OREGON W. C. T. U.

Proceedings of the Convention--The New Officers--Salem to Have the Next.

EUGENE CITY, May 11.
ED. JOURNAL.—Continuing the report of a day or two since—On Wednesday night, Rev. Dr. Kummer, of the Taylor street M. E. church of Portland, gave a fine lecture before the convention, which was enthusiastically received. On the reading of the minutes Thursday morning, was able to get the names of committees:

On revising constitution and by-laws, Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Hoxter.

On resolutions, Mrs. T. J. Wilson of Halsey, Mrs. E. J. Ross of East Portland, L. H. Addison of Corvallis.

On finance, Mrs. E. Hoxter of Forest Grove, Mrs. J. Hanna of Eugene, Mrs. E. Dalgleish of East Portland.

On courtesy, Miss Hattie Bushnell, and Miss Helen Osborne.

Pages, Miss Jennie Minthorn of Newburg "Ys," Miss Hale of Albany "Ys."

Committee on plan of work, Mrs. Townsend of third district, Mrs. Ross of first district, Mrs. Driggs of second district.

The report of the committees and superintendents of departments, as given on the program of the convention, were given at different times, changes being made on account of the absence of some who were expected to arrive later.

On Friday morning, the election of officers took place, and Mrs. A. R. Riggs was elected president without opposition.

Mrs. Henrietta Brown of Albany, corresponding secretary, R. M. Robb of East Portland, recording secretary, and Miss Elizabeth Irvine, treasurer.

The superintendents of departments were nominated by a committee. Mrs. Townsend of Albany, Mrs. Newton of Newburg and Mrs. Lou Hatch of Salem. But few changes were made in Superintendents of last year. The new Superintendents are: Evangelistic work, Eastern Oregon, Mrs. Smith French of The Dalles; Western Oregon, Mrs. T. J. Wilson of Halsey; Sabbath school work, Mrs. Nora Williams of Corvallis; conference with influential bodies, Mrs. R. S. Wallace of Salem; legislation and petitions, Mrs. Inez E. Parker of Astoria; narcotics, Mrs. Nellie Ross of Astoria; lecture bureau, Mrs. Belle W. Cooke of Salem; Sabbath desecration, Mrs. W. N. Ladue of Salem; unfermented wine, Mrs. R. T. Rankin of Portland; young woman's work, Miss Emma C. Warren of Astoria; flower mission, Miss Hattie Bushnell of Eugene; juvenile work, Mrs. L. R. Thomas of Cove, Union Co.; colleges and schools, Mrs. C. J. Condon of Eugene City; white cross, Mrs. Julia Lee Snyder McMinnville; peace department, Mrs. Anna E. Bell of Newburg. The report of the district presidents on Friday afternoon were excellent and encouraging. The next convention will be held in Salem, in May 1880.

The thanks of the convention were extended to all persons who had entertained us, the transportation C's., singers, ministers and all who had helped us in the arduous duties of the year.

MRS. BELLE W. COOKE.

He Used up the Time.

Deacon Bonney of Log City was a very pious man, but a good deal of a politician. He was also a very practical man. He never liked to have any time wasted in the prayer meeting.

One night, in the prayer meeting, when the experiences had all been told, and the exhortations flagged, and the prayers grew feeble, brother Bonney arose and solemnly remarked:

"My brethren, as the regular exercises to-night seem to bait a little, I will improve the time by making a few observations on the tariff."—Ed Perkins.

For Housewives to Consider.

Table cutlery, crockery, dishes, glassware, silverware, lamps in large assortment, jars, crocks, etc., etc., all at bedrock prices, at S. Farrar & Co's.

LOCAL NOTES.

Gov. Moody is in the city.

It will pay you to call and see Catterlin & Hicks' new pictures.

Fresh strawberries at A. Strong & Co's.

Thirty bread tickets for one dollar at A. Strong & Co's.

Painless dental operations at Dr. T. C. Smith's, 92 State street.

Remember ladies, and have your spring dresses made at Mrs. A. H. Farrar's.

Miss Mae Carpenter is visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. A. Brodie, in Portland.

Go to E. L. L. Johnson's for genuine bargains in fancy and staple dry goods.

New hats, a large and fine assortment, just received at Mrs. A. H. Farrar's. Will be sold very low.

Pompons banner rods etc. at Bridges & Bozorth's new store—bank block.

Rev. P. S. Knight will preach in the Congregational church, to-morrow morning and evening.

Parasols, handkerchiefs, collars, cuffs, hosiery, corsets, and underwear at prices that will astonish the natives at E. L. L. Johnson's.

Prof. M. G. Lane delivered the address at the planting of the class tree of the class of '88 at the State Normal school at Monmouth to-day.

Catterlin & Hicks' crayons and pastels are the finest made on the coast. They can also beat the beater on baby pictures.

Rev. P. S. Knight will occupy the pulpit of the Congregational church both morning and evening to-morrow.

Charles Lebrun declared it to be his intention to renounce allegiance to the British government to-day, and to become an American citizen.

Joseph L. Smith and Ettie Parker, and J. R. C. Thompson and Elma M. Longworth were granted licenses to wed to-day.

One of Capt. Jim Smith's boys fell into the river yesterday evening, near the log boom, but was "pulled out" by a young student of the university named Hester.

Mrs. J. E. Sorbin, of Gateville, on the line of the Oregon Pacific, died from the effects of an over dose of morphine on Tuesday night. Sorbin is a saloon keeper.

Rev. E. J. Thompson, of Corvallis, and wife, have gone to Philadelphia, Pa., to attend the centennial session of the general association of the Presbyterian church, which convenes on May 22d.

The East Oregonian says sheep shearing is in full progress. The wool is becoming dirty, and the range scant. Wool growers are anxious to move their flocks to the mountain ranges.

Keller & Sons, "the reliable grocers," have presented this office with a can of lemon sugar. With the infusion of water an excellent lemonade is obtained, which renders this preparation valuable for picnics and other holiday occasions.

The Oregon Land Company desire to have every citizen of Salem send one or more of their pamphlets descriptive of this city to a friend in the east. Call and get the pamphlets at their office. A one cent stamp pays the postage.

The citizens meeting to be held to-night in response to the call of Mayor Murphy, should be generally attended by the citizens of Salem, and especially by those who may feel an interest in Salem's depot facilities.

George Swegle, of Dayton, W. T., an old subscriber to this paper, is in town on the painful errand of burying the remains of his father in the Salem cemetery. Mr. Swegle is a former resident of this city, but is now a stock raiser in our neighboring territory where he is doing a successful business.

Mrs. E. Hamilton, of Clymer, was in town this morning. She reports the dispatch of her petition to the post office department, signed with three hundred names, asking a daily mail service between Salem and the place above named. We hope her petition will be granted.

Mr. Jno. M. Wallace, and Miss E. B. Wallace, brother and sister of our fellow townsman, R. S. Wallace, arrived from the east on Thursday and are visiting with the latter at his summer residence in Polk county. Mr. Wallace is President of the First National Bank, of Greeley, Cal. He is just now in poor health, not having yet recovered from a severe spell of sickness. Miss Wallace is principal of the seminary for the education of young ladies (colored), in Knoxville Tenn., having devoted her life to this great work. The JOURNAL trusts their visit will be a pleasant one.

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

J. E. Bartel will spend Sunday visiting at Perrydale, Polk county.

Roswell Conner, A. W. Hughes and others are visiting their homes in Polk county.

Prof. J. T. Matthews, principal of the Sellwood public school, came up last evening and is visiting among the boys to-day.

J. F. Peebles a prosperous farmer of Umatilla county, came down yesterday to visit his son Clarence who is attending the University. They both went to Albany this morning.

Miss Frankie Jones was at chapel Monday. Dr. Doane conducted chapel exercises.

W. M. Allen received a telegram last evening summoning him to Seattle and he left on this morning's train.

Jas. Van Winkle went to Silverton this morning to spend Sunday with friends and relatives.

All preparations for commencement are progressing nicely, all the orations and essays have been handed in, and those chosen that will be delivered.

The classes now only recite in the forenoon which gives the students plenty of time to get their lessons and some time to enjoy these warm days.

Prof. John M. Peebles, recently wrote from Paisley, Lake county, that his school was progressing, and that he was busily engaged in the present campaign. Prof. Peebles aspires to the office of county superintendent of his county. Willamette old boys are usually successful, we wish him prosperity.

Since the reduction of our weekly subscription price, our mail clerk has set two pencils on fire in his vain endeavor to enter the names as rapidly as they were handed in. The farmers all say they can pay one dollar and not feel it. Besides they like a paper that is willing to voluntarily make its price correspond with the price of wheat. In fact, they will make it flourish like a "Green Boy Tree."

Change in Postmasters.

The democracy has captured another important position in Marion county. This is the Silverton postoffice. The Salem postoffice still remains in the republican camp, but for how long, deponent sayeth not. Not long since J. H. Mascher, a proli-republican, resigned the postmastership at Silverton, on disposing of his interests in the store of Riehes and Mascher to one DeGuire, and recommended the appointment of Tom Riehes, a republican, and his former partner, as his successor. Riehes was also endorsed by over 125 citizens and patrons of the Silverton office, members of all parties. Papers had been forwarded from the department at Washington to Riehes, had been properly executed by him, and returned, and he was looking for his commission to arrive at any day; but what was his consternation, and that of his friends in Silverton, on learning yesterday that Grover had appointed one Mosier, a druggist and democrat, to the place. No one in Silverton had any idea that Mosier wanted the office, so the latter put in his quiet and best licks in a manner that proved valuable. There is lots of kicking in Silverton, but it is quietly hinted that a prominent business man who combines banking and democratic politics in this city, knows just how it was done. 'Twas ever thus!

The Eola Fracas.

About noon yesterday O. J. Beardsley and Tom Perryman met at Eola. There would be nothing peculiar in this, were it not that their meeting proved to be a very unfriendly affair. Words passed between them, and then blows began to fall. A Dutchman interfered on behalf of Beardsley, and he was at once used up by some of Perryman's friends. The fight was at last stopped by disinterested parties, but not until after Beardsley had suffered a fracture of three ribs.

The Silverton Election.

Last night, the old council of Silverton met, and swore in the new council, and city officers—rather swore in the entire citizens' ticket. Several of the parties who were candidates on the prohibition ticket were present, but no contest was made. It is supposed that this settles the matter, but the prohibitionists may yet take the matter to the courts to test the validity of the law which requires all ballots to be on paper prescribed by the secretary of state.
