

PERSONALS.

Hon. J. T. Gregg went below this morning.

Ex-Gov. Chadwick, went to Portland this morning.

Mr. Cable is being entertained by Mrs. A. E. McCully.

Frank Buford, of Yaquina, is in town and will be for several days.

Messrs. Henry Bean, John Wright and Ed. Hughes, from Palestine, Ill., gave us a pleasant call.

Ex-policeman Barendrick, (that spelling is officially authorized and therefore correct), was in town from Marion, to-day.

B. D. Sanford of Grant's Pass is at the fair grounds arranging for the sale and delivery of several car loads of water melons.

W. J. Culver, county surveyor, gave us a call to-day. Probably he will open an office in the court house before long.

Mrs. Louis Kuhn returned yesterday, from her sad mission to California, where she went with the remains of her brother, Mr. Abe Mansfield.

John F. Bragg, of San Francisco, agent for a number of eminent lecturers, and his cousin, Miss Lansing, arrived in town from Albany, this morning.

Dr. Aug. C. Kinney, of Astoria, the genial and devoted prohi, returned from seeing his sister, in California, who has been sick. He went on to Oregon City on professional duties this morning but will return to Salem before going home.

A New Store.

Messrs. Wolff and Donavon, whose arrival from Kansas City was lately noticed in the JOURNAL, have rented the fine store in the First National Bank block, until now occupied by the Oregon Land company. They yesterday went to Portland for a fine stock of candies, confectioneries and fancy groceries. This is certainly a good stand for business being the first store of the kind to attract the attention of those who come in from Polk county, over the free bridge, or from North Salem, the fair grounds, Silverton and that end of the county. As new comers they should be accorded a fair share of patronage if found to do as well by their customers as others do.

Approaching Completion.

By Saturday night the rails of the Portland & Vancouver railway will be laid to the Columbia river. Work has been commenced on the extension which is to run out into the river, past the second sand spit, a distance of nearly 2000 feet. This is to be a very substantial structure, five piles in each tier. At the outer end a wharf will be run some distance down stream, where boats can land at any stage of water. On this will be built the depot, and from this point boats will be run to La-Camas, Washougl, Rooster Hook and other points up the Columbia.

A Japanese Student.

At the Willamette University may be seen diligently studying for a general English education and for the ministry a full blooded "Jap." His name is Okawa and he prefaces it with the American cognomen Henry. He is a native of Tokio, Japan, and came to California three years ago. In San Francisco he became a convert to Christianity and is now fitting himself to go and preach that religion to his countrymen. He is intelligent and studious, and is fast picking up our language.

A Good Farm.

J. P. Robertson, on his farm, has this season raised 1612 bushels of wheat; over 500 bushels of oats, and 250 bushels of potatoes—the latter at the rate of 400 bushels per acre. Yet he has been advertising his place, crop, fruit, hay, improvements and all, some seven miles from town and with a district school house adjoining, for $35 per acre. Somebody misses by not buying a good thing. It is still for sale.

Committee Meeting.

The chairman of the reference committee of Sedgwick Post No. 10 and W. R. C., of the same post, request all members of said committee, to be present at the meeting, Saturday evening, at 7:30 o'clock at Post Commander Parvin's residence.

To the Boys and Girls.

The band of hope will meet to reorganize, Saturday the 15th, at 3 o'clock. All are cordially invited to these meetings.

RIP VAN WINKLE WAKED UP.

He Wants a Woolen Mill in Salem.

ED. JOURNAL:—There is room for a good woolen mill in this valley. Will we encourage some enterprising company to build one, or will we sit on the fence, and see the procession go by?

Should a reasonable measure be proposed and submitted to the people, they would endorse it. The bridge did not possess the merit of a factory, yet the people endorsed the building of it. The taxes we pay are not so much to the people as getting the ready means to pay them. Twenty-five thousand dollars paid out, per month to the operatives, would give business new life. Why not make an effort in that direction, call a meeting and get an expression from the people? With great enterprises growing up all around us, we can't afford to stand still until the wants of this commonwealth are all supplied. We must act, or get left.

A RIP VAN WINKLE, Waked, after twenty years. SALEM, Or. Sept. 12 '88.

BROOKS BUDGET.

We are coming to the fair.

Farmers are very busy hauling their grain.

The trains both ways show a great deal of travel.

Frank Evans, the boy that had his arm broken, is doing well.

Farmers will start preparing for next season with a good heart.

Prof. Egan has returned from his stock ranch near Gaston, where he has been burning his slashing.

James Finney lost a fine young mare. Value, two hundred dollars. He was offered $400 last fall for this and another one.

G. F.

From Illinois.

Lafayette Hughes, of the real estate firm of Hughes & Bellinger, who has laid off from the temperance platform work on account of a needed rest, came in this week from Palestine, Illinois, with the advance guard of a large number of immigrants that he is inducing to come out here, having arranged for the securing of round trip tickets at reduced rates, good for six months. The most of them remain for the present in Portland. A large company will start from the east on the 20th. Politics are so warm there that until after election all that can be persuaded to remain and take part in the contest.

A Course of Lectures.

The university faculty have decided to follow up Mr. Cable's readings with lectures by first rate talent. Dr. Robt. Nourse, of Washington, D. C., will lecture on "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," and on "John and Jonathan," October 23, and 27th. He will also preach in the M. E. church on Sunday 29d. Further particulars shortly.

A RagulBeest Colt.

Thos. Howe is the proud possessor of a handsome and very promising three year old Albatross colt which he has brought from the Mosher stables at the fair grounds. His sire used to get over a mile of ground in 2:25, and young as the colt is he runs in 40.

Will Return.

Dr. Prosser, specialist, having been called to Gervais to perform an operation, the removal of a tumor, and to Portland on professional business, will return on Monday 17th inst., and can be found in the office, corner of Liberty and Chemebeta streets. 173-31.

Big Oxen.

Brenham & Strauss, of Clackamas county, have just brought to the state fair grounds, a couple of monster oxen. They stand higher than the head of a 5 ft 8 inch man, and are called "shanghai." If fat, they would weigh a ton apiece.

Apple Galore.

It looks strange to some of our eastern visitors who live where apples are scarce to see five or six two-horse wagons drive up to the fruit dryer and have the fruit shoveled in like coal into a bin. But that's the way we do it in Oregon.

Change of Base.

The Oregon Land Company are moving to-day into good quarters in the State Insurance building, parties having rented the office which they lately occupied, for a fancy grocery store.

REMEMBER the state fair will be here one week only.

AURORA NOTES.

Hops look fine and the yield will be big.

Dr. Will Giesy has returned from a week's vacation to Ilwaco.

Hurst & Son have overhauled their grist mill and put it in good trim for work.

Mrs. Giesy and Miss Gussie are expected home from their Denver, Colorado, trip, this week.

Rev. Mr. Day preached here last Sunday morning and evening and at Hubbard in the afternoon.

From the amount of beebes killed, the appetites of Aurorans and the hotel guests must be first class.

The JOURNAL is promised an interesting account of the wonderful medicinal springs of this place.

Mrs. Beck has sold her home place of 18 acres, reserving one house and two acres, for nearly $100 per acre.

Miss Hurst, the Miller's daughter, at times suffers considerably from heart trouble, making her very weak when the attacks come on.

Rev. J. W. Webb spent Sunday with his daughter and Mr. Giesy, and expressed himself well pleased with what he saw in a long ride in and about Aurora.

Gus Giesy has made two very advantageous purchases of land lately, near town. He has had about 17 acres slashed, and it looks as if it would make a good burn and yield a good crop of grass or grain which ever he may conclude to sow in the ashes.

FRITZ.

Chapel Exercises.

At the noon exercises of the university, Prof. M. V. Rork led the devotional exercises. At the close, Geo. W. Cable stepped upon the platform, and was introduced to the students by President Van Scoy.

The distinguished lecturer and reader is a small man, very unassuming and unobtrusive, with a clear and flexible voice without much volume, in an ordinary talk. Having been at the desk all morning, preparing an article for publication, he declared that all facetiousness had left him. He, therefore, gave only a very earnest and practical talk, on future citizenship. When he declared his regret that he could include only the boys' side of the house, and affirmed, "although I came from the other side, in the late war"—he is a Southern man—"I desire that women should exercise not only the rights but also the duties of suffrage," he was greeted with warm applause.

As he urged a courage like Joshua's, a holding oneself up to moral ideals in political as well as in every day life, he showed his high appreciation of morality, religion, and the Bible.

He was loudly cheered at the close. His readings will be listened to with increased interest, to-night.

Two Columns.

The Oregonian, that often passes people with a single paragraph or a slight mention, devotes a couple of columns to Geo. W. Cable and his readings in the tabernacle in Portland. He is described as no ordinary man. Besides giving his readings nearly every night he is writing for two magazines and a paper, and when at home, in Boston, he teaches a Sunday school class of 1,500 to 2,000 each Sunday. Wit, pathos, Irish and negro dialect, the dramatic and the intensely realistic are wonderfully blended in his readings says that paper. One night only. He appears in Salem to-night, in the opera house.

Five Grapes.

Mr. H. Leach, of the Leach nursery, of East Salem, laid on our table to-day, some fine specimens of Concord grapes. They were raised on his premises, and the sample left at the JOURNAL office, would pass muster in any grape show.

MARRIED.

MOORE-COCHRAN.—At the residence of the bride's parents in Looking Glass, Sunday, Sept. 9th, Miss Fanny Cochran to Wm. N. Moore, Rev. J. R. N. Bell, officiating.

The wedding was solemnized in the presence of the immediate relatives of the high contracting parties. The bride is one of Douglas county's most beautiful and worthy young ladies, and the groom is a sterling young man of fine business ability, is postmaster at Roseburg, and has a host of friends who wish the happy couple long life and prosperity.

BORN.

THOMPSON.—At Salem, Sept. 14, 1888, to the wife of Sherman Thompson, a daughter. Mother and child doing well.

LOCAL NOTES.

Cable to-night.

Read the new real estate ad., to-day.

Cable at the opera house, at 8 p. m., to-night.

Tickets for the readings to-night, are selling freely.

Waste paper and exchanges for sale at this office.

Painless dental operations at Dr. T. C. Smith's, 92 State street.

G. B. Barr, book-keeper at the penitentiary, has quite a sick little boy.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will have a refreshment booth at the fair.

The Willamette Assembly of the Knights of Labor meets to-night, in Good Templar's Hall.

The W. C. T. U. is busy, fitting up their literature booth in the pavilion, on the fair ground.

Geo. W. Cable is praised without stint by those who have heard him read from his own novels. Hear him to-night.

The funeral of Mrs. Brooks took place this afternoon, a large number of friends assembling to pay the last tribute of respect.

"Grandpa" Byars looks doubly patriarchal with his white locks, just now. While "Grandpa" Street Commissioner Thompson has quite a patriarchial air.

The managers of the ice cream festival to be held to-night in W. C. T. U. hall, are thankful for two handsome bouquets presented by Mr. Bayliss, the blacksmith.

D. D. Prettyman has charge of the floral department at the state fair this year. It is all cleaned up and ready for exhibits, which should all be in by Saturday evening.

That welcome guest to all railroad men, the pay car, that since the days of Ben Holliday has never failed to make its punctual rounds in the middle of each month, passed on its way south, this morning.

Special attention is called to the big ad. of Lunn & Brown's, Salem's fine store for dry goods, and ladies and men's furnishing goods, carpets, lace—in fact all staples and many specialties, a very large stock well selected.

There will be a series of half-hour lectures delivered Sunday evenings in the M. E. church by the pastor. These lectures are prepared with an eye to the youth, but all may receive some truth that may be helpful. Let the house be packed every Sunday evening.

The convict O'Brien, at the penitentiary, is undoubtedly insane. In his wanderings he "breaks me all up," says Superintendent Downing, as he pleads to be taken to his mother who, he thinks lives in town, as he wants to promise her never to keep bad company again. He says his father won't let him go home but his mother would.

A WORTHY ENTERPRISE.

On May 1st, last, about four months ago, Dr. Gilbert opened an office and sanitarium in the bank block, Salem, and advertised to treat chronic diseases on scientific principles. Since that time his practice has been steadily increasing—so much so that he was obliged to secure more room and increasing facilities, and now finding himself unable to attend to his numerous patients, he has entered into partnership with Dr. M. W. Wemp, of Detroit, Michigan, a physician and surgeon of large experience, thoroughly competent, and a specialist in disease of the eye, ear, throat and nasal cavities—who has come with his family to make his home in Salem. The new firm will occupy the commodious rooms in the bank block, for office and sanitarium, and will conduct their business under the name and style of The Oregon Medical and Surgical Institute. It is their intention to spare neither pains nor expense in their efforts to make this the most complete institution for the treatment of all forms of disease, especially chronic, in the northwest.

Medicated vapor baths, electro-magnetism, oxygen and massage, together with all modern and scientific appliances for the thorough cure of disease, will be used. Examinations will be free, and charges strictly moderate. Address Drs. Gilbert & Wemp, Bank block, or postoffice box 178, Salem, Oregon.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge Munday, Esq., County Atty., Clay Co., Tex., says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: "He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters."

This great remedy will ward off as well as cure all malarial diseases, and for all kidney, liver and stomach disorders stands unequalled. Price 50c. and $1. at Dr. H. W. Cox's.
