THE CITY

Rock Point, not Macleay—

It is learned that the grain pool sold last week and reported in The Statesman was that of the Rock Point growers, instead of Macleay, when 55,000 bushels of oats were sold to Albers Bros., of Portland, at 36 cents per bushel, including sacks.

Apples a Year Old—

J. G. McFarland, who lives six miles below Salem, this side of Mission Bottom, left at The Statesman office on Wednesday a sample of apples that are (or rather were) a year old. And they were in a fair state of preservation, showing their excellent keeping qualities. They were of the Delaware Red variety.

Lung Fever Sufferer—

Mr. W. J. Hewitt who lives near Turner, was in the city Wednesday. Mr. Hewitt reports that the little daughter of Mrs. W. A. Branch, who has been very sick with lung fever, is steadily improving under the care of Dr. W. Carlton Smith of this city and it is expected that she will soon be entirely recovered. The child and its mother were guests at the home of Mr. Hewitt when the little girl was taken sick.

Three More Boarders—

Three prisoners were brought to the penitentiary Thursday from Union and Columbia counties. Sheriff White of Columbia county brought Fred Lattis to serve two years on the charge of forgery. Sheriff Penington of Union county brought Miles McDowell and H. C. Brown to the penitentiary, McDowell on the charge of larceny, to serve one year, and Brown to serve one year on the charge of attempt to kill.

Benton Assessment Summary—

The summary of the assessment roll of Benton county for the year 1905, was received in the department of the secretary of state yesterday, showing the gross valuation of all property to be $4,972,620, the amount of exemptions, $227,115, and the total value of taxable property as finally equalized by the board of equalization, $4,745,505. This is the first assessment summary to have been received for the present year in that department.

For Their Own Benefit—

Eight large flat cars arrived Wednesday to be used by the Spaulding Saw mills in shipping ties to different parts along the Southern Pacific line. As yet cars have not been obtainable to ship the heavy orders which will go to Utah, but they are expected to arrive at any time. The lumber which is to be shipped to the different parts of Utah cannot be shipped on ordinary cars, as the size of the large timbers demand a much larger capacity.

Fifteen for October—

Four marriage licenses were issued by County Clerk Roland Wednesday, making a total of fifteen for the first eleven days in October. The parties particularly interested in the documents are as follows: Ralph A. Watson and Nevada E. Griswold, Roy T. Bishop, witness; G. W. Dyer and Maud A. Cutsforth, George W. Weeks, witness; Arthur Branch and Dorothea W. Peters, I. W. Geer, witness; Newton Walker and Myrtle E. Busick, S. Lamb witness.

Funeral of Rev. Spaulding—

The body of the late Rev. D. L. Spaulding of Spokane was brought to this city on the 11 o'clock train Wednesday morning and laid to rest in Lee Mission cemetery. The funeral was held from the Southern Pacific passenger depot immediately upon the arrival of the train, the services at the grave being conducted by Rev. W. H. Sellock of the First M. E. church of this city. The deceased minister was aged 80 years and his death was due to a complication of ailments attendant upon old age. The body was brought to this city by Rev. Frank Spaulding, a son of the deceased.

Moving to California—

John Fechter Jr., traveling state secretary for the California Y. M. C. A., is in Salem, having arrived on the overland Thursday morning. Mrs. Fechter and the little one were to accompany him on his return next Monday and they will take up their residence at Pacific Grove, so as to be near to Monterey, where Mr. Fechter's work is for a time among the soldiers. Mr. Fechter was for a long time general secretary of the Salem Y. M. C. A., and he will always have a warm spot in his heart for Salem, which is reciprocated by a large number of people here.

Will Have New Switch—

It is understood that the Southern Pacific has made a survey for a switch for the Chas. K. Spaulding Logging Co., to run into the yard of the Salem sawmill. This will enable the mill company to prepare for the loading of lumber on the cars, so that it will be a much easier matter than it is now, and far less expensive. The loading now has to be done in the street, front street, and it is done almost entirely by "man strength and awkwardness." It is only since the Spaulding company bought this property that there has been any shipping of lumber, but their product is now going out at the rate of forty to sixty carloads a month, with promise of steady increase.

Marriage Proves Failure—

Henry Keene of Stayton, has commenced divorce proceedings against his wife, Mary Keene, to whom he was married in this city on October 26, 1904. The suit was brought upon the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment and the plaintiff alleges that after making life miserable for him in more ways than one, his wife left him on the seventh day of the present month, and refuses to return to her home. According to the story the defendant has repeatedly addressed the plaintiff in anything but endearing terms, has accused him of paying attention to other women, and on many occasions refused him admittance. AUTOISTS FROM SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA BOWL THROUGH OREGON'S CAPITAL.

Came Across the Mountains of Southern Oregon and Through Mud of Valleys—Left Los Angeles Early in the Summer. Automobileists were deeply interested Tuesday morning to see a new machine carrying a couple of gentlemen and a big lot of baggage in place of the tonneau, and bearing the motto "Los Angeles," beside the California registry number on its baggage cover, roll into the city. "Who are you and where you from?" asked a Statesman writer, of the chauffeur of the machine. "The gentleman, a man about 50 years of age, with a pleasing smile, replied that he was H. G. Beamis of Los Angeles, and that his companion was his son Clyde. "We have been out since July 1," said Mr. Beamis, "and have criss-crossed California, up to Bakersfield, including a tour of the Yosemite valley. From Bakersfield we came the valley route via Red Bluff and Redding, over the old Barlow and Sanderson stage road into southern Oregon. In the Siskiyou mountains we found grades of 35 per cent, but our machine took them like a major. "We found no evidences of rain until in the Siskiyou and there but slight showers had fallen. We encountered our first mud at Summit south of Cottage Grove. It was pretty hard sledding through the greasy mud of the valley, and we had to wrap our wheels with ropes to get traction. "We have had a delightful summer, hunting and fishing, stopping wherever we pleased, carrying, as we do, our complete camp outfit, folding beds, chairs, and everything possible for comfort. "Mr. Beamis' machine is an Elmore Pathfinder of sixteen to twenty horse power, and has stood the summer's work excellently. They went on to Portland yesterday, and will ship their machine to San Francisco from there, and then run down the coast road to Los Angeles.

Sues Portland Firm—

In a suit filed in department No. 1 of the circuit court on Tuesday, P. B. Leslie asks judgment against Andrew K. & Co. of Portland, for the sum of $111.50, which he alleges is due for services rendered during the hop picking season just closed. Leslie claims that during the period between September 11 and October 1, he rendered services as foreman in the T. B. Jones hop yard on Mission Bottom, which is leased to the defendant, to the amount of $54. He also sets forth that between September 4 and October 1, Jesse Coonse rendered services to the defendant in the same hop yard, which amounted to $57.50 and states that the latter claim was assigned to him. Through his attorneys, J. H. and C. L. McNary, the plaintiff therefore asks judgment for the full amount of the two alleged claims. No such thing as "summer complaint" where Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is kept handy. Nature's remedy for looseness of the bowels.

Joseph Albrich, North Church Street Grocer, Victimized by Bad Check Men. The officers are looking for two men who recently passed a bogus check on Joseph Albrich, who conducts a small grocery store on North Church street in this city. It appears the officers kept the matter quiet in hopes that the guilty parties might be apprehended before they left the country. Two men, who are believed to have been ex-convicts, called upon Mr. Albrich a short time ago and purchased a small quantity of groceries and in payment tendered a check for $27.60, drawn by C. Romboe in favor of Victor Norman, whose name was endorsed on the back. As one of the parties had frequently called at the store to make small purchases during the previous few weeks, Mr. Albrich did not mistrust the customers, but when he presented the check at the Ladd & Bush bank, upon which it was drawn, on the following day he found that the paper was worthless and at once notified the officers of the crooked transaction.

Local Woodmen Are Looking Forward to Visit of Head Consul Book.

Heal Consul I. A. Book of the Pacific jurisdiction, Woodmen of the World, will visit Salem November 6, upon which occasion a rousing meeting will be held at the opera house, when he will deliver an address to the public. The local lodge will tender him a reception in the form of a banquet after the open meeting. On December 9 the Woodmen of the World of Marion county, of which there is a total membership of 800, will hold a rousing "log rolling" in this city and no less than 500 Woodmen are expected to be in attendance and a big time is assured. A new camp is to be instituted at Jefferson on November 14, when a work team and officers of the local lodge will assist Organizer F. G. Woodcock in the installation. A committee, composed of one member from every camp in the county, will make arrangements for the log rolling to take place December 9, and no detail will be omitted or expense spared to make the convention a grand success.

Case of State vs. J. C. Ryan is Now Pending Opinion of the Supreme Court. The case of the State vs. J. C. Ryan, appealed from the circuit court of this county, was argued and submitted before the supreme court Tuesday afternoon, James McCain of McMinnville, and W. H. Holmes of this city, appearing for the defendant and appellant, and P. H. D'Arcy and Assistant Attorney General I. H. Van Winkle, for the state. This is the case in which Mr. Ryan was convicted of the larceny of $2900 from John F. Roth, a former druggist of Albina, in an alleged bogus foot race, which the latter claims he was induced to bet the sum named upon. The race run in September, 1904, and terminated as Roth contends, in a fake, in that his man fell down and allowed the other to win the race, and Mr. Ryan, who held stakes, turned the money over to the other man. Local Woodmen Are Looking Forward to Visit of Head Consul Book. Heal Consul I. A. Book of the Pacific jurisdiction, Woodmen of the World, will visit Salem November 6, upon which occasion a rousing meeting will be held at the opera house, when he will deliver an address to the public. The local lodge will tender him a reception in the form of a banquet after the open meeting. On December 9 the Woodmen of the World of Marion county, of which there is a total membership of 800, will hold a rousing "log rolling" in this city and no less than 500 Woodmen are expected to be in attendance and a big time is assured. A new camp is to be instituted at Jefferson on November 14, when a work team and officers of the local lodge will assist Organizer F. G. Woodcock in the installation. A committee, composed of one member from every camp in the county, will make arrangements for the log rolling to take place December 9, and no detail will be omitted or expense spared to make the convention a grand success.

ARGUED AND SUBMITTED.

Case of State vs. J. C. Ryan is Now Pending Opinion of the Supreme Court. The case of the State vs. J. C. Ryan, appealed from the circuit court of this county, was argued and submitted before the supreme court Tuesday afternoon, James McCain of McMinnville, and W. H. Holmes of this city, appearing for the defendant and appellant, and P. H. D'Arcy and Assistant Attorney General I. H. Van Winkle, for the state. This is the case in which Mr. Ryan was convicted of the larceny of $2900 from John F. Roth, a former druggist of Albina, in an alleged bogus foot race, which the latter claims he was induced to bet the sum named upon. The race run in September, 1904, and terminated as Roth contends, in a fake, in that his man fell down and allowed the other to win the race, and Mr. Ryan, who held stakes, turned the money over to the other man. "NO GOTTA DA LICENSE."
