THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF OREGON, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, SALEM, NOVEMBER 7, 1888.

This year now drawing to a close has been one of unexampled peace, plenty and prosperity within the borders of the state. It is proper that public acknowledgment should be made to the Great Ruler of the Universe for His innumerable blessings.

By the governor: GEO. W. McBRIDE, Secretary of State.

REJOICE with your democratic neighbor on the glorious results of the election in nation, state and county.

SEVERAL aspirants for Col. Lee's place at the Indian school have withdrawn from the contest. They are not favorable to short terms.

It should not be forgotten that Salem holds a city election soon. Let the candidates come to the front. Star chamber candidates are not generally popular.

A NEW Oregon industry is beginning to supply a long felt want. The Oswego Iron Works are turning out fifteen tons of iron per day, and soon can double that capacity.

THE San Francisco Examiner company are anxious to put a branch paper in Portland, but they want the democrats of Oregon to come down with $150,000, to make it a success.

THE street railway is a sure thing. Now let the people try something else. If Salem will put up a woolen mill, secure the Astoria branch and narrow gauge R. R., wake up, it will be a big town yet!

QUITE a number of republicans have increased their bank account since the results of the presidential election has been announced. Strange as it may appear some democrats have decreased theirs in like proportion.

A NATIONAL campaign always brings out the men who want to bet. Merchants and professional men are then willing to wager money, although they would not do so at any other time. The American, some one has said, is naturally a betting man, and stories about the men who bet continually on any and every occasion are always interesting.

WHAT DID THE WORK.

In New York, where the battle was fought and won, party lines on the presidential issue were closely drawn, but the protection war cry made many democratic recruits, and in almost every other Northern state too, where large manufacturing agricultural interests prevail the tide seemed to have set in favor of the republican candidates.

Another factor which contributed materially to the republican victory was the division in the New York democracy between the friends of President Cleveland and Governor Hill. For over a year has this coolness existed between them. The governor, however, had such elements of strength that it was deemed impolitic to trample on him outright, and he was reluctantly accorded a re-nomination.

A FEW YEARS AGO.

WHEN the country was shocked at the atrocity of a band of villainous savages, when it mourned the fate of Custer and his heroes, it would hardly have been believed that one day the same treacherous assassins would be accorded a dignified and indulgent audience with the government against which they raised their murderous arms.

JOHN W. MACKAY gave a dinner in New York a little over a year ago to eight friends. Of that party, Roscoe Conkling sleeps in his quiet grave at Utica, Larry Jerome rests in the family vault in Connecticut, and the once great magnate of the Pacific coast, Charles Crocker lies buried near San Francisco.—Chicago Tribune.

How Long to Sleep.

A prolonged and severe exertion, whether of brain or muscle, requires a correspondingly lengthy or deep repose. Sleep is the state in which the bodily fires are dampened down and the machinery has an opportunity for cooling. The bow is unstrung to recover its elasticity during the recurring periods of slumber. The great point is to secure what Bichat characterized as general sleep. The whole body should be rested, so far as any avoidable demands on its energy are concerned.

Considerable excitement was created this morning by the announcement that the wife of a well known Salem business man had eloped with her husband's clerk, but investigations revealed the fact she had only gone hurriedly to Squire Farrar & Co's to catch some of those splendid bargains in groceries, etc.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sult, druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of rheumatism of 10 years' standing."

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 100 Wall, N.Y.

"Her Age Cannot Wither Her."

Remarked an old gentleman, as he gazed fondly upon the comely little woman by his side; "but frankly," he continued, "at one time I thought cosmetics would." The silly little woman, in order to appear youthful, plastered her face with different varieties of whitewash, yclep t, "blams," "creams," "loftion," &c. "Yes," interrupted the little woman, "I did, until my skin became like parchment, and so simply and coarse." "Well," said the listener, "what do you use now?" "Use," was the reply, "nothing but common sense, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Common sense told me if my blood was pure, liver regulated, appetite good, that the outward woman would take on the hue of health. The 'Discovery' did all these things, and actually rejuvenated me."

Its thousands of cures are the best advertisement for Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Delicate Mechanism Disordered and Richtiged.

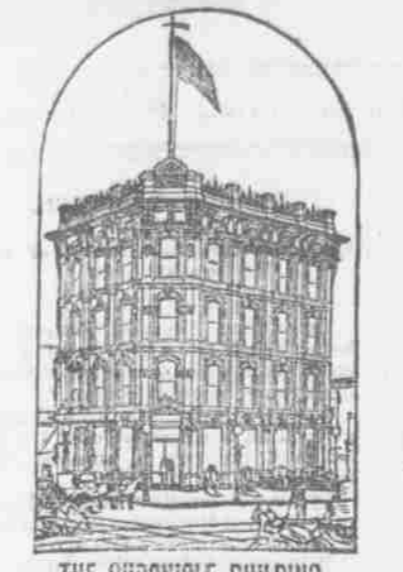

The most delicate and intricate piece of mechanism in the human structure is the nerves. As the telegraphic wires transmit the electric force, so do these sensation, the focal point being the brain, where sensation centres. Mental anxiety weakens this mechanism, sudden shocks paralyze it, but dyspepsia is its most obstinate foe. This foe is utterly defeated by the irrefragable tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and the cessation of disorder in the stomach is reflected in brain and nerves by restored tranquility and tranquillity of the nerves implies, in this instance, renewed vigor. A distinguished medical authority says, "The victim of nervous debility who finds chloral at night and bromides by day necessities, should know that a cure must be sought among agencies which strengthen the nerves, and assuredly Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has proved to be the best of these. Malaria complaints, constipation, biliousness, inactivity of the kidneys and rheumatism often favor the nervous troubles by sympathy, and all are eradicated by the Bitters."
