

OFFICIAL HAS TO CRAWFISH

COLORADO JUDGE CALLED DOWN FROM HIGH PERCH.

FORCED TO RESCIND HIS ORDER.

Summoning Mayor and Marshal of Brighton Up For Contempt of Court.

In Effort to Enforce Gambling and Liquor Laws He Becomes Autocratic and Is Called Down by Mob—Freight Engineer Refuses to Obey.

DENVER, Oct. 2.—The spectacle of a member of the judiciary being dragged about by a mob and forced to rescind his official order ended a day of turmoil at Brighton, Colo., the county seat of Adams county, adjoining the city limits of Denver.

A. H. Guthrie, county judge, hailed the mayor and marshal and members of the town council before him and lectured them for alleged neglect of the enforcement of gambling ordinances and Sunday liquor selling ordinances. In addition to this he ordered the sheriff and marshal to gather the slot machines in the town of Brighton and when they reported later they could find only one, Judge Guthrie deputized two men to arrest them for contempt. In the meantime both the sheriff and marshal disappeared.

The report of the judge's action concerning the two peace officers spread through the town and caused much excitement. Citizens began to gather on the streets, and fearing for his personal safety Judge Guthrie boarded a Union Pacific freight engine as it was pulling a train slowly through the town. He ordered the engineer to uncouple the engine from the train, it is said, and to run to this city with him, threatening legal action unless the engineer complied with the demand. The latter refused to obey the demand and, while they were discussing the matter, the mob gathered around the engine and Judge Guthrie was dragged from the cab.

He was told he must rescind his order of arrest against the sheriff and marshal and, upon being assured he had already done so, the judge was released by the mob and allowed to proceed to this city on a passenger train later. Judge Guthrie has been at war almost constantly with the other county officers since his administration began about a year ago and has held the officials and members of the bar before him time and time again on the charge of contempt.

NO REVISION OF THE TARIFF

NATION'S FINANCIER DECLARES AGAIN FOR PROTECTION.

PRINCIPLE IS PERFECT

No Tariff Could Even Be Perfect Because of Many Reasons.

Republican Party Never Sacrificed One Industry for Sake of Upholding Another, Nor Prejudiced One Locality in Interest of Another.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 2.—Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, in a speech at a Republican mass meeting in the academy of music tonight, discussed tariff issues, declared all that the party claims for any tariff law is that its principle is perfect, that it will be amended in due time but the principle will never be amended under the Republicans.

Secretary Shaw said in part:

"You must bear in mind there was never a tariff law enacted that was perfect. No two congresses would ever enact the same bill. Every tariff law is an aggregation of compromises. All the Republican party ever claims for any tariff law is that the principle is perfect. The rate will be too high here and too low there, but protection will be found in its every feature. The opposition party never claims that any tariff measures are perfect. They only claim that the principle of free trade on which they profess to construct their tariff laws, is the correct principle. They claim to eliminate every element of protection from all their tariff laws, as England eliminates protection from her taxation laws. England provides a tariff for the sole purpose of revenue and the Democratic party professes to do the same. They have openly and repeatedly denounced protection as robbery—they strike at the principle.

"While the Republican party never claimed for any tariff law that was perfect and never promises to enact a perfect tariff law, it does claim that all its tariff laws are based on the principle of protection. It has never sacrificed one industry for the sake of building up another, and never will. Neither will it prejudice one locality in the interest of another. It will be national and not provincial. It will protect the south as well as the north; the east as well as the west and the west as well as the east."

Secretary Shaw declared that the Republican tariff laws are so constructed as to protect every man and every industry. Further on he said:

"The wool schedule of the Dingley law may not be perfect but it may be the high of low or the differentials may not have been correctly worked out. It is constructed on the protection principle, however, and under it Virginia farmers sell their wool and their sheep at far better prices than during Mr. Cleveland's last administration, when the duty was placed so low on both sheep and on wool that this industry was ruined."

The secretary gave the some figures bearing on the wool schedule and continued:

"Thus the schedule is arranged to give protection to the wool growers and to every wool operator, skilled and unskilled. Woolen cloth, for instance, worth over 70 cents per pound, pays a specific duty of 44 cents per pound and 50 per cent ad valorem. The duty on velvet carpets is 60 cents per square yard and 40 per cent ad valorem. I repeat that it is not an easy task to construct a tariff law and work out these differentials. All the Republican party claims is that it constructs its tariff laws on principle. What would you think of a wool manufacturer who would claim to be a free-trader as applied to wool and a protectionist as applied to woolen manufactures?"

"I made an informal talk the other day before the board of trade of Jacksonville, Florida. Of course I made no reference to the tariff or any other political subject. Following me, an ex-governor of the state was called upon and before he concluded he expressed the opinion that wonderful prosperity would come to this country if we could only get rid of the iniquitous tariff, as he called it. When he sat down I arose and said that while I did not wish to discuss political questions at non-partisan meetings, nevertheless if the board of trade of Jacksonville would ask it, and the people of Florida would join in the request I would do my best to get the 'iniquitous tariff' removed from citrus fruits. Democrats as well as Republicans cheered to the echo. They then called upon a man, said to be the leading lawyer of the state, a Democrat, who declared that practically all the men present were protectionists. To this there was no voice of dissent. He said they were protectionists and sound money men, but that they all voted the Democratic ticket. He then told his associates that after they demanded protection on their citrus fruits they must grant protection to other industries."

"All that the Republican party claims for the Dingley law is that it is built on the right principles and protects all interests and all communities. It will be amended in due time but the principle will never be amended under a Republican administration. Here and there a rate may be higher than necessary; here and there a rate may be too low, but the principle is right and so wisely have the differentials been worked out that the United States today is more prosperous than ever in its history."

8-HOUR LAW UPHOLD BY THE COURTS

RENO, Nev., Oct. 2.—The supreme court of Nevada today handed down a decision upholding the constitutionality of the eight-hour law. The law was passed by the last legislature and was contested by several large mine owners.

ANOTHER SHOCKING RUNAWAY.

Deutches Madchen of Berlin, Elopes with Her Father's Chauffeur.

BERLIN, Oct. 2.—The daughter of a wealthy manufacturer here has created quite a sensation in the social circles of Berlin by eloping with the chauffeur employed by her father to steer him around the city in his auto. Rumor says that the daughter although of wealthy parentage was very much neglected by her parents who enjoyed themselves but did not consider that the daughter needed any attentions. The chauffeur was a very good looking young man and the girl fell in love with him and told her parents that she intended to marry him. The man was of course at once discharged but as love laughed at locksmiths and the young couple managed to evade the watchfulness of the parents and succeeded in reaching London, where they now are.

CROWE CAUGHT

LONG-BOUGHT KIDNAPER IS APPREHENDED BY THE POLICE OF BUTTE, MONTANA.

Admits Identity When Muzzles of Revolvers Are Thrust into His Face and Expresses Chagrin at Being Caught in so Small a City.

BUTTE, Oct. 2.—Pat Crowe, wanted by the Omaha police for kidnaping the son of the millionaire packer, Cudahy, in 1899 was arrested in this city tonight. Crowe's identification has been made complete through photographs sent to the authorities by the Omaha officials. Crowe acknowledged he was the fugitive, becoming alarmed when he feared the officers were going to shoot him. Captain of Police W. F. McGrath and Detective M. P. Macjerry made the arrest, placing the muzzles of their revolvers against his stomach as he emerged from a saloon in the tenderloin section of the city.

Crowe declared he would return to Omaha without requisition papers. He cursed bitterly at his arrest, expressing chagrin at his apprehension in a town the size of Butte, when, as he said, he had traveled the world over and evaded capture in all of the large cities.

A friend of Crowe's tipped the local police of Crowe's presence in the city and his arrest followed after photographs of the fugitive had been secured from Omaha.

IT IS SEVERE

TYPHOON IN PHILIPPINES DOES MORE SERIOUS DAMAGE THAN EXPECTED.

Devastates Plantations in Several Islands and Twenty-seven Men Perish on the Coast Guard Cutter Leyte—All Islands Are Storm Swept.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—In a cablegram given out at the war department today, the governor-general of the Philippines gives the latest reports on the disastrous storm which swept those islands on September 27. The dispatch says that twenty-seven men perished on the coast guard cutter Leyte and the report of the damage wrought by the storm are generally discouraging. The governor-general cables that as all wires are down, the reports have only been in for the last day or two.

The storm originated east of Samar and swept over the north end of that island, and all the southern provinces of Luzon to Manila. It is feared damage equally great was done in the provinces of Albay, Caramines and Tayabas. The coast guard cutter Leyte was wrecked off Samar and all on the vessel were lost except nine of the crew.

Among the officers lost were: William N. Fisher, the nearest relative of Martin Fisher, of Seattle.

Among the passengers lost was James M. Dean, the person to be notified, Ralt Almoek, Portland, Oregon. The coast guard cutter Leyte was a 148-foot steamer, built in Shanghai for the civil government of the Philippine Islands, at a cost of, delivered in Manila, $18,000. She had a crew of thirty-six.

REHEAR CASE OF PATRICK.

Man Convicted of Murder of Millionaire Rice May Get a Life Sentence.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Today is the day set for the rehearing of the case of Albert T. Patrick, convicted of the murder of Millionaire Rice in September, 1900. A stay of execution was granted last July by Judge O'Brien of the court of appeals on motion of Patrick's counsel on the ground that important points had been overlooked by a majority of the court in affirming the judgment of conviction. It looks as if the lawyer might escape the death chair after all and get off with a life sentence. Patrick himself is very confident and retains the cool air which he has held all through his former trial and conviction.

BOLD HOLD-UP ON NORTHERN

BAGGAGE AND EXPRESS CARS DYNAMITED NEAR BALLARD.

EXPRESS MESSENGER IS INJURED

Passenger Train Victimized by "Rain-coated" Bandits and All Make Their Escape.

Two Boys Get "the Spirit" and Attempt to "Stand Up" the Passengers, When They Are Caught—Not Known Exact Amount of Booty.

PORTLAND, Oct. 2.—A special to the Oregonian from Seattle states the Great Northern overland train was held up and the baggage and express car dynamited half a mile east of mile post 10, about five miles from Ballard, at 8:45 tonight. It was 11 o'clock before the train pulled into Edmonds and most of the messenger reports set to the local office. Three men are known to have done the work. Two boys, who got on the blind baggage here, as soon as the hold-up began, entered the passenger coaches and began holding up the passengers.

They were captured. They say there were two men on the blind when they got on, and the third got on at Ballard. All were dressed in raincoats and slouch hats. So far as it is reported no one was killed, but it is stated Charles Anderson, the express messenger, was slightly injured. Mager I. Waring of the Great Northern Express Company said tonight he did not know the contents of the safe, but believes it was a small sum.

After securing the contents of the safe the three men started off in an easterly direction.

It is believed the other members of the gang are ahead of the scene of the holdup and the robbers joined them. The train was flagged near a brick yard and as the engineer slowed up two of the men with raincoats climbed over the tender and presented revolvers to his head. When the train stopped the baggage and express car were uncoupled by one of the robbers and the engineer was instructed to pull ahead, which he did, for several hundred yards, when he was again commanded to stop. Two of the robbers then jumped off, making the engineer and fireman do the same, and all marched to the door of the baggage car.

The messenger was commanded to open the door and, refusing, an extra charge of dynamite was placed against it and exploded. The explosion tore the car almost to pieces. The safe was then dynamited. The train was delayed two and a half hours and then pulled into Edmonds, making a brief report before proceeding to Everett. The two boys claim they never met the hold-ups until they got on the train and were in no way connected with the work.

The hold-up was the first of the kind to occur to them after the explosion. Sheriff Smith has started with a posse.

American Consul at Gothenberg Didn't Know King Oscar Was in the City.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Robert S. He says he was unaware of the presence of king Oscar in Gothenberg (the visit lasting a short half hour) until he had left the city.

FAITHFUL CLERK OF PEARL & CO. CONFESSES TO CRIME.

FORGES CHECK UPON THE BANK

And Obtains Securities Amounting to $360,000—Does It Upon a Wager.

Is Arrested on Suspicion but Returns $300,000 Worth of Plunder by Mail Before Confession—Did It to Show How Easy It Could Be Done.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—By the confession of Henry A. Leonard, a young clerk in the employ of Halle & Stieglitz, brokers, 30 Broad street, the mystery of the robbery of $359,000 worth of securities from the National City bank was cleared up today. Leonard, who lives with his parents at 566 East 126th street, was arrested yesterday and kept in close confinement while the detectives continued their search for the missing securities, every dollar of which was recovered today.

The prisoner, who is only 24 years of age, and who had previously borne a reputation of an industrious and thoroughly reliable clerk, made the astonishing statement in his confession that he had planned and carried out his scheme of forgery, not from a criminal motive, but solely to show by what a simple device the elaborate safe guards of the New York bankers could be set at naught. That this statement is true is in a measure correct, as is shown by the facts in the case and is the belief of the young man's employers, by whom he was highly esteemed.

Soon after the theft Leonard mailed a package containing $300,000 in securities to the residence of Pearl & Co., by whom they were owned. The package was received by Mr. Pearl yesterday. Today Leonard's father turned over to the police the remaining $9,000 in stocks and bonds, which he said had been found in a wardrobe in his house, where his son had said, after his arrest, he had secreted them.

Leonard was held in the Tombs police court on $50,000 bail for further examination. On leaving the court room on his way to prison, he said in response to a question: "I did it on a bet."
