TWO PEDDLERS MURDERED.

Their Throats Cut While Asleep and Their Bodies Thrown to the Hogs.

SOMERSET (Ky.) April 12.—John and Henry Hill and Mary Smith were arrested yesterday for the murder of two peddlers who mysteriously disappeared a few days ago. The Smith woman tells the following story: "I was staying with Henry Hill when two peddlers came to the house and wanted to stay all night.
They were shown a room up stairs.
John Hill then came over and he and Henry began to concoct a plan to murder them. They told me to get a quilt and follow them. We went up stairs and they compelled me to throw the quilt over the heads of the sleeping men, then Henry gave me a knife and told me to cut their throats or they would kill me.
I did so and caught the blood in a dish pan and threw it in the road.
The bodies were then thrown to the hogs who devoured them. The men had about $200 on their persons.

Tenement Houses Burned.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.— Shortly after two o'clock this morning a fire destroyed three tenements on Jessie street between 3rd and 4th.
By strenuous exertions the flames were prevented from spreading to large manufacturing establishments in the neighborhood. Mary Mulligan, aged 70 one of the tenants cannot be found and it is feared she has perished.

Destructive Overflow.

ST. PAUL, April 12.—The Cannon river has overflowed its banks, and nearly the whole distance between Red Wing and Cannon Falls the bottom lands to the width of a quarter of a mile on each side are covered with water four feet deep.
The whole distance is a raging torrent, filled with broken trees and floating ice.

Conkling Recovering.

NEW YORK, April 12.—The news from ex-Senator Conkling's sick chamber this morning was of the most cheering character, and there was every reason to believe that the dread crisis had passed. Conkling passed one of the best nights since his illness began.

The Cruiser Coming Home.

LONDON, April 12.—John L.
Sullivan sailed from Liverpool today for home. A large crowd was on the dock to see Sullivan off, and he was partially cheered. A number of Sullivan's friends followed the steamer for some distance out in a fog.

Pilgrims to Rome.

EL PASO, April 12.—The Mexican Central train containing Mexican pilgrims on their way to Rome, arrived in this city yesterday, and shortly after left for Detroit. There were about 500 pilgrims.

Swept by the Floods.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 12.—A dispatch from Jordan states that property valued at $80,000 was swept away last evening by floods. The damage to the Minneapolis and St.
Louis road will amount to $75,000.

Deadlock Broken.

WASHINGTON, April 12th.—The deadlock in the house of representatives, which has continued several days, was broken this morning by a motion to adjourn being carried by a vote of 148 to 137.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

A Good Ticket and an Excellent Platform of Principles.

HERMANN FOR CONGRESS.

Renominated by Acclamation and Lord First Choice for Supreme Judge.

PORTLAND, April 11.—The republican state convention assembled in the Masonic temple in this city at 11 a. m., and was called to order by Hon. Joseph Simon, chairman of the state central committee.

The organization was perfected by the election of Geo. H. Williams, of Portland, as temporary chairman.
On assuming the position Mr. Williams, in his usual eloquent style, presented the position of the republican party, showing a very hopeful situation. He knew that Oregon was a republican state, and was fully persuaded that not a solitary republican could be induced to desert his post, and help an administration that was endangering the best interests of the country and the principles that they had so faithfully battled for. While making no objection to proper work on the temperance question, but believing in its earnest prosecution, he deprecated the action of the prohibition party in their evident intention to bend every effort toward defeating the republican party. He was pleased to observe the perfect harmony that prevailed, and the evident intention of every republican of sticking by and working for the nominees of the convention.

On motion John H. Shupe, of Douglas county, was elected temporary secretary and O. P. Miller, of Clackamas county, assistant secretary.

On motion C. E. Moore, of Benton, Geo. H. Burnett, of Marion, S.
W. Blaisdell, of Umatilla, J. J.
Spencer, of Yamhill, L. N. Roney, of Lane, were appointed a committee on credentials.

A. H. Tanner, of Multnomah, J.
C. Fullerton, of Douglas, G. S.
Washburne, of Lane, J. E. Bean, of Umatilla, R. R. Hayes, of Tillamook, were appointed a committee on order of business, and also by further motion, permanent organization.

The committee on credentials reported, showing that 209 delegates were entitled to seats in the convention.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At the hour named at adjournment the convention reassembled and commenced work by adoption of the report of the committee on credentials.

The committee on order of business reported as follows: First that the temporary officers be made the permanent officers of the convention.

Order of business:
1st. Appointment of committee on platform.

2nd. Adoption of platform.

3rd. Nomination of member of congress.

4th. Nomination of candidate for supreme judge.

5th. Nomination of candidates for presidential electors.

6th. Nomination of candidates for delegates to the national convention.

7th. District nominations.

8th. Ratification of district nominations.

9th. Appointment of the state central committee.

On motion the committee on platform was nominated by each county delegation as follows: Baker, C. B. Fox; Benton, Coll VanCleve; Clackamas, F. L. Eastham; Clatsop, J. L. Halloran; Columbia, A. H.
Blakely; Gilliam, L. P. Goodloe; Grant, H. M. Bassford; Jackson, W. H. Lee; Coos, J. M. Roberts; Crook, C. M. Cartwright; Curry, W. P. Keady; Douglas, D. S. K.
Ruick; Josephine, E. W. Morrison; Klamath, W. C. Hale; Lake, L. C.
Conn; Lane, A. C. Jennings; Linn, N. B. Humphrey; Malheur, W. L.
Geary; Marion, M. G. Lane; Morrow, D. C. Elliot; Multnomah, R.
Mallory; Polk, W. Truitt; Tillamook, R. R. Hayes; Umatilla, Lee Morehouse; Union, I. N. Saunders;

Wallowa, F. D. McCully; Wasco, E.
N. Smith; Washington, I. H.
Tongue; Yamhill, A. L. Burbank.

A motion was adopted to the effect that all resolutions should be referred to the committee on platform.

On motion the convention adjourned until 4 p. m. to give the committee time to report.

EVENING SESSION.

11 P. M.—At this evening's session Hermann was nominated for congressman by acclamation amid enthusiasm.

For supreme judge the first ballot stood, W. P. Lord, 164; Webster, 15; Whalley, 23; Lord being declared the nominee.

C. W. Fulton, of Astoria, was nominated as presidential elector on the first ballot.

The committee of platform are still at work on that document.

The district nominees were chosen by the several districts which will be ratified by the convention tonight. For prosecuting attorney of the third district H. H. Hewitt, of Albany was nominated.

Hon. Rufus Mallory, chairman of the committee on platform and resolutions, then presented the report of the committee and asked that the clerk be allowed to read it. The platform was then read by Mr. J. B.
Eddy, who was frequently interrupted by bursts of applause.

Thanks were voted to the officers of the convention, and at 12:40 A. M. the convention adjourned; sine die.

THE NEW YORK BOOGLERS.

Two Have Died Under Indictment and the Others are Badly Scared.

NEW YORK, APRIL 11.—Thomas B. Kerr, ex-Secretary and Treasurer of the Broadway Railroad Company, is next to be tried in connection with the franchise bribery of Jacob Sharp. Notice has been served on Kerr's bondsmen to produce him in court to-day for the purpose of setting the case for trial. This will be of interest to James A. Richmond, who is indicted with Kerr. Both are badly frightened, each striving to secure the other's trial before his own. Joseph M. Forshay and Sharp have died under indictment and Kerr, some months ago was thrown from a carriage and was in a critical condition, but is now said to have recovered entirely. Kerr is under $40,000 bonds, and a good many think that he will stand a trial.

Reported Smuggling.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The secretary of the treasury has replied to the resolutions calling for information as to alleged smuggling of lead and lead ores from Canada and Mexico into the United States, and the necessity of legislation to cure the evil. The secretary states that he has no information whatever on that subject; that the frontiers are protected by custom inspectors and that no further legislation seems to him necessary.

ORGANIZATION OF Y. N. R. AT EOLA.

ED. CAPITAL JOURNAL.—On last Saturday the republicans of Eola permanently organized a young men's republican league by the election of Senator Allen as chairman. Other necessary officers were elected and several committees appointed to look after interests of the league. Thirty names were enrolled as members of the league. Several tariff speeches were made; the administration severely criticised for failing to carry into effect the pledges made by the democracy four years ago, and the "Mills bill characterized as an instrument of oppression, thrust by "the solid south" against the producer of the north as a retaliatory measure; much enthusiasm prevailed. The success of the league is assured and much good work anticipated. The league meets again Saturday, the 21st inst., at 3 o'clock p. m. All persons believing in the fidelity of the grand old republican party, and the principles upon which she has safely piloted our national ship since the days of
