Presbytery - Council - Much News - General Notes.

The county clerk has issued license to commit matrimony to the following named parties:

- Benj. Estes and Elva Herren. A. McLaughlin and Mary E. Durrell. Wm. M. Renale and Mary E. Blanton. A. L. Hudson and Blanche Jakes.

Arrivals at the Pen.

Yesterday Sheriff A. N. Hamilton arrived in the city with two more men for the penitentiary. They were Henry McShane and Frank Decond, who will be with Superintendent Downing for respectively one and one-half and one years for stealing a gold watch, some towels, napkins and other household goods.

No Longer "Unknown."

The Maubury-Boyd company concluded their Salem engagement last night by the presentation of the great "Unknown." The audience was not as large as had been hoped for, still there was a very good attendance. This company appear to good advantage in this play. But after all there is not much in it. "Unknown" is an extravagant unreality with neither love nor probability in it—the villain escapes unhung, and the hero and heroine go unrewarded. The characters were strongly presented and well sustained and the company are justly termed good.

Dwight L. Moody.

The O. & C. railroad depot this morning had quite a clerical air, for nearly all the Presbyterian ministers of the state who are attending the Synod in this city were out in force to give D. L. Moody, the renowned revivalist, an informal reception. A minister who aided in Mr. Moody's great meeting at Newcastle-on-Tyne, England, also greeted him cordially.

Mr. Moody is on his way to Victoria, B. C., and will preach in Portland to-night. He will consider the possibility of stopping over at Salem, Albany and other towns on his way back to San Francisco. But the great difficulty is to find buildings large enough to accommodate the immense crowds that always gather when he is announced to preach. It was feared that he would be asleep when the train arrived, but that idea was soon dispelled by a very unclerical looking gentleman stepping from the Pullman, bare-headed, and inquiring for a newspaper. He was instantly recognized as Mr. Moody. He is short in stature, very fleshy, somewhat of the build of Judge Strahan. While well preserved, years and work are turning him pretty gray. He is very cheerful and sociable.

The Oregon Presbytery.

The Presbytery for Oregon organized last night at the Presbyterian church. A sermon was delivered by Rev. Thomas Boyd of Portland, Rev. Holt not having arrived.

The Ladies' Missionary Society held their meeting at the Christian church and had an interesting session.

A sermon will be preached this evening at the Presbyterian church. The standing committees of the association are as follows:

Ross, David King. 4. Minutes of General Assembly—E. J. Thompson and D. O. Gbomley, S. C. Ross. 5. Minutes of Synod—W. H. Lander and Wm. Clyde, E. F. Albert. 6. Narration and General Assembly (to be appointed)—Thomas Boyd and E. R. Murgatroyd, William Jamison. 7. Narrative for Synod (appointed at spring meeting)—Rev. Robt. McLenn and F. G. Strange, Elder W. B. Wray. 8. On Resolutions—Samuel Pettigrew, A. J. Brown, W. B. Wray. 9. Church Records—J. A. Hanna, E. A. McKinley, J. L. Melwath.

There are two cases of diphtheria in Milton, brought there from Wailala. Both cases are isolated and now under way of recovery.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

The big republican demonstration at Portland occurs on Friday evening.

At Albany they arrest men and fine them $5 for using profane language.

The semi-annual statement of Marion county shows her liabilities to be $8316,53, and assets $1227,04.

Dwight L. Moody, the great evangelist, was among the overland passengers this morning for Portland.

On Wednesday evening, Oct. 23, the W. C. T. U. will give an entertainment. Complete announcements will follow shortly.

Note that Slopers stage only takes the mail to and from Independence Tuesdays, Mondays and Saturdays, but it runs for passengers and light freight daily, except Sundays.

The Salem grange, feeling aggrieved at the action of the railroad in doubling freight rates when the river is closed, will ask the legislature to enact a law regulating, making rates uniform throughout the year.

It is said the governor will be asked to pardon Milton Eddy, the young man who was brought to the penitentiary Monday from Baker county. Those who claim to know declare he is innocent of stealing a horse as charged.

Superintendent Anglin and a force of men came down from the Capital mine yesterday having been forced to cease operations on account of heavy rain. The directors of the mine will decide in a day or two whether or not to endeavor to resume operations this winter.

In the window of Martin's jewelry store is to be seen one of the handsomest mineral specimens for a cabinet that we ever saw. It is a piece of quartz evidently impregnated with a number of minerals which give it almost all the colors of the rainbow. It came from the Capital gold mine and is the property of Wm. Anglin the Superintendent.

Quite an exciting runaway occurred on Commercial street yesterday evening. The butcher wagon of McCrow & Willard had been left standing unattended for a minute when they were scared by something (a bicycle on the sidewalk, perhaps), and started on a straight run. A little three year-old child of Mr. Hurley was in the wagon at the time, but fortunately being thrown out on the soft earth, was not injured.

The Woodburn Picnic.

MR. EDITOR:—If you were not at the prohibition picnic, last Saturday, you missed a good time and no mistake. The previous night's showers has laid the dust and cooled the air. Visitors from Albany and even further south, with others from Salem and different points south, headed by State Organizer Webb and Prof. G. M. Miller, who had spoken the previous day in Linn and Polk counties, were early on the ground. The south bound train brought C. W. Brown, state chairman of the prohibition party, and others from as far as Astoria. The people came from the surrounding towns, came in wagons and on horseback.

Music by the Silverton band was excellent, as usual. The Fisk & Brooks glee club from the Willamette University, sang prohibition campaign songs so well that they were invited to sing at the prohibition banquet in Salem, next Wednesday. The able and pointed speaking by Clark Braden, of Kansas, Prof Miller and others, was never exceeded by any one in the party in Oregon. It was one great applause. It is insisted that Salem must have a rally on the 29th inst., with Braden as orator. The well filled lunch baskets, buckets and boxes were spread at noon, and everybody made welcome. Good nature, argument, stirring music, and a splendid social time were the marked features of the day.

Jacob Erzterger, aged 19 years, who was serving twelve days in the Portland jail for vagrancy, has developed into a full fledged horse thief and was taken to Oregon City, his offense having been committed in Clackamas county—at Milwaukie.

On the Oregon Pacific front things are rushing at the scene of construction. Everything is rushing on the road; the contractors are employing large numbers of hands, paying them off regularly every month, and things indicate that the company intends to push the road to completion.

The company now has enough rails at the front and at Yaquina to lay the track to Brightonbush. Abe Hackleman, one of the directors of the road, thinks that the road will be completed to the latter point this season. This is about sixty miles east of Albany. The track is laid now about half that distance.

A few days ago at Albany a tramp, having the appearance of a lunatic, entered a barber shop, and after standing around a few minutes seized a razor and attempted to cut his throat. The bystanders interfered and put him out of the shop. He was then taken in charge by a policeman and led off to the city jail.

Dr. H. SMITH

—IS—

Now in possession of a new discovery in medicine, which is purely a local anesthetic, and acts almost instantaneously on the surrounding tissues of the teeth. It is in no way injurious or unsatisfactory to the taste. The manufacturers of it claim that its equal has never been known before, and by applying it to the sensitive or sore teeth, they can be cleaned and filled without pain. So all those that want all kinds of dental work done without pain, would better call on Dr. H. Smith. Teeth extracted for 50 cents.
