At the last meeting of the council... Just received a full line of John B. Stetson's hats at G. W. Johnson's.

Our reporter counted in one spot... The council only needs to be petitioned, and they will order...

WOODBURN NOTES. Houses are still scarce and plenty. Major Leonard's new store building is fast approaching completion.

Scotch Entertainment. Our readers are requested to bear in mind the entertainment in Reed's house on Friday evening, April 23, for the benefit of the Congregational church.

LOCAL NOTES.

Start that sewer petition. Dressmaking at Mrs. A. H. Farrar's. A. F. Blackaby, of Silverton, is in the city.

Ice cream, soda water, milkshakes, candies, oysters, meals at all hours at A. Strong & Co's. The largest stock of clothing and gents' furnishing goods in the city at G. W. Johnson's.

Those who wish a cabinet portrait of Ex-Gov. St. John, will please leave their orders at W. P. Johnson's photograph gallery. Will H. Parry will start out to visit the various parts of Marion and Polk counties in the interest of the CAPITAL JOURNAL next Monday.

Mr. S. B. Watkins has opened the Rocky Mountain restaurant, just south of the JOURNAL office, where you can have a nice meal served at any hour, and pay from 5 cents to 25 cents for it. Call and see him.

Our city council should have the streets all named. Strangers have a wearisome time trying to find their way, with so few name boards up. Prepare for the rush of strangers that will be here this season.

Mr. W. W. Gardiner and wife of this city took the morning train for Clatsop county W. T. They go in quest of health for Mrs. G. and to visit relatives and friends in that locality. They expect to be absent about a month.

The young ladies of the Y. W. C. T. U. are preparing a "season festival" to be given May day evening in the W. C. T. U. rooms, Court street, which promises to be immense. They will give for entertainment as well as amusement the short drama entitled, "The Doctor and his Patient." Refreshments will be served.

We are pleased to learn that the wife of Rev. R. C. Crawford, who has been sick with pneumonia for several weeks past, is now convalescent and able to be about again. The lady is aunt to Martin Chamberlin, and is on a vacation trip with her husband who is taking a year's holiday after 46 years of continuous labor in the pulpit.

CITY DRAINAGE.

New Sewers Through Ferry and Center Streets Demanded.

The fact was developed yesterday, when our reporter interviewed the property holders concerning their views on macadamizing the streets, that another and possibly a greater want existed in the absence of proper sewers.

Above we give a diagram of our only sewer, running from the asylum and penitentiary through Court street to the river. The sewer is but 15 inches diameter, and serves the state buildings named, also the state house and is expected to be used by the four tiers of blocks lying between Ferry and Center streets.

It will be seen that north of Court there are three laterals running through the allies from Center to Court, lying between Front and Commercial, Commercial and Liberty and Liberty and High. South of Court street there is but one lateral, from State to Court through alley between Front and Commercial.

There should be added to this a sewer through the greater part of Ferry street, and also through a portion of Center street to be extended east as occasion demands. By means of laterals running a block north and south none would be overtaxed, and six tiers of blocks would be accommodated, lying between Trade and Marion streets.

There is great complaint of the numerous cesspools in the central part of the city. The general health demands these sewers, as well as public economy and convenience.

Newspaper Jokelets.

KANSAS sculptors are now making angels out of a new kind of clay. The Texas desperado, however, continues to make them the same old way.

A Detroit paper tells of a man who "barely escaped death at the hands of an infuriated bull." This is supposed to be a romance of the Stock Exchange.

No sweetness and perfume comes from the life of a mean man. It is partly because such a man hates to give up a scent for any purpose.—New Orleans Playmate.

A man in Colorado wanted to open a saloon on the summit of Pike's Peak, but was refused permission, and high license has received a temporary setback in that section.

Sales Gentleman—Stockings? Yes, mam. What number do you wear? Customer—What number? Why, two, of course. Do you take me for a centerpede or a one-legged veteran of the war?—Life.

This is the latest style of ball reporting in a daily paper: "Mrs. Brown's costume was simplicity itself. She wore no jewelry, and the remainder of her toilet was after the same unpretending character."—Truth.

Miss Vassar—How did you like Miss Warbler's solo? Mr. de Brilliant—Very well; but it struck me that she sang—it was barely noticeable, you know—but it struck me that occasionally she sang froid.—Town Topics.

V. Stuart Mosby wrote a very pathetic poem entitled "After the Battle." It told of two brothers one a "blue," the other a "gray." The former was shot in the battle by the latter. The poem would have made a decided hit but that the printer who put it in type, with the felicitous imbecility of his kind, made the Johnny Reb's "whiskers" sink low instead of his "whispers."

An Absolute Cure. THE ORIGINAL ABIETINE OINTMENT is only put up in large two-ounce tin boxes, and is an absolute cure for old sores, burns, wounds, chapped hands, and all skin eruptions. Will positively cure all kinds of piles. Ask for the ORIGINAL ABIETINE OINTMENT. Sold by D. W. Matthews & Co., 106 State street, Salem, at 25 cents per box—by mail 30 cents.

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

Misses Belle Buell and Lena Leabo were at chapel Tuesday. Miss Jones and her conservatory pupils will give an entertainment in chapel in May.

Miss Nettie Meredith, Messrs. Singleton and Keller witnessed chapel exercises Thursday. Miss Eastham a former student was visiting her sister, Mrs. Van Scoy, the first of the week.

The joint societies have begun preparations for their annual reunion to be given June 8th. Miss Frankie Richardson of Salem, and A. L. Brown, of Seattle, W. T., entered school Monday.

The catalogue for the present school year is being arranged, it will make a good showing for the school. W. P. Matthews came in from Oak Grove last evening and reports his school progressing equally with Polk county.

A. C. Epley left this morning for his home at Seio. His health will not permit him to return to school again this year.

Mr. McMinn Dodson and Mr. Stevens of Polk county, visited the school Tuesday and were present at chapel services.

Miss Marie Craig is painting an excellent picture of the Woman's college; it is reported the picture is for a friend of Miss Craig's back east.

A son of the renowned Charles Dickens will give a reading under the auspices of the University, May 2nd, which promises to be a novelty in the way of an entertainment.

Prof. Starr was called away Thursday to visit his brother Miles, who is very sick at his home near Monroe. Members of his classes heard his recitations during his absence.

Dr. Bates of Canyonville presented the museum with some nice specimens of ores. The University is always willing to receive any kind of specimens that will add to her collection.

The Philodorian society at their meeting yesterday afternoon elected their officers for the ensuing term as follows: President, Minnie Frickie; vice president, Maggie Brown; secretary, Mamie Parvin; treasurer, Eva Adams; sergeant at arms, Jennie Wood; censor, Rebecca Brown.

STAYTON ITEMS.

Frank Thomas has gone to Salem to work this summer. C. R. Briggs, deputy assessor started out Monday on his work.

F. M. Henline has been visiting his brother in Portland for the last two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Gardner have a new daughter at their house born on Friday, April 13.

Miss Ella Burson of this place who has been making her home in Fox Valley for the last four months has returned home.

A portable saw mill which has been located above Mehama was seen passing through here this morning.

Miss Pearl Hobson has gone to Eastern Oregon with her aunt who has been visiting in this section for some time. We wish Pearl a pleasant visit.

We noticed yesterday, J. O. C. Wimer in town. He is now a resident of Ashland, but was formerly a hardware merchant in this place. We are glad to see him among us again for while here he and his estimable family made many friends.

Rescued From Inaction.

The precursor of their disease and destruction, the kidneys and bladder healthfully stimulated and toned with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, actively resume their functions. Thus Bright's disease, diabetes, catarrh of the bladder and oncosis are prevented. For irritating diuretics, and those unmedicated and fiery stimulants which, used even in moderation, excite both the renal and vesical organs, this is the best possible substitute. It is of botanic composition, and so congenial to the stomach, the digestive processes of which it helps in no ordinary degree, that it is promptly assimilated by the system, and its tonic effects are speedily felt. Not only does it remedy inactivity of the kidneys, but renews a regular habit of body, promotes a due secretion and healthy flow of bile into the proper channels, and expels from the circulation acid principles productive of rheumatism and gout. It is also the leading specific for malarial complaints.

Romance and Reality.

"James, dear, will you bring me up a hod of coal from the cellar?" "That's just the way with you," said James, with a black frown, as he put down his book and rose up from the lounge.

"Just the way with me?" "Yes," he snapped. "As soon as you see me enjoying myself, you have some chore or another for me to do. Didn't you see I was absorbed in my reading?"

"Well, dear, I will do it myself." "Yes, and tell everybody, your mother especially, that you have to carry your own coal up from the cellar. No, I'll do it. Let me mark my place."

So he marked the place in the book at which he had ceased reading, and when he went down to the cellar, grumbling all the way, she picked up the volume and found it was a love story, and that the passage he had been absorbed in was as follows: "My darling, when you are my wife I will shield and protect you from every care, the winds of heaven shall not visit your face too roughly, those pretty hands shall never be soiled by menial tasks, your wish shall be my law, your happiness—"

Just then he re-appeared, and dumping the hod on the floor, said: "There's your darned coal. Give me my book."

Is life worth living? Fresh cakes, French bread, milk bread, Boston brown bread, graham bread, hot buns, coffee cake, this morning at A. Strong & Co's.
