TEN ACRE FRUIT FARMS!

Fine Location!
Best Soil!!
Easy Terms!!!

THE OREGON LAND COMPANY

Has just purchased 87 acres, situated from three to four and one-half miles east of Salem, which they will immediately plat and survey and sell in Ten Acre Lots.

This land has been carefully selected with especial reference to its adaptability to fruit raising and desirability for residence purposes, and Each Lot will Front on a Good Road and Have a Good Front Fence.

The time for the residents of Salem to buy ten acres of choice land near the city very cheap will soon be past. The OREGON LAND COMPANY alone sold during August twenty-six ten acre fruit lots, and some of the same lots have already Been re-sold at a HANDSOME ADVANCE IN PRICE.

There are many persons in Salem who could buy one of these lots and pay for it without inconvenience. In fact any person receiving even a small salary can buy one of these lots by making a small cash payment, and paying the remainder in semi-annual installments, and by practicing a little economy for a short time be the owner of a property which can be made (when set to fruit) to produce

As Large an Income as is Obtained from 100 Acres of Grain Land.

The value of these lots is not dependent upon any prospective boom, but depends upon what they will actually produce now, and what that product will now bring in the market.

If You are Thinking of Securing a Home

Do not fail to see these lots. If you have money to invest do not fail to look at these lots before investing.

If You Want to Save a Part of Your Earnings

And at the same time make a first-class investment buy one of these lots on the installment plan.

A Hint to Pany People.
From their arrival on this planet to their usually early departure from it, people of weak constitutions and angular physiques pass a sort of half-existence. Like dormice they burrow in their home retreats, afraid of heat afraid of cold, constantly afraid that the shadow of the dread reaper will materialize and exact the forfeit which he demands of all, sooner or later. No finer medicinal assurance of comparative vigor for the feeble exists than that afforded by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Used with persistence—not with spurts and spasms—this genial and professionally commended tonic will do much toward infusing strength into a puny system, and rounding off scrawny angles in the human figure. Appetite, nerve tranquility and nightly repose are encouraged by it, and a malaria, rheumatic bilious tendency overcome. It re-establishes digestion and prevents kidney troubles.

ed that Thurman's letter of acceptance will be made public in a day or two.

The Senate Refuses to Re-Consider.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The senate refused to re-consider the passage of the Chinese bill. Ayes 20; nays, 21.

Denied Naturalization.
ST. LOUIS, Sept. 18.—Judge Barclay, of the St. Louis circuit court, to-day refused to grant naturalization papers to Argo Konnhame, a Chinaman. The Judge takes the ground that under the existing laws Chinese cannot become American citizens. Konnhame has resided here ten years, and says he will carry his case to Congress.

Dark Outlook.
JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 19.—New cases reported to-day, 130; deaths, 44; total cases to date 1,333; deaths, 173.

F. McCleary and Rev. Mr. Snowden, an Episcopal minister, died today.

The outlook here is dark and discouraging.
Relief is still coming liberally. It is estimated that over 12,000 people are being fed daily.

The demands are increasing.

Contract Marriages.
NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Two dozen young Swedish girls, first-class passengers on the steamship Keka, landed yesterday. They admitted that they were imported under contract by the agency in this city, to marry young men they have never seen only by photograph. They had not even courted by mail.
Twenty-three girls left for the Western States, where they will find husbands, the others remained here.
The authorities will inquire into the society's methods.

Noble Physicians.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—Dr.
Martin, naval physician of this port, and Dr. Goodfellow of Arizona, offered their services to the government to attend the sick in the yellow fever hospitals in Florida. They also informed the authorities in the stricken districts to the same effect.
Both gentlemen received an answer to-day in which the government thanks them for their offer, and in which it stated their offer will be brought to the attention of the the Florida authorities.

An answer was also received from Florida in which the authorities say they would be delighted to have them go there. The gentlemen will probably leave for the scene of the epidemic in a few days.

A Letter From Harrison.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat has published the following letter, written by Gen. Harrison in February last, in reply to some comments made on his position on the Chinese question:

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 29, '88.
Rev. J. B. Brant, St. Louis, Mo.— My Dear Sir: Your kind letter of February 28th has been received. I am very much obliged to you for the kind interest which you take in my behalf. You knew me well enough while here to know that I am no scheme for place, and I have not fallen from grace in that respect since you left here.

I did vote with the great body of the republicans in the senate against the Chinese restriction bill, as it was called. It seemed to me then to be in violation of our treaty with China, and it was a little hard for me to let go of the old idea that this was the free home of all comers.

I think there has been a very general change of sentiment on that subject since. We do not need to ask anybody to come to this country now, as we formerly did, and I think we have a right to preserve our own institutions by exercising a fair election as to who shall come here. I do not like that class of immigration that comes in gangs; that can be driven into pens and on shipboard, and hired, not by personal contract, but by bosses, and the Chinese immigration is very much of this sort. Very truly yours, BENJAMIN HARRISON.

A well-known restaurant keeper was noticed by a reporter all last week buying up all the frogs offered in the market. Knowing that he already had many hundreds of the reptiles in a large tank in his cellar, the reporter asked him why he was investing so extensively. "Oh," he replied, "frogs are plentiful and cheap now, but they will all disappear after the first rainstorm. So I am buying all I can, and will fatten them up before using them." It is strange if all the frogs disappear after a rainstorm. Probably they get scattered as the ponds become larger and new pools are formed, and it is more difficult for the foreign gentleman who catch them to find them. When country boys find that they can get from $1 to $1 50 per dozen for frogs there will be less of the "peep-peep" racket among ponds in the spring time.—Oregonian.

The Iowa Cider Decision.

Judge Ney, who decided at Independence that an Iowa farmer had no right under the prohibitory law to manufacture cider for his own family use, is a democrat, and is taking a democrat's way of creating prejudice against the prohibitory law by making a strained and obnoxious interpretation of it. No friend of prohibition intended that the law should have any such meaning, and the supreme court will quickly overrule such a decision.

Bachelor (whom Brown has brought home to dinner)—Does your wife always kiss you, Brown, when you return from the office?

Brown—Yes, always, never fails.

Bachelor (with a sigh)—Ah, it must be delightful to have a cosy home like this and a lovely wife to greet you with a kiss!

Brown (also with a sigh)—Yes, she kisses me to discover if I have been drinking anything.—Epoch.

Two old friends met. "Let me see," said one, "it must be two years since I saw you last, John.
You were going into a jewelry store to buy a diamond ring." "Yes, I remember." "And where are you going now?" "I'm going into a grocery store to buy a codfish."

Wife.—John you have a very annoying habit of saying, "What's that?" whenever you are spoken to.
Can't you break yourself of it?

Husband (reading)—Er—what's that?—Epoch.

The Skidmore fountain will shortly be turned over to the city authorities at Portland.
