

THE CITY

(From Saturday's Daily.)

Year and Half for Larceny—Sheriff T. D. Taylor of Umatilla county yesterday brought Lewis Hough to the penitentiary to serve a sentence of one and one-half years for larceny in a store.

Fine Cherries—Captain S. B. Ormsby brought in some "Bing" cherries yesterday grown on a "grand" bear of Yew Park which were the "largest ever." They were as delicious in flavor as they were fine in size.

Delegates to National Convention—At a recent meeting of the letter carriers of this city George Hatch was chosen delegate to the annual convention of the National Letter Carriers' Association, which will be held in Portland during the month of September, and Silas Howard was chosen alternate.

New Pipe Organ—The new pipe organ of the M. E. church arrived yesterday and a large force of men is on hand helping put it in position. It is a magnificent instrument and is a credit to the society to which it belongs. Just as soon as it is put in place a recital will be held for the benefit of the public, in which the best of local talent will participate.

New Pastor—Rev. Henry T. Babcock, the new pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Salem, arrived in this city last evening. Mr. Babcock comes from Auburn, N. Y., where he recently graduated from the theological seminary in that place. He is a brother of the late Rev. Maltbie D. Babcock of New York city, who was a man of national reputation in church circles, whose writings are familiar to many Salem people. The new pastor will preach his first sermon in Salem on Sunday evening next.

Good Month for Fees—The fees collected by County Clerk Roland during the month of June aggregated $9.30 more than the fees taken in during the corresponding month of last year. The total amount of the receipts of the past month was $404.05, while the amount collected in June, 1904, was $394.75. Of the total amount collected in the Marion county clerk's office during the past month, $128 were credited to the circuit court account, $102 to the probate court account, $126.25 to the marriage license account, and $39.80 was booked as miscellaneous fees.

Sues for Commission—Leon L. Clark, in his individual capacity and as administrator of the partnership estate of George D. Sprague, deceased, plaintiff, vs. A. A. Sperry, defendant, is the title of an action for money commenced in department No. 1 of the state circuit court for Marion county yesterday. The suit was brought to collect the sum of $850 alleged to be due the plaintiff as commission on a sale of real property negotiated by the plaintiff for the defendant. It is alleged in the complaint that the plaintiff's firm on April 15, 1905, sold for the defendant lot 3 and part of lot 4, in block 50 of Salem, the purchaser being the Northwestern Publishing company, and the price paid for the property $17,000. The plaintiff claims that the defendant promised to pay a reasonable amount for the negotiation of the sale, but has failed to do so. John A. Jeffrey appears as attorney for the plaintiff.

Entertainment Course—The board of directors of the Salem Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon authorized the closing up of a contract with the great Western Lyceum Bureau for five entertainments during the coming season, beginning in October and ending in May. The entertainments of the Great Western Bureau was here for the purpose of concluding the arrangements. The five entertainments include a lecture by G. A. Gearhart, for whom 3,500 tickets were sold in Buffalo, at a dollar each; the Harry T. Butterworth Company, entertainers; the Farland-Newhall Company, male quartet and bell ringers; Ellsworth Plumstead and his company, who have been engaged for the third time by the Portland association, and Maro, the magician. Course tickets will be sold at 25c each, and Mr. Hawkins will be back in Salem July 5 to open the canvass for their advance sale. The idea is to have all the five entertainments at the opera house, and it is predicted that the course tickets will be at a premium before the time of the first entertainment in October. Such has been the case in towns smaller than Salem.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

First License for July—Melvin Slettemier and Josie Slaughter applied to the Marion county clerk yesterday for a marriage permit. The much desired document was issued upon an affidavit furnished by J. B. Chitwood.

Escape from Reform School—Two small boys, named Landreth and Thompson, effected their escape from the reform school Friday afternoon and have not as yet been recovered. The former is from Marion county and the latter from Gilliam county.

A Big Fish—Mr. Joe Bernardi yesterday caught a salmon two feet five inches long, weighing seven pounds, at the dam above the Salem Flouring Mills. Hausser Bros. did not request this, but the writer will add that Mr. Bernardi used a Hendrix spoon, which they have for sale.

An Old Knife—William Townsend in plowing along the side of the road near Buena Vista plowed up a big knife of the Spanish "cutache" in use in the early days by men going through the woods. This sort of a knife is a common tool and arm in the tropical countries, men nearly always carrying them, but it is a sight in the United States in this day.

Officers Installed—Salem Lodge, No. 19, Degree of Honor, held a very interesting meeting last evening, during which the following officers were installed for the current six months: Past chief, Mrs. Eva Norgren; chief of honor, Mrs. Margaret West; lady of honor, Mrs. Gerald West; chief of ceremonies, Mrs.

Annals Recorder, Mrs. Lucretia Burton; Mass. Cor., Mrs. Mary Thatchers; receiver, Mrs. Carrie M. Hanson; lady usher, Mrs. Lucia Crossan; inside watch, Mrs. Arabella Bailey; outside watch, S. A. McFadden. The installation ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Laura A. Sellwood, representing the grand chief, and was assisted by Mrs. Ernie Davey as past grand chief, Mrs. Nettie McFadden as grand lady of honor, and Mrs. Millie Pugh as grand usher.

The fees collected by County Recorder J. O. Siegmund during the month of June aggregated $319.55. While the business of the recorder's office was as heavy, if not heavier than that of the corresponding month last year, the total amount of the fees collected was about $70 less, the decrease being due to the change in the fee law which was brought about during the last session of the legislature. In some cases the fees were cut down one-half by the new law, while in others they were materially reduced.

BENT HER DOUBLE.
"I knew no one for four weeks when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter of Pittsburgh, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at Dan'l J. Fry's drug store; price 50c.

WOODBURN ITEMS.

WOODBURN, July 1.—J. J. Hall, R. F. D. carrier No. 1, week with an ailment to his back, the past week suffered from an attack of inflammatory rheumatism. Thomas Dawson, substitute, is looking after the interests of the route during Mr. Hall's illness.

P. D. Engle, R. F. D. carrier No. 2, will take a trip to southern Oregon soon. This will be Mr. Engle's first vacation since entering the mail service almost two years ago.

Mrs. C. T. Bonney and family started for Klamath Falls last Wednesday evening. Mr. Bonney has been at the falls for several months, where he has worked up a good law practice. They expect to make southern Oregon their permanent home.

Mrs. Julia Bames of Dixonville has returned to her home after visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. L. Toozie, for several weeks. She was accompanied home by Leslie and Lemar Toozie and Ishmael Murry, grandchildren, who will spend the summer in southern Oregon.

Miss Belle Bonney, a student of the O. A. C., will read the Declaration of Independence on July 4 at this place.

Pearl Bonney of Portland visited his sister, Mrs. Robert H. Scott, a few days last week.

H. P. Pennebaker of the Capital Creamery Company, was doing business in this vicinity on Friday of last week.

Attorney W. S. U'Ren of Oregon City was transacting business in this city on Tuesday of last week.

PLEASANT POINTERS.

PLEASANT POINT, June 30.—The grain prospects are not so good as could be desired. The potato crop is not suffering from blight as are some plantings further north.

The school house looks much better in its new coat of paint. When the new fence is built the district will have a fine property.

Miss J. Raymond and Mrs. Raymond and daughter, Miss Pearl, of St. Paul, visited here Wednesday.

On the 29th of June at Salem, Mr. R. A. Raymond of St. Paul, and Miss Nina J. Dowers of Pleasant Point were united in marriage. Mr. Raymond is a vocalist of more than local reputation in his chosen professional line, and his wife was one of Pleasant Point's pleasant party of young people met at the home of the bride to extend congratulations to the newly wedded pair. Ice cream and cake were served. The school board has employed Miss Mabel Tollman to teach the spring term.

SILVERTON STORIES.

SILVERTON, June 30.—Work on the Ames block is progressing rapidly. A force of bricklayers from Salem is laying the brick.

Samuel Small is about finishing a new barn on Liberty hill. About all the old "vets" have returned from the encampment and the fair. All report good treatment and a royal good time. The contest of the G. A. R. on this coast. The parade in Portland was several thousand strong. Many comrades met the first time in forty years. The fair management has the thanks of the G. A. R. for courtesies shown them.

Silvertown is still lively, some fourteen new houses and barns being under construction.

A great many of our people are attending the camp meeting at Turner. Miss Verna Simeral is at home; resting from her labors as teacher.

TURNER TOWN TOPICS.

TURNER, July 1.—Mrs. B. E. Robinson is very sick at the family home. John Duncan has a force of carpenters at work repairing the house on his farm. Mayro McKinney and family went to Eugene Friday to visit the fair for a few days. Mrs. I. L. Hillary is in Portland. Rev. William McLeod of Marion was at Turner Friday. The Reform school band visited the camp meeting Wednesday and played several times for the audience. Miss Jennie Gunning is attending summer school in Salem. Miss Ada Small is back from Silvertown, and is at the home of her father, Isaac Small. Archie Earl is back from eastern Washington. John Duncan and Dr. Hanson were Salem visitors Tuesday.

IS INTERESTING

BUT MEETING OF SCHOOL BOARD IS COMMONPLACE COMPARED TO PREVIOUS ONES.

Investigation of Charges Against Professor Traver Is Again Deferred—One Teacher Resigns and More "Quits" Expected.
(From Sunday's Daily.)

Commonplace and matter-of-fact indeed was the nature of the meeting of the board of school directors in the police court room of the city hall last evening, as compared to the previous sessions when the multiplicity of sensations were sprung upon the board and the public. There were some interesting features in connection with the meeting, however, but the most important matters to come up for consideration were deferred to the next meeting for final action.

The only reference made to the charges preferred against Professor Traver in reference to the alleged attempt to graft Contractor McPherson upon the award of the heating contract for the new school building, was toward the close of the meeting when Dr. Byrd arose to offer further excuses for the special committee's unpreparedness to make a report upon its findings, as promised at the last meeting. He stated that the only news in connection with the matter was the receipt of a communication from Mr. Carson, the author of the charges, and this letter was read in open meeting.

Mr. Carson has said the failure to make a report upon the charges preferred against Professor Traver, in reference to the alleged attempt to graft upon the matter of the awarding of the contract for the heating plant for the new school, was due to the fact that Mr. McPherson, upon whom the attempt to graft was alleged to have been perpetrated, was absent from the state and could not appear to give oral testimony. In the letter to Dr. Byrd, chairman of the investigating committee, Mr. Carson states that Mr. McPherson is ready to give the testimony required, and in order to do it, is willing to pay the expenses of a special commission from the board to prosecute the inquiry.

At the conclusion of the reading of the letter Chairman Condit remarked that this matter belonged to the committee and the board had nothing to do with it until properly reported to it. Dr. Byrd then stated that he merely desired to inform the board of the reason for not being able to report, and he had notified them and said for his part that he did not care to have anybody pay his fare to Portland and even if they did he did not intend to go as the matter was not of that much importance to him, and so far as he was concerned he was in favor of dismissing the matter. Mr. Croisan then stated that he wanted to see Professor Traver exonerated of the charges and it the parties who had preferred them could furnish the evidence they claimed they had access to, he, for one, was anxious to have them do it and give the professor a fair show.

Professor Traver, who was present at the meeting, then stated in substance that he thought if the committee would fix a date for a meeting this week Mr. Carson would doubtless come forward with his evidence. He thought that it would be better to accept the money to furnish the evidence and testimony of Mr. McPherson and others, without requiring the board to send a commission to Portland, and he would do it, perhaps, if given an opportunity. After some further discussion upon the subject of a minor character it was decided to leave the matter to the hands of the committee, where it now rests and let them solve the problem to suit themselves.

Want Miss Myers Reinstated.
The next most important matter to come up for consideration of the board was a petition from the patrons of the Lincoln school, who requested the reinstatement of Miss Maude Myers, whose resignation as a teacher of that school had been asked and accepted by the board at the same time the Misses Bessie Smith and Grace Bellingher were deposited. This petition was signed by sixty-eight residents of South Salem, and it was read and ordered placed on file. This was followed by the reading and acceptance of the resignation of Miss Carrie M. Ogle, who has accepted a position in the public schools of Portland. Later in the evening an election took place to fill this vacancy, when Mrs. Chappel was elected to fill the place over Miss U'ren by a vote of three to two.

It then developed that the resignation of Professor Goode had also been expected, as was that of Miss Hickok, but neither materialized, although Professor Traver informed the board that if Miss Hickok had just as well be considered as of record, since he had secured her signature to a contract to teach at Pendleton and had forwarded the contract there. Miss Hickok leaves the Salem school on account of failing health and the advice of her physician, who instructs her to seek a higher altitude.

The report of the committee on finance, which appears in another column in this issue, was placed on file, read and adopted, and the clerk authorized to negotiate the loans suggested from the local banks as a means of tiding the district over until the popular loan could be floated. It developed that $7,000 was already due as fourth payment upon the school building contract, which was authorized to be paid, and that another payment of $5,400 would become due one week hence. It also developed that, on account of the delay in the delivery of pressed brick by the Newberg brick yard management, the contractors were obliged to lay the brick masses on for a couple of weeks to await the arrival of this material.

High School Question Discussed.
Chairman Condit brought up the question of the inauguration of the high school course and this precipitated a lengthy discussion, participated in by Superintendent Powers, who was present at the meeting for the first time, and it was finally decided to pass the matter over to the next regular meeting. When the superintendent could submit a report as to the requirements for the equipment of the necessary laboratories for the carrying on of the scientific courses. At this meeting the matter of the election of an instructor in science will also be taken up and disposed of.

Upon being questioned Professor Powers estimated the cost of apparatus for the equipment of the laboratories at about $400, but he thought much cheaper and proportionately less serviceable apparatus could doubtless be purchased, but he would not advise it when first class instruction and results in experimental work were taken into consideration. The question of the election of an instructor in the sciences was then taken up, when only one application was presented, that of Professor W. F. Fargo, at present engaged at the McMinnville college, but this matter was likewise passed over to the next meeting. The rule of wages adopted previously by the board was that the instructor in sciences was to receive $50 per month for the first year, $60 the second and the principal of the department $80. The majority of the members of the board were of the opinion that no good instructor could be secured at this price and that the schedule would have to be revised and changed.

Before the close of the meeting Chairman Condit stated that he desired to inaugurate a reform in the duties of the superintendent of schools in that he would like to have that personage submit a written report of the work performed by him at the end of each month, supplemented with a list of recommendations for the betterment of the school system. This is an entirely new "wrinkle," it having never been required of a superintendent before, but Mr. Condit explained his reason was to show the people the exact amount of work the superintendent was obliged to perform, especially those who were of the opinion that a superintendent was a luxury and not a necessity. He did not want him to report upon the grade work or progress of the schools, but simply a plain statement of the amount of work the superintendent had performed. Before closing the evidence was taken to spread his request upon the minutes of the meeting, which was done.

The bond of Clerk Goodale, in the sum of $20,000, with John H. Albert and J. C. Goodale, Sr., as sureties, was read and accepted, and his salary for the past quarter was order paid. Adjournment was taken until next Saturday evening.

RECEPTION TO ADMIRAL.
The reception and ball given by the officials of the fair to Rear-Admiral Goodrich at the American Inn was one of the most delightful functions of the fair. As is usual where brass buttons and gold braid are in evidence, the affair was brilliant and gay. The American Inn is beginning to be appreciated for its ability to serve a large number of guests at functions of this kind. It is said that the dinner given to Hon. W. W. Cotton in consultation of his attainment to the honor of filling the high office of the late Judge Bellingher, was one of the finest ever given here. It is certainly a most attractive place.

Cards were sent out on Monday afternoon for a reception to Governor Pardee in the California building. There was a large response to the invitation. Governor and Mrs. Pardee handled the long line of ladies and gentlemen who assisted them in the entertainment. The Californians are strictly loyal. They served entirely native products and in a happily informal way. A long table was set with the dainties to which everyone was invited to choose of whatever suited the fancy. They always serve punch, and such punch! Such insidious punch.

Delightful Luncheon.
Tuesday Mrs. DeLaney M. Ellis gave a most delightful luncheon in the New York building, of which she is the hostess. The building was beautifully decorated with blue larkspur and Caroline Testout roses. The immense table was laid with twenty covers. The menu was dainty and elaborate. The ladies were all handsomely gowned.

Tuesday evening the New York building opened its hospitable doors. This time it was for a reception to the National Editorial Association. The receptions at this building are always largely attended as they are always such delightful affairs.

Suffragists Meet.
The Woman's Suffragists Convention has been in session most of the week. They have made the Hotel Portland their headquarters, where it is said they have fine apartments. They have quite won the hearts of the people about the hotel. Every evening an open meeting is held in the Congregational church, where their best speakers gave addresses. Mrs. Anthony, although 85 years of age, is active and full of youthful vigor. Her lieutenant is a brilliant and talented woman. A reception was tendered them in the Oregon building on Friday afternoon when all had a chance to meet these noted women.

Vancouver Entertains.
Friday Vancouver of Clark county, Wash., entertained largely in the Washington building. It really seems as if the Washingtonians were endeavoring to outdo one another as well as the Oregonians, each locality being enthusiastic for itself.

The Ince band that has so charmed the ears since its opening, was bidden farewell this week with many expressions of regret. The Liberator band has taken its place and as Liberator is well known in Portland, having been here a number of times, there is no fear but that the concert will be a first class feature this next month.

Clergymen Live Longest.
In his book on "Nerves in Order," Dr. Schofield, formerly examiner for the (British) National Health Society, gives a table of longevity which shows that the Christian ministry is the most healthful of callings. Here is his list, the occupations being arranged in order of longevity: Clergy (Church of England); dissenting ministers; farmers, agricultural laborers, grocers, lawyers, drapers, coal miners, watch makers, artists, shoemakers, bakers, clerks, chemists (apothecaries), green grocers, tailors, doctors, butchers, painters, musicians, cab and "bus" men, sweeps, publicans, barmen (barkeepers).

A curious and an instructive list. We see only the obvious, and consequently the clergyman live the best lives and consequently the longest; and the farmers come next.—Everybody's Magazine.

Recent excavations in Egypt have revealed a bond—dated A. D. 100—apparently a slave for two years to read and write short hand, or "the signs that your son Dionysius knows," the teacher receiving in all 120 drachmas—about $23.

DEATH OF A GOOD WOMAN.
Mrs. Jane Hitchens Passes Away at Home of Her Daughter, Mrs. William Staiger.
(From Sunday's Daily.)

Mrs. Jane Hitchens died yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Staiger, corner of Union and High streets. Deceased was born in Red Ruth, England, January 4, 1825, and came to this country at the age of twenty years, making her home at Mineral Point, Wis. She was married to Samuel Hitchens, and all their children were born there in 1880 they came to Oregon living at Buena Vista, Polk county, for a time, then going to Corvallis, where the deceased resided till the last ten years. Her husband died at Corvallis thirteen years ago. He had held the office of city treasurer for a number of terms. In Wisconsin he had been a member of the First Congregational church.

During the past ten years Mrs. Hitchens had made her home in Salem with her daughter. Besides Mrs. Staiger, deceased leaves three daughters, Mrs. E. E. Padlock of Independence, Mrs. C. O. Lee of Albany and Mrs. Laura Goodworth of Mineral Point, Wis., and one son, George Hitchens of Independence.

A funeral will be held from the Staiger home this afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. W. C. Kantner officiating. The burial will be in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Mrs. Hitchens was a deeply religious person all her life. In her early days she was a member of the Methodist church. After settling in Corvallis she joined the Congregational church there, and since her residence in Salem she has been a member of the First Congregational church of this city. No one ever taught at Pendleton and had the dark river with greater confidence or deeper peace. She was perfectly satisfied to go if it was the will of the father. Her whole life had been a peaceful one. Her lord had led her all the way, and she feared not that he would desert her at the last. She had lived in an atmosphere of prayer. Her fervent and eloquent prayers will ever be remembered by members of her church. Her life had been a benediction, and in her going to the brighter shore she had only one regret, and that was that her children might mourn her departure, which to her mind was merely a folding of her drapes about her and lying down to pleasant dreams, or taking a little journey to the better country beyond the portals of what we call death.

IT'S SOCIAL SIDE

MANY BRILLIANT RECEPTIONS A FEATURE OF LEWIS AND CLARK FAIR.

National, Interstate and Fraternal Organizations Succeed One Another in Quick Succession in Tendering Hospitality—Marion Lacks Flowers.

As the weeks pass by the days at the fair become more and more full of interesting events. National and interstate associations and fraternal orders meet in quick succession.

Tuesday and Wednesday were given over to the W. C. T. U. convention. The Oregon building was turned over to its use. Addresses, music and a gold medal contest were the features of the two days' stay at the Rose city. Tuesday was also Oklahoma day. Those who could claim that ambitious territory as home sported large purple badges. Simultaneously came the National Editorial Association which had been holding its annual meeting at Guthrie, Okla., and for three days these knights of the pen enjoyed the hospitality of the fair. Their headquarters being at the American Inn they were thus enabled to devote their time to the fair attractions. They were so extremely pleased with what they saw and with the attention accorded them that it is safe to predict that our fair will be widely exploited in their respective papers.
