Table with columns: Yesterday's Scores, Eugene, 4; Salem, 0. Standing of the Clubs, Won, Lost, P. C.

Despite the great confidence felt by Salem people in the ability of the Salem baseball team to meet all comers, the home team yesterday afternoon went down to a lachrymose defeat before the Eugene baseball team, on the Eugene diamond, by the score of 4 to 0.

Reference to the score shows that the defeat was entirely due to errors made by the home team, and not to good playing in the part of Eugene.

NEWS OF THE MOVEMENTS OF SALEM PEOPLE AND THEIR FRIENDS.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Goldberg, of Colusa, Cal., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known."

SELLING HAT.

The Hubbard correspondent of the Woodburn Independent reports that the famous-voiced Hubbard are busy making and stacking hay for the bales.

SOLD OUT AT TURNER.

Royal Wittschen, of Turner, was a Salem visitor yesterday. He sold his bicycle shop a short time ago and last week his father, John Wittschen sold his general merchandise store, residence and all other property in Turner to Winton & Dunn, of South Dakota, and will probably go into business in Oregon City.

Executive Clemency Prayed for in Behalf of Murderer Peacock

On the solicitation of the friends of both parties, the first charge in the justice court against Mr. Kirkpatrick of "Assault with a dangerous weapon" was withdrawn and simple assault substituted.

The charge of disorderly conduct was also dismissed from the municipal court against Mr. Middleton (the supervisor) for want of cause of action.

NAME OF SEVENTY-SEVEN OF LEADING CITIZENS OF POLK COUNTY ATTACHED ASKING FOR COMMUTATION OF SENTENCE TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT.

One of the strongest petitions ever presented to the Governor of Oregon, asking for executive clemency, was received yesterday by Governor George E. Chamberlain, from Oscar Hayter, a prominent attorney of Dallas, and the counsel for William P. Peacock, in the late trial by which he was convicted of murdering Alexander S. Kerr, at Parkersburg, Polk county, on May 18, 1903, and sentenced to be hanged at the State Penitentiary on August 7.

Governor Chamberlain Offers $300 Reward for Arrest of Robbers

REWARD WILL BE PERMANENT AND WILL APPLY TO THE ARREST AND CONVICTION OF ANY HIGHWAY ROBBERS IN THE FUTURE.

Governor Chamberlain yesterday issued a proclamation offering a standing reward for the arrest and conviction of any person attempting to rob a passenger on a public or private conveyance within the state of Oregon.

Such robberies occur quite frequently in the vicinity of the Capital City, and it is barely possible that the standing reward offered in the Governor's proclamation may serve materially in apprehending highwaymen in Marion county.

Proclamation.

Pursuant to the power vested in me by Section 2385 of the Oregon and Cotton's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Oregon, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, as Governor of the State of Oregon, hereby offer a standing reward of $300.00 for the arrest and conviction of each and every person engaged in the robbing or attempting to rob any person on a public or private conveyance, or on a highway, or on a train, or on other conveyance engaged in carrying passengers, or any private conveyance within this state.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the great seal of the State of Oregon, this seventeenth day of July, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and three.

GEORGE E. CHAMBERLAIN, Governor.

His mother came up from Portland to spend the summer with him. She hinted that his kitchen was too dingy and he repaired it, then she suggested that it made the other room not look well, and it, too, he papered, and finally he had to procure a carpet to make the floor correspond with the walls. He feels kinder curious to find things so nice around him, but is beginning to like it and may soon advertise for a permanent housekeeper."

HAS GONE TO JOIN DOWIE

A Former Salem Family Is Now in Zion City Illinois

H. W. SUTTON, WIFE AND TWO CHILDREN, NOW RESIDENTS OF THE CITY FOUNDED AND OWNED BY THE CHICAGO LEADER, JOHN ALEXANDER DOWIE.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

H. W. Sutton, wife and two children, went from Salem, Ore., to Zion City, Ill., in May. They have taken up their residence in Zion City and have become a part of the Zion City community.

For a long time, and at different times, Mr. Sutton worked as salesman for R. M. Wade & Co. of this city. He was a good worker. But both Mr. Sutton and his wife had for a good while before they departed been taking an interest in the Zion institution.

They had been receiving one of the papers published there, the "Zion Banner," and getting other literature from that place. They got the fever that so many others have so strangely contracted. So they sold their house and lot in Highland addition and collected together their belongings and went to Zion.

Dowie's City.

Most Stateman readers have heard of Zion City. It is located near Chicago, and the place was laid out and the whole city and all its institutions are practically owned by one man, the Rev. Alexander Dowie. This man Dowie has had a strange career. His city is founded upon a religious idea, or what passes as such, and his adherents, who are numerous, stand by him with an enthusiasm akin to that of the early Mormons in their devotion to Brigham Young.

Dowie has been able to get thousands, tens of thousands and hundreds of thousands of dollars from his followers to carry out his scheme of founding Zion City. He has put everything in his own name.

He carries on immense stores, under the name of the Zion City General Stores, John Alexander Dowie, proprietor. He has great hotels, one of them in Chicago, John Alexander Dowie, proprietor. He has a big grocery and commission house, John Alexander Dowie, proprietor. He has a big live barn, John Alexander Dowie, proprietor. He has a big real estate office, same. He has a big book and publishing house, same.

Zion City Bank, same. Here are the names of some of the streets in Zion City: Enoch avenue, Gilead avenue, Elizabeth avenue, Evra avenue, Gabriel avenue, Ezekiel avenue, Eschol avenue, etc.

There is a Shiloh Park, Zion College, Edina boulevard, etc. There is a lace factory, and many other manufacturing industries have been established, John W. Dowie, proprietor. The city has a mayor, John W. Dowie, proprietor, and the postoffice does a large business, John W. Dowie, proprietor.

The newspaper, the "Zion Banner," is owned and edited by John W. Dowie, and there are brick yards, lumber yards, sash and door factories, John W. Dowie, proprietor. Great Buildings. There are great buildings for meetings, and the Shiloh Tabernacle, now in process of construction, designed and erected by the Dowie followers, will be one of the wonders of the world. It is started by a late issue of the Zion Banner.

It will be the largest auditorium for religious purposes ever erected; the largest building ever erected for audiences to hear one man; the most complete modern house of worship in the world; exterior of red pressed brick, and framework of the interior of steel. The new building will cost $400,000.

The Kind of Man.

John W. Dowie is described as a man with powerful, magnetic bearing, a leader of men, and more especially of those easily led. He is an organizer. He is not a man of great erudition, but he has a grasp of affairs that is wonderful. Many who see and hear him and watch the progress of his undertakings believe he is not sincere in his religious fervor; that he is merely a schemer.

His followers look up to him as almost divine, and they follow him implicitly. It is understood that they become residents of Zion City, and that he in turn agrees to supply their worldly wants. It is a form of Socialism.

It seems strange that such a man is able to reach clear out here to Salem, Oregon, and draw in one of our families. But this is not an isolated case. Dowie has secured followers from all over the United States and all over the world.

There will be an end to all this, as there has been an end to every similar movement in the world. John Alexander Dowie, proprietor, leader and emperor, will die, and there will be no one to take his place. It will get old, this enthusiasm. Differences will grow up. But in the mean time Dowie is having wonderful success in accumulating a great deal of money and a great aggregation of cranks, and some who but for their joining the Dowie colony would not be regarded as cranks.

RETURNED FROM THEIR HOP YARD.

Russell Catlin and J. R. Linn returned yesterday afternoon from Jefferson, where they have been for the past week at their hop yard. They looked considerably the worse for wear, having been hard at work spraying hops, and will no doubt enjoy their Sunday rest. They report that the warm sun, and spraying together, are making short work of what lice are on the vines.

GOOD CROWDS ASSURED

SALEM PEOPLE ARE ANXIOUSLY WAITING FOR REOPENING OF SHIELD'S PARK.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

The reopening of Shield's Park takes place next Monday evening, and a program of rare excellence will be presented. As the warm weather has now set in, people will seek for outdoor amusements, and it is predicted that the park will draw good crowds.

Among the new faces to appear are Eva Thatcher, an entertainer of no mean order, who fairly delights the audience, and puts them in convulsions through her witty sayings and Irish brogue.

Charles Chenoweth, a cornetist of rare ability, will be heard in delightful solo work, and those that have had the pleasure of hearing him, say that he is a wonder on this chosen instrument.

For the acrobatic part of the program Manager Shield has specially engaged the Leons, who do a splendid aerial act, and will please all who live feats of strength. The children will be specially pleased by the dog and monkey circus, or the trained birds, as they so many wonderful tricks.

There is a possibility of securing Harry Sawyer, the great mimic and entertainer, and who is a whole show in himself. In illustrated songs, two new ones will be put on, and will be sung by Mr. J. W. Meyers, a singer of some talent, who recently appeared at the "Chutes" at San Francisco. The Polyscope will also introduce new novelties.

Shield's popular Portland Park is now playing to immense business, and the Portland papers speak in the highest praise of the excellence of his shows. Salem will have the best attractions from there, and nearly the entire Portland bill will be sent here each week.

There will be a performance every night now throughout the summer, and a good, clean, wholesome performance will be presented. From the interest already taken in the reopening, a good crowd is assured.
