TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY

A NEWSPAPER INTERVIEW.

Another Clergyman Involved in a Political Stew.

WORCESTER, Mass., June 7.—The charges recently made by Rev. C. H. Pendleton, in a newspaper of this place, of the disagreeable relations between Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland, have caused considerable feeling, and as promised Mrs. Margaret Nicodemus of Worcester, recently wrote to Mrs. Cleveland, from whom has been received an autograph letter, as follows, in reply thereto:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, June 6, 1888. Mrs. Nicodemus, Dear Madam—I can only say in answer to your letter that every statement made by Rev. C. H. Pendleton in an interview which you sent me, is basely false, and I pity the man and his calling who has been made a tool and gave circulation to such wicked and heartless lies. I can wish women of our country no greater blessing than that their homes and their lives may be as happy, and that their husbands may be as considerate and affectionate, as mine.

Very Truly, FRANCES S. CLEVELAND.

Rev. Mr. Pendleton says he was deceived by and is the innocent victim of an unscrupulous reporter who misrepresented what he really said.

A Fighting Chance. WASHINGTON, June 7.—General Sheridan passed a restless night. This morning his mind was not as clear as heretofore. Late this afternoon he had another attack of heart failure, but is somewhat better this evening. One of General Sheridan's physicians said to-day that the General had a fighting chance for recovery, owing to his remarkable pluck.

A Large Slice of Territory. LONDON, June 7.—Within a few days Queen Victoria has succeeded in adding to her dominions a vast empire, almost continental in size, peopled by seventy millions of industrious and relatively prosperous inhabitants. This immense tract extends from Zanzibar northward as far as Abyssinia, with a seaboard of over 1700 miles in length westward. It reaches to beyond Victoria Nyanza and other great lakes from which the Nile takes its source, and includes the finest lands and richest markets in Central Africa.

TELEGRAPHIC SPLINTS. John Hoskins, a wealthy cattle dealer, was fatally stabbed Wednesday night on an eastbound Union Pacific train by another passenger in a quarrel about a seat.

The London newspapers generally approve of the act of the New York legislature to employ electricity for executions.

D. Sullivan, a deck hand on the steamer Field, was drowned at the Astoria wharf yesterday. It is supposed he fell in the water from the vessel.

Gresham has been indorsed for president by a wealthy political club in Pittsburg. When informed of the fact, he said he appreciated the compliment, but should not be disappointed if he was not chosen by the convention.

Hull, Canada, has had a terrible visitation. A fire on Tuesday night destroyed half the city, what remained was then swept with a furious storm which blew down churches and dwellings, and killed several people.

Attention Parents. The Band of Hope will meet Saturday, the 9th, at 3 o'clock sharp in the new hall in the opera house. All the children are earnestly invited to be present, also the members of the flower mission.

An Absolute Cure. The ORIGINAL ABIE-TINE OINTMENT is only put up in large two-ounce tin boxes, and is an absolute cure for old sores, burns, wounds, chapped hands, and all skin eruptions. Will positively cure all kinds of piles. Ask for the ORIGINAL ABIE-TINE OINTMENT. Sold by D. W. Matthews & Co., 106 State street, Salem, at 25 cents per box—by mail 30 cents.

Cash For Wool. Highest cash price paid for wool in the Opera House block. F. LEVY.

SILVERTON ITEMS.

The beautiful late rains have brought with them a smile on every farmer's face.

Election in our small city passed off very quietly, and the republicans feel very proud of their victory.

Miss May Coolidge, returned home after a pleasant visit at The Dalles.

Mrs. Fox and Miss Badotet, of Astoria, are visiting friends at this place.

The narrow gauge railroad has changed time again. The north bound train now arrives at 11 A. M., and the south bound train at 3:50 P. M. This change makes it more convenient for the traveling public.

The memorial sermon delivered by Rev. J. Fowler, was well attended, and was appreciated by all present.

The Silverton Trombone band rendered some excellent music for the G. A. R. on decoration day.

The first anniversary of the Silverton Secular Union will be celebrated at the city park on the 23d inst. A grand picnic and basket dinner is also on the program. Hon. S. P. Putnam will address the people, and a grand time is expected.

Mr. J. Moser and wife, of this place, left last Monday for an extended visit in the east among friends and relatives.

Miss Eva Davenport, of Portland, spent last Monday with her friend Miss May Coolidge, of this place.

Mr. Jean Hibbard, who for some time past has been working in Portland, spent several days with his parents at their home.

Mr. Al. Coolidge and Mr. A. Wolf visited Salem last Tuesday.

Mr. Alvin McCaine left for Tacoma, W. T., last Tuesday.

Road work is progressing nicely under the supervision of Mr. Julius Fisher.

The prohibitionists fell far behind their expectations in this precinct.

Mrs. A. Wolfard left for her home in Linn county, last Wednesday.

A very enjoyable evening was spent by several of our young people, at the residence of Mr. Al. Coolidge, on Monday last.

Miss Della Mascher who for some time past has been very sick, is slowly improving.

Deaf, Dumb and Dumb.

Quite an interesting case is under examination in the court of Recorder Strickler this afternoon. John Dettlaff was arrested to-day by Marshal Ross on a charge of vagrancy, begging, etc. Dettlaff says he is deaf and dumb, and that he can't understand English. He also claims that his right arm is paralyzed. A physician examined his arm, but said it was not paralyzed. Mr. A. Steiner was subpoenaed to interpret the German, and Rev. P. S. Knight to try the sign language on him. The German materialized all right, but Mr. Knight could hardly make himself understood. It is likely he will prove a bogus mute, instead of a deaf mute. Three parties have recently been sentenced for pretending to be mutes, in San Francisco.

He has been discharged since writing the above, and ordered to leave town.

Remew Her Youth.

Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residents of the town: "I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all my household work. I owe my thanks to Electric Bitters for having renewed my youth, and removed completely all disease and pain." Try a bottle, 50c, and $1. at H. W. Cox's drug store.

Sipped in the Bud.

Is it not better to nip consumption, the greatest scourge of humanity, in the bud, than to try to stay its progress on the brink of the grave? A few doses of California's most useful production SANTA ABE, the king of Consumption, will relieve, and a thorough treatment will cure. Nasal Catarrh, too often the forerunner of consumption, can be cured by CALIFORNIA CAT-R-CURE. These remedies are sold and fully warranted by D. W. Matthews & Co., 106 State street, Salem.

A Fine Lot of Dried Fruits.

Dried nectarines, apricots, peaches, prunes, plums, apples, pears, blackberries, figs, etc., the finest ever offered in Salem, at S. Farrar & Co's. Fresh fruits and vegetables every morning.
