President Burt, of the Union Pacific; Superintendent Transportation Buckingham, and 50 linemen and telegraph operators went west today to open the line. All the Introduced by Mr. Eddy and Union Pacific trains are now running over the Burlington lines to Lincoln, and thence to Grand Island, to avoid the washouts. All the other roads with western onnection are experiencing similar trouble with washouts.

Flood reports are coming in today from a number of towns along the Elkhorn, Platte and Loup rivers. The most serious situation is at Columbus and Fremont. At the latter place the water, late last night, covered the lower part of the town. Inglewood, in the Southern limits, was under water by midnight, and many people had retired ignorant of their danger, and were awakened by the water rushing into their homes. The water is stationary today, and it is believed the high point has been reached. The towns of Stanton, Schuyler, Central City and St. Paul are still in the center of flooded
