The Bohemia Mining District Promises to Be a Second Cripple Creek

GOLDEN RULE MINING COMPANY MANAGED BY HONEST, UPRIGHT AND CONSERVATIVE MEN, WHO ARE PROCEEDING CAREFULLY.

(From Thursday's Daily).

In Salem, on the ground floor of the McCormack block, on Court street, is the head office of a mining company that promises to cut a large figure in the mining operations of the state, and especially of the Bohemia district, from this time on.

On November 10th, last, the Golden Rule Consolidated Mining & Milling Company was incorporated here, under the laws of Oregon. The capital stock was placed at $200,000, divided into 6,000,000 shares, at the par value of 5 cents each, and 2,804,000 shares were put in the treasury for development purposes. Since that time the sale of shares has gone on steadily, until at the present time the company is thoroughly on its feet and getting in better condition every day to carry out its objects.

The directors of the company, a very conservative body of men, unanimously decided to secure the patents on all fifteen of the claims of the company, in the Bohemia district, in Lane county, before doing anything else. This was the first thing. Not a dollar was to be spent for mills, machinery or anything else until this object was obtained—and the whole of 1932 was set apart to be devoted to this purpose, if necessary. But the sales of stock and the work of the company generally is going ahead so satisfactorily that it is likely that 1933 will see a 10- or 20-ton plant in operation some months before its close, crushing out the rich ore in the claims of the company.

The Men at the Head. The president of the Golden Rule is Wm. Wechter, formerly of Indiana, who has been in Salem about three years. He is known as a square man, and upon his reputation a good deal of stock is being sold in the East. C. Marsh, of Salem, is vice-president. Mr. Marsh is a well known capitalist here. He has been uniformly successful in his undertakings, and he is above everything else careful and conservative in all business dealings and management.

The treasurer of the company is Wm. Lanning, who came here from Iowa about three years ago, who purchased valuable property in Salem, and who is known as a good neighbor and an honest, upright citizen.

C. L. Johnson, the secretary of the company, and one of its principal promoters, is a mining man of experience. He went through the Cripple Creek excitement, and was operating there from 1891 to 1899. He predicts that the Bohemia district will be a second Cripple Creek, and he will bend his efforts to make this proposition a success, and then set off in bringing to pass the truth of his prediction. Mr. Johnson, who has been known in the East, stood high among business and professional men.

The other directors of the company are as follows: D. Steiner, the well known tinner and hardware man of this city. His reputation for fair dealing and honest business judgment has been established here for years.

Prof. Z. M. Parvin, president of the Northwest College of Music, thoroughly known here as an upright and enterprising citizen.

A. F. Homer, of Alta Vista, Iowa, who is well connected there, and whose parents and brother reside in Salem. Fred Wechter, of Berne, Indiana, a brother of the president of the company, and who conducts a barber business in his home town.

Edwin Heller, of Lima Grove, Indiana, a merchant who is well rated by the commercial agencies, and who has a reputation for responsibility and fair dealing among his neighbors.

Thus it may be seen that the Golden Rule is a company that is well managed, by upright, honest men, who are conducting its affairs in a conservative, business manner. They are making no representations that they themselves do not believe in. They are proceeding carefully, with the full belief that they will be able to make their property a dividend payer for themselves and for all the stockholders, and all those who may become stockholders. They know they have the ore necessary to make a mine, and they are proceeding in regular order with the firm determination to get it out and turn it into money, after all the preliminary steps shall have been taken.

BRIEFS FROM STAYTON

EPIDEMIC OF LA GRIPPE—A MAGNIFICENT SPECIMEN OF THE EAGLE.

(From Thursday's Daily).

Special meetings began at the Christian church Sunday and will continue through the week. Mrs. Frank Rowe and little daughter returned to their home in Albany Monday, after a visit with relatives here. Mrs. Joe Fisher and son are at home again after an extended visit in McCoy, Polk county.

Mrs. Isalah Crabtree is suffering from a felon on one of her fingers. La grippe has the floor in Stayton just now, there being at least one case in nearly every home.

Mrs. Goodman, Mrs. A. J. Richardson and Grandpa Dripps, are among those who are seriously ill.

Word has reached here of the death of N. S. Brown, in Oakland, Cal., on the 14th inst., after an illness of two days. For many years Mr. Brown was a resident of this city, being engaged in the furniture business, and has many friends here who regret his death.

Miss Myrtle Bressler, of Detroit, was taken through here on Sunday afternoon, en route to the Salem hospital, where she will be operated on for appendicitis.

J. E. Whitehead, one of Stayton's prosperous business men, has added a lot of new shelves to his store and will open up a neat line of goods' furnishing goods which he will handle in connection with his line of boots and shoes.

Chas. Loose, who resides a mile or two below Stayton, was in town Tuesday. He reports having recently killed a large snake, measured 7 feet 1 inch from tip to tip. He sold the bird to some Sci parties, who will have it mounted.

Stayton is soon to have the free rural delivery system opened up and several young men were given examination a few days since as to their competency to serve as carriers.

The De Moss family are billed to appear in their musical entertainment in this city on Friday evening, February 27, under the auspices of the Christian church. The fact that this famous family have been in Stayton before will insure them a good attendance.

BEAUTIFUL SERVICES OVER THE REMAINS OF THE LATE M. F. HOOKER.

(From Wednesday's Daily).

The funeral services of the late Morgan F. Hooker were held in the Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon and the remains interred in City View cemetery.

The Grand Army of the Republic turned out in full force to do honor to their departed comrade. The service was well attended by friends of the deceased, and was very impressive. A picked quartet sang "Beautiful Isle of Summer," "Nearer My God to Thee," and "Lead Kindly Light." Rev. H. A. Ketchum delivered a very touching address, talking especially to the old soldiers. He took as a text 2 Timothy, 2-3: "Therefore endure hardship as a good soldier of Jesus Christ." He said in part:

"A good man out of the treasure of his heart, brought forth good things. Joseph of Arimathea was a good man. Barnabas was a good man, full of the holy spirit. Our departed comrade was a good man. He served as a private for three and a half years, and a soldier's life serving as a private is not pleasant. The battles are fought and the hardships endured, not by officers, but by the men in the ranks.

"Comrade Hooker was not only a good soldier, but a good soldier of Jesus Christ, the acme of excellence. It requires courage to be a good soldier in the army, and it also requires courage to be a good soldier of Jesus Christ."

Rev. Ketchum made an eloquent appeal to the comrades in regard to their souls, saying, "The time is not long, the old soldiers are dying at the rate of 4000 per month, and during the year over 50,000 passed to the great beyond. Soon they will all be gone.

"Comrade Hooker has heard 'taps,' the lights are out, and he has said good night, but the reveille has sounded on the other side, and the roll has been called, and our comrade has answered to the great commander 'I am here.' When the 'taps' shall sound for each one of us and we are ready to say good night to this world, shall we answer to the roll call up there, 'I am here?'"

A Mother's Recommendation. I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a number of years and have no hesitancy in saying that it is the best remedy for coughs, colds and croup I have ever used in my family. I have no words to express my confidence in this remedy.—Mrs. J. A. Moore, North Star, Mich. For sale by Dr. Stone's drug stores.

NEGROES DRIVEN OUT. INDIANA, Pa., Feb. 24.—Ten days ago Sterling Aiken, a negro, shot and wounded Weldon Thomas, a bookkeeper of Webrun. Aiken escaped, but the Webrun residents ordered all the negroes in town—about twenty—to comply after neighborhood. Failing to do so, they were repeatedly requested, the white residents yesterday attacked the negroes' shacks with ropes and poles and pulled them down. The negroes then took their belongings and boarded a freight train for Vintondale.

CELEBRATION OF THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF LOUISIANA PURCHASE AT ST. LOUIS AND DEDICATION OF WORLD'S FAIR BUILDINGS APRIL 30TH NEXT.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 25.—The magnificent character of the ceremonies contemplated for the 30th of April next, at St. Louis has scarcely been touched upon. The occasion as the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Louisiana Purchase, and the dedication of the buildings for the World's Fair of 1904.

President Roosevelt, accompanied by his cabinet and the diplomatic corps, will attend. Former President Cleveland will deliver the principal address. Cardinal Gibbons, Bishop Potter and Bishop Hendricks will represent three of the great church organizations at the ceremonies. The Governors of the Louisiana Purchase states will be present, accompanied by their staffs. The National commission and board of lady managers of the Exposition, state and foreign commissions to the World's Fair and many other distinguished persons will take part in the event.

A public holiday season will be proclaimed, continuing for three days, April 30th, May 1st and 2d. Major General Henderson C. Corbin will be the grand marshal and over 5,000 Government troops and 10,000 members of the National Guard will attend the ceremonies in uniform and participate in the grand parades.

The fireworks display will be of a character surpassing any previous attempt in this line. The fireworks program covers the entire three days and provides both day and evening displays. The program for the evening display of Thursday, April 30th, contains fifty-two parts, and for Friday evening, May 1st, forty-four parts. On Saturday, May 2d, a day program only will be given. Among the many large features will be the unfurling of an American flag 300x400 feet in size and the flag of several of the leading nations of the world, 200x300 feet in size. These will be carried 2,500 feet in the air by seven immense balloons, and there the fireworks of which they are composed will be set off. One of the set pieces will be a representation, full size of the illuminated cascades and colonades of the Cascade Gardens. This will be over fifty feet high with central feature 200 feet high, and the whole over a quarter of a mile long. There will be flights of 100 rockets of various kinds, flights of 100 bombs, 1,000 triple star candles, 500 mammoth pneumatic whirlywinds, volleys of 1,000 showers, grand bouquets of 5,000 large colored rockets, a Jacob's ladder consisting of 1,000 special rockets, an illumination of the park and a flight of balloons carrying the flag of all nations, jeweled mines, 100 batteries of gyrated wonders, etc. The display is the largest ever planned, for any occasion.

Splendid musical events will be a part of the three-day celebration. Two hundred thousand visitors are expected, for which provision has been made by a complete canvass of the city, and provision will be made for the comfort of all.

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured with local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials free.

PROF. KERR RESIGNS

WILL LEAVE OREGON IN PURSUIT OF HEALTH IN ANOTHER CLIME.

(From Thursday's Daily).

At yesterday morning's assembly Professor Loran A. Kerr, of the department of natural science of the Willamette University, announced that he had taken the necessary steps for withdrawal from the teaching force of the University for the remainder of the year. This decision has come after considerable deliberation. It is neither due to a want of respect for the other members of the faculty nor because of the critical financial condition of the school at this special time. The resignation of Mr. Kerr has rather been necessitated by his poor health for some months past. He had at the beginning of the semester, been granted a leave of absence, but his trip to the South for recuperation failed to be as profitable as anticipated.

Loran A. Kerr is a native of Ohio. He was educated in the Ohio Wesleyan University. In the spring of '96 he contracted a severe attack of typhoid fever, and came to Tacoma to recover his strength. He then attended Puget Sound University and afterwards returned to the Ohio Wesleyan, whence he graduated in 1899, with the degree of A. B. He is a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, and was made an honor student in the department of physics. He came to Willamette in 1900, well recommended by President Bashford, D. D., and he has made good the promises of those who recommended him.

The faculty granted the students in the College of Liberal Arts a half holiday in honor of Washington's birthday. No program was rendered on account of the illness of Professor W. C. Hawley, who was to deliver a short address on the Father of His Country.

The senior class of the College of Oratory has been tendered an invitation to give several sections at an entertainment to be given in the near future by the Woodmen of the World in this city.

WAS SURE SUICIDE

ROGERS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR DEATH OF OLD MAN DAWKINS.

MILTON, Feb. 26.—The autopsy on the remains of the late Ira B. Dawkins, who was found shot through the head in his house, two miles below here, last Sunday morning, showed conclusively that Dawkins had committed suicide. At the request of J. A. Rogers, who lived with Dawkins, and whom some had connected with the tragedy, District Attorney Hailey and Sheriff Tyler came to Milton, went over the scene carefully, examined witnesses and conducted the autopsy. No suspicion, it was found, could be attached to any one.

Dawkins' act was a most determined one. He placed the muzzle of the 44 bulldog revolver as far as he could in his ear and pulled the bedclothes up around his head to muffle the sound. This was why Rogers, who was in an adjoining room, heard only a muffled noise, which he imagined was from a pot of water boiling on the stove. It was brought out at the examination that shortly after Rogers came into the room he noticed a starty look in Dawkins' eyes and a line of blood trickling over his face. Without further investigation he at once summoned neighbors, who lived close by, and a physician was called in a few minutes. When he arrived, the aged rancher was dead.

Some attached suspicion in a quiet way to Rogers because the Dawkins fruit farm, which was quite valuable, was to go to Rogers after Dawkins died. In return Rogers was to care for the old man during life, and so it is understood, pay him some money. Coming as it did, the affair was peculiarly unfortunate for Rogers, who was placed in a distressing position. He is entirely exonerated, however, and there was no talk of arrest at any time.

OFFICER IS EXONERATED.

BAKER CITY, Or., Feb. 25.—County Coroner Snow is at home from Richland, Engle Valley, where he went last week to hold an inquest over the remains of Jim Simons, who died from the effects of gunshot wounds inflicted by a revolver in the hands of City Marshal Frank Robertson. The jury exonerated the officer, as it was shown he was discharging his rightful duties, and that Simons had threatened to kill and was the first to open fire. Robertson gave himself up merely as a productive of high, and Simons' family is made the object of this. It is feared Joe Simons, a brother, will attempt to wreak vengeance upon Robertson.
