BIG ENTERPRISE NATION'S DEAD

DUNDEE ORCHARD PACKING COMPANY INCORPORATES AND READY FOR BUSINESS.
 Purchase the Old Prince Packing House at Dundee with Five Hundred Acres of Fine Orchard Land—Two Hundred and Thirty Acres in Italian.

The Dundee Orchard and Packing Company is the latest corporation to have been created and the articles of the same were placed on record in the office of the county clerk of this county and the corporation department of the office of the secretary of state yesterday afternoon. The capital stock of the institution is placed at $25,000, and its headquarters and principal place of business is in this city. The incorporators of record are James Winstanley, Walter T. Jenks and Homer H. Smith, all of this city.

The plant of this new concern is located at Dundee, about twenty-nine miles north of this city, and is a valuable piece of property. It was formerly owned by a German, whose name could not be learned last evening, and who is at present in Germany, and it is more familiarly known as the Prince packing house. Connected with the packing establishment, which has been in existence for the past three years, are 500 acres of the best quality of land in this county, 230 acres of which are in orchard, and it all goes together. The exact consideration for the transfer of the property, which was consummated yesterday, is not made public, but it is understood that it was a handsome price. The orchard is composed exclusively of Italian prunes, which will bear a good crop this year, barring adverse weather conditions of the future, which are unlooked for at the present time.

In a talk with some of the local parties back of the enterprise little could be learned of the future plans of the corporation, except that no additions or expansion are contemplated, at least for the present year, but that it may be developed into the largest packing establishment on the coast later on. Besides the incorporators named it is understood that some of the wealthiest capitalists of the city are back of the concern, among them being E. F. McCormack, who is prominently identified with it. The orchard at present is the largest prune tract on the coast, if not in the world, and the new management proposes to operate it after the latest improved methods until it is developed to perfection. If the conditions warrant another season or two may see the entire 500 acres put to prunes, which would make it without question the largest orchard in the world.

Farmers' Bulletin No. 218 from the U. S. Department of Agriculture is entitled "The School Garden." It contains considerable information of value to rural school districts and should be numbered among the books of the school library.

SILVERWARE WORTH BUYING

McCormick Mowers

It will soon be "Hay Day." The wise farmers are buying their cutting machinery now.

The McCormick Mower appeals to the farmer who carefully weighs the merits of the machine, irrespective of its friendliness or any thing of that sort. It appeals also to the man who appreciates reputation, for there's no reputation that compares with that of the McCormick.

Here are a few points:
 Extra heavy Frame, which furnishes power to drive the knife that never clogs.
 Extra wide Frame, that eliminates side draft.
 Extra high Wheel, that rolls easily.
 Extra long Pitman, that reduces friction.
 Extra large-faced Gears, that do not cut and wear.
 Hitch attaches to main shoe, drawing directly on cutter bar.
 Hitch under the tongue entirely removes neck weight.
 Main shoe outside the wheel, thus giving full swath.
 Compare these features with any mower on the market, and judge for yourself. Come in and look at the mower. You will agree that the above points are well taken.

McCormick Self Dump Rakes
 We want you to notice the extra heavy angle steel frame, the staggered oval spokes, with channelled rim, the Flange Turned In, and the removable box in hub, permitting a change to be effected if the driver carelessly lets box cut out.

Here's the Sharples Tubular Cream Separator

If every farmer would be sufficiently thoughtful of the comfort and convenience of his wife or daughters, he would buy nothing else but a Sharples Separator.

See that low supply can. Isn't it infinitely more convenient and sensible than having it away up in the air when it requires a ladder or box to reach it.

See that gear case, every gear enclosed and running in oil all the time. No worry about clogging oil cups, and no bother, as well as perfect safety.

And the bowl. Just a long, light, hollow bowl, with only one inside part, as compared with from five to thirty in other sorts. Come and see the machine or send for circulars, whether you own a machine or not.

Send for book, "Business Dairying." It will pay you to read it. Has many good points that you've overlooked.

Here's that side-delivery buncher, windrower and buncher. It can be attached to the cutter bar of any mower, and with it the shortest clover can be saved, every straw being delivered at the rear of the mower in a long windrow or in bunches, thus avoiding the tramping by the team, the gathering of trash as in raking, and permitting the perfect curing of the hay by free circulation of air.

Drop us a line for further information.

Keep in mind our stock of Studelaker farm wagons and buggies, our splendid assortment of bike wagons and runabouts of all sorts, our hacks, delivery wagons, surreys, etc. We have a big lot of space on our lower floor devoted to vehicles, besides our entire upper floor. Visitors always welcome.

The assortment of two-horse cutters now on hand in tongueless, tongue and riding sorts.

HERE'S A SCRAP OF KEYSTONE FENCING
 No. 12 wire throughout. Top and bottom wires double and twisted; breaking strain of each cable greater than any fencing on the market by actual test. Stays run continuously, being twisted into the main wires, and thus forming an unyielding, non-slipping, elastic fence, that retains its shape under all conditions.

Drop us a line for circulars and names of many recent purchasers, where you may see the fence already up.

WILL BE HONORED BY APPROPRIATE CEREMONIES IN THIS CITY TODAY.

New Monument Erected by Sedgwick Post, G. A. R., in City View Cemetery to Be Dedicated This Afternoon—Memorial Services at M. E. Church.

It is Memorial Day. With one accord the people of this broad land will join in doing honor to those of the nation's heroes, who, having fought the good fight, have answered the last grand roll call and are now numbered among the Grand Army of Eternity. Salem will do no less than the other cities of the country. It will decorate the graves of the departed veterans who lie within the city's cemeteries, and will honor those of the living who offered their services in defense of their country's flag when strife threatened to desecrate and destroy it.

Under direction of the Sedgwick Post, G. A. R., the ceremonies of the day will take place, beginning at 1:15 o'clock, which will consist of a parade, decoration of graves, memorial services in City View cemetery and memorial services at the M. E. church in the evening at 8 o'clock. The program of the day follows:

The parade will organize at 1:15 o'clock in the afternoon, forming on Commercial street, in front of the G. A. R. post rooms at 203 Commercial street, with the right of the line on State street. Colonel L. K. Page will be the marshal of the day. The organization of the line will be as follows:
 Salem Military band.
 Company M, Second regiment, O. N. G.
 Sedgwick post No. 10, G. A. R., and veterans of the civil war.
 Veterans of the Indian wars.
 Veterans of the Spanish war.
 Sedgwick Relief corps.
 Such other organizations and associations as may desire to do so, in such order as the marshal shall direct.

The parade will move promptly at 1:30 p. m., going east on State street to Liberty, thence north to Court, thence west to Commercial, thence south to Ferry street, where the veterans and the Women's Relief Corps will enter cars especially provided for them by the Citizens' Light and Traction Company, while the military band, Company M, O. N. G., and other organizations will march to the cemetery.

Upon arriving at the terminus of the car line, the parade will re-form and march to the G. A. R. circle, in City View cemetery, where the new soldiers' monument will be dedicated with appropriate services. Attorney General Crawford delivering the dedicatory address.

Immediately following the dedicatory exercises the regular ritualistic memorial services will be held by the members of the G. A. R. and the W. R. C. The exercises at the cemetery will close with the firing of a salute to the dead and the sounding of "taps" from the bugle by a detail from Company M, O. N. G.

The column will then return to the G. A. R. post room and be dismissed. Sandwiches and coffee will be served by the W. R. C. in the post banquet hall for veterans and their families immediately after the return from the cemetery.

The program of the evening memorial services at the Methodist Episcopal church, which will begin at 8 o'clock, is as follows:
 Members of Sedgwick post, G. A. R., and other veterans and the Women's Relief Corps will meet at the post room at 7:15 p. m. for the purpose of marching in a body to the M. E. church, where the exercises will be.
 Invocation, Rev. W. H. Sellick.
 Quartette, "One Flag, One Country, Still" (Anon.), by Prof. Seely, Etta Squier Seely, Mrs. W. C. Smith and Ralph Zercher.
 Recitation, "Music on the Rappahannock," Vera Byars.
 Quartette, "Cover Them Over," Ormsby.
 Recitation, "Union of the Blue and Gray," Mary Solomon.
 Quartette, "To Thee, O Country," Eschberg.
 Address, Dean W. C. Hawley.
 "America," by the audience.
 Benediction, Chaplain Robinson.

The following ode will be read at the dedication of the monument:
 Comrades who lie in the dust lowly sleeping,
 Leave we to you a memorial sign—
 This soldier of bronze, like a sentinel keeping
 Guard o'er the slumbering men of his line.
 Thus do they watch where an army reposes,
 Instant to signal if danger be nigh;
 So, while you sleep 'neath the hills and roses,
 This shall keep watch with an un-closing eye.
