

CASES IN THE SUPREME COURT

Proceedings Against St. Raynor for Disbarment Argued

ANOTHER CASE SUBMITTED — JUDGE J. J. MURPHY ARRANGES CALENDAR OF CASES FOR HEARING FOR THE TWO WEEKS BEGINNING NEXT MONDAY.

In the Supreme Court yesterday two cases were argued and submitted, one of which was the disbarment proceedings against Attorney Henry St. Raynor, in which the State of Oregon, ex rel., F. D. Chamberlain, et al, are the plaintiffs. Disbarment proceedings were brought against Attorney St. Raynor, on account of the McDaniel murder case in which St. Raynor was the counsel for the defendant, and is charged with having substituted testimony in behalf of his client.

The case has been before the Supreme Court for more than a year, and has been postponed twice on motion of the defendant. Yesterday, however, when the State's attorney appeared to argue the case, Defendant St. Raynor telephoned from Portland to the effect that his chief counsel was absent and asked for a further postponement of the case. The State's attorney would not concede to the request, however, on the grounds that the case had already been twice postponed, and the defendant had had ample time in which to prepare his defense, and they proceeded with the argument and submitted the case to the court.

The other case argued yesterday was that of H. M. Williams, et al, plaintiffs and respondents, vs. Caroline C. W. administrator, Bailour, Guthrie & Co., et al, defendant and respondent, and H. M. Grant, defendant and appellant; appeal from Lane county. O. C. Woodcock, F. D. Chamberlain, E. R. Skipworth and L. Bilyeu, attorneys for the plaintiffs and respondents, and W. C. Hale, Snow & McCamant, attorneys for defendant, respondent and appellant.

Clerk of the Supreme Court J. J. Murphy yesterday arranged the calendar of cases to come before the Supreme Court during the two weeks beginning Monday, October 13th and ending Saturday, 25th, as follows:

H. D. Hunt, appellant, vs. Jesse Turner, as sheriff, et al, respondents; appeal from Curry county; on motion, Stephen Williamson, appellant, vs. North Pacific Lumber Company, respondent; appeal from Multnomah county, Monday, October 13th, 12 m.

William Deneff, appellant, vs. Edward Helms, respondent; appeal from Jackson county, Tuesday, October 14th, 12 m.

Nancy Carter, appellant, vs. Miles S. Wakeman, respondent; appeal from Jackson county, Wednesday, October 15th, 12 m.

State of Oregon, respondent, vs. James Gully, appellant; appeal from Linn county, Thursday, October 16th, 12 m.

Pacific Coast Biscuit Company (a corporation) appellant, vs. G. A. Dinger, respondent; appeal from Linn county, Monday, October 20, 1924, at 12 m.

G. F. Lucky, respondent, vs. Lincoln County, Oregon, appellant; appeal from Linn county, Tuesday, October 21, 1924, at 12 m.

In the matter of the estate of F. W. Hannah Mason, M. B. Davison, et al, respondents, vs. J. L. Alken, appellant; appeal from Benton county, Wednesday, October 22, 1924, at 12 m.

J. E. Cullison, respondent, vs. F. O. Downing and F. H. Hopkins, et al, appellants; appeal from Multnomah county, Thursday, October 23, 1924, at 12 m.

A GERMAN CITIZEN

Speaks Gratefully of His Relief by Dr. Darrin.

To the Editor: For four years past my health has been impaired from the effects of dyspepsia, heart and kidney disease, and pain in the stomach and back. I have tried many remedies and doctors to no use. I was troubled with diabetes—getting up nights to relieve my bladder. Have been under Dr. Darrin's treatment and pronounce myself restored to health. My wife has been successfully treated for liver and stomach trouble and pain in the side. Tell all your readers to consult me at Chemawa, Oregon, and I will explain how I was cured. I am a German, and will gladly tell my countrymen of my cure.

CHAS. ZIELENSKI

FARRENS COMMITTED

THE YOUNG MAN WHO CREATED DISTURBANCE IN SALEM LODGING HOUSE.

Claud J. Ferrans, the young man taken up by the police Wednesday night for disorderly conduct and disturbing the peace, was taken before County Judge Scott and Dr. J. N. Smith yesterday morning, and after an examination by those gentlemen, was pronounced insane. He was very demonstrative in manner, but not violent. He was possessed with the idea that people were after him with electric machines, and this belief annoyed him greatly, and (in his mind) he could not escape them. He was committed to the Asylum for the Insane, where he has been learning, and has been implicated in a robbery scrape or two, and this trouble, it is believed, preyed upon his mind until dementia was the result.

ATTEMPTED MURDER

CALLED FORMER SWEETHEART TO TELEPHONE SO HE COULD SHOOT HER.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Bud Haggins, said to be a race-track employe, is sought by the police on the charge of slaying a new plan of attempted murder and trying it upon Annie Butler, 2412 Dearborn street. Haggins had quarreled with the woman frequently, and had been arrested on her complaint. She feared him and had refused to have anything to do with him. Going to a telephone booth within a block of her home, he called her to the instrument, and after a few words with her, requested her to hold the wire. Then he went around to the side window of her house, knowing that he could see her at the phone, and, she says, fired one shot at her. The bullet struck her left side, causing a wound that may prove fatal. Haggins then ran away, and is sought for by the police.

HOP MARKET IS ADVANCING

Better Than Twenty-Three Cents Paid for Two Choice Lots

THREE BIG SALES REPORTED FOR THE PAST TWO DAYS—DEALERS AND GROWERS ALIKE ARE CONFIDENT THAT PRICES WILL MOUNT STILL HIGHER.

Although the hop market has not exhibited much signs of life thus far this season, some sales have been made during the past two days which have given the growers much encouragement and gives strength to the earlier prophecies of some of the local dealers and growers to the effect that hops would raise to 25 cents before the first of December.

One sale was consummated on Wednesday and one yesterday, in both of which cases 2 3/4 cents was paid to the grower, and another sale on Wednesday, through which the grower realized 23 cents. Yesterday the firm of T. A. Livesley & Co., purchased the M. V. Bilyeu, of Scio, lot of 44 bales at 23 1/2 cents, and on Wednesday the Michael Skalife, of Silverton, lot, consisting of 173 bales, was sold for the same price, and, although it could not be ascertained definitely last night, it was reported that Messrs. Hubbard & Cross, of Scio, the purchasers. This latter firm also bought a 200-bale lot, on Wednesday, for 23 cents per pound.

Several of the dealers who were seen last night were not in the least surprised at these prices paid and expressed the opinion that the market had not opened up as yet, but would mount still higher when it did. The growers, who have a choice article, are holding out stiffly, with no thoughts of selling out for less than 25 cents, and one dealer last night ventured the assertion that if a man was to take a day's trip up or down the valley, offering from 23 to 24 cents per pound, he would not secure more than 200 bales of choice hops.

Valentine Loewi Sons Co., of New York, in their Producers' Price Current, of last Saturday, gives the following review of the hop market in general:

Receipts for week, 333 bales. Receipts from Sept. 1, 2,593 bales. Receipts same time last year, 1,575 bales.

Exports to Europe for week, 190 bales. Exports from Sept. 1, 565 bales. Exports same time last year, 533 bales.

Imports for week, 143 bales. Imports from Sept. 1, 179 bales. Imports same time last year, 52 bales.

More activity has been reported of late in the interior of this state, and dealers have picked up quite a good many lots in range of 28@30c, paying the outside figures generally for the finest growths. On the Pacific Coast there has not been large trading, and most of the business has been in Oregon where 21@22c has ruled. In most sections of Washington and California growers have asked more money, which blocked trade. English advices have come quite firm, but buyers have not turned their attention this way to any extent. Estimates of the crops are 300,000 to 325,000 cwt. Late cables from Germany indicate very active buying of America and England, and a further rise in values: 100 marks is now quoted, which is equal to about 35c here. This makes an advance of 25 marks within the past three weeks, or nearly 7c per lb. The local market has ruled quiet, but there is a fairly firm feeling. Such lots as are selling command about 30@32c for state, while Pacific Coast hops are offered at 26@28c. Yearlings are slow and the remaining lots can be bought a little cheaper than heretofore. Old olds very dull.

OREGON EXCHANGES

Albany Democrat:—The farmers around Shedd meant business when they put up trespass notices. Joe Closset and Chas. Cook, of Portland, were each fined $15 by a Shedd Justice for trespass.

Eugene Guard:—A. Whittlesey, of Portland, father of Walter Whittlesey, of the Department of Economics, U. O., died last Sunday afternoon. His illness was very short, and his death a sudden shock to his friends. Walter went down last Saturday and was with his father when he died. Charles Whittlesey, another son, was on the north-bound train this afternoon on his way from San Francisco to attend the funeral.

Pendleton Tribune:—Mark Boyd, a printer from Helix and well known in Pendleton, was arrested yesterday in Athena by Sheriff Taylor, charged with stealing a watch belonging to Chas. Albaugh, of Helix. Austin Wells, also of Helix, was arrested and brought along as a witness. He was released by Prosecuting Attorney Halley yesterday afternoon after examination. Boyd was taken to the hospital in a rather serious condition, but will be held as soon as he is able to be released from the hospital.

Dixonville news in Roseburg Review:—D. W. Hunter came near being burned out the other day, and but for the timely aid of neighbors and friends would have lost heavily. His buildings were saved, but his loss in fences, wood, etc., will reach several hundred dollars. It is generally believed that the fire started from an engine passing the house. An old darkey once said: "The only way to find true sympathy was in the dictionary—and the man that could sympathize with a neighbor a dollar's worth was a rare specimen." That is generally the case, but I do think it would be a friendly turn for the neighbors to turn out en masse and help replace the fences, etc., as it has often been said of Mr. Hunter that he has done more for his neighbors in trouble than any other man on Deer Creek.

Eugene Guard:—Horace McKinley, the well known timber dealer, in writing from Green River Hot Springs, Wash., to have his Guard sent there, says that he is under the physician's care at that resort, and expects to have an operation performed there or at Portland, for appendicitis soon.

Albany Democrat:—A day or two ago in the first ward two boys were shooting at a mark with a 22-calibre gun, when they came very near having a serious item chronicled in reference to their carelessness. Missing the mark, one shot passed into the residence of Mr. Fred Blumberg, and came within fourteen inches of Mrs. Blumberg and another one very nearly hit the piano. These 22-calibre guns are nuisances in the hands of the average boy.

Albany Democrat:—A woman palmist has been going around the city. Where people refuse to employ her she tells them what fools they had for ancestors or substantially that and gets mad generally. There is no opening here for this kind of business. As the woman is large and muscular we put the case much more mildly than some of those who have been visited by her.

Roseburg Review:—The opening day of the ninth annual exhibition of the Second Southern Oregon District Agricultural Society, at the fair grounds near this city was rendered less auspicious by the threatening and showery weather, although in fact, but little rain has fallen yet. The entry clerks were kept busy listing the exhibits offered, and as the hours passed the activity at the pavilion and grounds increased and by early tomorrow a very creditable exhibit will be in place. The live stock pens are also filling up with some of the finest animals ever shown here.

At the race track the horsemen are anxiously scanning the threatening clouds in anticipation of tomorrow's races.

Eugene Guard:—Dave Houston, the popular Sixth Pacific conductor, is mentioned for the position of superintendent of the Penitentiary under Governor Chamberlain. It is the general opinion though that the appointment will go to Eastern Oregon.

Roseburg Review:—Eleven apples completely filling a full size fruit box, is a sight seldom seen. Such was brought over from Drain, Tuesday, by Engineer F. L. Kenny, and they are now on display at the fair. They came from the trees of S. A. Gorrell, in Drain, the largest specimen measuring 17 1/4 inches in circumference. They are of the Wolf variety and of fine color.

DEEDS RECORDED

NUMBER OF IMPORTANT REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS THIS WEEK.

Quite a number of important transactions in real estate are reported this week, and deeds were filed in the county recorder's office, yesterday, the considerations of which aggregated the sum of $4,705, as follows:

Alliance Trust Co. to Nancy L. Patterson, 60 acres in sec. 30, tp. 9 s. r. 3 w; wd. 1050
O. H. Fay et ux. to N. A. Basey, lots in block 11, University Ad-dition to Salem; wd. 1500
D. E. and H. M. Walker to John Zielinski, 20 acres in sec. 24, tp. 6 s. r. 3 w; wd. 600
Asahel Bush to A. G. Cullier, one lot in Englewood addition to Salem; d. 55
Total $4705

"UP AGAINST IT" AGAIN

A. H. Damon, the pioneer expressman got into the toils of the law yesterday, and was sent to jail. He was not found guilty of any serious crime, nor even charged with one; and the trouble all arose over his natural prejudice against water and a determination on his part to drink something else. He has been threatened twice with commitment to the asylum, and was examined upon one occasion for that purpose, but was not committed upon promise of better conduct. He is probably "up against it" this time.

OLD AND NEW SIDE BY SIDE

A WONDERFUL PICTURE OF ADVANCEMENT WILL BE SHOWN IN HAWAIIAN EXHIBIT.

WORLD'S FAIR, ST. LOUIS, Oct. 8.—The design and plan for the Hawaiian building at the World's Fair have just been received by the Exposition authorities from Honolulu. The picture shows a classic structure in the form of a great cross, 112 feet each way, with ornate recessed entrances at the end of each of the four arms. In this building will be the non-competitive exhibit, reception rooms and commissioners' headquarters. Other exhibits will be placed in the large exhibit buildings.

The plans for the educational feature of the Hawaiian exhibit were outlined at the recent annual meeting of the Territorial Teachers' Association in the Normal School at Honolulu by Prof. M. M. Scott, principal of the Honolulu High School. Prof. Scott believes that the greatest benefit to the islands will result from a historical exhibit, as it will appeal to the serious-minded ones who attend the Fair more than any other feature. The idea of sending photographs of school interiors and maps was proposed, but these can not show progress. It is desired to show the internal, moral and intellectual development of the people, and as the internal arrangement cannot be photographed, the next best thing is to exhibit those things which pupils have fashioned. In order to show the progress of the school system, it is proposed to exhibit the archeology of Hawaii, and the primitive implements with which the Hawaiians worked and cultivated the soil. The remains of such implements will show the early agricultural tendencies and the causes would portray the Hawaiian's knowledge of navigation. Models would illustrate their thought and show the manner in which the poetry, history and genealogy of the ancients was preserved. It is desired that the exhibit shall be in the form of a passing show, illustrating from the earliest times to the present how education has been carried on in Hawaii. Another feature of the exhibit will be illustrations depicting the natural surroundings of Honolulu and other places in the islands. Pictures made by pupils of water buffaloes in the rice fields and taro patches, accompanied by descriptions written by the pupils, will not fail to interest outsiders. The Bishop Museum will co-operate with the schools and send on many of the ancient implements which show Hawaii's primitive methods. It is also proposed to send a class of school children of Hawaii to the Exposition to show school work and to sing the beautiful songs of the islands.
