Dimmed Account of Doings in City and Country

POLK COUNTY REPUBLICANS.

They Place a Good Ticket in the Field—Warren Truitt to Manage the Campaign.

The Polk county republican convention, composed of eighty-three delegates met at Dallas yesterday and placed in nomination the following ticket: Delegates to the state convention, A. B. Griggs, Monmouth; J. S. Cooper, Independence; Warren Truitt, Dallas; A. B. Richardson, Buena Vista; Wm. Savage, Dallas; J. H. Henry, McCoy; state senator, E. J. Hatch, of McCoy, representatives, F. S. Powell, of Monmouth, and C. G. Fisher, of Dallas; sheriff, Ira Smith, of Independence; county clerk, C. G. Coad, of Dallas; county judge, John Stouffer, Ballston; county commissioner, B. F. McLaneh, of Spring Valley, and G. W. Melber, of Dallas; county treasurer, Wm. Ellis, of Dallas; school superintendent, E. C. Pentland, of Monmouth; county surveyor, Frank Butler, of Sycamore; county assessor, Green Campbell, of Dallas; county coroner, Dr. E. L. Ketchum, of Independence; chairman county central committee, Warren Truitt, Dallas.

The ticket in the main is a good one and a great deal stronger than that nominated by the democrats. E. J. Hatch, the nominee for state senator, is a son of Deacon Hatch, of this city, and was raised in Salem. He is a young man of sterling integrity, more than ordinary business capacity and unbounded popularity wherever he is known. He is far superior to Dave Sears, the democratic nominee, in every respect, although he lacks that gentleman's ability in political chicanery. E. J. Hatch will be the next state senator from Polk county. The two nominees for representatives are good men, which insures a solid republican delegation from Polk county in the next session.

Taken all through the ticket averages well and with good active work on the part of republicans the democratic can be defeated. The election of Warren Truitt as chairman of the county central committee, means that no effort will be spared to elect every man on the ticket from senator down to coroner.

Another Pioneer Gone.

A telegram was received this morning by W. H. Byars, from Oakland, Or., informing him that his step-father, Mr. John H. Mires, had fallen from his barn the day preceding and had died from his injuries. No further particulars are given. John H. Mires was one of the pioneers of Douglas county. He was born near Zanesville, Ohio, Jan. 8th, 1822, emigrated to Iowa in 1845 and to Oregon in 1843. He located on his present farm the next spring, and has continued to reside thereon ever since. He leaves a wife and six children, all of age, also four step-children. Mr. and Mrs. Byars leave this evening to be present at the funeral.

Board of Trade Meeting.

The board of trade met in the council chamber last evening to consider the proposition to raise money to advertise the city. The usefulness of publishing the advantages of this city and locality to the settler and the investor, was admitted by all, and to accomplish this end it was resolved that 5,000 copies of a pamphlet be printed, and the finance committee, appointed at a previous meeting, was increased from three to five members. Our business men generally avow themselves ready to aid in such an enterprise, and we hope to see the business vigorously put through. It is not a winning policy to hide your candle under a bush.

Pearl Page's Fate.

GOVERNOR PEMBERTON last night issued to Pearl Page a full pardon upon the following grounds: "Whereas the jury which tried the said Pearl Page brought into court a verdict to the effect that what said Pearl Page did in the matter charged against her she did under the influence and coercion of another person, and whereas the said jury has unanimously petitioned for the exercise of executive clemency by the granting of a pardon," which is done, "upon the express condition that she shall immediately leave the state and remain forever therefrom."

JEFFERSON NOTES.

M. K. Hearn & Bro. have purchased a business lot and contemplate erecting a fine store building thereon soon.

Jefferson is not exactly enjoying a boom just now although several important business changes have taken place recently.

Ben Russell's fine new dwelling is approaching completion. It will add quite materially to the appearance of the town.

Charles and James Hudelson have opened up a butcher shop to the satisfaction of all who wish fresh meats in constant supply.

Mr. Farnham of Stayton has bought the shoemaking business of A. Tuxler and a Mr. Harris has bought out the blacksmithing business of B. H. Van Buren.

Dr. J. J. Leavitt has recently purchased the building occupied by Prof. Privett for a drug store and Charles Van Buren has purchased the entire drug and notion stock from Prof. Privett.

The Jefferson institute under the management of Prof. W. T. Van Scoy is in a flourishing condition. The attendance at the present time is over one hundred, being the largest attendance in the history of the school for the spring term. Miss Lou Miller daughter of our ex-representative is the able and worthy assistant.

The town council has finally succeeded in getting rid of the billiard hall and its concomitants, but the proprietor to the annoyance of the ferryman has established himself just across the river in Linn county, and has added fire water to his stock. Hon. Miller says in consequence thereof the annual picnic of the Grangers will not be held at Jefferson this spring.

Prof. Privett has sent in his resignation as postmaster in favor of Chas. Van Buren who by the way is a republican. This matter has not set well with the antiquated democracy in town, and a lively contest has been going on for the office between our hardware man A. B. Hudelson and George DeVaney of the firm of Cornell & DeVaney. Hon. Chas. Miller the only influential democrat of the place refused to take sides in the matter. I will inform you in regard to the matter as soon as it is known who "gets there first."
