MAY REMARKY

INNOCENT PARTY IN A DIVORCE CASE MAY AGAIN CONTRACT MATRIMONY.

The Condition Is that Satisfactory Proof Must Be First Supplied By Applicant, and then the Clergy May Use Its Own Discretion.

BOSTON, Oct. 20.—By an overwhelming majority the compromise union on the re-marriage of divorced persons was adopted by the House of Deputies of the Episcopal General Convention today. It occurred in the House of Bishops, the most important issue that has come before the present convention will be disposed of for at least three years. A compromise measure, like the old law, permits the re-marriage of the innocent person to a divorcee for the cause of infidelity, and will be allowed within one year after the decree has been issued by a civil court. Satisfactory proof of the innocence of the applicant for re-marriage must be furnished in the shape of the court records, and even after the consent of the Bishop has been obtained, the clergyman may refuse to perform such ceremony without subjecting himself to censure or discipline.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by all druggists.

JAPANESE DIET CONVENED. TOKIO, Oct. 19.—An imperial ordinance has been issued convening the Diet on November 28.

It seems to have been the end for the time being of the fighting on a large scale which began when Kuropatkin announced that the time had arrived for an advance against the Japanese. Heavy rains and consequent bad roads made military operations on either side extremely difficult, if not impossible. The interruption, according to advices received from St. Petersburg, is being utilized by both the Russian and Japanese commanders in making new dispositions of their forces and new objectives are likely to develop when active operations are resumed. A Tokio dispatch states that the Japanese government will seek to make representations to St. Petersburg through the American Embassy against the alleged use of Chinese uniforms by Russian troops, in violation of the usages of war. Russia is hastening the organization of a second Manchurian army.

Japs Considered as Winning.

London, Oct. 19.—English newspapers and military critics find it difficult to appreciate the exact strategic significance attaching to Kuropatkin's operations on the Shakhe river. It is supposed his success here is due to his having kept three divisions of troops in reserve and it is admitted the attack on Lone Tree Hill may have been an intentional counter stroke after drawing out the Japanese from their strong positions. The balance of their opinion, however, favors the idea that this is a desperate endeavor to cover the retreat of his forces from the Bensiuh district and the battle of the Shakhe may be considered as ended in a victory, but not a decisive one, for the Japanese who are too exhausted to follow up their success.

Russians Question Jap's Movements.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 20.—For the moment the heavy rains and impassable roads have compelled a suspension of operations in Manchuria. Practically no fighting was done yesterday. There is evidence of a new disposition of the forces on both sides. Kuropatkin is extending his right, whether with a view to a turning movement for the safety of Lone Tree Hill, the importance of which point is fully realized by the Japanese who have attempted to re-take it in two night attacks, or whether to meet and thwart the Japanese turning movement from the west has not yet developed. The Japanese also appear to be shifting their weight westward. Velled hints continue to arrive that the Russians have recovered from the blow inflicted last week by Oyama, and that Kuropatkin is preparing for a new struggle as soon as the roads become passable. Two Associated Press dispatches from Mukden tonight mention reports that the Japanese are already preparing to retire and the war office admits that Kuropatkin's left has again moved slightly forward, but no light is thrown upon the movements of the Japanese. An utter lack of late news from Tokio and the enemy is so reassuring he may really be preparing a surprise movement instead of a retreat.

Reports of Missionary Districts by the Joint Commission Appointed Three Years Ago Received—Recommends a Grouping into Provinces.

BOSTON, Oct. 18.—The divorce issue again came up before the Episcopal Convention today but no final action was taken on the several resolutions referring to the subject. The House of Bishops sent a message to the Deputies informing them the Bishops had voted to forbid re-marriage of any divorced persons, but when the matter was laid before the Deputies, Drs. Parks and Huntington, both of New York, immediately set the parliamentary machinery in motion to defeat, or at least to side-track Bishops' resolution. After a spirited skirmish the matter was referred to the committee on canons. The joint commission appointed three years ago presented an extended report recommending that all dioceses and missionary districts be grouped into seven provinces, each province to have authority to legislate on matters which do not conflict with the general convention.

The joint commission of provinces submitted a lengthy report in favor of instituting a provincial system providing for the grouping of dioceses into provinces, each province to have authority to legislate on certain matters which do not conflict with the general convention. Among the provinces proposed are the following: The dioceses in Kansas, Oklahoma and the Indian Territory, and seven other middle states, the dioceses and missionary districts in Colorado, Utah, Idaho, Wyoming, Minnesota, North and South Dakota and Nebraska. The dioceses and missionary districts in Washington, Oregon, California, Nevada, New Mexico, Arizona, Alaska, Hawaii and the Philippine Islands. The report of the legislative body in the province to be a synod of two houses, a House of Bishops, embracing all the Bishops residing in the province; and a house of clerical and lay delegates.

STRUCK BY TRAIN

EVENING LOCAL STRIKES THROUGH A LYONS WHILE CROSSING THE TRACK.

Young Man Seriously Bruised and Cut About the Head—Horse Torn Violently from Buggy and Suffers Instant Death—Escape Narrow.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Last evening as the Albany South-bound Local, No. 13, in charge of Conductor F. S. Hoffman, was speeding toward Salem it struck a horse driven by Theron A. Lyons, drug clerk in store of J. Haberly, badly wounding the young man, and killing the horse instantly. The accident occurred at a point a few hundred yards above the Fairgrounds, where the Hayesville road crosses the Southern Pacific tracks. The wagon road runs almost parallel with the railroad for some distance at this point and the train approaching at its back was no doubt unobserved until the horse was fairly upon the track. The animal was literally torn from the vehicle, and carried about one hundred and fifty feet down the track on the cow-catcher, the buggy was broken into fragments while the young man was pitched headlong upon the road. Passengers and trainmen alike felt the shock when the train struck them but only upon reaching the Fairgrounds and discovering that their headlight was demolished did they realize that the jar felt at the crossing signified anything unusual. They hurriedly backed the train to that point where they found Mr. Lyons lying in an unconscious condition beside the track, while the debris of his buggy, and advertising matter which it had contained, lay scattered in all directions. He was placed aboard the train and brought to this city, where he was taken at once to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lyons, of No. 371 Capital street.

Dr. W. B. Morse was summoned and pronounced the young man's injuries serious, but not likely to prove fatal. He was badly cut about the head, a deep gash extending almost across the back of his head, above the ears. Mr. Lyons has been employed for the past two years in Mr. J. Haberly's drug store at No. 118 State street, and yesterday started out to distribute some advertising matter for Mr. Haberly. He had spent the day in the county, and it was upon his return home last evening that he met with the terrible accident.

The news of the accident prostrated Mr. Haberly.

ABOUT PHOTOS

SOMETHING OF THE WORK OF THE SECESSIONISTS IN THE UNITED STATES.

Proposed that Lewis and Clark Exposition Secure a Collection of First Class Works of Photographic Art for That Exhibit Next Year.

In connection with the "Salon Portfolio" of photographs mentioned in yesterday's Statesman, Mrs. Wiggins was asked why she did not contribute and she explained that although invited by the promoters to participate, as a member of the Photo-Secession of New York she in common with the members of that organization, felt obliged to decline on account of certain principles for which their organization stands.

The Photo-Secession of New York is an organization of pictorial photographers whose sole aim is the advancement of photography as an art. Mr. Alfred Stieglitz, said to be America's best known photographer, is the director and all work passed through his hands is accepted in any European photographic salon. In fact no foreign exhibit is considered complete without an exhibit from the Photo-Secession, and these collections are in such demand that the director is compelled to refuse more than half the requests.

To quote from a recent publication: "It is a remarkable comment upon the status of the photographic societies of the United States that the Photo-Secession has been singled out by all the important European photographic and art exhibitors as the only one worthy to be invited, and invited hors concours, at that."

"At the time this is written the Secession has collections at the art exhibitions at Dresden, Germany; Bradford, England; and at the photographic exhibitions in The Hague, Holland; Paris, France; and Vienna, Austria. The size of these collections varies from thirty-three to 144 frames, the number now in Europe at all these exhibitions aggregating about 400." It is possible for the Lewis and Clark management to secure a Secession loan exhibition if the right steps are taken. This would be of great educational value to the Pacific Northwest and to all visitors at the Fair. The Metropolitan Camera Club of New York, a large organization with Curtis Bell at its head, stands in opposition to the Photo-Secession and it is said by the photographers to be unfortunate for the interest of photography that these two bodies cannot unite.

TO SELL IN ENGLAND.

Hope by Dealing Directly to Get More for Product.

EUGENE, Or., Oct. 19.—An effort is being made by a number of Lane county hop growers to create a direct market in England for their product, and with that end in view, John Davies, a local grower and speculator, has left for England with a number of samples of hops, representing about 1500 bales, grown by a half dozen or more persons in this vicinity. Mr. Davies hopes to be able to arrange matters so that by shipping direct to England those in the scheme may realize much more than could be obtained here.

Confessions of a Priest. Rev. Jno. S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes: "For twelve years I suffered from Yellow Jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters and feel that I am now cured of a disease that had me in its grasp for twelve years." If you want a reliable medicine for Liver and Kidney trouble, stomach disorders or general debility, get Electric Bitters, it's guaranteed by D. J. Fry, Salem. Only 50c.

Benicia Hancock Reversible Side Hill Disc

Plows a "go in and com in." This plow is a boon to the side hill farmer, who has a hard time trying to throw the dirt up hill. This throws every furrow down hill and no time is lost going around a land. Four of these in use in vicinity of Salem.

Benicia Hancock Gang Plows

Are the old reliable sort that please the farmer who is up against a tough proposition. Our sales this fall are more than twice as large as last fall, and that's saying a good deal.

ASK TO BE SHOWN

Chilled or steel mould boards, Joints if desired, Rear wheel controller, Land gauge, Perfect four horse eveners, with plenty of room for four large horses. Heavy castings and extra strength for rough ground. More Benicia Hancocks in use than any two other disc plows.

Monitor Double Disc Drills

It's in the Discs, and the all around construction. Three more sent out this week, one each, 12 bar, 14 bar and 18 bar. You never yet saw a Monitor Double Disc customer who would exchange his drill for any other sort.

The double disc drill places the seed in the ground at an even depth, in a perfect seed bed. It does not tear out the trash you have taken pains to cover, for if it can't cut through, it rolls over. It handles wetter ground than any other style of drill. It will not clog in any kind of soil. One enthusiastic user says that he can seed down a sod field if necessary.
