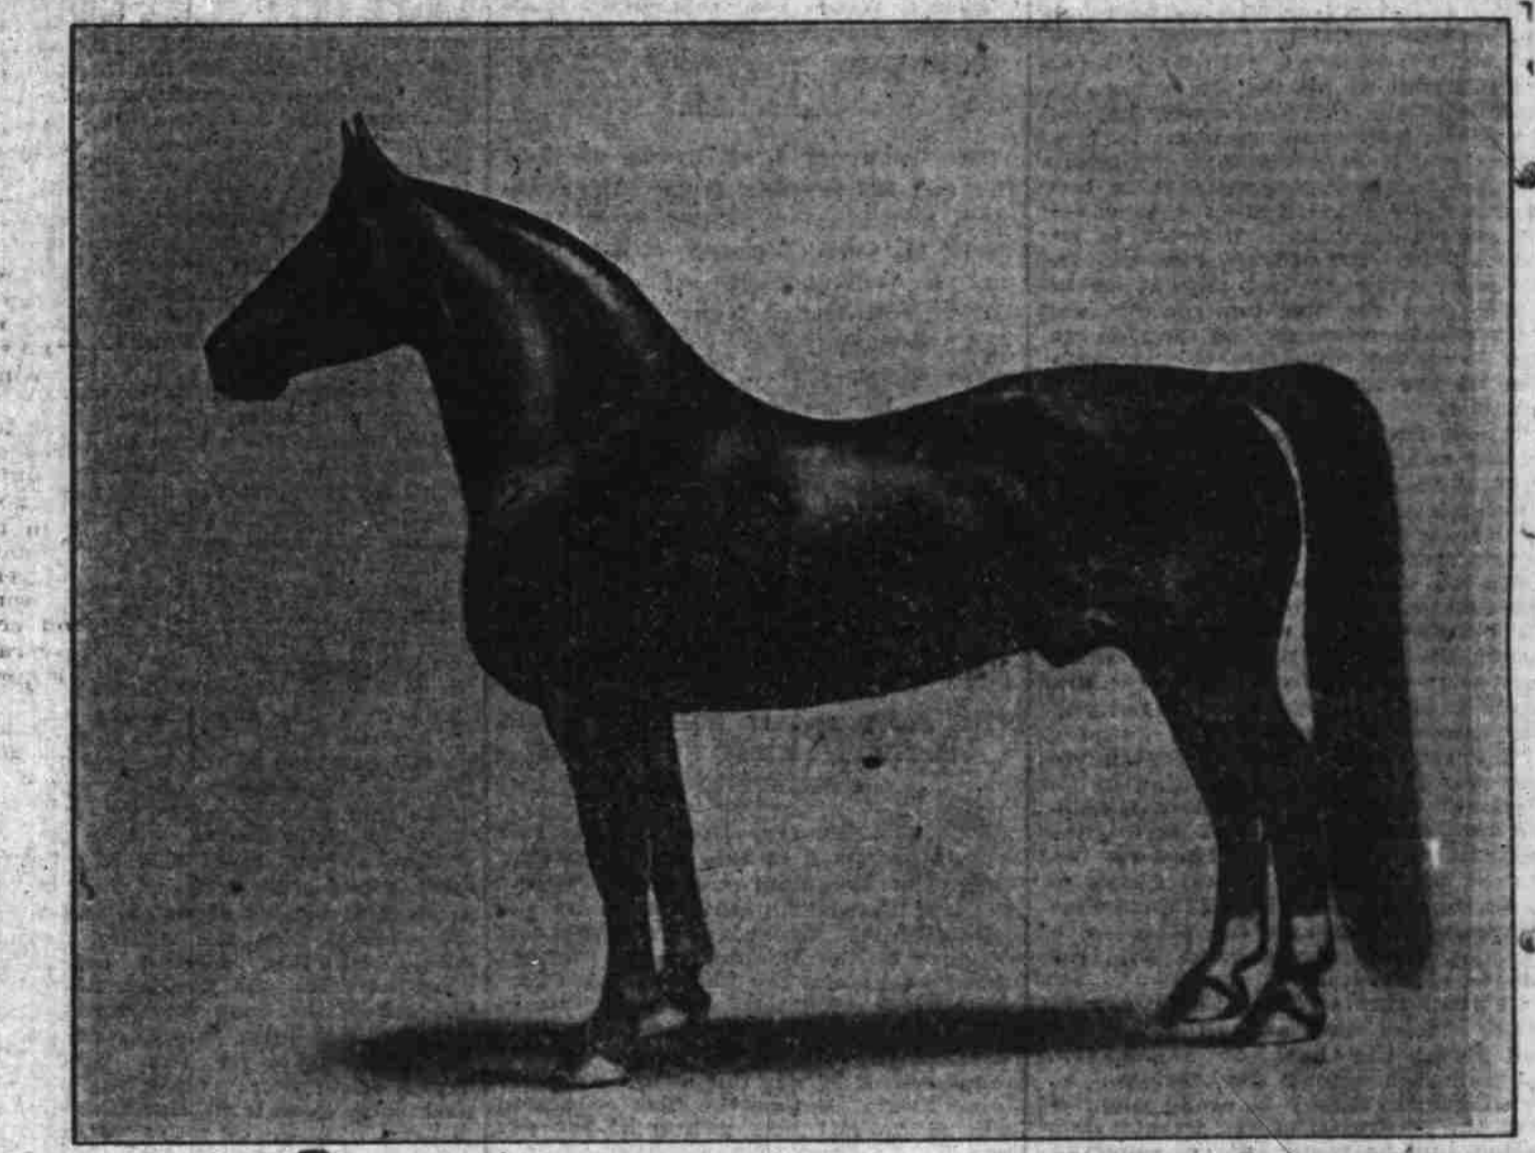

"I do not believe that their presence here is any menace to the white laborer. In the majority of cases they are employed because it is impossible to obtain competent white help. They assimilate more readily with their surroundings and are a more peaceful and tractable element than the Chinese. Probably in a few years the labor problem in the orchards will have solved itself, and then only white help will be employed, but this year much of the crop would be lost were it not for the Japanese."

A Cure For Summer Complaint. Summer complaint is unusually prevalent among children this season. A well developed case in the writer's family was cured last week by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy — one of the best patent medicines manufactured, and which is always kept on hand at the home of a free. This is not intended as a free puff for the company, who do not advertise with us, but to benefit little sufferers who may not be within easy access of a physician. No family should be without a bottle of this medicine in the house, especially in summer time. — Lansing, Iowa, Journal. For sale by Stone's Drugstores.

MEN OF MEANS COMING Holmdel 5290

THE BEST CLASS OF IMMIGRANTS FROM IOWA AND OHIO LOCATE IN SALEM. Al C. Smith and wife, from Sioux City, Iowa, are in Salem. They are here to stay, or at least they will stay in Oregon, and in the Willamette valley. They have a car load of household goods on the way. Mr. and Mrs. Smith were out here in June, on a pleasure trip. They were so struck with Oregon that they went back home and immediately began packing up their effects. Mr. Smith is a gentleman of means, and he has been a feeder of and feeder in cattle and other live stock. He was induced to come out here partly by Tim Page, of Ida Grove, Iowa, who bought the Frank Gilbert house, and who is now in Iowa settling up his affairs, preparatory to coming here for permanent residence about the first of October. Mr. Page was a banker in Iowa. Mr. Smith met another Iowa man on the streets yesterday, who has just landed, and who has a car load of household goods yet on the way here. W. G. Stolz, of Dayton, Ohio, is visiting Salem, being accompanied by his wife and two children, a son aged 17

Seal Brown Stallion; star, near hind foot white, and a very few white hairs on right front foot; 15 3/4 hands high. Bred by C. F. Emery, Forest City Stock Farm, (Cleveland, Ohio. Foaled June 1, 1885. Will make the season, 1922, at the Red Front Barn, corner Trade and Commercial Streets, Salem, Oregon. His colts may be seen at the State Fair Grounds.

Claggett & Hatch, Props

It is hoped Mr. Stolz will grow to like and daughter aged 13. They are the guests of G. Stolz, of this city, who is a brother of the Ohio man. They have not met for twenty years. G. Stolz came to Oregon twenty-nine years ago, returning home for a visit nine years later, since that time he has not been east. This is the first trip to the coast of the Ohio visitor. In fact, he has never before been west of Chicago. He came over the Canadian Pacific and Ohio, is where the National Military Home is located, and the residence of Mr. Stolz is within sight of this institution. He has been engaged in the dairy business and in livestock farming. He thinks we have a model dairy country here in the Willamette valley. As he will spend a month or two here, our country so well that he will come and make a Webfoot of himself. He would make a splendid addition to our population.
