Oregon Peach Bitters About eighteen years ago I received a hurt in my back from a pile of lumber falling on me, and ever since had been troubled with weak kidneys more or less, and the last year very much. Through the recommendation of Henry Keene, I bought a bottle of H. Keene's Oregon Peach Bitters and before I had taken half the bottle I found a great relief from it. I believe it to be a splendid remedy for the kidneys, and heartily recommend it for the same. J. H. PORTER. Astoria, January 12, 1888.

FIRE ON THE SWITCH-BACK. The Northern Pacific Round House and a Decapod Engine Burned.

Fire on the Switchback. PORTLAND, Mar. 22.—The Northern Pacific round house at Stampede Pass, on the switch-back, was burned last night. One of the large Decapod engines was badly burned, and its loss will cripple the service on the switch-back for a time.

What France Proposes. PARIS, March 22.—The senate army commission, presided over by De Freycinet, has prepared a new recruiting bill. The bill subjects all citizens alike to service for twenty-five years, but provides for various partial exemptions in the case of students and others, imposing, however, taxes upon persons thus exempted. These taxes, it is calculated, will result in a revenue of 25,000,000 francs yearly. The bill also provides that all sons of parents born in France are liable to service whether naturalized or not.

Amendment of the Tariff Bill. WASHINGTON, March 22.—The Mills tariff bill will be reported to the house on Saturday by the ways and means committee. It was amended as follows yesterday by the democratic members of the committee:

The twenty-five per cent. duty on tarlatans, mulls and crinolines is changed to the present duty of forty per cent.

The duty on putty is fixed at one cent per pound.

Whiting and Paris white are stricken from the free list, and the duty is fixed at twenty per cent. ad valorem.

Linseed oil is removed from the free list, and the duty fixed at 10 cents per gallon.

Fire brick was also excepted from the free list.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN. A Note Found in a Bottle in the Willamette Refers to the Suicide.

Mr. E. J. Frazier, who returned this morning from South Prairie, informs us of the following strange circumstance, which may throw a little light upon last Saturday's suicide. On Wednesday Dick Sawyer, the well-known farmer of South Prairie, while at Simon's landing on the Willamette, ten miles below this city, discovered floating in a dead eddy a small flask with a piece of paper enclosed in it. He fished the bottle out of the water and on opening it he found the paper to be a part of a leaf torn from a diary upon which was written the following, which we give verbatim:

SALEM, Sunday 25, '88. I have determined to commit suicide (suicide) to-day by jumping from the Salem high bridge. Family trouble is the cause.

GEORGE COLLINS. The finder will please inform my family.

It is possible, and quite probable, that this note was written by the man who jumped from the bridge last Saturday. The fact that the date of the note would indicate next Saturday, may be explained by the theory that in dating his note he referred to the calendar in the diary for which the leaf was torn and got the idea that the Sunday, the day following the suicide was the 25th of the month. Again, the whole thing may be a foolish joke put up by some one to create a sensation.

The executive committee of the State Board of Agriculture will hold a special meeting on April 2nd. It is not known for what purpose the meeting is called. The executive committee consists of Messrs. Apperson, Wilson, Looney, Galloway, and DeLashmutt.
