More About Mormonism.

Wtshington, March 11.-The only witness on the stand today in the investigation of Senator Smoot's case before the Senate committee on privileges and elections, was E. B. Critchlow, formerly assistant United States attorney for Utah.

He continued ais history of the Mormon church, detaining instances in fairs and in which excommunication has been the price of an independent spirit. Senator Beveridge assisted in the examination and his attempt to prove first dull day of the hearing.
