

All the World Loves Diamonds

But it is not everyone who feels they can afford them. We believe, however, that many people over-estimate the cost of a handsome diamond ring or stud. We have some exceedingly handsome Diamond Rings, exquisitely set, at $10.00, $25.00, $50.00 and $75.00. This is not much to put into a diamond, for, near it in mind, diamonds are always a realizable investment.

PRICES FOR PICKING HOPS

Are Advancing, Fifty Cents Being Freely Offered in Stayton

HON. W. H. HOBSON OVERCOME BY THE HEAT WHILE WORKING AT HIS HOME—MOVEMENTS OF THE PEOPLE IN THE SANTIAM VALLEY.

STAYTON, Or., July 31.—Several hop dealers have been in this city during the past few days, in search of pickers for the coming harvest, engaging pickers at 50 cents per box. Pickers are glad of the advance in price paid for picking, and feel more encouraged to leave comfortable homes to go out and endure the exposure and hardships of a hop field life.

While cultivating a small patch of strawberries at his home in this city, Hon. W. H. Hobson was overcome by the heat of the sun one day last week and sank to the earth in a helpless condition. Help was proffered at once and he was taken to the house where restoratives were administered, and a recovery effected.

STROKE OF PARALYSIS

H. B. HOLLAND, MANAGER OF THE FLOURING MILLS, IS SERIOUSLY ILL.

H. B. Holland, local manager of the Salem Flouring Mills Co., and who has been connected with the firm as book-keeper and manager for the past twenty years, suffered a light stroke of paralysis some time during Wednesday night, which has rendered his entire right side helpless, but the physicians only regard it as temporary and do not regard his condition as being at all serious.

Mr. Holland retired at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening and made no unusual complaint, having suffered with his right arm for several weeks past which he regarded as rheumatism, and his friends knew nothing of his attack and condition until morning, when his daughter went to his room to awaken him, when she found him in a semi-conscious state and unable to speak. The physicians attending him think that the case will take no serious turn, but that Mr. Holland will be confined to his home and bed for about one week.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Col. Peter D. Vroom, of the Inspector General's Department, has been ordered to Manila as Inspector General, Division of the Philippines.

pendent. Sometime prior to the date of the assignment appellant had commenced an action against Hanlin for damages, in the Circuit Court for the county of Multnomah, and while the action was pending and about three weeks before trial, Hanlin on the 24 day of September, 1899, executed the assignment to W. C. Aylesworth. On the 25th day of October 1899, appellant secured a judgment against Hanlin in the action for damages for the sum of $635.80. The issue is whether or not Hanlin transferred the stock to defraud plaintiff from collecting any judgment that she might thereafter obtain and whether or not such transfer was without consideration.

A PECULIAR PREDICAMENT

IN AN ASTORIA OFFICE, WHERE THE SAFE COULD NOT BE OPENED.

A very peculiar predicament presented itself in one of the business houses in Astoria on last Thursday evening. The cashier for some reason or other desired to open the safe. After the usual formalities needed to open a safe he attempted to swing the door, but found it impossible to do so. He at once thought of Tracy and other politicians and called for help, which was instantly secured. Five stalwart men then set to work to open the door. Ropes, crow-bars, chisels and every known implement was brought forth, but with no avail. For over an hour they worked diligently, then at the advice of one of the men, who for ages had not labored so hard, the suggestion was made to try and turn the handle. Some of the men stood with their hands in their pockets and thought, when one who thought of tactics the job gave the handle a twist and the door opened very easily. Think of it: five of Astoria's brightest men trying to open a safe without turning the handle.—Astorian.

FINE GROUP PICTURE

MR. AND MRS. NORWOOD AND THEIR FAMILY OF STURDY MEN AND WOMEN.

A group picture is hanging in the display room of the Cronise Art Studio that is one of marked interest to all who see it.

The group is of the family of J. A. Norwood, who resides about six miles east of Salem, on Howell Prairie. It consists of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Norwood and their thirteen children, all of them bright and intelligent looking, and seem as though the most healthy blood has ever coursed through their veins. Probably a more attractive picture from this standpoint would be hard to find.

APPEAL CASE ARGUED

THE SUPREME COURT MAKES MINOR ORDERS IN SOME CASES PENDING.

In the Supreme Court, yesterday, the case of Luetta P. Beers, appellant, vs. C. A. Aylesworth, respondent, an appeal from Multnomah county, was argued and submitted by Claude Strahan for appellant, and H. H. Northrup for respondent. This was a proceeding to impeach as fraudulent, a transaction by which all the property of defendant Robert Hanlin, consisting of fifty shares of stock in The Larch Mountain Investment Company, a corporation, was assigned and transferred to one W. C. Aylesworth, a son of respondent. Sometime prior to the date of the assignment appellant had commenced an action against Hanlin for damages, in the Circuit Court for the county of Multnomah, and while the action was pending and about three weeks before trial, Hanlin on the 24 day of September, 1899, executed the assignment to W. If you have any lingering doubts as to the popularity of Studebaker Wagons they would be dispelled at once if you see the class of trade that buys the Studebaker, paying more money for them than for any of the others. The fact is, if the others were as good they would bring the same price. Another car just in and already supplying the harvesting trade with complete wagons, and with header gears, or other gears as needed. Call and see the reason why Studebakers are better.

Ohio Ensilage Cutters and Blowers

The standard cutter of the country. The cutters and blowers we sold last season have given the best of satisfaction. The new cutters are exactly the same, and the blowers are improved, in that the discharge pipe rises from a point higher up, so that in slowing up there is no tendency to clog, as the cut fodder falls directly on the fan blades. This is the most powerful blower made. The capacity of the No. 13 cutter is twelve tons an hour. Call and inspect these goods. You will find they are all we claim for them.

These are Busy Days

Our trade on all lines of harvesting machinery and supplies is keeping us on the jump almost day and night. There is a big demand for everything of the sort this season and our lines of goods are the best that's to be had. Several who have gone into the field with old binders have thrown them aside and 'phoned in orders for McCormicks. We can still supply you from Salem or from Portland.
