

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS

Diminished Account of Doings in City and Country.

A FATAL ACCIDENT.

The Little Daughter of George Will, Aurora, dies from the Effects of Burns Received.

Last Friday afternoon the little six year old daughter of George Will, a farmer living near Aurora, met with an accident which resulted fatally after about twenty hours of suffering.

Chinese Row Settled.

Jim Chung was arrested yesterday at Savage's gardens by Marshal Ross on the warrant sworn out by Sam Dick for assault last Saturday.

Insane Patient.

Mrs. Emily Werkmaster was examined as to her sanity by Drs. Jessup and Henderson and by Geo. H. Burnett, in the absence of the prosecuting attorney, before County Judge Shaw today, and committed to the asylum.

Body Not Discovered.

"Have you heard that the body of the suicide has been found?" is a query that the reporter has heard on every side to-day. The reporter was forced to admit that he had heard it, but the most careful examination failed to give him the source of the rumour, and only proved it to be a canard.

Admitted to Probate.

The will of George Smith, deceased, late of Aurora, was admitted to probate by County Judge Shaw today, with his son Stephen Smith, of Aurora, as executor without bonds.

Orphan's Estate.

Sheriff Minto today turned over $26,000 gold coin to Treasurer Aug. Giesy. This is the largest payment of taxes yet made.

Fined for Assault.

William Randall, who was arrested last Saturday for an assault committed on Len Swartz in one of the saloons last Friday night, appeared before his honor, Justice Payne, this morning and pled guilty to simple assault. As Swartz the prosecuting witness made a statement that the assault was the outcome of a drunken broil and that he did not wish to have Randall punished too severely, Justice Payne let him off with a $5 fine and costs, amounting in all to $12. Randall liquidated and left for his home in the Waldo Hills a wiser and a poorer man.

Relativation Meeting.

For several days there has been an unpleasant smell in the county treasurer's office. It was at first believed that it was caused by the stink raised over the bridge warrants; but acting Comptroller O'Donald was called in this morning and removed the wainscotting, when he found that a large rat had crawled in there to die. The corpse was removed and the treasurer's office now smells as sweet as a rose.

An Eastern Trip.

Rev. Dr. W. S. Harrington and his daughter Susie left this morning for the east, to be gone about two months. The ladies will spend the time in Illinois. Mr. Harrington will go on to New York to attend the general conference of the M. E. Church in the capacity of delegate from the Oregon conference.

Their act is full of such genuine humorous situations that the audience are convulsed with laughter throughout its entirety. Col. Haverly deserves commendation for presenting such an original novelty with his famous organization."

Make no Mistake.

By dispelling the symptoms so often mistaken for Consumption, SANTA ABIE has brought gladness to many a household. By its prompt use for breaking up the cold that too often develops into that fatal disease, thousands can be saved from an untimely grave. You make no mistake by keeping a bottle of this pleasant remedy in your house. CALIFORNIA CAT-R-CURE is equally effective in eradicating all traces of Nasal Catarrh. Both of these wonderful California remedies are sold and warranted by D. W. Matthews & Co., 106 State street, Salem. $1.00 a package, 3 for $2.50.

The Prohibition Organizer.

Elder J. W. Webb returned Saturday from Lane and Linn counties and preached for the Christian church yesterday morning, assisting in the very successful Sunday School concert at night. He goes to Albany to-morrow to hear Walter T. Mills, of Ohio, the Prohibition Orator, and to arrange for his visit here, April 4th. Revs. B. J. Sharpe and J. W. Webb orated on prohibition party politics in the Christian Church, Seio, on Saturday.

Revival at Seio.

A big revival has been held at Seio, by the Cumberland Presbyterians, Rev. Kirkpatrick being the chief preacher. Though there are several churches there is not one recent preacher in that town.
