The Fair Thing.

So far as it goes, the State Board of Immigration has done a just thing towards an indefatigable public officer who is acknowledged to have voluntarily done an immense amount of work far beyond the prescribed duties of his office in obtaining the passing of influential persons through the state, on tours of observation, the very best advertisement it could have.

We clip the following from the News: A communication was read from Hon. E. B. McElroy, giving a detailed account of his work in San Francisco during the National Educational Association. The letter went on to say that the writer had received from the following bodies the sums named.

Table with 2 columns: Body Name, Amount. Includes Portland Immigration Board ($100), Albany Board of Trade ($25), Salem Board of Trade ($25), Oregon Board of Trade ($15), Northern Pacific Railroad ($25).

He has made disbursements to the amount of $431, or an excess of $241 over the sum received by him. Of this deficit the Salem Board of Trade had reimbursed him to the extent of $50, leaving him still out of pocket $191. In this condition he desired to refer the matter to the board for their consideration.

On motion of Mr. Corbett the sum of $100 was ordered paid Mr. McElroy, and the Secretary was instructed to issue a warrant therefor. We have not received the slightest hint from Prof. McElroy or any of his friends about this—indeed we plead guilty to having forgotten till reading the above report in the News that we had ever known that he was out of pocket. And we ask, simply in a spirit of justice, what should be done about the other ninety odd dollars? He ought to be reimbursed every cent of it.

Credit Where Credit Due.

Henry Ward Beecher once dropped into a village church inconnu, and heard one of his own sermons very well read, but without any acknowledgement of its author. When Mr. B. told the preacher who he was, he received this cool reply: "Well, Mr. Beecher, I'm not ashamed to preach one of your sermons anywhere."

It is noteworthy, and the JOURNAL should not complain of the implied compliment, that the Pendleton Tribune is not ashamed to print one of our editorials, double headed at that, but without giving credit to this paper for the screed.

Southern Oregon Fruit Exhibit.

Hon. Robt. A. Miller, of Jacksonville, has been taking in the state fair. Before leaving for Portland, to-day, he told the JOURNAL reporter of a big time they are going to have at Ish's grove, between Medford and Jacksonville, on Saturday, 29th inst. Southern Oregon proposes to spread itself in a grand, eye-opening fruit display which is to astonish not only the outsiders but the natives themselves. And they can do it. They have the climate and soil.

Looking Round.

C. B. Irvine, a newspaper man of Kansas City, Mo., is in town. He has traveled from British Columbia to San Diego and has seen nothing better than the Willamette valley. He took home some of our wheat, a few weeks ago, and people who had been pretty well satisfied heretofore with their own grain began to think that they had never seen much wheat before.

Lost—Found.

Two years ago John Steiger lost a wheelbarrow. Yesterday he found it. He had suspected a man of borrowing it surreptitiously and yesterday's discovery verified his suspicions. The barrow had been newly painted but the old ear marks showed through paint, dirt and all.

Election.

At armory B, at 8 o'clock to-night, the 2nd regiment, O. N. G., will hold an election to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Lieut. Patterson. All commissioned officers are entitled to vote.

Pushing their Business.

Rain or shine, fair or no fair, the Oregon Land Company are out showing new corners bargains in real estate. They have built a stable and keep teams for that special purpose.

PERRYDALE POT-POURRI.

The burning of a bridge here caused a day's delay of narrow gauge trains, last Saturday.

School began last Monday, under the tuition of Mr. Bruce Messlek, formerly of the Salt Creek school.

Elder Doty preached Sunday morning and evening two interesting sermons at the Christian church.

Mr. George Townsend, late democratic candidate for county clerk, is visiting his father, Mr. Ira Townsend.

The voice of the reaper and the hum of the threshers are heard no longer in the land but long lines of grain-laden wagons presaging an abundance go to show that Oregon, this year, is the cornucopia of our great nation.

Messrs. J. Frizzell and Wright of this place and Mr. H. P. McNary of Salem returned Friday from a week's bout in the mountains, after elk and fish. They reported no elk, but plenty of fun, fish and hair-breadth escapes.

Quite an extensive field fire, originating doubtless from locomotives parked, burned over an extensive stubble field destroying a long line of fence between Messrs. Keyt and Howe but was quenched before reaching a pile of several thousand bushels of wheat of the latter gentleman's which it threatened.

Mrs. J. P. Frizzell has removed with her two daughters to Salem to enable them to attend the university. Mr. Frizzell will remain here for the present. Also Mr. Scott A. Riggs and family have taken up their permanent residence in Salem having purchased and moved into the Dr. Magers' property. These are some of the most substantial of our west side citizens.

Where is Perrydale and what is it? A town fifty miles south of Portland and twelve northwest of Salem on the west side narrow gauge railway, consisting of one general store, one blacksmith shop, two churches, one the Christian the other the Methodist, a livery and feed stable, and twelve or more nice dwellings, situated in one of the prettiest and most fertile spots in the celebrated Willamette valley.

Marion Eskew, farmer, Mehama.

Wants to Know About Oregon. The JOURNAL lately stated that if postage were sent by any of its readers who desire a copy of the large pamphlet "Resources of Oregon," published by order of the last legislature for free distribution, we would take the trouble to mail a copy, as a number are kept on hand in this office. Among others who have sent for them is a gentleman from Paso Robles, San Luis Obispo county, Southern California. Many are looking Oregonward and not a few have come to stay, buying homes. We may add that the postage on the pamphlet is four cents.

A Noted Minister. To-night, at the Christian church, Rev. W. K. Azbill, a missionary from Jamaica and agent of the Woman's Board of Missions, will speak. The notice is short; you are requested to notify your friends.

What at Corvallis still brings 75 cents, and at Philomath, a few miles nearer Yaquina, 77 has been given loader on the cars.

THE FAIR.

The day opened dubiously and before ten o'clock, the time set for the parade, the rain came down in torrents driving the people to the pavilion and machinery hall, and necessitating the postponement of the stock parade until to-morrow.

The attendance yesterday was a gratifying increase over that of Monday and Tuesday, and, notwithstanding the rain, it is still larger to-day. In the pavilion the displays of vegetables from Marion county by H. W. Savage, and from Polk county by Wm. Wright are well worthy of notice. A fine concert was given at 2.30 p.m. at Whale & Gallagher's organ stand.

The heavy rain spoiled the mees. The Beekeeper's State Association, a very important society was to have met last night but the farmers congress prevented. They will meet to-day, probably.

To-morrow the JOURNAL will publish all the awards of the judges in the various departments.

Mrs. Ella Hamilton exhibits a very handy domestic fruit dryer, the "Victor," that can be put on a common stove or over a coal oil lamp. The lady shows some creditable samples of its work. It can dry several bushels a day.

Z. T. Wright has at work what is said to be the very latest improved threshing machine, the "Advance." It certainly works very smoothly and shows additions not on ordinary machines. The testimonials as to its efficiency in the field this season are very strong.

C. P. Baily, of San Jose, Cal. bro't up some more elegant goat skins to-day. This time they had live goats in them. W. H. Byars' fine buck secured a blue ribbon.

FARMERS' CONGRESS.

A large meeting of farmers was held last night, to perfect this organization. Mr. Wilkins, of Lane, president, in chair; Joseph Gaston, secretary. After a report from John Minto and others, who had failed to prepare constitution and by-laws, and an address to the farmers of the state in favor of the organization, recommending that no steps be taken in that direction, a committee to do that work was appointed; John Shute, of Washington county, Chas. Miller, J. P. Robertson and John Osborn, of Marion, and J. Clem, of Linn. Prof. Rork made a rattling speech on many live topics and warmed up the farmers for not hanging solidly together for the legislation they need instead of being fooled by politicians of both parties. He gave solid chunks of practical advice, and tramped without ceremony, but smilingly, on some political corns, elicited much applause. Adjourned till tonight at 8 p.m.

Billy Wright is the right man to raise vegetables. He has a very creditable display at the pavilion, raised on his farm at Brown Island, near Salem. Look out for gamblers, for they look out for you. Fair more than half through. It is said that $700 was paid for the privilege to keep the saloon on the race part of the fair grounds. Among the sketches in the pavilion are several very excellent ones done by children. Notably "Go Fetch" by a little Miss between 11 and 12 years of age. The sketch is of a child throwing a stick into the water and telling her dog to go and fetch it out. Miss Maggie Butler of Monmouth is in charge of the lace and crochet department and has quite an exhibit in that line.

On Tuesday night, Mr. Matlock and wife were robbed of their watches at the Chomekete hotel. The thief entered their room, having unlocked their door with a skeleton key. Mr. Matlock had quite a sum of money under his head, which was not disturbed. People with valuables, will do well to deposit them in the bank or with the land-lord. A number of robberies have been committed since the fair began. There are all kinds of games to swindle the unsuspecting, and the man who thinks he can beat a swindler's game is a foolish fellow to begin with.

Prof. W. W. Bristow, of the state Agricultural College is in town. He would like to see the eighth scholarship to which Marion county is entitled, taken up. Who wants to obtain a general and industrial education, tuition free?

What at Corvallis still brings 75 cents, and at Philomath, a few miles nearer Yaquina, 77 has been given loader on the cars.

LOCAL NOTES.

Wilkins keeps a good restaurant at the fair. Try him.

Painless dental operations at Dr. T. C. Smith's, 92 State street.

Hear Rev. Azbill, of Indianapolis, to-night at the Christian church.

Try Kelly Bros'. Commercial streets for ice cream or full lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Giesy, and Mrs. Lou Greenwood, are up from Aurora.

Now is the time to buy real estate. Read the various ads of our real estate merchants. For a good, homelike meal go to the W. C. T. U., in the opera house block, Court street.

Half fare rates will be granted by the railroads to the mechanics' fair. It opens in Portland, Oct. 4th.

Farmers' congress over machinery hall to-night at 8 o'clock. All interested in farming should attend.

Prof. G. M. Miller, probi orator, is in town in the interest of the Pacific Express, remaining till Saturday.

On the fair grounds you can get a good meal for 25 cents at the Yamhill restaurant, next to the secretary's office.

License to wed was granted by County Clerk Babcock, yesterday, to A. L. Clark and Martha Cavanaugh.

Read Isaac Elder's ad about pure bred shorthorn stock, and go and see them at the fair. His home is at Shedd.

Dr. Nourse of Washington, D. C., will preach in the M. E. church next Sunday night. He is said to be a fine pulpit orator.

Watkins foreseeing the demand for meals has made extra provision at the Rocky Mountain restaurant, opposite the opera house.

Yesterday morning the California train ran into the rear of a freight train at Shedd's, damaging the engine and shaking things up generally.

Direct advices from McMinnville say there are no new cases of small pox, but people there are scared enough about what they already have.

Be sure and come to Donnelson's Bros. restaurant and get a good square meal for a quarter. We guarantee as good a meal as is to be had on the grounds.

One of the trains to the fair ground ran off the track this morning, owing to a switch being left open. No damage, only detention. Too great care can not be taken.

Mr. Erplang has a cosmorama which is really excellent. It consists of 90 views of battle fields and scenery and is well worth the price of admission. Near the pavilion.

We call attention of the farmers who desire to improve their stock, to the ad of R. W. Carey, of Macleay, in this county, concerning his thoroughbred cattle, sheep and swine.

R. H. Price, Salem pioneer hackman, will wait on passengers to or from the depot with promptness and politeness. Leave orders at the White Corner where his slate hangs out.

A. J. Baisey is at all times ready to attend orders to take intending passengers to the train or meet them there and take them to any part of the city. Also ready to attend all calls night and day.

Mr. Chas. E. Dixon has an exhibition the "Dixon Washer," the only dipping washboard in the United States. The ladies have universally decided in its favor. The machines are manufactured at Forest Grove, Or.

Thomas Bros., of Stayton, have a big contract on hand, to forward to the front all the railroad hands that the O. P. sent them. A day or two ago, no less than 200 came. But they were equal to the occasion and sent them forward.

For good goods in endless variety, for all housekeeping and many other purposes, at the lowest prices, and which can be paid on the easy installment plan, you should go to Smith's auction store, in the bank block, Commercial street. See his new ad this week, ye who are in to the fair.

Read the lecture ad about Dr. Nourse of Washington City who speaks in the opera house on Wednesday and Thursday of next week. If there is anything in strong testimonials from men of national repute who are above giving "tally," the Dr. is an orator, and full of wit and information most happily conveyed. Get your tickets early and seats in good locations. No charge for reserved seats. At J. B. Starr's or T. McF. Patton's book stores they can be secured.

CLYMER NOTES.

Rev. Silas Williams and daughters, of Albany Prairie, are visiting relatives and friends, at Clymer.

Miss Jennie Griffith will begin teaching the fall term of school at Oak Ridge, next Monday morning.

Lovers of the cause propose having a prohibition picnic in this vicinity sometime during the present campaign.

Mrs. Ed Adams and children, of Goldendale, W. T., are visiting Mrs. Adams' parents, Rev. and Mrs. John W. Short.

Little Mary, youngest daughter of T. B. Patton, late county assessor, was badly burned last Saturday by falling against the hot stove.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Patton, Messrs. L. C. Griffith, John and Charles Short, have gone to the mountains, for a few days' recreation.

Mr. Fischer is now in the midst of his hop-picking. The hops are in fine condition and it will be ten days or two weeks before the work is finished.

The Misses Grace and Matilda Hunt, are making preparations to attend the winter term of school, at the Academy of the Sacred Heart, in Salem.

John McCrow, the man who is entitled to the premium as the best manager of a threshing machine, had the misfortune to lose two valuable horses within the last three weeks.

Rev. David Lynch, formerly of McMinnville, will preach his farewell sermon at this place, next Sunday, previous to his departure for Goldendale, W. T., where his labors will be during the coming year.

Tommy Jones has invested some of his surplus in a nice new buggy, and now the rural maiden's heart flutters with joyful anticipation of a delightful ride, when she sees the fine outfit hitched at papa's front gate.

Mrs. Henry Warren is at Albany, where she has been called to assist in the nursing of her niece, Mrs. Edelman, of Gilliam county, who has an attack of typhoid fever. Mrs. Edelman went to Albany to be treated for cancer, and is under the care of Dr. McAllister.

Yesterday's Races.

There were several thousand visitors present at the fair yesterday. At the race track were near four thousand people, at least, a large number of them being ladies. The popular favorite in three best in five trotting race was Little Joe, who acquitted himself so creditably last year. Among pool buyers, however, Contractor took the lead and at one time sold at $68 to $6. There was an impression on the part of the judges that all was not square, and during the race they changed Joe's driver. The result of the race is appended.

There were five entries in the single dash 1/4 mile viz: Keepsake Bogus, Lady Duffy, John Hall and Daniel B. Daniel B 1st, Lady Duffy 2nd, Rogers 3rd, Keepsake 4th, and John Hall 5th.

The dash was won by Daniel B in 1:16.

In the trotting race three best in five Little Joe won the inside, Contractor 2nd, Condee 3rd. The first heat was won by Contractor, time, 2:26; Second heat won by Condee; time, 2:24.

Condee first, Little Joe 2nd, Contractor way back. This heat won by Little Joe 1st, Condee 2nd, Contractor 3rd. Time, 2:27.

Fourth heat won by Contractor; Condee 2nd, Little Joe 3rd. Time, 2:27; Jockey on Little Joe changed, Mr. Sawyer taking charge of him. Contractor 1st, Little Joe 2nd, Condee 3rd. Time, 2:28.

Hop House Burned.

The hop house of Ans. Cone, near Butteville, this county, was burned last Saturday. The origin of the fire is thought to have been from a match which one of the Chinese hop-pickers dropped in a hop box, and which ignited during the process of drying. The loss is several hundred dollars, with no insurance.

Two ladies asked the price of hack fare, and fluting it was 25 cents, asked: "What do you ask for carrying baggage?" "Nothing," said Ben. "Well, you may carry the baggage and we will walk," said the ladies.

"Get yourself full of your subject," said the professor. "Saturate yourself with it and then your essay will write itself." "Yes, I know, Professor," said Miss Cokspring, "but my essay is on 'Rum; the Cause of It.'"—Burlette.

PROBI PICNIC.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—Please announce to your many readers in different parts of the state, that the great state rally of prohibitionists at this place, Woodburn, is to take place on Saturday, October 6th with a basket picnic. All who want to have a social time, and to hear good speaking and music, should surely attend. SECRETARY.
