

OVER THE CAPITAL CITY.

Complete Recital of the Day's Deeds and Doings.

A Street Car Line Senator Dolph's Speech—Much News.

OREGON'S HONORED SENATOR.

The Opera House is Packed to Hear Hon. John N. Dolph.

The crowd began to gather at the opera house early in the evening, and by the time the worthy senator arrived at the building, standing room was at a premium.

Mr. Dolph delivered one of his characteristic addresses, filled with good logic and rich oratory.

It is to be regretted that we cannot speak more at length of this eloquent effort.

Mr. Dolph has recently made speeches at different points in Southern Oregon, and is greatly encouraged at the outlook.

Among the River Boats.

The Hoag and Bentley are at Corvallis ready to come down and the Three Sisters is at Portland ready to come up.

Gone to Warm Springs.

Dr. Minthorn has been appointed by the superintendent of Indian affairs to go to Warm Springs reservation and take charge of the allotment of lands to the Indians.

"Is Medicine in a Fog."

The Albany Democrat says the recent fight in Lebanon between Drs. C. and F. over the nature of a certain case of illness, is reported as having been very exciting.

And Still They Come.

Yesterday there arrived in the city from Cloud county, Kansas, a number of people who come here to locate.

Being Rejected.

This morning Messrs. Monroe and Bell assumed charge of the Chemekete hotel and at once commenced the work of overhauling and re-arranging.

Agitation at Chemawa.

From a gentleman who came up from Chemawa this morning, it is learned that there is much agitation pervading the atmosphere of the Indian school.

Do you feel dragging sensations in the back and loins, are you troubled with wakefulness, faintness at the pit of the stomach?

THE STREET RAILWAY.

A Movement on Foot to Organize a Street Car Company.

Yesterday afternoon at the Capital National Bank there was a conference of a number of Salem's leading business men and capitalists relative to the formation of a company to build, equip and run a street railway.

Squire Farrar, C. B. Moores and J. J. Shaw were appointed committee on incorporation, with instructions to prepare such articles of incorporation for a street railway as may come within the laws of the state.

It was decided to call the incorporation the "Salem Street Railway Company." A committee was appointed to learn as near as possible the cost of the proposed line.

The line as projected will extend from Commercial street up either State or Court to the railroad.

The preliminary examination of Vernon Osborn, the boy who took $70 from the North Salem milkman's house, will be concluded at one o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

A large share of the "Memoirs of Little Phil" goes to his family and certainly if for no other reason all patriots will buy the book to keep the widow of one who has done so much for the country.

BY OUR CLYMER CLIMBER.

Hon. T. B. Walt of Salem visited Clymer friends during the past week. Miss Airie Cornelius of Turner visited friends at Clymer last Friday.

E. A. Downing and wife of Salem are spending a week with Mrs. Downing's parents, W. T. Patton and wife.

A social party is to be given at the residence of B. Farward next Thursday evening, in honor of the Misses Powers and Adamson.

W. T. Patton has brought his cattle from the mountain range, to his farm, where they will be kept during the winter months.

OCCIDENTAL JOTTINGS.

News And Notes of a General Interest to the Westerner.

An exchange says many people are emigrating from the Big Bend country, W. T., on account of sickness there, caused by excessively dry weather.

The Puyallup Valley railway commenced locating their road yesterday, beginning at Sumner. This looks like business, as by their work deeds to the right of way are obtained.

The Kittitas Irrigation Canal company has been organized to construct a canal fifteen miles long at a cost of $1500, to be completed by the first of June. This will bring a large rich tract under cultivation.

A plat has been filed in the office of the Lane county clerk of a new town site on the Siuslaw river. The new town is named South Bend. If they keep on increasing little villages will soon be pretty numerous in that part of the country.

A strange disease is raging in Nevada among cattle. It is estimated that two hundred have gone blind within the last month. There is also a disease among the horses which affects them similarly as did the epizootic. Only a few have died as yet.

The Portland board of trade is now having a bill prepared to present at the coming session of the legislature which is intended to put the matter of Columbia river pilotage and towage to rights. Whether they will succeed or not remains to be seen.

Smallpox is said to prevail in Portland and East Portland. In the latter city a street is barricaded for several blocks on account of the disease. The papers, though, keep mum. If it were in McMinnville or some other city they would be doing their level best to spread the news. That's Portland.

In the McAllister damage case at Albany in the circuit court Judge Boise decided that the contractor on the sewer, and not the city, was the party against whom the action should have been brought.

Had the doctor placed his damages at a reasonable amount many would have been in favor of allowing them; but on account of the excessive amount asked the decision met with favor. The case will probably be appealed to the supreme court.
