Young Ones All There
Say, do you know that the old maids say they are not going to the convention and that it is now agreed that every young woman who is not to be considered in that class is going to be at the convention at the Commercial church Friday evening. And I have heard it said that every young man in Salem is intending to see that convention without fail, so that each one may see who the old maids are, by their absence. If you are not to be classed as a bachelor maid, be on hand to see how the old maids act and how they can be cured.

Ladies "At Home"
Today begins the new arrangement among the ladies of Salem under which it was decided that the ladies of a certain portion of the city should receive or be "at home" on certain Wednesdays of the month. Today the ladies living east of the S. F. railroad on 12th Street will be ready to receive their lady callers. Some will be at home to both ladies and gentlemen in the evening. Mrs. Governor T. T. Geer and Mrs. C. P. Bishop will receive together at the residence of Governor Geer, and will hold an informal reception there in the evening. It is believed that all the ladies in the district will conform with the new arrangement.

Died Near Mehama
Word reached this city yesterday afternoon to the effect that Addison Wright, a former resident of this city, who is quite popularly known, had died at his home near Mehama, at or about midnight of Monday of this week, and that the remains would be brought to this city for burial today. Deceased was a son-in-law of General and Mrs. W. H. Byars, his wife being a sister of Mrs. S. W. Thompson. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his demise, besides a host of friends in Salem who will regret to hear the news of his death. Mr. Wright has been a resident of the Mehama neighborhood for several years past, and has been a sufferer of tuberculosis for many years, also which was the direct cause of his death. The funeral will take place at the undertaking parlors of W. T. Rigdon at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. Deceased was a prominent member in good standing of the Woodmen of the World and Knights of Pythias lodges of this city, under the

Street Cleaning Campaign
Street Commissioner H. C. Tarpley is inaugurating a vigorous campaign for clean streets in Salem, and will enforce the city ordinance in regard to throwing grass and other rubbish into the streets. He complains that many people now persist in throwing the grass mown from the lawns into the streets, causing them to be unsightly, and he is calling upon them to assist him in beautifying the city for the summer. He now has a force of men at work cleaning the streets and removing all rubbish and weeds. This is a good move, and a very timely one for the city, and naturally beautifying should stand all the property holders should stand up for the city and help push on the good work. He also has two teams hauling gravel onto the streets and intends to gravel many miles of streets this summer. At present the gravel is being put onto Cottage street.

Baste the affected parts freely, keep them warm and do not expose yourself to cold and dampness. Medical science marches right along, but it has not found the equal of Painkiller in the treatment of neuralgia.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.
"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Pa. At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by Dan. J. Fry.

Whooping Cough.
"In the spring of 1901 my children had whooping cough," says Mrs. D. W. Capps, of Capps, Ala. "I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with the most satisfactory results. I think it is the best remedy I have ever seen for whooping cough." This remedy keeps the cough loose, lessens the severity and frequency of the coughing spells, and counteracts the tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Dan J. Fry.

D. Tredway arrived in Salem on Tuesday evening from Humboldt, South Dakota. He has rented a house and barn, and his sons will arrive in a short time with the household effects and some horses, after which they will look around and see how they like Oregon before settling down. So far, he is much pleased with this part of the state. Mr. Tredway was not like an entire stranger upon arriving, for he has been reading the Statesman for about eight years, and lately he has been receiving the Pacific Homestead. In this way he has been able to judge something of the conditions here. Mr. Tredway will make a valuable citizen, which is almost certain.

Aldermen Bayne, Gesner, Hughes, Sims, Smith Churchill and Young voted for, and Aldermen Acheson, Catlin, Downing, Crossan, Hubbard and Walker, against the bill, Alderman Jacobs being absent. It at once became apparent that someone had hoodled the wrong train, and Alderman Smith quickly arose to his feet and stated he had made a mistake as he had intended to vote against the bill. Others acknowledged being in the same boat and asked permission to change their votes, but the bill having been declared duly passed by Mayor Waters the requests were ruled out of order. After a hasty consultation by the members opposed to the bill a motion was made to reconsider the vote by which the bill was passed. Alderman Bayne rose to a point of order but was overruled by the mayor, and the bill was once more brought before the council upon its passage and was killed. Aldermen Bayne, Gesner, and Hughes being the only members voting in its favor.

A Great Horse
M. J. Zahner arrived in Salem on Sunday last from Pleasanton, California, bringing with him some fine horses, among them Waldstein, one of the greatest stallions on this coast, or in the United States, according to breed. Mr. Zahner formerly had his headquarters in Humboldt county, Cal., and quarters in Humboldt family to Salem he has brought his family to Salem with the intention of making this city his permanent home. They have established their residence at the State Fair grounds. Mr. Zahner appears like a hardy and energetic man, and he certainly has a horse in Waldstein to do a profitable business here, and one that will redound to the benefit of all farmers and horsemen, and consequently to the country generally. The breeding and description of Waldstein will be found in the advertisement that is run in the Sunday Statesman, and in the Friday issue of the Twice-a-Week Statesman.

KILLED THE BILL

COUNCIL PASSES REPEAL BILL BUT DISCOVERS MISTAKE AND RECONSIDERS VOTE.
Alderman Gesner Suggests Appointment of a Steering Committee—City Will Build Cement Walk and Curb Along East Side of Marion Square—Enumerators Appointed.

As a result of the surprise sprung upon the city council by Alderman Gesner two weeks ago, when he introduced a bill for an ordinance to repeal the ordinance licensing and taxing nickel-in-the-slot machines the members of that body were thrown into such a state of confusion during the meeting last evening that the father of the repeal bill was prompted to suggest the appointment of a steering committee. During the early part of the session Chairman Bayne of the ordinance committee asked for further time in which to report upon the bill, the request being granted without opposition. Later Alderman Catlin introduced a bill the text of which was the same as that of the ordinance now in force, with the exception of the monthly license fee, which, on the small slot machines was raised from $2.50 to $3, and on large machines from $4 to $6. The bill was read the first and second times and referred to the ordinance committee, after which, upon motion, the repeal bill was taken from the hands of the committee, read the third time and placed upon its final passage. Here it was where the aldermen got tangled up in the proceedings as the vote resulted in the

The council has at last decided to take steps to assist the park board in improving the public parks of the city, at least to make a beginning, and the action taken is largely due to the urging efforts of the ladies of the Marion Square Improvement League. The park board committee recommended that a cement sidewalk and curb be built along the east side of Marion Square, the recommendation being made in the form of a report which was adopted, and the committee on streets was instructed to prepare plans for the sidewalk and report the same to the council at the next regular meeting and also to advertise for bids for the construction of the walk and curb. The recorder was also instructed to draw warrants in favor of the treasurer of the park board for one half of the amounts set apart for the improvement of Willson Avenue and Marion Square, which will place $250 into the hands of the board to be used at its discretion. Chairman Hubbard of the park committee reported that the committee had granted permission to the Woodmen of the World lodge to use Willson Avenue as a place for holding a carnival in June, the lodge having agreed to take good care of the grounds, and to provide for special police during the carnival.

Mr. Hart is still confined to his house, but expects to be out in a few days. The candidates of the Polk County Republicans and the central committee will meet at Dallas on Wednesday. Mr. Hart is anxious to make a complete canvass of Polk County, which will occupy at least three weeks, and hopes to give the Republican ticket a good majority. He seems to think that, while not counting on a large majority, there is no doubt of electing the entire ticket.

Hon. U. Scott Loughary, present county clerk and candidate for state senator, also expressed a strong sense of satisfaction with the prospects. Mr. Loughary, however, appreciates that there are a great many Democrats yet in Polk County, and that a strong effort is necessary to maintain the Republican majority. One thing all seem afraid of is the shortness of the registration. The same conditions seem to prevail in Polk County that prevails in Marion County, and a great many voters have so far failed to register.

FOOTBALL COACH

CHAUNCEY BISHOP WILL COACH WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY NEXT FALL.

Was Signed Saturday by Manager Miller and Was Good News for the Athletes—Bishop Has Phenomenal Record on Gridiron and Will No Doubt Put Out Winning Team.

E. K. Miller, manager of the Willamette University football team for this year, has engaged Chauncey Bishop to coach the University team for the season, and expects to put out a team which will be able to defy anything which dares to show itself on the gridiron in Oregon next fall. Mr. Bishop has few superiors in the United States as a football player as is shown by his being accorded a position on the All American team. His football experience has been one continual triumph, wherever he went, and no team on which he has played has claimed a superior, while most of them have accorded him the honor of being the champion.

It is not necessary to say anything of his ability, in his home city, where he began playing, and where his many friends have eagerly and proudly watched his advance from a popular Salem boy to one of the most renowned football men of the United States. Chauncey began his career in 1900, when he played half on the Willamette University team, which won the state football championship for the season. In 1901 he played with the Salem Giants, who were conceded to be the strongest football aggregation ever brought together in the state. In 1902 he played a star game with the stalwart Multnomah team and last year held a position of end on Columbia University team and won a position on the All American team. His playing last year was phenomenal. Besides playing end he did all of the punting for his team, and several times a sensational punt won the game. He also won the punting contest at Columbia, an average of about 60 yards. He was coached by Coach Morley, who held a position on the All American team for two years, and was last year captain of the All Americans.

Willamette will this year boast of having the best coach on the coast and with the start which was made last year and the year previous they will be able to put out a splendid team. This is certainly good news for old Willamette and the athletes certainly had good reason to rejoice. Chauncey being an old student of Willamette, and a resident of this city, will naturally put forth his best efforts for the team, and feel more personal interest than would a total stranger, as was Coach Dietz last year.

Mr. Bishop has a wide acquaintance among the young men of the state, and will by his popularity, no doubt be able to induce many husky young men to attend the University next year and he may be depended upon to make football players of them.
