

IS A BIG THING

LOOKS LIKE GOLD CREEK MINING AND MILLING CO. HAS STRUCK IT RICH.

They Have Ore That Assays $146.86 to the Ton, and the Indications Are That This Kind Exists in Unlimited Quantities on Their Holdings in the Santiam Mining District.

Otto Hansen, who is now managing the operations of the Gold Creek Mining and Milling Company, with its headquarters and most of its principal stockholders in this city, is very much elated over the result of an assay of ore from this mine, which is located in the Santiam district.

The mine is located above the forks of Gold Creek, which runs into the North Fork of the Santiam river. It is eight miles from Elkhorn postoffice, and sixteen miles from Gates, which latter place is on the Corvallis & Eastern railroad. There is a wagon road for eight miles from Gates, and the balance of the distance is covered by a good pack trail. Electric drill machinery is already in operation at the mine, propelled by water power, an 80-horse turbine wheel being used. The whole camp is lighted by electric lights. There are eight men employed, working two shifts day and night.

When there is enough ore in sight, the company will put in machinery to concentrate there at the mine. The company has a group of fourteen claims.

Cause of Elation.

The cause of the elation of Mr. Hansen, is a report of Mr. J. H. Fisk, of Portland, an experienced mining assayer and engineer. The ore that was sent to Mr. Fisk was taken from a stragler or chute from the main ledge, which main ledge will be reached within a few days, and there is every indication that there will be a large body of this same ore. The ore for the assay was found on a cross-cut 248 feet in. It shows up a value of $146.86 a ton, in gold and silver, mostly gold. This is enough to give Mr. Hansen dreams of riches, and to make the stockholders of the company begin to imagine themselves millionaires—and enough to make Salem look forward to the time when she will be the center of one of the greatest mining districts in the United States. Mr. Hansen promises to leave a sample of the ore at the Statesman business office.

The Assayer's Report.

Following is the report of the assayer, mentioned above:

"Mr. Otto Hansen, Salem, Oregon. Dear Sir: Yours of April 13th, together with the box of ore, received this morning. I have carefully assayed the ore and herewith inclose returns which are $146.86. I am confident that if you strike the ledge as you anticipate you will have a big thing and a permanent vein, because it is in micaralized rock, which is always a sure sign. Respectfully,

"J. H. FISK."

(The assay shows, per ton: 7 oz. gold, worth $144.09; 3.5 oz. silver, worth $2.17; total value per ton, $146.86.)

MISREPRESENTATION ALLEGED.

William G. Stanton Sues to Have Deed of Conveyance Set Aside.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

A suit in equity was yesterday filed in department No. 2 of the circuit court entitled William G. Stanton, plaintiff, vs. J. F. Bowman and wife, defendants. The action is brought for the purpose of setting aside a certain deed of conveyance, and as grounds for his complaint the plaintiff alleges the following: That prior to March 25, 1904, he was the owner of lot 4, in block 40, of North Salem and desiring to sell the lot or exchange the same for land outside of the city limits he procured the services of J. F. Bowman to make the sale or exchange; that the defendant, Bowman, did, on March 25, 1904, make an exchange of the lot for 13.24 acres of land, owned by H. H. Turner, and located in Polk county.

He claims that Bowman represented the acreage property to be free from rock, and that there was a lasting well of water located upon the premises, which representations, the plaintiff alleges, were false.

He asks for a decree of the court cancelling and setting aside the deed by which his lot was transferred to the possession of the defendants. Frank Holmes appears as attorney for the plaintiff.

NO CAUSE FOR ALARM.

Rising Waters of Willamette Checked by Cold Weather and Are Receding.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

The Willamette river has been rising steadily ever since the warm weather began, caused by the large supply of snow melting in the mountains, but at no time has there been the least danger of a freshet. Yesterday the river gauge registered 11 feet above low water mark and was slowly receding, the crest of the high water having passed Salem. In Portland fears are expressed of a flood and the weather bureau predicts that the highest water will not be reached until the middle of next week. The Columbia river is more affected with melting snow than the Willamette, and both rising at the same time give rise to fears of an inundation. It seldom happens that as warm weather is experienced in the valley when snow is banked so high in the mountains. The present stage of the river at Portland is over 16 feet, and at last reports was rising quite rapidly.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed at Dan J. Fry's drug store.

VICTIM OF DOPE

FRED LAMARAUX BELIEVED OF $240 IN THIS CITY THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

Was Treated to Glass of "Lemonade" After Which His Mind Became Blank—J. B. Sullivan Placed Under Arrest and Charged With Crime of Robbing Lamarau.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

Fred Lamarau, of Mill City, was doped and robbed of over $200 cash in this city Thursday afternoon, and J. B. Sullivan occupies a cell in the city jail charged with the crime. Lamarau left his home at Mill City a few days ago with several head of horses which he desired to dispose of, and arriving in Salem on Thursday morning he soon found ready sale for the animals, which netted him a neat sum of money. Having transacted his business he proceeded to take in the sights of the city, and in his rounds occasionally dropped into different places to satisfy his thirst. He soon found a "friend" who was willing to act as guide, and Lamarau having dropped the remark that he was interested in pianos, the "friend" found it convenient to style himself as a piano dealer, which proved to have the desired effect upon the visitor from the Santiam country, and the two were soon on their way looking for piano bargains.

The first place visited was a sporting house on Front street where the new friends passed a few social moments in drinking beer and entertaining the ladies (?). Mr. Lamarau was then invited to accompany his "friend" to a house on Ferry street where another piano was offered for sale at a great bargain. They were seen to walk east on Ferry street and enter the barn on the charge of "assault and battery" said to have been committed on the person of Ernest Martin. He young men, farmers residing north of this city, engaged in a fight during the afternoon, and Ernest Martin swore out a warrant for Walker's arrest. He was arraigned at 5 o'clock in the evening, and the time for the trial was set for Tuesday morning. The accused was allowed to go upon his own recognizance to appear at the time set for trial. Geo. G. Bingham appeared as attorney for the defendant in the case.

Southern Pacific Track Cleared—After a suspension of all through traffic for tw o days caused by a landslide in Southern Oregon, near Grants Pass, the road has again been cleared, and yesterday morning several delayed passenger trains passed through Salem for Portland. Last evening a number of trains with empty coaches passed through southbound, by this morning it is expected that all trains will be running on schedule time.

TO CURE MANGE

KREBS BROS. SWAMPED BY LETTERS ASKING FOR METHOD OF TREATMENT.

People Are Interested in All Parts of the Country—"It Is Absurd to Kill a Horse Affected With the Disease, Because It Can Be Cured in Ten Days," Said Conrad Krebs.

The discovery of a sure cure for mange seems destined to make the firm of Krebs Bros. famous, even more so than has their hop business. Conrad Krebs, to whom is due the credit for the discovery, is constantly besieged by letters from stockmen asking particulars about the preparation and mode of administering the treatment, so in order to avoid the necessity of answering so many personal letters in regard to the same, he agreed to make a statement for publication. Speaking of the method of treatment Mr. Krebs said: "First, the hair should be clipped, then wash the horse with soap and tepid water; dissolve from one half to one pound of blue vitrol in

TOOK HIS LIFE

INMATE OF VIOLENT WARD AT ASYLUM FOUND STARK AND COLD.

The Body Hanging Suspended By a Sheet From the Bars Across the Window—Possessed Suicidal Mania and Had Made Several Previous Attempts—Sent From Baker County.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

J. F. Jackson, an inmate of the violent ward of the insane asylum, committed suicide by hanging at an early hour yesterday morning. When an attendant entered the room at 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning the patient was found suspended in the air, hanging by a sheet wrapped around his neck and tied to the iron bars across the window. His bed was close to the window, which was securely barred, and he had evidently stepped to the window sill, and after tying the sheet firmly around his neck, and then stepped across the border into the next world. He was within easy reach of safety by stepping on to the window sill or the bed, but was determined to end his existence.

Coroner A. M. Clough was called at about 8:30 o'clock, and after making an examination decided that no inquest was necessary. The brother of the deceased, of Baker City, was communicated with, and Coroner Clough was ordered to properly prepare the remains for burial, and forward them to Baker City, which will be done today.

Deceased was 38 years of age, and had been in the asylum three years, having been sent from Baker county on May 18, 1901. He was afflicted with suicidal mania, and had made repeated attempts to commit suicide, by jumping from the windows, drowning himself in
