

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 5, 1888.

PERSONALS.

Elder A. B. Waite came from Oakland on the California express. Dr. J. W. Watts, senator from Yamhill county, spent a few hours in town to-day.

Mrs. H. F. Gibson has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Earhart, in Portland.

Rev. M. C. Wire, former pastor of the M. E. church here, and now preaching elder, is in town.

Ben Critchlow is again on the streets to-day, delivering his papers as usual, after his accident.

Mr. Frank Campbell and three children, of Oregon City, are visiting her sister, Mrs. H. B. Holland.

R. B. Conover, formerly of the Talk, is in Ellensburg, W. T., working on the Capital, a weekly newspaper.

Secretary of State McBride and his private secretary, Ed. Giltner, are back from rusticiating in Columbia county.

Dr. W. B. Magers has bought the Dr. McCauley property at Stayton and will move there this week with his family.

Rev. J. S. McCain, re-appointed to the M. E. church, Grant's Pass, formerly editor of the Sentry (JOURNAL) is in town and called at this office. His wife is with him.

Scott A. Riggs from Salt Creek, Polk county, has bought the Dr. Magers place on 18th and Center streets and will move his family over next Tuesday. Our schools attract him.

Mrs. Belle W. Cooke and sons, Clyde and Allyn, returned yesterday from an extended trip to Yakima. Clinton Cooke will leave next week for Chicago to enter the medical college for a period of three years.

Rev. T. L. Jones, of Drain, so well known as the fellow evangelist of the late Rev. T. L. Sails, was in town to-day, on his way to commence a camp meeting at Luckiamute, on Sept. 20th, to last over two Sundays.

Mrs. Nellie Anthony Jones, who has been making a short visit to the family of her cousin, Claud Gatch, started yesterday for Butte, Montana, to join her husband, who has recently removed there from San Francisco.

Fine Angora Buck.

W. H. Byars received last week a fine yearling Angora buck direct from C. P. Bailey's selected and highly bred flock. Mr. Bailey lives at San Jose, Cal., and is well known as the largest owner of Angora goats in America, and the oldest breeder of this class of stock in the United States. The buck sent Mr. Byars is a son of Sultan 2d, is a fine specimen of its class, and Mr. Bailey assures him will shear from 8 to 10 pounds of mohair when fully matured. Mr. Byars received a doe from the same flock a short time ago that was a premium kid at the last mechanics' fair in San Francisco. It is understood that these animals will be on exhibition at the state fair, where they may be seen and admired by all those interested in that class of live stock.

Children and Matches.

"Just step in here for a moment," said a gentleman to a JOURNAL man who was passing a garden on a main street of town. There were evidences of paper and trash having been set on fire, fortunately among green grass and weeds or the barn and perhaps the house would have been burnt in the absence of the proprietor. The evidence was pretty clear that this was but the amusement or mischief of little boys. Near by, in a neighbor's stable young lads, hardly more than children, had been found smoking cigarettes. Parents cannot be too positive in forbidding children the use of matches, nor be too careful to keep them out of their way. Carelessness in this matter is almost criminal.

Restored to Citizenship.

John Barnard who, for killing an Indian in Lane county, has just served a term of eight years, less the deduction for meritorious conduct, has been restored to all his rights as a citizen, he having been well recommended, by various authorities. He is now acting as engineer at the penitentiary.

Resigned.

Sam Parker, who has been captain of the guard at the penitentiary about a year has resigned his position. It is not known who his successor will be.

G. A. R. DELEGATION.

From California to Columbus--A Very Military Train--A Merry Crowd Gets a Good Send Off.

As early as half past seven, yesterday morning, comrades were on the quiver at the depot for news about the grand army boys and lady friends who were to have passed through Salem on their way to the national encampment at Columbus, Ohio. But various causes of delay deferred their coming till 7:30 p. m. Then two long trains, aggregating sixteen well filled cars, and which it took four engines to pull through the Siskiyou, rolled into the depot with between three and four hundred excursionists. Many regrets were expressed by those on board that they could not see by daylight the big valley through which they were passing. And those who had hoped to see face to face the handsomely uniformed veterans and the California ladies were also disappointed. Among the many prominent soldiers were Commander T. H. Goodman and Col. Geo. W. Watts.

From Portland post the following committee went to Albany to meet and escort the delegation to the metropolis: Commander E. W. Allen, Colonel Fay, and Comrades Frame, McManus, Walling, Hines, Chamberlain, Rockenfield and others. At the Salem depot was a large crowd of our best people with fruit and flowers.

Representing Sedgwick post were the very efficient Commander Z. M. Parvin, Prof. McElroy, Capt. Babcock, Surgeon L. A. Port, Comrades Crawford, Rogers, Erb, Kirby, Sherman, Dr. H. J. Mithorn, Arbogast, Corwin, Rogers, Southwick, and others besides Recorder Strickler, and other old army men, and Mrs. Babcock, Mrs. Rockenfield, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Southwick and others of the Woman's Relief Corps. The band accompanying the delegation played some lively airs. The Southern California boys, always with an eye to business and in hopes perhaps of mending a busted boom, flung out some eighty page pamphlets describing San Diego county. When the boxes of fine plums and other fruits were taken aboard thanks were returned but the main inquiry was for "Oregon apples," for which our state is so noted, the world over. This should not be overlooked; visitors expect apples.

Amid some good singing by excellent male voices on board, cheers and waving of hats and handkerchiefs the gay company went on their way to Portland, arriving there at 10 p. m., and expecting to reach Columbus next Monday.

Miss Addie Scriber and Miss Leona Willis took advantage of the agreeable company to take this train on their way to Boston.

Teachers.

The following passed the examination for teachers:

First grade: W. T. Van Scoy, J. Kesson, Percy Willis and Grace Gillingham.

Second grade: E. H. Anderson, Scott Griffith, Ida M. Hartley, Arthur S. McDonald, Francis P. Padden, Grace Blackerby, Geo. M. Whipple, Mary Dawson, Minnie Frickey.

Third grade: L. May Jory, Agnes Aitken, Sallie Newton, Emma J. Kirby, Julia Lewis, Arthur Winches, Zulette Z. Painter, Chas. F. Lowrie.

Poor Argument.

The W. C. T. U. had a festival at Sink Creek school house in Brown county, O., on Saturday evening, the 25th, the purpose being to raise money to pay for some prohibition speeches. The festival was a grand success, but when at a late hour those in attendance prepared to start home sixteen of them found their harness cut, and several sets of harness utterly destroyed.—Ex.

Insured in the State Company.

No company is more prompt or liberal in settling than our home insurance company, the State. H. W. Cottle, the secretary, yesterday adjusted the loss in the fire at Mrs. Dan Clark's for $650, being the total amount of insurance less $50 for the organ and a little else that was saved. Mrs. Clarke will at once rebuild.

Assessor Patton and a clerical force yesterday commenced the work of revising and copying the assessment roll of 1888. They will finish in three weeks, more or less.

Here is the way they handle fruit in California. The Santa Rosa cannery is employing 450 hands, and packing 30,000 cans of peaches per day. The fruit dryers are also running a full force, drying peaches, apples and plums. Over 100 hands are employed at Crawford's dryer, and nearly as many at Hunt's. Both dryers are handling from fourteen to fifteen tons of peaches per day.—Pacific Farmer.

Valued Abroad.

Says a letter from a Minnesota attorney to the JOURNAL: "I have received a sample copy of your paper to-day. As I have many inquiries in my office about the Willamette valley I enclose a subscription for the WEEKLY JOURNAL." Occasion may here be taken to say that city and country readers of these columns should not object if the description, advantages and praises of this valley appear to them to be rather frequently inserted. Great good may be done by informing our many readers in other parts of the nation.

Plenty of Choice.

If the republican, democratic or prohibition party does not suit you, then here is another chance for you: The Union Labor convention met last Thursday at Oregon City with 15 delegates present, and nominated the following named presidential electors: E. P. Hammond, of Medford; J. F. Hendricks, of Harrisburg, and H. A. Wilson, of Columbia county.

W. C. T. U. at the Fair.

The ladies of the state W. C. T. U. desire to thank the state agricultural board for the favor of a literature booth in the state fair pavilion, as usual the last few years. They will distribute literature, there, and perhaps hold temperance meetings on some part of the grounds during the fair.

Woman's Relief.

"Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal," whether arising from physical, mental, or moral sources. The promises and consolations of the gospel furnish abundant remedies for all spiritual or mental woes, and the Creator has stored, in the kingdom of Nature, remedies for every physical ailment. For ages these remedies were allowed to lie dormant, through the ignorance of mankind as to their uses, and for ages more but little attention was given to remedies for the peculiar affliction of woman, who was looked upon and treated as a slave by lordly, and then brutal man, and her suffering regarded with beastly indifference. In later times, science and Christian philanthropy have come to her relief, devising remedies for her peculiar weaknesses, which have been combined in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a remedy that cures the pains, aches, nausea, displacement, wasting and debilitating afflictions to which she is constantly exposed. "Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.

W. C. T. U. COLUMN.

SAY NO.

Dare to say "No" when you are tempted to drink. Pause for a moment, my brave boy and think: Think of the wrecks on life's ocean tossed, for answering "Yes" without counting the cost. Think of the mother who bore you in pain. Think of the tears that will fall like rain. Think of the heart, and how cruel the blow. Think of her love, and at once answer "No." Think of the hopes that are drowned in the bowl. Think of the danger to body and soul. Think of sad lives once as pure as the snow. Look at them now, and at once answer "No." Think of a manhood with rum-tainted breath. Think of its end, and the terrible death. Think of the homes that now shrouded with woe. Might have been heaven, had the answer been "No." Think of lone graves both unwept and unknown. Hiding fond hopes that were fair as your own. Think of proud forms now forever laid low. That might still be here, had they learned to say "No." Think of the demon that lurks in the bowl. Driving to ruin both body and soul. Think of all this as life's journey you go, And when you're assailed by the tempter, say "No."

—Union Signal.

Clear of Bloodguiltiness.

An appeal selected from the words of one, who "being dead yet speaketh." Rev. Dr. Potter (Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Pennsylvania) has said: "It was a glorious consciousness which enabled St. Paul to say, 'I take you to record this day that I am pure from the blood of all men.' May this consciousness be ours in respect, at least, to the blood of drunkards! May not one drop of the blood of their ruined souls be found at last spotting our garments? Are we ministers of Christ? Are we servants and followers of Him who taught that it is more blessed to give than to receive? We can take a course which will embolden us to challenge the closest inspection of our influence as respects intemperance; which will enable us to enter without fear, on this ground at least, the presence of our Judge. May no false scruples, then, nor fear of man which bringeth a snare, nor sordid spirit of self-indulgence, non-renting and unreasoning prejudice, deter us from doing that over which we cannot fail to rejoice when we come to stand before the Son of Man!"

Mrs. A. F. Newman is indefatigable in her work at the national capital, to secure legislation against the Mormon crime. Mrs. Ada Bittenbender holds the fort there as usual for our legal department and Mrs. Mary H. Hunt works on for the Blair Educational Bill.

Eye, Ear and Deformities.

Dr. J. W. Culbertson, Principal Physician and Surgeon of the Central Surgical Infirmary, of Indianapolis, Indiana, will visit professionally, Salem, at the Chemekete Hotel Saturday to Monday, Sept. 8, 9, and 10. Portland Esmond House Sept. 1st to 6th. All afflicted with any disease of the Eye or Ear, Catarrh, Cross Eyes, Club foot, Spinal Curvature, Piles, Rupture or Chronic Diseases, etc., can consult him free of charge. Artificial eyes inserted. Remember the dates. 161-165.

Slipped in the Mud.

Is it not better to nip consumption, the greater scourge of humanity, in the bud, than to try to stay its progress on the brink of the grave. A few doses of California's most useful production, SANTI ABIE, the king of consumption, will relieve, and a thorough treatment will cure. Nasal Catarrh, too often the forerunner of consumption, can be cured by California CAT-R-CURE. These remedies are sold and fully warranted by D. W. Matthews & Co., 106 State street, Salem, at $1, or three for $2.50.

Is Consumption Incurable.

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, am now on my third bottle, and am able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made." Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption I would have died of lung troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in the best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at H. W. Cox's Drug Store.
