SITUATION IN FAR EAST LOOKS GLOOMY ALL AROUND.

UNITED STATES MARINES

Are Landed at Seoul, Korea, to Afford Protection to American Legation.

Japanese Troops Lying Off Masanpho Ready to Land at a Moment's Notice—Russian Troops Also Active, But their Location is Kept Secret—Neither Country Can Yield.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—"Nobody will suspect the captain of an American man-of-war of being a scheming alarmist," says the Standard editorially this morning.

This sentence expresses the view taken by the press of Great Britain of the grave condition of things in the far East as revealed by the fact that the United States finds it necessary to send marines to Seoul for the protection of American interests. While it is still hoped a peaceful issue may be found this action is held to indicate the view of the situation taken at Washington is that the crisis is drifting rapidly to the danger point. The action of the United States is generally approved.

The Morning Post says editorially: "The landing of American marines proves that the United States is not watching the far Eastern imbroglio without intelligent interests."

The Daily Telegraph's Tokyo correspondent says: "The outlook is very warlike. The people are commenting on the absence of Baron De Rosen, the Russian Minister to Japan, from public functions for the last few days.

Seoul, Korea, Jan. 4.—A detachment of thirty-five marines from the United States steamer Vicksburg, now lying at Chemulpo, arrived here yesterday as a guard for the American legation.

Troops Are Moving. Paris, Jan. 6.—The Chefoo correspondent of the Herald cables as follows: Eight thousand of Japanese troops are ready to land at Masanpho and their landing will probably mean war.

Die Must Be Cast. Berlin, Jan. 6.—The semi-official Koelnsche Zeitung in publishing the news that the German far Eastern squadron had been ordered to concentrate at Tsingtau, says: "The vital political interest of Russia and Japan are clashing so sharply the yielding of either country would mean the abandonment of those interests. The die must soon be cast."

She Must Prosecute. Mrs. A. H. Ames, of Marshfield, Must Face the Man Charged With Her Assault.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 5.—An attachment was issued by the United States attorney today for Mrs. A. H. Ames, of Marshfield, Oregon, the woman who claims she was brutally assaulted while on the steamer Alliance some few months ago. She will be brought to this city to appear against Thomas Davis, to prosecute him for the heinous crime which it is alleged he committed.

CUT DOWN DIVIDEND. NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—The dividend of United States Steel common was passed at a quarterly meeting of the directors today, but the regular 1% was declared on preferred stock.

BECOMING ANOTHER

OF THE SUFFERING AND DANGER IN STORE FOR HER, ROBS THE EXPECTANT MOTHER

OF ALL PLEASANT ANTICIPATIONS OF THE COMING EVENT, AND CASTS OVER HER A SHADOW OF GLOOM WHICH CANNOT BE SHAKEN OFF.

Thousands of women have found that the use of Mother's Friend during pregnancy robs confinement of all pain and danger, and insures safety to life of mother and child.

This scientific liniment is a god-send to all women at the time of their most critical trial. Not only does Mother's Friend carry women safely through the perils of child-birth, but its use gently prepares the system for the coming event, prevents "morning sickness," and other discomforts of this period.
