Not the Water Company's Fault. There now seems no doubt that the writer was misinformed yesterday regarding the reason no water was gotten from the hydrant at the agricultural works fire. The writer was told, and he supposed the information to be reliable, that there was no pressure in the mains when the fire broke out, but he since learns from Owen Hutton, who coupled the first line of hose at the hydrant that while this was the case, the cause was the power wheel that give power to the water works was burned down, before the line of hose was laid. Also that no blame can attach to the water company. Regarding the statement that the pressure is lowered at night—while this statement came from an official of the water company, it is denied by the superintendent, and engineer, who say that the pressure is never lowered to less than forty or fifty pounds—sufficient pressure to do a good deal of work. There was no loss at the agricultural works, and that building was protected in no way from fire.

We Always Have 'Em! Mr. R. Scott, of Scott's Mills, this county, told a Portland paper yesterday, that we would have "fine crops in Marion." Mr. Scott says there will be fine crops in old Marion this season. Along the foothills the wheat and oats are the finest he ever saw, a little better than on the pearies, but hay is best about Salem. They have had plenty of rains up there, and if the present cool, showery weather continues a few days longer, we shall probably begin to hear complaints about lodged grain and rust, and all that sort of thing, which recurs annually, but very seldom makes any difference with the crops.

Change of Base. Among our new advertisers, appears the name of G. F. Smith, dealer in furniture, carpets, and house furnishing goods generally. He keeps on hand a nice line of chairs and tobacco, a complete stock of mouldings and picture frames, etc. On each Saturday a popular auction sale is held. One feature we notice, is that goods are sold on the installment plan. The change of base from the old "red front," on State street, to his elegant quarters at the bank block, on Commercial, is a very advantageous.

Morris one year for larceny and Victor Halter for one year for getting money under false pretenses this morning. The sheriff of Lake county brought a life man to the same place to-day.

Dragged by a Horse.

Thomas Hubbard, a man who lives four miles out of town, had a narrow escape from death yesterday. Our information is gathered from Mr. Hubbard, who makes the following statement. A neighbor named Grierson had a horse in Hubbard's pasture. Mr. Hubbard caught the animal, but a rope attached to his neck caught round his captor's leg and formed a tight knot. The horse started to run and continued his flight for half a mile. Mr. Hubbard with rare presence of mind caught the rope with both hands, and was dragged in this manner across the lot. The flesh is torn off his hands, and his right arm and leg are badly bruised, but no bones are broken. Dr. Reynolds attended the wounded man, and he says he will be all right again after a proper interval.

GREAT ATTRACTION FOR THE FOURTH.

ED: JOURNAL.—We have heard of but one democrat and one prohibitionist left in Oregon since the election. A democrat was elected justice of the peace and a prohibitionist in Woodburn. The rest of the crew left for Salt river on Monday night. We have been watching the justice and constable for fear they too would follow their comrades. We intend to put them in a cage and have them on exhibition at the celebration here on the Fourth of July. So you can add this to the program, as we think it will attract a large crowd from far and near—there will be no charges for this show. Talk about the lion and the lamb lying down together—think of a democrat and a proli in the same cage and then weep.

WOODBURN, June 7th.

Tennis Club Organized.

The young people of this city have been casting about for some amusement which they can enjoy during the summer months, and have at last settled on lawn tennis, the popular English outdoor sport, and met recently at the residence of Mr. Eugene Breyman, and organized a club. Miss Maggie Cosper was elected president, Mr. P. H. D'Arcy, vice-president, Miss Nellie Boise, secretary, and Mr. H. J. Thompson, treasurer. At an adjourned meeting held last night, it was decided to call the club "The Marion," and to establish the courts in Marion square. This is a very popular game in England, and in fact wherever it is played, and much pleasure will be the lot of the club, no doubt. It is said lawn tennis is what keeps the English girl so healthy, and active, by keeping her in the open air so much, and by giving her such excellent exercise.

The "Journal" in Woodburn.

Mr. J. M. Poorman is our duly authorized agent in Woodburn. He will receive subscriptions and forward them to us so that you will get your papers as promptly as though you ordered of us direct. Remember, the subscription price has been reduced to $1 per year, payable in advance. This you well know, is a new departure for papers in Oregon, but we can afford the paper at that price because we are entering ten names on our list at a dollar, where we did one at two dollars. Our list in Woodburn has increased five fold in the past two weeks. If your name is not now on our books, you know what we want you to do. J. M. Poorman is too well known to need an introduction from us. Go right up to him and slip a shining silver dollar in his hand. He'll know what to do with it.

Supreme Court Decisions.

The supreme court to-day decided the case of A. Bush appellant against August Giesy, county treasurer, respondent, in favor of Bush, and ordering Giesy to honor the bridge warrants, and allowing appellant costs in the case.

The case of the J. I. Case Threshing machine Co. plff. vs. W. H. Smith, def.; action in replevin, was decided in favor of Smith, the judgment of the lower court being affirmed.

WHY NOT A YACHT CLUB?

ED: JOURNAL.—With the colleges and other social centers, it would be advisable to organize and establish a social yacht and boating club. There is every facility necessary, a good wide river, moderate breezes prevailing and fine scenery; and there are enough young people in Salem to support such a club. Why not start such a healthful and pleasure giving enterprise?

ONE OF 'EM.

SALEM, June 7th.

A Chinaman was arrested to-day by Marshal Barndrick for selling liquor to Indians. The Chinaman will probably come clear at the examination before Commissioner Walton. The Indians who complain, are probably after fees.

A Prominent Educator.

Prof. Carlton, city-superintendent of schools of Helena, Montana, spent to-day in this city, visiting public schools. Prof. Carlton is on his way to San Francisco to attend the National Educational Association, which meets in that city in July. This gentleman is very deeply infatuated with the beauties and advantages of the Willamette valley, and says that it is a continual source of surprise to him. He has read of it, but he said the fine word paintings of this noble valley always struck him considerably as a circus poster might—as though drawn to catch the crowd—and with no backing. Thought that if a man were to get in, the first thing he would want to do, would be to get out. But he now says words have never yet began to express the combined glory and fruitfulness of this favored land. He apologized fully for his doubts, and promised to doubt no more.

Commencement.

The commencement exercises of the Willamette university begin with the College prayer meeting at 8 p. m., this evening. At 8 p. m. to-morrow evening, the college literary societies have their re-union.

Wary and Worn.

When the tired factory operator, the weary outdoor laborer, the overtasked bookkeeper or clerk seeks a medical recourse for expenditure of bodily force, where shall he find it? Could the recorded experience of thousands of workers be voiced, the verdict would be that Hostetter's Bitters renews falling strength, stimulates the faded mental powers to fresh activity, and relaxes undue nervous tension as nothing else does. Digestion, a regular habit of body, appetite and sleep are promoted by it, and it is an admirable auxiliary in the recovery of health by convalescents. A fastidious stomach is not offended by it, and to persons of both sexes in delicate health who occasionally feel the need of an efficient tonic, the whole range of the pharmacopoeia and the catalogue of proprietary medicines does not present a more useful, safer or more decisive one. It is also incomparable for fever and ague, rheumatism and kidney troubles.
