Ebergetic measures are being adopted by the Mexican Land and Development Co., for the carrying out of the great enterprise to which we siluded in a recent issue in connection with the Grant of Land it has required in the state of Tamaulipas, Mexico. The hardest of the surveying is already done, and it is estimated that in a year, 4,800,000 acres can be surveyed, of which the Company will take 1,800,000 acres. The land has navigable rivers, and harbers, and coal, and dense forests of fine timber, and petroleum, and

We know what land is. We can see it. It is always where we can examine it. The most successful companies for some years have been organized on land. The whole world knows what a boom there was in Southern California last year, and the many fortunes that were made. None of these begin to compare with this enterprise in magnitude, nor in its possibilities. It comprises not alone millions of acres of land but the opening for many industries. municate from the spirit land with the survivor. A year was to be allowed for the phenomenon to take place, and in case it did not the conclusion was to be that the theory of spiritual intercourse was false. Antoria Woodhull and Tennie C. Claflin at the time of their spiritualistic society of philosophers of diverse views, to meet for discussion. That was the original of the Nineteenth Century club, of which Palmer was president and chief financial sustainer. The two men were anxious cept the bare land, and suppose that it does not bring more than the $1.25 per acre, you might figure what the profit will be on some million acres. So they made the agreement deto settle the question, while at least So they made the agreement described. Each memorized a sentence, and this was, if feasible, to be sent by the one who died to the one yetliving thro' some medium hundreds of miles away. Nobody else was to know the words. Andrews died last autumn, and Palmer, although without faith, waited for the promised message. It did not come. The Pantarch was frequently represented as speaking through various mediums here and there but he did not mention Palmer or the compact. Not long before Courtland Palfriends about the unkept promise of Stephen Pearl Andrews, and declared that if the expiration of a year did not bringthe proof to the contrary he should set down spiritualism as a sure delusion. As he died before the end of the year, and without, so far as known, disclosing the test club men to ascertain the truth as to spiritualism brings no satisfactory

Crops Without Rain.

Washington, Aug. 8,-A report drews was a spiritualist. It was he on Interior wheat lands in Oregon who did most of the writing for Vie- and Washington territory shows the existence of about 115,000,000 acres of land along the Cascade range known fame. Palmer was an unbelieving as the "Rainless Region" which, investigator. He and Andrews, who despite the absence of rain during was commonly called the Pantarch, several months in the year, is valutogether founded the Colloquium, a able for wheat raising, a clay subsoll holding the moisture of winter and early spring.

The Senate Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7 .- The senate tariff sub-committee are still at work early and late on the details of the tariff bill, with the determination, if possible, to make all necessary changes in the original draft before it is reported to the full committee, or the senate, expecting thereby to bring out a measure which the majority in the senate can stand by as a whole. It is, at the same time, giving brief, informal hearings to all who come. It began this morning final revision of the measure in detail, and hopes to have the work completed this week.

And Salem Next?

ALBANY, Aug. 7 .- The stockholders of the Brownsville woolen mills have decided to close the mills at mer's death he talked with several that place about the first of next year, owing to the insufficiency of water supply. Thomas Kay, manager of the mills, proposes to establish mills in Albany double the size of the Brownsville mills for a bonus of $15,000 which the citizens of this city will doubtless raise.

With Salem's advantageous locasentence to anybody, this attempt tion and fine water power why by two of the Nincteenth Century should not our moneyed men offer a bonus and secure a woolen mill? It can be done.

He claims the oldest right, and sets up that he has not water pany's Sacramento car works there caough for his stock, or even house purposes, owing to the water being taken out above him for irrigating purposes, thus leaving the river dry at his place.

Dramatic Incident.

Washington, Aug. 7. Gen. Sheridan's death caused at least one dramatic incident in the line of "breaking the news." It was long after midnight when the associated press telegram carrying the news was received at one of the local newspaper offices. A reporter was immediately dispatched to Col. Lamont's residence to apprise him of the intelligence. The colonel, who had retired, opened a second-story window and inquired what was wanted. When the reporter acquainted him with the facts a window of an adjoining house was thrown open and the newspaper man was asked to repeat his story. As he did so his interlocutor, who was evidently a woman, screamed, "Oh, Daniel, Gen. Sheridan is dead," and dropped to the floor in a dead faint. The reporter next day published an account of the affair, and referred to it incidentally as evidence of the interest. displayed by neighbors in the matter. The interest displayed by this particular family will be better understood when it is known now that Col. Lamont's next door neighbor is Gen. Daniel H. Rucker, father-in-law of Gen. Sheridan. Suberibe for the Capital Jour-NAL.
