

WE WON AND LOST

DECISION OF THE REFEREE GIVES GAME TO PORTLAND.

A GREAT FOOT BALL GAME

Willamette Team Played Most Excellent Ball and Held the Famous Players of Portland Down.

Referee, It Is Said, Acknowledges He Was Wrong in His Decision That Gave Game to Multnomah—Score Finally Was Six to Nothing.

PORTLAND, Or., Dec. 10.—(Special to The Statesman.)—By the rank decision of the referee, Multnomah won from Willamette this afternoon by a score of 6 to 0. Willamette played a magnificent game against overwhelming odds. It was conceded by Multnomah men to have been the finest game played in Portland for years, if not ever.

Time and again Pollard, Rader and Nace would break through the line for five and ten yards. Captain Long covered himself with glory by going around the end and down the field for 30 yards, the longest run of the day. James, Marker and Nelson played star ball. Twice James broke through the line and tackled the man with the ball behind the line, a thing never done against Multnomah by an Oregon team this year. Marker played the famous Dr. Ross to a stand still, and Nelson, although pitted against a man twice his size, proved to be his equal at every stage of the game. Nace further distinguished himself by felling the great Chester Murphy in one of his attempted end runs. Owing to the magnificent work of Hinkle and Patton, Murphy failed to get away for a single long run. Lounsbury, on defensive, was a tower of strength, while Quarterback Beach, although ill, was in evidence, with his generalship at every stage of the game.

Willamette's one weak point was in punting, and had she had a good kicker, M. A. A. C. would never have come within striking distance of the goal. Multnomah was held for downs fully as many times as Willamette, and only saved herself by excellent punting.

The star players for the M. A. A. C. were Lonergan and Murphy. Lonergan, coach of this year's Columbia University team, is certainly a whirlwind. Murphy went in in the second half, and although he was unable to carry the ball for any big gains, he put his team on their feet and saved the day.

In the first half, with the exception of kicking, Willamette really outplayed the big fellows. Neither goal was in danger during this half, but the ball surged back and forth across the center of the field.

In the second half the ball was in Willamette territory most of the time, due solely to the kicking of Murphy, and fumbles.

Fumbles twice placed the Willamette goal in danger, but by making a stand on the four-yard line, they not only held the giant Multnomahs, but pushed them back and took the ball. Later the ball was in Multnomah possession on Willamette's one-yard line, but through that Willamette line they could not make an inch. After getting the ball out of these times, they carried it steadily and surely down the field, only to lose it once on a fumble and once on a punt, made necessary by a penalization. It was in this forced punt that the referee made the rank decision, which gave Multnomah the chance to score. The ball was passed back to Rader for the kick, who fumbled it, but regained it immediately and kicked it against a Multnomah man, making it anybody's ball who could fall on it, which was done by a Willamette man. The referee, however, awarded the ball to M. A. A. C. by a hard struggle, during which "Buck" Nace was forced by an injury to retire from the game, the club men were enabled to score, five minutes before the close of the half. Neither goal was in danger after this.

Before the game was ended it became so dark that one could hardly see across the field.

Multnomah had by far the strongest line-up that she has had this year, but in spite of this fact, Willamette put up a much better game against her than did the University of Oregon.

The Salem lads feel that they as good as won a victory.

The line-ups follow:

- Multnomah: Nelson, Sealey, Kirkey, Capt. Dowling, R. Hinkle, M. Long, Ross, Long, James, Dow, Rader, Jordan, Lounsbury, Nace, Hinkle, Murphy, Johnson, Dolph, Lounsbury.

Referee—Ruddy of Salem.

Umpire—Zercher of Salem. (From one who was there it is learned the referee later acknowledged his decision was wrong.)

IN INTEREST OF LABOR.

DENVER, Dec. 9.—George Estes, president of the United Brotherhood of Railway Employees, and a member of the executive board of the American Labor Union, and Clarence Smith, general secretary-treasurer of the American Labor Union, met the executive board of the Western Federation of Miners today, for the purpose of discussing the plans for advancement of the American Labor Union and its subordinate unions. They announced that no thought had ever been given the possibility of the miners federation affiliating with the American Federation of Labor.

A FORMIDABLE DOCUMENT.

Indictment Against Assassins of Minister Von Plehve Recites Interesting Facts.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 9.—The indictment on which Sasonoff, the assassin of Minister of the Interior Von Plehve, and Sikorifsky, his accomplice, will be tried December 13 is a formidable document reciting the history of the assassination plot and the details of the crime, revealing for the first time the interesting facts about the used and the confessions made by them and winding up with the formal charge. The document, which has been shown to the Associated Press, states that both Sasonoff and Sikorifsky belonged to a fighting organization of the social revolutionists, the central committee of which was organized abroad in 1902. The object of the organization is to overthrow the autocracy and replace them with a republican socialist regime. The indictment describes in detail the murder of Von Plehve and his coachman; how Sasonoff was stationed in front of the Warsaw Hotel and Sikorifsky beyond the canal bridge and says the bomb struck the carriage between the Minister and the coachman, killing both and injuring eleven others. The whole narrative of the indictment confirms the Associated Press reports regarding the affair.

STOCK REPORT

COUNTY STOCK INSPECTOR REPORTS ON CONDITIONS OF MARION COUNTY STOCK

Some Disease Reported But Only in Sporadic Cases—Some Cautions Regarding Food for Stock—Improvements by Importation of Full-Bloods.

D. D. Keeler, stock inspector of Marion county, in his quarterly report to the county court says:

"Stock of all kinds is in fair condition, and there has been this fall no infectious or contagious disease manifest. Early in the fall it was thought that we would have a very close hard time to get the stock through the winter, owing to the scarcity of the feeding products, and also their nitrogenous condition having grown slowly on account of the long, dry weather. Hay seemed deficient, the fibre seemed quite woody, and hard to digest, but the weather turning very favorable grass sprang up, and stockmen have not had to feed very much dry feed, at least but little hay, as yet this fall.

"In a few localities there have been some cases of ergot poisoning (commonly known as staggers) in horses. I suppose from the feeding of oat hay or oat. I have seen a few cases of verminous bronchitis or worms in the lungs of calves this fall, but it has not attacked any great number as yet, that I know of. Calves and sheep seem to keep in good condition on the grass that has grown. Since the fall rains set in no weather has yet been cold enough to retard their growth.

"I would like to caution our people while I am speaking on the food question, to say that a good deal of bran should be used in the food this season. We cannot have a balanced ration if something of this kind is not added in abundance, owing to the coarse and nitrogenous condition of some of the obtained foods.

"There has been quite a shipment of butcher stock, hogs and sheep, also of breeding stock, and I am unable at this time to give the gross number or price received for said stock. In this connection permit me to say I am surprised that any shipper has the heart to attempt the handling and shipping of butchers' stock with the poor facilities afforded him anywhere along the lines of railroad passing through our county. Many of our farmers and stockmen are rapidly improving their stock by the importing of thoroughbred and full-bloods and I think one of the prime factors in this improvement is our State Fair, held within this county. Probably nowhere in the state can be found better sheep, coats, Hereford (white faced) and Jersey cattle, well bred horses, both of the heavy draft and carriage breeds, saying nothing of the good drivers.

"I have not as yet made a tour of the different dairies of this county, but intend to in the near future, and am promised the company of Pure Food Inspector Bailey in my rounds, especially among those supplying Salem with milk. When I have made such inspection I shall be pleased to bring before you my findings."

AFTER DIVORCE

MRS. OLIVE S. ENRIGHT SUES FOR DIVORCE FROM J. F. ENRIGHT HER HUSBAND.

Cause Set Forth Is Cruel and Inhuman Treatment—Were Married Two Years Ago in Houston, Texas—Mr. Enright Is in Business Here.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

Papers were filed in the office of the county clerk yesterday evening at a late hour by the attorneys for Mrs. Olive Enright, in which she applies to the circuit court for release from the bonds of wedlock with J. F. Enright, the tailor, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Enright were married in Houston, Texas, in March, 1903, and have lived for a number of years before Mrs. Enright will ask also to be allowed to change her name to Olive S. England again, taking the name of her former husband.

Mrs. Enright has been admitted to the bar in this state and is one of the most prominent women of Oregon, a writer of note, and a woman of affairs. Mrs. Enright alleges cruel and inhuman treatment, and that he has abused her personally and bodily. Her attorneys are Messrs. Kaiser & Slater.

QUIET AT MUKDEN.

MUKDEN, Dec. 11.—It is known today and a general quiet prevailed. Heavy cannonading was heard to the north of Mukden.

SHE HELD SECURITIES

MRS. CHADWICK HAD IN HER POSSESSION $14,000,000

THESE WERE ALLEGED SECURITY

She Has Borrowed Much Money Before On These Securities, and Repaid It, So It Is Said.

Woman Is Still in Jail in New York and It Is Said Will Give Bail and Fight Extradition—Will Sign Bond Monday—Looking for Her Husband.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 10.—A feature of today's development in the Chadwick case was the disclosure that she had in her possession, directly and indirectly, alleged securities to the amount of nearly $14,000,000. These all bear the name of Andrew Carnegie and are as follows:

Notes held by the Citizens' National Bank, Oberlin, $750,000; note admitted to exist by President Beckwith, $500,000; note held by Iri Reynolds, $5,000,000; certificate of membership for securities, held by Reynolds, $7,500,000. Total, $13,750,000. With this backing Mrs. Chadwick was enabled to obtain large loans during the last two or three years, most of which was repaid, however. The only financial institution so far as known, which was compelled to close on account of the woman's dealings, has been the Citizens' National Bank, of Oberlin.

Mrs. Chadwick in Jail. New York, Dec. 10.—Mrs. Jessie L. Chadwick is still confined in a cell in the Tombs. Phillip Carpenter informed the Associated Press tonight that she will not go to Cleveland before Monday, and the belief is prevalent that she will not go to the Ohio city without a fight, as her counsel here and in Ohio both unite in opposing her voluntary departure.

It is said that late tonight bondsmen had been found to qualify for $13,000, the amount of bail demanded by the judge before whom Mrs. Chadwick was arraigned. The name of the person will not be made public until Monday, when it is said he will sign the bond. What became of the money Mrs. Chadwick is alleged to have raised on the loans in question is interesting to the persons connected with the case, for it has been more than three years since she settled $2,500,000 on her husband, Dr. Chadwick, and since then she had borrowed over $800,000.

A rumor is current tonight that efforts are being made to locate Dr. Chadwick and his daughter. Dr. Chadwick is said to have given Herbert B. Newton two checks aggregating $50,000 in part payment of his wife's indebtedness which it is alleged came back from the bank stamped "without funds."

It is intimated today that the checks may figure in the international proceedings.

MEETING OF FAMOUS CLUB IN PHILADELPHIA IS LARGELY ATTENDED—FAMOUS MEN

GOOD ROADS

IMPORTANT MEETING TO TAKE PLACE HERE TO CONSIDER ROADS QUESTION.

Very Interesting Program Prepared Including Addresses From Many Prominent Men of State—A Reception and Generally Interesting Time Promised.

On Tuesday, the thirteenth of this month, there will meet here in the Capital City one of the most important gatherings that has gotten together in the state of Oregon for some time. This refers to the Oregon State Good Roads convention, which will meet here in annual session for the purpose of considering modes and means for the improvement of the roads of the state.

Every county court, the mayor of every incorporated town, the officers of the Oregon Development League and its branches, are ex-officio delegates and all these bodies have been requested to appoint as many other delegates as they care to, so that the meeting would prove successful in every way. While there is no way of knowing just how large the attendance will be, it is sure that the attendance will exceed a hundred and fifty outside delegates.

A large attendance of the citizens of Salem is expected at the meetings, because the program is one of the best ever offered in this particular.

The meetings will take place in the city hall, a room hardly large enough for the purpose, yet the best to be had under the circumstances. An effort was made to secure the room of the circuit court for the purpose, one which is well fitted for such a meeting and Judge Galloway offered freely to give it up so far as he was concerned, stating that if he did not complete the hearing in time he would be quite willing to retire to the county court room. County Judge Scott then referred the matter to Judge Burnett of department No. 1, who was and is now in Dallas holding court, but he said that he did not like to give the circuit court room up for that purpose. It is understood that Judge Burnett's court is adjourned until the 28th.

The meeting will open at half past 10 o'clock on Tuesday, the 13th, and will close on Thursday afternoon.

It is proposed to give the visiting delegates a good time and there is no doubt at all that the meeting will be the most instructive ever held in the West to discuss the road matter. The Buffalo Pitts people and Beall & Co., of Portland, who are the principal handlers of high grade road machinery and are therefore interested in the success of the movement, will give the delegates a smoker at the Willamette Hotel on Wednesday evening, and there is some talk of a reception to them at the Illihee Club. The Stewart Quartet will aid in the entertainment and it is likely there will be other music at the reception and smoker by Prof. Willis E. McCloy's band or orchestra.

Program. The society will open on Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 p. m. Address of Welcome: Hon. E. W. Waters, mayor of Salem. Reports and Annual Address: Hon.

John H. Scott, president of the Oregon Good Roads Association, and county judge of Marion county.

Address: "Oregon and Its Roads": His Excellency, Gov. Geo. E. Chamberlain, governor of Oregon.

Address: "Propriety of Working Convicts Upon the Public Highways": Hon. M. A. Miller, Senator from Linn county.

Discussion. Wednesday, 9 a. m., Dec. 14, 1904.

Address: "Wanted, Educated Road Builders": H. B. Thielson, secretary Oregon Good Roads Association.

Address: "Road Making as a Branch of Instruction in Colleges": Dr. James Withycombe, director of United States Experiment Station, Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Oregon.

Address: "What Should the University of Oregon do to Educate Road Builders?": Prof. A. L. Campbell, president of Oregon State University, Eugene.

Address: Rev. Dr. John Coleman, D. D., president of Willamette University, Salem.

Discussion. Wednesday, 1:30 p. m.

Address: "A Needed State Road for Oregon": Hon. Lionel R. Webster, county judge of Multnomah county, Portland.

Address: "Drainage of Highways": Hon. J. E. Magors, ex-county judge of Yamhill county, Portland.

Address: "Public Road Management": Prof. J. M. Hyde, Oregon State University, Eugene.

Discussion. Wednesday, 3 p. m.

Address: "Good Roads," Hon. T. T. Geer, ex-governor of Oregon, Salem.

Address: "Organization," Tom Richardson, manager Portland Commercial Club, Portland.

This meeting will be followed by a "smoker" to be given to the delegates through the courtesy of Beall & Co., and the Buffalo Pitts Co., of Portland, at the Hotel Willamette.

Music for the evening session and the smoker will be by the Stewart Quartet. Thursday, Dec. 15, 9 a. m., 1904.

Reports of Committees. General discussion. Election of officers. Thursday, 1:30 p. m.

Address: "Good Roads, and How to Secure Them," Hon. James B. Meikle, secretary Washington Good Roads Association, Seattle.

Discussion. Adjournment.

ON GRID IRON

MEETING OF FAMOUS CLUB IN PHILADELPHIA IS LARGELY ATTENDED—FAMOUS MEN

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The first dinner of the Gridiron Club for the season was given at Arlington Hotel tonight and the beautifully decorated dining room rang with merriment for more than four hours greatly to the delight of the 200 persons present. The recent election afforded famous Club's Washington correspondents an opportunity to make mirth at the expense of both the successful and defeated parties, prominent representatives of both being present to enjoy the quips and burlesque presented with typical Gridiron humor and pleasantry.

Cabinet officers, Senators and Representatives and other diplomatic officers, were there to be put on the Gridiron and also to appreciate the clever schemes which had been concocted for their special benefit. The attempt to reorganize the Democratic party in which Cleveland, Bryan, Watson, Debs, Davis, Taggart, and others were impersonated by members of the club, and into which a fortune teller, full of wit and alive to the general situation, injected himself, made the hit of the evening. The dead letter office, to which a member of the club had been recently appointed chief, was opened and some curious and unheard of letters relating to prominent guests were unearthed.

The musical feature was one of the best and topical songs, choruses and stanzas dedicated especially to those who sat at the tables are enjoyed during the dinner.

Josephine Miners Will Do All They Can to Make Convention a Success.

GRANTS PASS, Or., Dec. 9.—The good roads movement has struck Josephine county with greater force this season than ever before, and there is a more general desire to better the highways of the county than this section has ever before known. During the past two months nearly $5,000 has been paid out by mining companies and individual mining men for improvement of roads in Josephine county, and as a result any of the camps that were almost completely isolated during the winter will be readily reached by wagon hereafter.

DEMAND END OF WAR. Mining men are showing the same liberal spirit in the matter of bringing a good roads convention here, and no effort will be spared to make the convention a success. The program is arranged thus far includes such speakers as James W. Abbott, of the United States Bureau of Good Roads, J. H. Scott, of Salem, president of the Oregon Good Roads Association, W. E. Coe, of the Southern Pacific, and Tom Richardson of the Oregon Development League. Professors from the State Agricultural College at Corvallis have also been asked to assist.

ANXIOUS FOR GOOD ROADS.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 10.—The Social Democratic Labor party issued an inflammatory proclamation denouncing the aristocracy, demanding the immediate end of the war and the convocation of a National Assembly. It calls upon all friends and sympathizers to participate in a grand demonstration in front of the Kazan Cathedral tomorrow.

SENATOR CLARK TRANSFERS PROPERTY. MISSOULA, Dec. 10.—A deed to all property owned by Senator W. A. Clark in Missoula and Powell counties, made to his son, William A. Clark, Jr., was filed today. Nearly thirty closely typewritten pages are used to describe the property conveyed. The significance of the transfer can only be surmised.

NEWS FROM THE CAPITAL

PRESIDENT EXPECTS RESIGNATION OF CABINET.

MANY CHANGES ARE EXPECTED

Hermann and Mitchell Will Ignore Subpoenas to Come to Oregon, on Land Cases.

House Passes Legislative, Executive and Judicial Bill—Retrenchment Policy in Full Swing—Salary Increases Unpopular.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—That there may be changes made in the diplomatic service and possibly in the cabinet is evident from the statement made by a high official of the State Department today replying to an inquiry, in which he said the President expects most of his cabinet and all ambassadors to send in their resignations between now and the fourth of next March.

Will Ignore Subpoenas. Portland, Dec. 9.—A dispatch from Washington says that both Mitchell and Hermann will ignore the subpoenas issued for them to appear as witnesses in the land fraud cases to be tried in this city.

The claim is made that both Senators and Congressmen can be subpoenaed during a session of Congress. Both reiterate their statements that they know nothing of value to the prosecution in the land fraud case.

House After Retrenchment. Washington, Dec. 9.—The House today passed the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill almost as it came from the committee, and adjourned until Monday. The Civil Service Commission provisions were disposed of, and there was no long debate on any item today, and throughout the session the policy of retrenchment held full sway. All attempts to increase salaries failed.

The House passed a resolution to adjourn on December 21 until after January 4, for the usual Christmas holiday.

IN THEIR FAVOR

JUDGE GALLOWAY DECIDES JESSUP EJECTMENT SUIT IN FAVOR OF FENNEL HEIRS.

Holds Property Was Sold Under Oral Contract—Orders Specific Performance of the Contract—Losers Will Appeal the Case to Supreme Court.

(From Sunday's Daily.) Judge William Galloway yesterday handed down his decision in the suit of the heirs of the late Mrs. Margaret Fennell against Mrs. Sophronia Jessup, the case being a cross bill in equity brought by the heirs to enforce the specific performance of an oral contract for the sale of the Jessup residence property on State street between High and Church, and for the perpetual restraining of an ejectment suit commenced in department No. 1 by Mrs. Jessup. The decision is in favor of the plaintiffs.

In her complaint filed in the ejectment case, Mrs. Jessup claimed that she leased the property to Mrs. Fennell for a term of years and sold the furniture in the house, and that she received the sum of $200 for the furniture and rent. Mrs. Fennell died in 1903, and her heirs, Mrs. Herman W. Barr, Patrick Fennell and Mrs. Winkler, were made defendants to the action. They filed the cross bill in equity, alleging that their mother had purchased the property from Mrs. Jessup for $5350, and had paid the sum of $200 down as part of the purchase price, $2500 of the balance to be paid in one year and the remainder to be secured by a mortgage on the property, and that they took possession under this agreement.

In this decision Judge Galloway holds that it is a well-defined principle of law that an oral agreement or contract where possession is given is a part performance of the same and takes it out of the statute of frauds. The court further holds that there must be a mutuality of understanding, and this mutuality of understanding was arrived at when defendant gave a receipt for $200 to be applied on the purchase price, and surrendered peaceful possession of the premises.

The final decree of the judge was as follows: "Taking all the testimony into consideration the opinion of the court is that the property was sold under an oral agreement, and that possession was taken in pursuance of that agreement.

"The order of the court therefore is for the specific performance of the contract in pursuance of that agreement, and that a deed be duly executed and made to the plaintiffs, the heirs of Mrs. Fennell, upon the payment into court of the necessary cash in accordance with the testimony of the agreement, and that the ejectment action be perpetual restrained."

The case will at once be appealed to the defendant.

LIBERTY SCHOOL. District Levies a Tax of Five Mills for Purpose of Repairing School House.

The school patrons of Liberty school district held a special meeting on yesterday afternoon, to consider the question of repairing the old school house, and putting it in good shape as well as raising money to pay off some small indebtedness the district is under.

The meeting resolved to levy a tax by a vote of 11 to 1, the levy being fixed at five mills. The property valuation of the district is $100,455.

A Victory to Be Proud Of is the final and absolute sure of a sore throat, in which the ruffled and tenderness have been spreading dangerously near those guardians of life, the lungs. The luxury of a sound throat and robust lungs is most keenly enjoyed by people who, having suffered all the consequences of "a little cold, you know," have been rescued from misery and danger by Allen's Lung Balsam.
