

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS

Trimmed Account of Doings in City and Country

A DESIRABLE COLONY.

The Pennsylvania Evangelicals Coming to Marion County and may Stay.

This paper several days ago mentioned that a colony of seventy-five persons, members of the Evangelical church, and under the leadership of Rev. F. J. Strayer, had left Old City and Franklin, Penn., for Oregon, and at the same time urged upon our citizens to make an effort to locate at least a part of the colony here.

Real Estate Sales.

Among the real estate operations of the Oregon Land Co., since they started business in this city, we may mention their purchase of the late & Gesner of a tract of land, comprising 176 acres, on the old Jarvis stage road, 3 miles north of Salem.

Young Youth Garret.

James Nesbitt, the lad charged with robbing the Western Union office on the night of March 29, and who has been missing for several days, was arrested yesterday at his uncle's place, four miles south of Eugene City, by Constable Cochran.

St. John's Lectures.

Hon. John P. St. John will lecture at Reed's open house, Sunday, April 15, at 3 o'clock p. m., to the children, Sunday evening he will speak at the same place on Temperance, the lecture to begin at 8:30 p. m., to give those who wish to attend church services a chance to be present.

Will serve out Their Terms.

Florence Fallow and Lizzie Fails, the two women confined in the penitentiary for exactly the same offense as that committed by the pardoned Pearl Page, will be given their liberty on Thursday, the 14th, not by executive clemency, but because their terms of sentence will expire on that day.

Benevolent Agents.

Benevolence, the little Dutchman confined in the Polk county jail, came near making a third escape from that place yesterday. He had removed his shackles and cut off the bars of his cell door and would have struck out for liberty in another half hour had not Sheriff Kinney discovered his preparations and spoiled his plans by locking him up in another cell.

Death of a Pioneer.

William Isaac, a well known pioneer of Polk county, died at his home near Dallas, yesterday, after an illness of only a few days. He was about 65 years of age and had lived in Polk county many years. J. Patterson, of Gilbert & Patterson, is a nephew of the deceased.

The vacancy caused by the resignation of Wm. R. Pivott, postmaster at Jefferson, has been filled by A. Huddleston being appointed.

Secretary of State George W. Merkle accompanied by his private secretary, Ed Gilmer, went to St. Helens to-day. He will return in a few days.

Mr. Hunsaker, of Marion, died at his home last Saturday, aged 64 years. He was a well known pioneer and leaves many relatives and friends in this county to mourn his loss.

The second regiment band assembled to serenade the state military board last night, but Adjutant General Shook and other members of the board failed to put in an appearance and the serenade was given up.

An Excellent Magazine.

The West Shore Oregon's Illustrated magazine, is now in its fourteenth year, and yet in all that time it has never issued such an excellent number as that for March. The literary matter is up to the usual high standard, and the articles descriptive of the country are especially complete and interesting.

Notaries Appointed.

Governor Penneyer to-day appointed the following notaries public: A. A. Upphart, Wasco; G. Rosenblat, Portland; M. S. Myers, The Dalles; Jas. Thompson, Cherry Creek, Wasco county; J. A. Guyer, Pendleton; S. S. Train, Albany; Leslie Powell, Crescent, Crook county; W. S. Hufford, Newport; H. T. Bingham, Portland; James P. Austin, Seaside, Clatsop county; S. B. Eakin, Eugene City; W. B. Stout, Newport.

Great Excursion.

Go to Patton's and Starr's book stores and buy your tickets for the excursion Friday morning. The Multnomah will be in Salem by 3 p. m., on Thursday and the band will discourse some music on the steamer Thursday evening. The captain says the river is all O. K. Don't forget to take a blanket and plenty of wraps. The following is the excursion time table: Leave Salem, 6 a. m.; arrive Oregon City, 10:30 a. m.; arrive Portland, 12 m.; leave Portland, 2 p. m.; arrive at Vancouver, 3:30 p. m.; leave Vancouver, 4 p. m.; arrive at Multnomah Falls, 6:20 p. m.; arrive at Cascades, 7:50 p. m. Returning, leave Cascades, 8 a. m.; arrive Vancouver, 10:20 a. m.; arrive Portland, 12 m.; Oregon City, 1:30 p. m.; arrive Salem, 8 p. m. The steamer will be at Salem early on Thursday afternoon. Get tickets before going aboard. Fifteen band boys in uniform are to go.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sult, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of Rheumatism of 10 years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at H. W. Cox's drug store.

State Military Board.

The state military board did not hold a session yesterday, Col. J. I. Howditch, judge advocate general, being the only member of the board present. To-day Col. J. C. Schneider, adjutant general, and Col. Freeman, inspector general, arrived from Portland, and this afternoon the board met and is now engaged in auditing bills and accounts of the various companies.

Diphtheria at the Orphan's Home.

There are four cases of diphtheria reported at the orphan's home. The insane asylum is just across the road from the home, and Superintendent Lane and his assistants are compelled to use every precaution to keep it from entering their institution.

Flower Social.

The ladies of the M. E. church will give a "Flower Social" on Friday evening, April 20.

OREGON.

The taxes collected by the sheriff of Wasco county this year amounted to $46,798 73.

The railroad engineers are encamped a mile and a half above town, says the Bunch Grass Blade.

Percy, son of Hon. L. M. Olmstead of Baker City, has gone to enter the naval school at Annapolis.

The county seat question seems to be cutting a wide swath in the Walla-walla political field, says the La Grande Journal.

The district school has been two weeks in session in Zena. Miss Sarah Cavitt is the teacher, and the scholars number thirty-five. The school is progressing nicely.

Dalles paper: Work at the O. R. & N. Co. shops continues very brisk. Every department is crowded to its utmost capacity, and work is being turned out as rapidly as possible.

Eugene City paper: The balance of the tax due from Lane county to the state of Oregon for the year 1887 was paid over to the state treasurer this week by treasurer Walton. The whole amount was $21,197 98.

Real estate dealers report numerous inquiries for property, and the number of persons seeking houses to rent has largely increased. The boom that has stirred up so many cities in the west, is evidently on its way hitherward.

A military company has been organized at Joseph that bids fair to become a rival company of the best in the state. It is commanded by Capt. Ivanhoe, late judge advocate of the U. S. A., and now a prosperous attorney of Joseph.

There are about sixty men at work on The Dallas Lumbering Co.'s water flume, and work is being pushed as rapidly as possible. In a few weeks the company expects to have their flume so far completed as to be able to float lumber within two or three miles of the city.

The Baker City Blade, a handsome eight-column weekly, wide measure, makes its appearance on our table. It is republican in politics, and claims to be progressive in tendency, and thus able to hew out a path for itself. We wish this new and deserving enterprise abundant success.

Baker City lodge No. 25, L. O. O. F. will celebrate the sixty-ninth anniversary of the institution of Odd Fellowship on the 26th of April with appropriate exercises and a grand street parade. Hon. T. C. Hyde will deliver the oration in the hall, after the parade, where an interesting programme will be carried out.

Conkling's Critical Condition. NEW YORK, April 10.—At 10:25 Conkling's condition was considered very critical. At 11:20 Col. Fredk. A. Conkling, brother of the senator, came out of the house. He was almost too much affected to speak; and in answer to questions as to his brother's state he said, "He is very low." When he was asked if there was any hope of his recovery he said, "I fear not."

Oregon Peach Bitters

About eighteen years ago I received a hurt in my back from a pile of lumber falling on me, and ever since had been troubled with weak kidneys more or less, and the last year very much. Through the recommendation of Henry Keene, I bought a bottle of H. K. Lee's Oregon Peach Bitters and before I had taken half the bottle I found a great relief from it. I believe it to be a splendid remedy for the kidneys, and heartily recommend it for the same.
