PARK FOUNTAIN

THE BRONZE PIONEER HAS ARRIVED AND WILL BE PLACED IN POSITION SOON.

The Park Board and Mayor Waters Meet With the Donors to Arrange Plans For Locating the Breyman Fountain at the West End of Willson's Avenue.

On March 31, 1903, the mayor and common council of this city received a letter from Mr. Werner Breyman and Mrs. M. E. Breyman which is again published for the information of the readers of this paper. In their communication they said:

"Gentlemen: We, the undersigned, pioneer citizens of the city of Salem, Oregon, actuated by loyalty to the home spot we chose many years ago and have cherished for the span of nearly half a century; in honor of the city that we have seen grow from a village, and that has been the center of those innuerable episodes of joys and sorrow that go to make the sum of life; and to mark, even by limited expression, the gratitude we feel for the honors and blessings that have been wrought in our careers by the friendly associations and business opportunities that have been ours, do, now, and here, tender to the city of Salem, Oregon, in perpetuity, a public drinking fountain for man and beast, and pray that the same shall be accepted by the said city as a gift from us; that the city shall locate and maintain the same, together with water and light, at a point in the center of Cottage street, equi-distant from Court and State streets, to be there kept, forever, for the comfort and pleasure of all who may seek it.

"All plans and specifications will be duly submitted to your honorable body, or to any committe to whose charge you shall assign the matter.

"With respect, we are, your fellow-citizens."

The fountain referred to in the above letter has been received, and steps will be taken immediately with a view to placing it on the site selected for it. President Chas. A. Gray and Mrs. Wm. Manning of the Park Board, Mayor F. W. Waters and Architect W. C. Knighton met with Mr. Werner Breyman, Mr. R. P. Boise, Jr., and Mr. Wm. Brown at the residence of Mr. Breyman yesterday, to discuss plans and to make arrangements.

The fountain will be placed on the east side of Cottage street, at the end of the new walk laid through Willson's avenue, and will be set in a curve, which will be made in the walk leading from Court to State street.

The fountain has not been unpacked yet, hence it is impossible to give a description of it. This will be done as soon as possible. The figure is of a pioneer looking and pointing to the west, and is in bronze. The figure will be nineteen feet high, is six feet across the base and weighs 5000 pounds. It will have a trough for animals as well as a cup for thirsty mankind. It will be a very attractive feature in the park.

Portland To The Rescue

So great has been the demand for pianos and organs during our closing out sale that we are actually forced, not only to extend the time limit of the sale, but to appeal to our Portland store for goods to fill our orders. We never expected the Salem public to respond so overwhelmingly to our offer to sell out the Salem stock at jobbing prices, neither would we dream under ordinary circumstances of ordering a piano from the Portland store to be sold at a cut rate. However, we do it now, not so much as a matter of immediate profit, as a mark of appreciation for our late success. This has been the greatest sale of high grade instruments Salem has ever experienced. Salem has never had the remarkable piano opportunities which now confront her.

SUPREME COURT.

Six Decisions Handed Down by the Judges at the Morning Session Yesterday, on Appeals From Various Counties.

The supreme court handed down six decisions at noon yesterday, none of which were of great importance except to the sections in which they originated.

Justice Bean reversed the decision of the lower court and ordered a new trial for the case of W. H. Goltra, executor of the will of Hugh Fields, deceased, against Jane Penland, executrix of the will of William Penland, in which the defendant received the verdict and judgment.

The plaintiff claimed Penland had in his possession 3719 sheep belonging to Fields, which he was keeping on shares, and which he afterward sold and made no settlement with the owner, to his damage in the sum of $10,306.

A new trial was ordered in the case of the Fire Association of Philadelphia against John Ollesind, of Prtland. The atter held a policy against the company for $2000 on a stock of umbrellas and parasols which were destroyed by fire on April 28, 1903. The loss was appraised at $13,562.18, and the total amount of insurance carried was $11,500.

The company alleges that the policy was void because at the time it was issued, the stock was covered by a chattel mortgage, and they also claim the books were padded with figures and with this proof the appraisers set the loss which was in reality not more than $7000.

The decision of the lower court in awarding damages to Louis Anderson in his suit against the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company was affirmed by Justice Wolverton. A quantity of wheat owned by Anderson in a warehouse at Cayuse, in Umatilla county, was destroyed by fire caused by sparks from a locomotive on the O. R. & N. Co.'s tracks. The court held that the engine was overloaded and proper precaution had not been taken to prevent the spread of sparks and cinders.

Justice Wolverton affirmed the decision of the lower court in the claim of T. W. Thompson against B. F. Purdy, of Washington county, associated in business as the Gaston Co-operative Milling Company. The company borrowed $4000 and the plaintiff was compelled to pay off the notes, and sued defendant for his portion, and judgment was rendered for plaintiff. The defendant claimed he advanced an equal amount of money by agreement, for repairs. The sole issue at the trial was the answer.

Hattie Jones was refused a divorce from William Jones, of Pendleton, by Chief Justice Moore, and the lower court was affirmed. The testimony showed both principals equally to blame for the quarrels and evenly matched in encounters.

The case of John A. Wood, et ux., against Richard M. Fisk, et al., from Wallowa county, which was decided in favor of the defendant in the lower court, was reversed by Justice Bean, and remanded for a new trial. The suit was for the possession of real property and for damages.
