

NEW ACTION WAS FILED

In Second Department of the Circuit Court Yesterday

FERDINAND HASELBACHER SUES ANTON GEHRMAN FOR WAGES ALLEGED TO BE DUE FOR LABOR PERFORMED—APPLIES FOR FIDELITY BOND.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

A new suit was filed yesterday in department No. 2 of the State Circuit Court in which Ferdinand Haselbacher is plaintiff and Anton Gehrman, defendant. The suit is brought to recover the sum of $55 alleged to be due the plaintiff for work performed in the construction of a barn upon the premises of Gehrman, the work having been done last spring. The plaintiff alleges that he entered into a contract with the defendant to erect for him a barn, but that there was no special agreement as to the wages to be paid; that he employed a man to assist him in the work; that he and his assistant performed labor for a period of thirty days, wherefore he asks wages at the rate of $2.50 per day for himself, and $2.00 per day for his assistant, the whole amounting to the sum of $135, of which amount the sum of $80 only has been paid, leaving a balance due him of $55.

The complaint further sets forth that on or about June 4, 1902, plaintiff filed a mechanic's lien upon said barn, the cost of preparing and filing which was about the sum of $5.00. He therefore prays the court for a decree of judgment against the defendant for the sum of $85 for labor rendered, $5 for the cost of preparing and recording a mechanic's lien, and the further sum of $25 to cover attorney's fees. He further asks that the lien be foreclosed upon the barn and land upon which it stands, the proceeds to go toward the liquidation of his claims. M. E. Pogue is attorney for the plaintiff.

Still Before the Court.

There was nothing new in Judge Boise's department yesterday, the entire day being spent in examination of witnesses in the Custar, Lee Brown & Sons suit which has been occupying the attention of the court since Monday morning. There were nearly a dozen witnesses on each side, all of those for the plaintiff, Custar, having been examined, and all, excepting three, for the defense. The case has been dragging slowly along, but it is expected that today it will be submitted.

EDITORIALS OF PEOPLE

HUMANITY DISCUSSES DEFEAT OF WOMEN PATIENT BILL IN DETAIL.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Editor Statesman:

Our law makes no provision for the transmitting of female patients to the Asylum for the Insane other than the same as for convicts to the Penitentiary, by the sheriffs. Women are thus brought from distant counties of the state, often taking more than one day in transit. They are thus brought, sometimes bound, by men alone, and into some instances placed at night in prisons on the way. At the Legislative session of 1899 Dr. Joseph, who had been Superintendent of the State Asylum, and knew how repulsive that system was, introduced in the Senate, of which he was a member, a bill providing that women patients, committed to the Asylum, should be sent for and brought there by trained women accustomed to their handling and care. This has long been and still is a shocking abuse and disgrace to the state. The bill was passed by the Senate, but by the time it was reached in the House, sheriffs, whose emoluments were cut off by the proposed change, came from many parts of the state to lobby for its defeat, and it was defeated in the House. E. H. Flagg voting against the bill to the reproach of Marion county and Oregon.

TWO OPENINGS

THOMPSON'S NEW JEWELRY AND HABERLY'S DRUG STORES THROWN OPEN.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Two stores were opened up for business on State street last night, one being the S. W. Thompson & Co. jewelry store and the other the J. M. Haberly drug store. The articles in each were beautifully arranged, and the respective stocks shown to the very best advantage. The show windows in the jewelry store were aglow with blazing diamonds and other precious gems, and scores of pedestrians stopped and gazed while the displays were attractive, and show artistic skill in window dressing, to say the least.

ALLAN MASON DISCHARGED

COLORADO MAN NOW HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR MURDER OF CLARA MORTON.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 11.—Allan G. Mason, the Boston clubman, accused of the murder of Clara A. Morton, of Waverley, a week ago last Sunday night, was discharged by Judge Charles A. Almy of the Third District Court of Albany, Middlesex, today. The Government lawyer announced that an investigation had failed sufficiently to hold the accused man and ordered the discharge of Mason. Almost immediately in the same court George O. L. Perry, a young negro, who was yesterday held as a witness against Mason, was charged with the murder of Miss Morton. He pleaded not guilty and was remanded without bail for a hearing November 18th.

After his release Mason held an informal reception, and after a short time was driven to his home in Boston.

HONOR GENERAL SUMMERS

CHOSEN COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR VETERANS.

Again a Portland man has received a National honor. The Spanish-American War Veterans have made General Owen Summers commander-in-chief of the United States. He yesterday wired his acceptance and will at once take steps to establish headquarters in Portland. He is to be allowed an assistant here, and hereafter practically all of the business of this organization, representing forty-two departments and a membership of over 125,000, will be done through Portland. The General's term of office will be until the next National convention, which will probably be held at the same time as the convention of the G. A. R. at San Francisco. The news of his call to the office came rather unexpectedly yesterday. At the reorganization of the association at Washington, D. C., October 11, Colonel R. H. Savage was elected commander-in-chief, and General Summers senior vice-commander. Colonel Savage, however, on account of ill health, has not been able to accept the position, and this leaves the honor and responsibility to General Summers, who is the next in rank. Yesterday he received a letter from the adjutant general, W. C. Liler, who has charge of the general headquarters at Lancaster, Pa. He enclosed a letter from Colonel Savage that gave his reasons for not accepting the honor, and urged General Summers to wire his acceptance at once, which he did last evening.

General Owen Summers was born in Brockville, Canada, June 13, 1850, and when less than a year old his parents emigrated to the United States. Up to 1864, he resided in Chicago. When a boy, 14 years old, he enlisted in Troop H of the Third Illinois Cavalry. His troop at once entered into a vigorous campaign in Tennessee, Kentucky, Alabama, Mississippi and the Carolinas. At the close of the war the Regiment was sent to Dakota and made a campaign against the Sioux Indians. In December, 1865, he was mustered out of service at Springfield, Ill.

General Summers first came to Oregon in January, 1875, but returned East after a brief visit. In 1879 General Summers returned to Oregon, and established in Portland a large business in crockery, glassware and house furnishings. He was instrumental in organizing the Veteran Guard of Oregon, and May 23, 1883, was commissioned Lieutenant and served three years in that organization. As a member of the State Legislature of 1886 he was active in behalf of a bill to reorganize the Guard, and under the new organization was made Lieutenant-Colonel of the First Regiment, July 12, 1887. This position he filled seven years.

His next advancement was on November 25, 1895, when he was elected full Colonel. He held this position at the beginning of the Spanish-American War, and, at the earnest solicitation of the Governor, accepted a commission as Colonel of the Second Oregon Regiment, Oregon Volunteer Infantry. As he had a short time before been commissioned by President McKinley for services while in the field. Through the efforts of General Summers, the interests of the Oregon veterans have been well looked after. The state has purchased a fine military cemetery plot for over $3,000. Over $15,000 cash has been raised to build a state monument to the memory of those who fell in the Spanish-American War.

In February, 1901, General Summers was appointed commander of the Department of Oregon, Spanish-American War Veterans, by General Hullings, then commander-in-chief. During his administration flourishing camps have been organized at Portland (3), Roseburg, Salem, Eugene and Corvallis.—Oregonian.

INJUNCTION SUSTAINED

Judge Boise Overruled Motion to Dissolve in Gibson Case

DEFENDANT RESTRAINED FROM DISPOSING OF ANY OF PROPERTY PENDING SETTLEMENT OF SUITS—TURNER PARTIES BRING TROUBLES IN THE COURTS.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

In the equity department of the State Circuit Court yesterday, the motion of Thomas Gibson, the defendant, to dissolve the interlocutory injunction was argued before Judge Boise and was overruled.

The injunction restrains the defendant, Thomas Gibson, from in any way interfering with or using the personal property now upon the farm owned by the plaintiff, Mrs. Mary Gibson, and her minor children, and all of the property consisting of farming implements, horses, cows, etc., are claimed by Mrs. Gibson and her children as against Thomas Gibson, the defendant.

The troubles of the Gibsons, which include a divorce and an accounting, being two separate suits, will be heard by Judge Boise on Monday, November 24th.

Action For Money.

In the first department of the circuit court, yesterday, the suit of B. E. Robertson, plaintiff, vs. L. F. Amend, defendant, was filed. The plaintiff, for cause of action, alleges that on September 22, 1902, an account was stated between himself and the defendant, and that upon such statement a balance of $646.44 was found to be due him, and that defendant has failed to pay the sum, hence this action is brought to recover the same, together with the costs and disbursements of the action. A writ of attachment has been issued and levied upon property owned by the defendant, in the town of Turner, consisting of lots 1 and 2, in block 2, and 25 feet on the north end of lot 2, in block 3, in the same town. To the Public.

Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I had a very severe cough and cold and feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of medicine I felt better, three bottles of it cured my cold and the pains in my chest disappeared entirely. AN AMERICAN HONORED.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 12.—Ambassador Tower, who was recently transferred to Berlin, will leave here tomorrow on his way to Livadia, where the Car has invited Mr. Tower to call on him. The most important foreign delegations have frequently to await the Car's return to St. Petersburg.

THE PURITAN WIFE.

The Puritan wife vowed to love, honor and obey her husband. She believed that "the husband is the head of the wife," and she yielded to his will as her law. We have changed all that. We have cut the word "obey" out of the marriage service. We have accepted the doctrine of feminine equality. Women no longer keep silence in the church. In business vocations and professions they march side by side with men. To-day the intellectual equality of woman is frankly conceded, and yet that puritan wife, vowed to obedience, whose husband was also her lord, had one point of equality with the stronger sex which the modern woman has largely lost; she had the equality of health, and the equality of courage and strength which enabled her to keep her place at her husband's side in times of danger and of peril.

As housewife she was tireless in her industry. As mother she reared a large family. She knew little of the aches and ills which vex the modern woman who has entered upon the heritage of woman's rights. Statisticians have called attention to the decrease in the size of the family. Women shrink from the pangs and obligations of maternity. The very participation of women in outdoor sports once termed manly, is only an evidence of the fact that she recognizes her physical deficiency and weakness. But outdoor sports and exercises are open to comparatively few women, and while exercise may promote the health when it is once established, it cannot produce health. In fact, where there is womanly weakness, exercise may be an injury where the weakness permits the possibility of exercise.

The first and greatest of woman's rights is the right to be healthy, the right to enjoy herself as a wife and to be happy as a mother. Give woman this and all other features of womanly equality will take care of themselves.

In hundreds of thousands of cases this physical equality has been restored to weak and sick women by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the medicine which makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"My wife used three bottles of Dr. Pierce's medicine, and I never saw such results," writes A. B. Haynes, Esq., of Aurora, Lawrence Co., Mo. "It was wonderful in its work. We had used lots of medicine, also had one of the best physicians in Aurora, but my wife got no better; we heard one pitiful groan after another, day and night. A friend handed me a copy of Dr. Pierce's book, The Common Sense Medical Adviser, and after reading the testimonials of Dr. Pierce's successful treatment, and seeing that the cases described were similar to my wife's, I bought for her a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Before she had taken all of the medicine she was up and helping to do the work. She has taken three bottles and is now well. Has better health than she has had for years, so perfectly did the medicine do its work."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures womanly ills and the aches and pains which these ills are the cause of. It establishes regularity and so gives freedom from the periodic suffering which so many women endure with each recurring month. It dries the gnawing ulcer, puts out the scorching flame of inflammation, and perfectly and permanently cures female weakness. It also cures backache, headache, nervousness, sleeplessness and other ills which are the result of womanly diseases.

"No doubt you have forgotten me, but after you have read my letter you will remember me," writes Mrs. Annie E. Moring, 438 7th Avenue, S. W., Roanoke, Va. "In the year 1897, I wrote you for advice, which you gave me free of charge. Now, Doctor, I will tell you; I was a wreck. When I wrote to you I could not walk straight for pain in my abdomen, could not sit down, lie down, or get any ease at all. I had what was called the best doctor here, but did not get any better until I went through a course of your medicine. I took eight bottles each of 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I kept on with the 'Pleasant Pellets' after I had stopped taking the other medicine. I took ten vials of the 'Pleasant Pellets,' and I tell you the medicine made a cure of me. My trouble was female trouble, and I am willing to have you use my letter, for there are other women to-day that need your medicine, and it will cure them if they will follow your advice."

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as sacredly confidential, and the written confidences of women are guarded by the same strict professional privacy observed by Dr. Pierce in his daily consultations with sick women, at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you are led to use "Favorite Prescription" because it has cured other women, do not allow a substitute to be palmed off on you as "just as good." Insist upon the remedy with a record—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.
