A MYSTERY UNRAVELED.

Thirty Thousand Dollars Lost Long Ago Traced to an Express Agent.

A Harrisburg special says: About two and a half years ago a package containing $30,000 belonging to the Mineral Iron and Coal Company disappeared, and until recently its loss was a mystery. The company had been in the habit of forwarding its money for the payment of its employees in the vicinity of Shamokin in a private safe, and it was supposed the $30,000 indicated had been sent to its destination in this way, but when the safe was opened on reaching Shamokin it contained nothing. The man entrusted with the placing of the money in the safe at Philadelphia, was suspected of having stolen it, but evidence could not be obtained of his guilt. The extravagant expenditure of money in the past few months by Philip Huber, employed by the Adams Express Company at Sunbury, aroused a suspicion that he might have appropriated the lost package and detectives were put on his track. It was learned that he has lived away beyond his means and yesterday he was requested to go to Philadelphia and accept a promotion from the Adams Express Company. While on his way to that city, Detective Linden and others searched his house and in a stove-hole above the mantel in the parlor $22,000 of the lost money was found. After the discovery Huber was arrested. It is thought that the package alleged to have been appropriated by Huber was placed in a safe containing three other packages for the payment of persons in different sections of the coal regions. These packages fell right into Huber's hands, and one of the packages containing $30,000 is supposed to have been taken by the express agent Huber, who has for many years resided in this city.—Chicago Tribune.

Resisting Cattle Taxes.

A recent dispatch from Vinita, Cherokee Nation, says: The trouble that has been pending in the Chickasaw Nation for the last month over the cattle tax seems to have reached a climax near Ardmore. A few days ago the Indian police seized about 2,000 head of cattle in the vicinity of that place for non-payment of taxes. Yesterday about 60 cowboys, armed with rifles, came down on the police and forced them to release the cattle. Gov. Guy was informed by telegraph of the trouble and, organizing a force of 200 men, started for Ardmore. He says he will kill the cowboys if they offer any resistance, and proposes to capture cattle if they are in the Territory. The cowboys started for Texas after securing the cattle. The law imposes a tax of $1 per head on all cattle owned by non-residents, and this has been resisted all along.

A Wedding Tragedy.

OMAHA, July 31.—A fatal row occurred this morning at 1 o'clock thirty miles southeast of Neligh. A young man named Schmidt, his sister, and two brothers named Vanderschuk, were returning from a wedding at Ewing, with several others. They got into a quarrel which ended in a terrible free fight. Schmidt was fatally cut across the abdomen, his sister was wounded in the arm, one of the Vanderschuks had a shoulder broken and was twice stabbed in the back, and the other was cut with a knife and also struck with a club on the head.

Florida Republican Convention.

OCALA, Fla., July 31.—The republican state convention to-day nominated V. S. Shipman of Lawtry for governor. The platform asks that a high duty be placed on oranges, pineapples, sugar and rice; favors no fence and local option laws; indorses farmers' alliances and trades unions, and denounces the state railroad commission.

Canning Season Closed.

PORT TOWNSEND, July 31.—To-day closes the legal season for canning on the Columbia river. It is too early to get at the facts of the pack. It is safe to say that it is not as large as last year. Some estimates give the difference at 50,000 cases.

CLYMER NOTES.

Alvin J. Hackett, formerly of Cove, Union county, Oregon, but now engaged to teach as principal of the school at Union, has been spending a few days at Clymer, visiting his aunt Mrs. Mary Clymer.

Henry Clymer who has been visiting his mother and sister during his short vacation, has started on his return trip to Wagner, Grant county, Oregon, where he will resume his duties as teacher of the school at that place, next Monday.

E. B. Patton, Henry Jones and T. A. Jones have each bought new self-binders, and this week reapers may be seen cutting grain in almost every field in the neighborhood. Next week the threshing machine will begin active operations.

Hon. Henry Warren, ex-county commissioner, has sent his son Charles to Portland, to superintend the purchase of a steam engine and threshing machine, which they expect to have ready for service in time for this season's threshing.

Some petty thief or thieves ransacked the premises of Hon. John A. Hunt, last Sunday night, and carried off a part of his wool, which he had ready for market. This neighborhood has unfortunately been a favorite place for some persons who have a propensity for appropriating the property, rightly belonging to others, to do petit stealing, and some measure ought to be taken to rid the community of such pests. It is no common thing for grain, bacon, chickens, sheep, wool, farm implements, and in fact all kinds of farm produce, to mysteriously change ownership, during the witching hours of night, and such a state of affairs is becoming too common to be entirely agreeable to all parties concerned. A good detective might do some effective work here which would prove a great pleasure to this and the surrounding country.

TELEGRAPHIC SPLINTS.

Allen W. Thurman, son of the old Roman, arrived in San Francisco yesterday. He is about to visit Arizona, where he has mining interests.

The east and west bound freight trains collided at Antelope station (near Sacramento) yesterday morning. Ten cars are badly wrecked and three engines disabled. No one was injured.

A lady in San Francisco lost $6,000 of diamonds. She had left them in charge of her daughter who for safe keeping buried them in ashes in the coal hod. The hired girl emptied them into the ash barrel and a ragpicker found them. The police recovered the treasure.

"What do you Florida people live on in the summer?" "Fish." "What in the winter?" "Yankees." A/ah! how many northerners draw their last breath in Florida, slain by that fell destroyer, consumption, who would have lived, had they used at first that marvelous specific for consumption, when not too far advanced, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—better than hypophosphites and cod liver oil, because more nutritive and tonic; also an invaluable liver corrective and blood purifier, cleansing away all scrofulous humors (which cause consumption), and all other impurities of the blood, curing glandular swellings, goitre or thick neck, old sores, and ulcers. ## A DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

An Insane Husband Chokes His Wife And Then Hangs Himself.

CHICAGO, July 31.—A horrible double tragedy was brought to light shortly after midnight this morning by the police, when the dead bodies of Henry Husch, a retired saloon keeper, and his wife were found in their apartments, 150 South Sangamon street. Both were well past middle age and were looked upon by their neighbors as a happy couple. They were last seen Saturday evening sitting on the stoop. Sunday morning the news boy left the paper and the milk man the day's supply of milk. Lying neglected at the back door of the flat these objects first attracted the attention of the neighbors.

Late last night one of the neighbors notified the police, and two officers were sent to investigate. They broke open the front bedroom door and a sickening sight met their view. In the alcove of the bedroom, lying in a pool of blood, was the dead body of Mrs. Husch clad in her night dress. Proceeding to the next room the officers perceived a rope tied over the top of the door frame. A vigorous push at the door and it burst open, and the officer was nearly knocked off his feet by the body, which was hanging so that the feet almost touched the floor. Near by, a sheet of newspaper, daubed with blood, and a butcher's knife suggested the story of the tragedy.

Husch had apparently first killed his wife and then wiped the knife, cut off a piece of rope exactly long enough to reach from the door knob on the inside over the door frame and to allow sufficient space for himself to hang. He had tied the rope, shut the door and proceeded to self-murder. No reason can be assigned for the tragedy. Everything around the room bespoke comfort, and there was no indication of any struggle prior to the fearful crime.

Subsequent examinations of the bodies show that Mrs. Husch was not stabbed, as first supposed, but the fact is plain that she was choked until death ensued. The knife was simply used by Husch to cut the rope into a suitable length, so he could hang himself. The theory of the police is that Husch in a fit of insanity choked his wife to death, and then strangled himself.

The Lone Fisherman.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The president, postmaster-general and Col. Lamont arrived in Washington this morning. There was a small crowd of travelers in the station, but the president passed through almost unrecognized. He and Col. Lamont were driven direct to the white house. They are both much unburned. Col. Lamont said: "The president went on board the Susquehanna Thursday night and did not leave her except to fish until last night at 11 o'clock. The stories about his visits to various places on the route are untrue. He did not take a meal off the yacht and there was no one in the party at any time except those who were with us when we left New York."

Fort au Prince Fires.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, July 30.—The steamship Villa Verde brings full particulars of the great incendiary fires at Port-au-Prince, Hayti.

The fire broke out in the Chamber of Deputies on the afternoon of July 5th. The balconies and outside passages were set on fire. From that point it burned down to Rue d'Arsonal, sweeping away three squares of buildings. The fire destroyed many private residences and many imposing buildings. The first news received reports the loss by the first fire at $3,500,000. It is known that the fire destroyed about 850 buildings. The loss amounts to $2,000,000.

The Pacific Pine Lumber Company, of San Francisco, has reduced its prices for lumber to an average of $2.50 per thousand feet, commencing to-day.
