Lightning Flashes of What the World at Large is Doing.

THREE WITHIN A WEEK.

A Missouri Pacific Engineer Has a Hard Run of Luck.

ST. LOUIS, (Mo.) April 23.—Shortly before dark last evening Richard Arban and his daughter Katie, were run over and killed by the Washington accommodation train of the Missouri railroad at Big Bend crossing, eight miles west of St. Louis. Arban and his daughter had spent the day in St. Louis, shopping, and were driving home. Two miles from Kirkwood there is a sharp curve in the track at that point, and Arban could not hear the approaching train. Thos. Cary, the engineer, was only released from jail yesterday on a heavy bond to answer the charge of criminal carelessness in killing a man last week at Howard Station, and this was the first trip he made after being released.

Fell From The Rigging.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Gavin Duncan, a young sailor on the British ship Bhotan, fell from the rigging to the deck, a distance of thirty feet, this afternoon and was fatally injured, and died this evening.

A Cup of Cold Poison.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Henry H. Lindenberg, 24 years of age and a salesman in the Baneroff publishing house, took poison last night and died this morning. He had been sick and despondent.

Murderer Broke Jail.

TACOMA, April 23.—Martin, the murderer sentenced to be hung on the 27th inst., escaped from the county jail last night, and up to this hour there is no trace of him. It is rumored the guard went to sleep leaving the doors open.

The Emperor's Condition.

BERLIN, April 23.—The bulletin issued to-day says: "Although the Emperor was troubled by coughing last night, he otherwise passed a tolerably fair night. His fever is low." Bulletins issued this evening announce that the discharge of pus continues abundant and that on the whole the Emperor is considered much easier.

Pere Hyacinthe's Latest.

ST. LOUIS, April 23.—Pere Hyacinthe is the latest convert to Boulangerism. In a sermon yesterday he advocated Caesarism, and advised the one man power of control of the nation's destiny. He was interrupted by a party of the church. Dr. Loyson sharply rebuked them, whereupon they made a demonstration and left the church in a body.

The Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The committee on ways and means held a long meeting this morning, but failed to finally agree upon a tariff bill. The Republican members asked that ten days of five hours each be set for the purpose of debate. Democratic members held that a shorter time would suffice if evening sessions were held.

Congressional Canvass.

John M. Gearin, democratic nominee for Congress, and G. M. Miller the prohibition candidate, will address the citizens of Salem on the issues of the day, on Thursday, May 10th. Gov. Penoyer will help Johnny in the fight here, and at other prominent points. Binger Hermann, the republican nominee will do his campaigning in his seat in the house of representatives looking out for the interests of his constituency. The citizens of Oregon await with interest to hear what either Mr. Gearin or Mr. Miller can offer that will be more valuable than have the services of Mr. Hermann.

Divine services were broken up in a church in Berkeley county, S. C., on Sunday evening, by a shooting affair between two men. One of the shooters had his brains blown out, the other was arrested and jailed.

THE HEGIRA WESTWARD.

There arrived in this city last evening three men from Wisconsin, who immediately sought the office of the Oregon Land Co., and at this writing they are out looking over properties that company has for sale. They came by way of Portland, and while in that city were turned in this direction by an agent of the above company, who is doing efficient service among land seekers. These men from the Badger state say the train they came in was composed of twenty passenger cars, all crowded, and most of the passengers ticketed through by the Switchback road, to points on the Sound. It is unfortunate for this northwestern region that this flow of population tends in that direction, because most of these "tourists," as they are euphemistically called, are in search of farm lands, and in Western Washington they will not be likely to find what they want. Lumbering, fishing and mining companies may find that a good field for exploitation, but for farmers it is not so well adapted. Land seekers get out there, look around and are disappointed in their expectation; they are then put to the expense of going further, or they return home and spread a report that is detrimental to our interests. The Oregon Immigration board have appointed four agents to be stationed, one in Southern California, and another in Puget Sound, who will labor with these disappointed immigrants, and ply them with literature setting forth the advantages of Oregon for their guidance. A better plan would be, however, to reach these men at their homes, and impress them with the opportunities awaiting them in this state. The other two agents employed by the Oregon Immigration board will be stationed in St. Paul and Chicago, in which cities, if they are alert and enterprising, they can reach thousands of families who are ardently seeking the information they are prepared to furnish.

These Wisconsin men say that most of the farmers of that state are casting their gaze in this direction; and what is true of Wisconsin, is also true of Minnesota and Iowa, and to a measurable extent of Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri and the other agricultural states further east. The immense foreign immigration pouring upon our shores, finds its way westward; the Germans and families from the British Isles buy farms, and those who are bought out and find themselves foot loose, start out for this favorable side of the continent which has so long filled their imaginations. In the most northern states mentioned above, the intensely cold winters defeat all effort at progress, and dull the edge of husbandry.

This brings home to the minds of the inhabitants of this valley a knowledge of the opportunity that lies before them, and the duties they are called on to perform. The lesson is advertise! advertise! advertise! Money has been subscribed by our business men and property holders, to set forth to people at a distance the unsurpassed field in this broad Willamette valley that lies open to them in grain and fruit raising, wool growing, dairying and every agricultural industry that a rich soil and propitious climate are capable of. Our manufacturing facilities should also be set forth, having water power in abundance, fuel cheap and raw material for almost every need.

The time is favorable to exertion. The surplus population of Europe is flowing to our eastern shores, and the people of the eastern and central states are following the star of empire in its progress west. Oregon has extent enough and natural resources sufficient to support millions of prosperous inhabitants; its surface has not been scratched over yet. Now is the time to publish abroad the advantages we have to offer, and when the true condition of things is generally known, it will cause an inflow that will rival the palmy days of Kansas and California.

In Gainesville, Tex., the gambling houses have been closed, and the sporting fraternity are emigrating to other parts.

Articles of Incorporation.

The following articles of incorporations have been filed in the office of the Secretary of State: The Saint Paul Stock Company, who own real estate in the town of St. Paul, Marion county, and to build a hall for private or public purposes. Capital stock $500 in 50 shares. R. Brentano, Stephen Coleman, R. E. Kirk, J. E. Kennedy, and others are the incorporators. * * * The State Normal School Association of Monmouth, Polk county; to establish and maintain an institution of learning at Monmouth, the curriculum to be co-extensive with the best colleges of the state; but more especially for the establishment of a normal school at said place. Value of property aggregates $8000, and income is rent, tuition, gifts, interest and appropriations. Incorporators D. W. Inskel, A. B. Griggs, J. B. V. Butler, F. S. Powell, N. L. Butler. * * * Lake View Water Company of Lake View, to carry on a system of water works and to sell water to the inhabitants of Lake View. Capital stock $5000 in 100 shares. S. V. Rehart, W. M. Townsend, A. F. Snelling, F. M. Miller, C. S. Enger and Jerome Knox are the incorporators.

Prohibition Club.

The Salem prohibition club held a meeting last night in the W. C. T. U. hall. The finance committee reported all bills in connection with the Mills and St. John meetings paid and a small balance in the treasury. Mr. Howell appeared as a delegate from the newly organized college prohibition club. He was welcomed and requested to have his club practise music for the various public meetings to be held. It was recommended that the request of the republican county committee to make a joint discussion with their nominees, throughout the county be accepted. On ballot Messrs. John Hughes, W. P. Johnson and A. T. Yeaton were elected an executive committee. Adjourned till Monday, April 30th at 7:30.

Returned Home.

Judge R. P. Boise and wife returned home this morning after several days absence. They went first to White Sulphur springs, near Ashland, in hopes of benefiting the Judge's health and from there they went to the Beswick hot springs, at Beswick, Siskiyou county, California. Judge Boise returns much improved in health, which fact will be pleasant news to his friends.

Early Chicago Plety.

"Mamma," said a little Chicago boy as he watched a swallow circling high up in the air, "I wish I was a bird."

"Bad men or boys might put an end to your little life, my son, if you were a bird."

"Yes, but s'pose I flied too high for 'em to hit me with a gun."

"Then some hawk might pounce on you and carry you off."

"Yes, but s'pose I flied clear away up, close enough to heaven for God to reach down and take me in. Wouldn't that be a good joke on the hawk?"—Chicago Tribune.

Entertainment at Lincoln.

The dramatic club of Lincoln will present the popular drama "Nevada, the Gold King," on Saturday evening, April 28th, at Lincoln hall. The young people composing this club have had two or three years' experience in amateur theatricals, and possess some excellent talent. We bespeak for them a full house. Doors open at 7:20.

Queer Fits and Starts.

The fits and starts—using those words in their literal meaning—of the nervous people often strike the beholder as ludicrous. The nerves of hearing of such unfortunate are painfully acute, and impinged by abrupt, unexpected noises, lead them sometimes to perform antics worthy of a jumping-jack. At the root of nervousness, in most instances, is non-assimilation of the food, and consequently innutrition of the nerves as of the other tissues of the body. This prolonged is, of course, productive of serious nervous disease. The remedy is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, that invigorates the stomach and enable it to perform its functions properly. Soon after commencing a course of it, it will be found that the nerves grow more tranquil by day, nightly repose becomes less interrupted, and appetite more vigorous and satisfying. These are the initial indications, followed by the complete restoration of nervous vigor. The Bitters also cure fever and ague, liver complaint and constipation.
