

THE WEATHER.

PORTLAND, Jan. 19.—Following is the weather forecast for the twenty-four hours ending midnight, Friday, January 20: Oregon and Washington, rain.

THE CITY

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Admitted to Bar—In the supreme court yesterday W. H. Fowler, of Portland, was admitted to the Oregon state bar.

Loans Made—The State Board of School Land Commissioners has recently made loans of the State School Fund amounting to $28,150.

Extension of Time—The appellant in the case of the O. R. & N. Railway Company vs. Umatilla county was today allowed until February 1 to serve and file its briefs by the supreme court.

Date Set For Hearing—The preliminary hearing of Joseph Bordune, who was arrested on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, has been set for January 24, before Judge Turner.

Still in Sanatorium—The many friends of Hon. Tilmon Ford will regret to learn that he is yet unable to leave the Sanatorium, where he has been since he suffered the distressing accident to his leg some time ago.

Three More Couples Licensed—County Clerk Roland was called upon yesterday to issue three marriage permits, the documents being as follows: C. H. Faulkner and Clara B. Morrison, B. J. Sperry, witness; John Kirsch and Emelie Enz, Theobald Kirsch, witness; John D. Stalnaker and Ethel Salmon, B. F. Salmon witness.

Sues for Partition—A partition suit was filed in Judge Galloway's department of the circuit court yesterday in which J. M. Hollingsworth and wife appear as plaintiffs and David N. Darling and nineteen others as defendants. The parties to the suit hold undivided interests in the southwest quarter of section 3, in township 10 north, range 6 east, and the plaintiffs ask that the property be sold and the proceeds divided among the different parties according to their respective interests. Hewitt & Sox of Albany appear as attorneys for the plaintiffs.

Another Information Filed—District Attorney J. H. McNary yesterday filed an information against C. H. Cook by which the defendant is charged with the crime of larceny. Cook is accused by E. Sampson, his former room mate, of stealing $60, and on Saturday of last week was given a preliminary hearing in Justice of the Peace Turner's court, which resulted in the defendant being bound over to the circuit court. The theft is alleged to have been committed on December 31. Cook has been unable to furnish the required bail and unless he succeeds in raising the money he will no doubt have to remain behind the bars until the April term of the circuit court.

Davis Bound Over—Lewis W. Davis was given a preliminary hearing in City Recorder Moore's court yesterday upon the charge of assault with intent to kill. At the conclusion of the testimony Davis was bound over to the circuit court under $500 bonds which he furnished and was released. The defendant is the man who on December 24 became involved in a row in an alley-way in the rear of the Elkhead saloon in this city during which he inflicted a knife wound on the person of Paul Johns, of North Salem. The preliminary hearing in this case was postponed from time to time pending the recovery of the victim of the assault. Although painful, the wound received by Johns did not prove serious and the injured man has fully recovered.

Arrested on Grave Charge—Yesterday Joseph Bardune, one of the proprietors of the Center saloon, was arrested charged with getting money under false pretenses and was held in $500 bonds in Justice Turner's court to appear this morning at 10 o'clock for a preliminary hearing. It seems that Bardune sold a small ranch he had near Buena Vista, for the sum of $800 to a man named Tuttle, and gave Tuttle a warranty deed therefor. It afterward developed that there was a mortgage of $250 in favor of the State Board of School Land Commissioners, which becomes due the 28th of this month, but Bardune declares he simply overlooked telling the purchaser as he expected to pay the amount when he became due, knowing that the state board would not receive it before. L. H. McMahon will defend Bardune.

Committed to Asylum—Robert Luther, of Yamhill county, has been committed to the state insane asylum. Luther, a young man of only 31 years of age, believes that he committed an assault and that a mob is on his heels. It is said he may recover.

Is in San Francisco—W. M. Kyle, formerly of this city, and well known all over Oregon, is now a resident of San Francisco, where he is employed by W. R. Larzeller, one of the big commission men of the Bay City. Mr. Kyle is in charge of the potato dock of Mr. Larzeller.

Are Licensed to Wed—Marriage licenses were yesterday issued by County Clerk Roland as follows: J. E. Towle and Kittie E. Yawn; D. E. Towle, witness, A. L. Vanderbeck and Theresa C. Perach; witness, Joseph E. Vanderbeck, witness, Wilfred O'Sullivan and Celia Johnson; Charles Johnston, witness.

From California Trip—W. T. Jenks, of the firm of H. S. Gile & Co., returned on Wednesday from a trip to California. He went as far as San Diego, looking over the fruit situation and rubbing up against the people who supply oranges and lemons to H. S. Gile & Co., and also those who take potatoes and other products shipped by his firm from this section. Mr. Jenks returned in good health, looking like his trip agreed with him.

Whipping-post Law Endorsed—Governor Chamberlain yesterday afternoon received a letter of congratulation from J. J. Glenn, editor of Glenn's Grape, of Madisonville, Kentucky, upon his position in reference to the establishment of a whipping-post for the punishment of wife-beaters. Mr. Glenn states that the theory is a particular hobby of his and hopes that the system will sooner or later be adopted and put into practice in every state in the Union.

Seeing Old Friends—Mr. Wm. F. Dugan, better known here as "Billey" Dugan, the most genial plumber who ever handled a pair of pipe tongs, was in the city yesterday snaking hands with old friends and neighbors, and incidentally representing the Plumbers' Trade Journal of New York. Mr. Dugan is making his present home in San Francisco but has a very warm spot in his heart for Salem and Salem's people. He will be here for a couple of days.

Hop Case Decided—In the United States court at Portland Judge Bellinger has decided the case of Lilienthal Bros. against H. Hirschberg and Mr. Dove, of Independence, against the latter, granting Lilienthal Bros. a judgment for the amount of $8000. This was on a contract for the delivery of hops at 15 cents and the amount of the judgment is based on the difference between 15 cents and 30 cents, the present price. The amount of hops at issue was 40,000 pounds.

Former Resident of Salem—A. D. Leedy, of Canyon City, N. in Salem for several days, with business before the supreme court and looking on at the Legislature. Mr. Leedy was at one time a resident of Salem. He is now an attorney and getting a good practice. His name has been confused with that of B. G. Leedy, master of the State Grange, with whom he is not acquainted. The master of the State Grange is all right, however, and no one need be ashamed to be confused with him.

BISHOP MOORE DELIGHTED HIS AUDIENCE AT M. E. CHURCH LAST EVENING.

He Described in Glowing Word Pictures the Battle of Chempulpo, the First Naval Engagement of the Present War—No Danger of Yellow Peril.

(From Friday's Daily.)

Never was a more enthusiastic audience ever gathered in Salem than the one that listened to Bishop Moore at the First Methodist church last evening, while he lectured on the theme: "Chempulpo, or What I saw of the First Naval Battle of the Present War."

It was his fortune to see about all there was to see of that battle—all that was not obscured by the mists rolling up from the sea and the belching smoke of the contest between the ships of Japan and Russia. So vividly did he paint the scene of the contest that was waged in the roadstead outside of the chief commercial city of Corea, and that informed the world that there was a war on between the Czar's forces and the little brown men of the Orient, that the members of the audience all but rose in their seats as they clapped their hands in approval of some of the sentiments of the speaker, expressed in eloquent and glowing words.

After the battle had lasted for fifty-two minutes and the two ships of the Russians were beaten they returned to their anchorage in the harbor of Chempulpo and were destroyed with explosives and fire, and the same fate was given to the Russian cruiser on which Bishop Moore had arrived in Chempulpo but two days before.

No Yellow Peril. Bishop Moore is not afraid of the yellow peril. He is afraid of the cold-blooded white peril of Russian aggression, which, if it were successful in this war, would mean the shutting out of

GRAND LECTURE A WINTER COLD ALL BUSY HERE

THIS IS WHAT SEEMS TO BE THE CONDITION TO CASUAL VISITOR TO THE CAPITAL.

After Various Years Absence From Salem Mr. O. R. Ball Speaks Entertainingly of the Growth of Salem as It Seems to Him.

Residents of Salem do not notice the gradual advancement of this city both in population and progressiveness.

Salem for years has not experienced a boom, but nevertheless her growth has been steady and of the kind that counts. A steady growth is oftentimes so gradual that the inhabitants find themselves enmeshed in a city before they realize it. It is this way with Salem.

O. R. Ball, manager of the American Typo Founders Co., Portland, is in the city for the first time in years. Mr. Ball is an alert and consistent business man, one that has his faculty at all times on the alert and who watches with particular interest the growth of towns under his territory.

Concerning the growth and development of Salem Mr. Ball said to a Statesman representative: "I was surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

GRAND LECTURE A WINTER COLD ALL BUSY HERE

THIS IS WHAT SEEMS TO BE THE CONDITION TO CASUAL VISITOR TO THE CAPITAL.

After Various Years Absence From Salem Mr. O. R. Ball Speaks Entertainingly of the Growth of Salem as It Seems to Him.

Residents of Salem do not notice the gradual advancement of this city both in population and progressiveness.

Salem for years has not experienced a boom, but nevertheless her growth has been steady and of the kind that counts. A steady growth is oftentimes so gradual that the inhabitants find themselves enmeshed in a city before they realize it. It is this way with Salem.

O. R. Ball, manager of the American Typo Founders Co., Portland, is in the city for the first time in years. Mr. Ball is an alert and consistent business man, one that has his faculty at all times on the alert and who watches with particular interest the growth of towns under his territory.

Concerning the growth and development of Salem Mr. Ball said to a Statesman representative: "I was surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

GRAND LECTURE A WINTER COLD ALL BUSY HERE

THIS IS WHAT SEEMS TO BE THE CONDITION TO CASUAL VISITOR TO THE CAPITAL.

After Various Years Absence From Salem Mr. O. R. Ball Speaks Entertainingly of the Growth of Salem as It Seems to Him.

Residents of Salem do not notice the gradual advancement of this city both in population and progressiveness.

Salem for years has not experienced a boom, but nevertheless her growth has been steady and of the kind that counts. A steady growth is oftentimes so gradual that the inhabitants find themselves enmeshed in a city before they realize it. It is this way with Salem.

O. R. Ball, manager of the American Typo Founders Co., Portland, is in the city for the first time in years. Mr. Ball is an alert and consistent business man, one that has his faculty at all times on the alert and who watches with particular interest the growth of towns under his territory.

Concerning the growth and development of Salem Mr. Ball said to a Statesman representative: "I was surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

"I have not been able to be around much," continued Mr. Ball, "but from all appearances the business interests of all the numerous branches seem to be in an unusually healthy condition. The stores seem to be doing an excellent business, at least there are lots of people in them, and the streets are filled with farmers with their wives and children shopping and buying supplies. In my estimation this is one of the most

pleasantly surprised to find what a city Salem has turned out to be. Four years ago Salem seemed like a country town, but now it has a stamp of progressiveness, thrift and energy about it that is very commendable. With an excellent location, wide and spacious streets, imposing business blocks and beautiful public buildings I consider Salem one of the most desirable cities in the West."

GRAND LECTURE A WINTER COLD ALL BUSY HERE

THIS IS WHAT SEEMS TO BE THE CONDITION TO CASUAL VISITOR TO THE CAPITAL.

After Various Years Absence From Salem Mr. O. R. Ball Speaks Entertainingly of the Growth of Salem as It Seems to Him.

Residents of Salem do not notice the gradual advancement of this city both in population and progressiveness.

Salem for years has not experienced a boom, but nevertheless her growth has been steady and of the kind that counts. A steady growth is oftentimes so gradual